present trip to supplement the larder of the household Victoria by fish of his own taking. CUMMINS JOINS PARTY. The party, augmented by Senator Albert B. Cummins of Iowa, who joined the party at Ormond Beach, spent the night at anchor in a quiet cove above Daytona, far from towns or habitations. Senator Harding expects to be able to play eighteen holes of golf over the course here this afternoon and probably will continue his trip before nightfall. His three days of rest and outdoor life already have worked an improvement in the appearance of the President-elect. Clad in flannel trousers and a white sweater he looked both happy and hearty today. It is understood that Senator Harding already has begun to block out in his own mind certain portions of his inaugural address.

FLETCHER ADVISING HIM. Senator Fall and Henry P. Fletcher, former ambassador to Mexico, have been inseparable companions of the trip and are known to be in close accord on many phases of the Mexican situation. It is believed that they have outlined the views thoroughly to the President-elect and that his first address as President will make clear the policy of his Administration toward the Obregon government. Reports which started in St. Augustine, where Mr. Fletcher joined the Victoria, that the former American representative in Chile and Mexico might be a compromise candidate for Secretary of State, were scouted by members of the party.

"HALF A HUSBAND" WON'T DO; WIFE ASKS DIVORCE. KENOSHA, Wis., Jan. 24.—"Half a husband is worse than no husband at all," declared Mrs. Margaret Livingstone as she filed suit for divorce against her husband, David Livingstone, who was found living with his wife's sister, Mrs. Thyra Lund, in Davenport, Ia. Ten days ago an agreement was patched up, whereby Livingstone was to return to his wife. He insisted that Mrs. Lund must live with them.

Press Club Feasts on Harding-Coolidge Pies; Soup a la Mrs. Daniels

How would you like to have a "progressive" dinner, with soup at the home of Mrs. Josephus Daniels, chicken pie at Mrs. Warren G. Harding's table, and blueberry pie made by Mrs. Grace Coolidge, wife of the Vice President-elect?

Of course you can't do this, but if you want to try it on your own kitchen range here are the recipes for these edibles, as printed in "The Washington Date-Line," the new publication of the National Press Club, on occasion of its first feature dinner yesterday afternoon: MRS. DANIELS' CREAM OF TOMATO SOUP.

Prepared by directions and recipe of Mrs. Addie Worth Bagley Daniels, one of the star cooks and housewives of North Carolina. Mrs. Daniels is the wife of the w. k. Raleigh newspaper man, who is temporarily employed in the Navy Department. Sending in her recipe, Mrs. Daniels says: "As a Democrat, I wish to resent the suggestion that we are in the soup." Here's the soup recipe, nevertheless:

- 1/2 can tomatoes.
- 2 teaspoonful sugar.
- 1/4 teaspoonful soda.
- 1 quart milk.
- 1 slice onion.
- 4 table-spoonfuls flour.
- 1 teaspoonful salt.
- 1/2 teaspoonful pepper.
- 1-3 cup butter.

Scald milk with onion. Remove onion and thicken milk with flour. Dilute with cold water until thin enough to pour, being careful that the mixture is free from lumps. Cook twenty minutes, stirring constantly at first. Cook tomatoes with the sugar fifteen minutes, add soda and rub through a sieve. Combine mixtures and add butter, salt and pepper. Serve with whipped cream on top.

MRS. HARDING'S CHICKEN PIE. The pie is made according to a message from Mrs. Florence King Harding, of 380 Mount Vernon avenue, Marion, Ohio, who expects to move to Washington in a few weeks. Mrs. Harding and her husband, whose first name is Warren, will live at 1600 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, with in a stone's throw or so of the club. Mrs. Harding writes: "I take pleasure in enclosing my rule for baked chicken or veal pie, which I hope will be found satisfactory." Here it is: Use chicken or neck of veal. Cook thoroughly (until bones fall out, if veal is used). Cut in small pieces. Peel small potatoes and one onion. Cook all in broth, and season the whole with pepper and salt to taste. Make rich pastry, by using: 1 1/2 cups of flour, 1/2 cup of lard, 2 teaspoon salt. Beat egg whites with 1/2 cup of sugar. Add sufficient sweet milk to make soft dough to roll. Line baking dish with dough. Bake in quick oven. When nicely brown, pour in the prepared stew. Cover top with thin layer of the dough. Put back in oven and brown. Thicken remaining broth with little flour, and serve.

N. B. The secret of this dish is baking the lower crust before putting into the baking dish the contents of the pie.

MRS. COOLIDGE'S BLUEBERRY PIE. Mrs. Grace Coolidge, of Northampton, Mass., writes that she really has better claim for fame than that based on her blueberry pie. The better claim is her apple pie. Since she has made the blueberry, cover it with the ice cream and cake. "You make it with two crusts and fill it with blueberries," says Mrs. Coolidge. It's simple after you once run down your berries.

BEST EXCUSE LIST WILL LAND PRIZE

Club Members Expert in Consoling Wives to Compete For Honors.

Policies of the club for the ensuing year were outlined at yesterday's "ladies' day" at the National Press Club, by Theodore Tiller, speaking for the president, to whose platitudes the assemblage objected. Mr. Tiller stated that meetings of the board of governors will be arranged whenever members need a night out. "Hereafter, he said, 'notices of the board meetings will be sent to the residences of the members. This should keep down family argument since a wife, reading her husband's mail, will certainly come across the official club notice. "A prize will be given to the person supplying the best list of excuses for staying at the club nights, and the facts will be kept from his wife. Club members will have free access to the list, which must be bright and original. "SYMPOSIUM ON MARRIAGE." "The club bulletin board will be converted into a Heard and Seen column. Here free expression may be granted to 'cake-eaters' and purple fiends. There will also be a symposium on 'Is Marriage a Success,' to which married men may contribute under a non-de-plume. "Instead of having no napkins the club will hereafter have paper napkins. Soap shall be provided at the washstands for special guests. The 'Silence' signs in the reading room should be dusted off after each joint debate therein. "All complaints will be referred to the committees on disposition of useless paper. "There will be improvement in the telephone service. Wives who call for their husbands will be given the stereotyped answer that the man is not in the club, but has just left on an important assignment."

SOLDIERS ENTERTAIN. Mr. Colvin Brown inaugurated the Press Club custom of reading a good piece of literature at each gathering. He read Kipling's "Explorers."

Mrs. Robert Heintz contributed two piano solos, which were enthusiastically received. Eight soldier boys, trained by Capt. Theron G. Mathew, gave an illustration of what the army is doing in the training of illiterates and foreigners. They sang, made speeches and showed drills and calisthenics that amazed their audience. They were introduced by Major Bernard Lentz.

During the feature dinner, piano solos were given by John J. O'Brien, former deputy consul at Rome, and by Eddie Litchfield.

REBECCA IS LATE; BLUSHES AT BIBLE

Pastor Reads About Well Scene and Phrases Describe Her Entry at Church.

WASHINGTON, N. C., Jan. 24.—A certain young man and devout church woman of this city, whose given name is Rebecca, never misses divine services, but often is late. Yesterday she arrived just as the pastor was reading from the Scriptures the story of Rebecca at the well, as told in Genesis, twenty-fourth chapter. As the late comer tripped up the aisle, the minister read: "And behold, Rebecca came forth." Broad smiles played over the faces of the worshippers. Blushes flooded Rebecca's face. Courageously she went on, quickening her steps. "And she made haste," continued the clergyman, reading on, quite oblivious to the situation. "Smickers" from the youngsters, broader smiles from the grown-ups and half-suppressed giggles from the half-grown were the response. By that time Miss Rebecca had reached her pew. She stumbled in and sank down as if she hoped the cushions would swallow her. The minister concluded: "Let the damsel abide with us."

DEMANDS RUSSIAN TRADE BE RESUMED

English Committee on Unemployment Makes Suggestions for Aid of Workers.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—The report of the committee on unemployment to be presented to the Trades Union Congress on Thursday declares that the "disastrous situation has been largely created by the prolongation of old wars and the prosecution of new ones."

The report links the demands of the council of action with a detailed scheme for a betterment of the government's measures for the maintenance of unemployed workers and their dependents. The chief demands follow: 1—Immediate resumption of trade relations with Russia. 2—Assist the continental European countries to recover healthy conditions. 3—Grant credits to Austria and Poland. 4—Fix German indemnity within the power of the German republic to pay. 5—Put unified control of the railways between Germany and Russia under a League of Nations commission. 6—Make the fullest use of the co-operative trade movement in the various nations of Europe. 7—Immediate ending of the British military adventure in Mesopotamia, where fighting has long been in progress, and the elimination of British military adventures elsewhere in the East. 8—Elimination of military repression and lawless reprisal in Ireland. It brands the financial classes of the treaty of Versailles as harsh and impracticable.

FAMOUS SURGEON DIES FROM STROKE

Dr. H. H. Biedler, Famed as Gynecologist, Won Many Medical Honors.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 24.—Dr. Hampson Hubert Biedler, sixty-six years old, widely known surgeon and gynecologist, died last night at the Biedler-Sellman Sanatorium from paralysis. Dr. Biedler was stricken for the third time a week ago. The first stroke occurred in June, 1915, and, after recovering, he was again stricken in June, 1917.

Dr. Biedler was born at Page View, Page county, Va., August 28, 1854, the son of the late Ambrose M. and Sarah A. Biedler. He was educated at Hawkesville (Va.) Academy and the New Market (Va.) Polytechnic Institute. After being graduated from the latter institution, Dr. Biedler taught school and entered upon the study of medicine at Luray, Va. He came to Baltimore and was graduated from the medical department of the University of Maryland in 1876. Six years later he returned to this city, and in 1883 he was called to the chair of diseases of women in the Baltimore Medical College, later being elected to the chair of surgery. He was secretary of the Baltimore University for four years and filled the chair of principles and practice of surgery there. He was elected dean of the faculty in 1897 and remained in that position until 1905.

Gives Blood for Girl. SOUTH BEND, Ind., Jan. 24.—Hartley Anderson, a member of the Notre Dame University football team, sacrificed some of his blood that a young woman, unknown to him, might live. It was learned. Doctors said the transfusion was successful. The girl is Miss Agnes Luther, of Cassopolis, Mich.

Keep Your Skin-Pores Active and Healthy With Cuticura Soap

Deep-Seated Coughs develop serious complications if neglected. Use an old and time-tried remedy that has given satisfaction for more than fifty years. PISO'S

Start Tonight This new way to beautiful teeth

Your druggist today has a new way of teeth cleaning. And a ten-day tube is free.

Millions of people now employ it. Leading dentists everywhere advise it. You would never go without it if you knew.

Go ask for that free tube. There are few things more important than well-protected teeth.

Remove the film-coat

You brush teeth now, but you leave much of the film. A viscous film clings to the teeth, enters crevices and stays. The ordinary tooth paste does not end it. So teeth too often discolor and decay.

Dentists now know that the reason lies in film. That causes most tooth troubles. And, until one ends it, brushing fails to save the teeth.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. And pyorrhea wrecks countless lives today.

An alarming situation

Tooth troubles have been constantly increasing. Very few people escape them. So dental science has in late years studied to combat that film.

Now we know how. The methods have been proved by careful clinical tests, made under able authorities. Now millions of people employ them, largely by dental advice. A new era in teeth cleaning is fast spreading the world over.

These new methods are combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. A 10-Day Tube is given to everyone who asks. Now all who will may quickly know that film can be combated.

What you will see

A test of Pepsodent brings quick and unique effects. One sees and feels them clearly. And a book which comes with the 10-Day Tube tells the reasons for them.

One ingredient is pepsin. Another multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva to digest starch deposits that cling. Each application also multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva—to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay. Two factors directly attack the film. One keeps the teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere. Day by day we fight the film and all its ill effects. You see the results in whiter teeth. You feel them in cleaner teeth. But the great results are such protection as teeth never had before.

You owe yourself a knowledge of these facts. Old ways of brushing have proved sadly inadequate. Nearly everybody at some time suffers troubles caused by film.

Now science knows how to combat film, and in ten days you can know. Never again will you trust the old ways when you know the new.

Teeth will glisten when the film-coat goes

Get this free tube and watch it. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears. You will instantly know that Pepsodent does what nothing else has done. In a few days you will realize what clean teeth mean.

How Baby Food Experts Can Save You Money On Your Milk Bill

YOU know Nestle's Food for babies? Your grandmother knew it---knew its purity, and how it was made out of rich, pure milk. What can these milk experts do for you?

THE company that makes Nestle's Food is delivering to you, through your grocer, rich creamy country milk—and when you add the water we have taken out, you get more than a quart of this wonderful milk—for less than a bottle of milk costs! You see, the reason bottled milk costs so much is because it has to be brought many miles to you, often in big ice-box cars, and you have to pay for the ice, and the tests, and the eternal watchfulness against souring, and for the broken glass bottles, and for the man who delivers it to your door before you wake up. We have saved you all this unnecessary expense—by sealing the rich, creamy milk into tins right near the dairy farm—sterilized, fresh, pure as sunshine—and it's on your grocer's shelves waiting for you now—a better milk for less money.
