

CANADA SHORT OF TEACHERS

OTTAWA, Ontario, Nov. 4.—The Inter-Provincial Conference on Technical Education, in session here, has adopted a resolution urging immediate action by the Federal and Provincial authorities with the object of establishing and maintaining a central institution for the training of special teachers for vocational education. The supply of such teachers in Canada is quite inadequate to meet the demand.

Arrived in Washington yesterday, and is the guest of the Misses Fatten on Massachusetts avenue. The countess is making a visit to this country, the first she has made in many years. She has been in Baltimore for a week, the guest of her uncle and aunt, the former Attorney General, and Mrs. Charles J. Bonaparte. Mrs. Bonaparte has been seriously ill and is still confined to his room. The countess is a sister of Jerome N. Bonaparte.

MRS. WALSH GIVES BOX PARTY.
Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh entertained a box party at Fox's Theater yesterday afternoon for the recital given by Mme. Galli-Curci. Her guests were Mrs. John Allan Dougherty, Mrs. Sumner Welles and Mrs. Henry Rousseau. Mrs. Edward Beale McLean and Mrs. Warren Delano Robbins were in a box across the house. Others in the capacity audience were Mrs. Marshall Field, Congressman and Mrs. Frederick C. Hicks, Mrs. Beeve Lewis, Mrs. George Dunlop, Mrs. Randall Wagner, Mrs. W. W. Galbraith, Mrs. William A. White and her daughter, Miss Ruth Thurston, Mrs. W. F. Tompkins and Mrs. J. H. Cranford.

Gen. and Mrs. George Barnett are spending a few days in Washington superintending the alterations which are being made on their new house 2132 Bancroft place. They will probably close Waukefield Manor, their place in the country, and move into their town house some time during this month.

Congressman and Mrs. Frederick C. Hicks have returned to Washington for the season and are established at the home of Col. and Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, which they have leased.

Comdr. John Parker Jackson, U. S. N., has been appointed naval attaché of the American embassy at Rio de Janeiro and will leave shortly for his new post accompanied by Mrs. Jackson, who was Miss Dorcas Surth, Commander Jackson is the son of Mrs. John P. Jackson, of Washington, and a brother of Mme. Ekengren, wife of the Swedish Minister.

Mrs. Harold Walker returned to Washington yesterday from New York and has joined Mr. Walker at Studio House, Sheridan circle, which they have leased for the season. Her sister, Baroness von Schoen, who was recently her guest, had her visit to Washington cut short by the sudden and serious illness of her husband, Baron von Schoen, who was attached to the German embassy in Mexico, and hastened back to Mexico City. The Baron is now greatly improved. He has been granted leave of absence and he and the Baroness will sail on November 20 for Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, who have been at their place at Tuxedo, N. Y., through the autumn, are in Washington for a brief visit and are staying at the Shoreham. They will go to New York on Saturday and will be at their apartment there until December when they expect to open their Washington house for two or three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Oxnard, who have come to Washington for the season and are at 1505 K street, will present their daughter, Miss Adeline M. Oxnard, to society at a tea on December 4. This will be followed by a dinner dance and Mr. and Mrs. Oxnard will also give a dance at Raucher's on December 28 for their daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Eberle entertained at dinner last evening at their home in Sixteenth street in compliment to Miss Elfreda Martin, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Allene Tupper Wilkes, who is becoming very well known as a writer. Mrs. Wilkes is the daughter of the Rev. Dr. Henry Allen Tupper. Dr. Tupper was a guest at the dinner and the company also included Major T. Hara, of the Japanese embassy.

MISS ATLEE WEDS.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Paul's Catholic Church on Monday at noon when Miss Margaret Louise AtLee, daughter of Mrs. Mary Crosson AtLee and the late Goodwin York AtLee, became the bride of Raymond Gwynn Young, son of Livingston I. Young, of this city, a descendant of Notley Young, one of the pioneer landed proprietors of the District of Columbia. The Rev. Father Carroll, of St. Paul's Church performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her mother, was attended by her niece, Miss Elizabeth AtLee, of Baltimore, as maid of honor. The bridegroom's niece, Miss Eleanor Livingston Bowling, of Baltimore, was flower girl.

The ushers were Capt. Horace T. Jones and Lawrence Gage. The best man was the bridegroom's brother-in-law, Herbert Lewis Snodgrass. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, 5028 Forty-first street, where Mr. and Mrs. Young will reside upon their return from their honeymoon. Mr. Young served for four years with the Canadian army and was a member of the Princess Pat regiment and was cited for bravery several times.

Under the auspices of a committee, of which Mrs. Henry Villard, of New York, is chairman, Mrs. Fethick-Lawrence, the distinguished British suffrage leader, will address a public mass meeting to be held at the Belasco Theater on Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. She will outline a program for world disarmament and will discuss conditions in the various countries swept by the world war.

Mrs. Villard is chairman of the Women's Peace Society. The other members of the committee in charge of arrangements are Mrs. W. Thompson Burch, Mrs. Laura Williams, Mrs. Charles Edward Russell, Mrs. Herman Gasch and Miss Edith Goode.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Busby have given up their home and taken an apartment at the Chaumont for the season.

Miss Mary A. Cryder has returned to her home on O street, after having spent the summer in Europe, visiting England and France.

Mrs. E. R. Walmesley and Miss Elizabeth Walmesley will leave Washington the middle of this month for Lake Placid, N. Y., to spend the rest of the winter. Miss Gratia Walmesley will remain in their apartment at Wardman Park Hotel.

Announcement has been made of the marriage yesterday in Green Spring Valley, Md., of Miss Sophia Norris Pitts, of Baltimore, to William LeGendre, of New York. The ceremony took place in the Garrison Forest Church. The bride is a daughter of Charles H. Pitts, of Baltimore. After a trip to Virginia, Mr. LeGendre and his bride will go to his country place in Mount Kisco, N. Y., and then come to 121 East Thirty-fifth street for the winter.

Mr. LeGendre is a son of Gen. Charles W. LeGendre, who served on General Grant's staff during the civil war and participated in the Battle of the Wilderness. General LeGendre afterward became an advisor of the late emperor of Japan in the creation of modern Japan, and as such held the position of high commissioner of Japan. Mr. LeGendre was for some time connected with Brown Brothers & Co., in New York. He has been a frequent visitor in Washington and has many friends here.

VIRGINIA WARD A BRIDE.
The marriage of Mrs. Virginia C. Ward to George Albert Pralle took place yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate family, at 4 o'clock, in the parsonage of Calvary Baptist Church, by the Rev. A. F. Anderson.

Mrs. Ernest J. Kendrick was her sister's matron of honor, and Miss Virginia R. Ward was bridesmaid. Ernest J. Kendrick was best man. The bride wore a smart traveling suit of brown duvetyne with hat of matching color and large bouquet of white roses and orchids. The bride's attendants carried sheaves of yellow chrysanthemums. Mr. and Mrs. Pralle left immediately for a wedding trip. On their return they will be at home at 14 Grafton street, Chevy Chase, Md.

Preparations are being completed for the ball which the American Women's Legion is to give at the Marine Barracks, on Armistice night, Thursday, November 11, at 9 o'clock, and which should be one of the most interesting events of the early season.

Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, jr., wife of the Senator from New York, president of the legion, will receive the guests. Mrs. Whitcomb, third vice president of the legion, is chairman of the ball committee.

The Eclect Klub will hold its weekly dance this Friday night in the ballroom of 2400 Sixteenth street. Dancing will begin at 8:45 o'clock.

Mrs. Harry T. Guss, regent of the Continental Dames Chapter of the D. A. R., and the members of the chapter, gave a Halloween party on Monday evening at the Hostess House at Walter Reed Hospital for 100 wounded boys.

There was a program beginning at 8 o'clock, when Mrs. Edmund K. Fox, vice regent, gave a few words of greeting. Those taking part on the program were Miss Camille Little, who danced; Miss Mary Bowers in a solo, accompanying herself on the ukulele; Roger Whitworth sang a solo, accompanied by Miss Palmer; Trimbale Swatelle in a horn pipe dance; little Miss Elinor Foster, who danced; and Miss Mabel Smith, a pianist.

The most amusing part of the evening was a mock wedding in which the men were dressed as girls. The invited guests present were Col. James A. Glendon, General Read and Miss Read, Miss Catherine Shoemaker, Mrs. Frank Ghiselli, Mrs. Frederick K. Sparrow, Miss Martha McGee, Mrs. James W. Deacy, Miss Virginia Morgan, Miss Helen Stokes, Miss Helena Lake, Miss Taylor, Miss Helen Drake, Mrs. Katherine Knollies, Helen Duher, and Miss Ruby Nevins.

The marriage of Mrs. Barbara Jones and Francis Hall, both of Washington, took place Saturday afternoon in Philadelphia. The ceremony was performed in St. Patrick's rectory at 2 o'clock by Monsignor Keenan. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Joseph Custer, and Mrs. Ella Marcus Bull was matron of honor. Among those present were Mr. Chap-pell, Mrs. Mulligan, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Carolyn Rousseau.

The bride is of a well-known West Virginia family and Mr. Hall is of colonial stock descended from the Morris and Cadwalader families. He is librarian in the War Department under Surgeon General Ireland. After a trip North, Mr. Hall and his bride will be at home 1002 B street southwest.
