

Society

by JEAN ELIOT

A CHRONICLE OF EVENTS WITH SIDE LIGHTS ON THE MEN AND WOMEN WHO MAKE UP WASHINGTON'S COMPLEX AND INTERESTING SOCIAL LIFE

The Dusk Song of the Nightingale

At the close of a summer day is the poet's symbol of life's sweetness. One need not be a poet to appreciate the vari-flavored sweets in

CORNWELL'S BUNGALOW BOX

"5-Room Sweets"
Succulent fruit and jolly squares, fig rolls, pistache logs, nut and whip caramels, butter creams—more than twenty kinds of bitter-sweet Italian chocolates, daintily deposited in a box, a little bigger

A pound-and-a-quarter assortment for $1.70.
CORNWELL'S
1415 H Street

TODAY will see the little family house party at the White House broken up. Dr. and Mrs. George T. Harding, Jr., brother and sister-in-law of the President, and their children are starting this evening for their home in Ohio. President Harding's father, Dr. George T. Harding, and Miss Abigail Harding left yesterday and other White House guests have been departing from time to time.

Mrs. Harding, who is taking great interest in making the White House into a home, is, nevertheless, finding time to receive a great many people. Most of them are relatives or old friends, many of whom are starting back to their homes after coming to Washington for the inaugural ceremonies.

The Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge have no social engagements until tonight when they will dine with Congressman and Mrs. John Jacob Rogers, of Massachusetts. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers have asked a distinguished company to meet them, with Massachusetts friends among the guests.

The Ambassador of Belgium, Baron de Cartier, has gone to New York to attend the concert for the Belgian Missionary Sisters, whose convent in West Forty-seventh street was dedicated by Cardinal Mercier. The concert, which will take place in the ballroom of Mrs. John Sanford's residence, is under the patronage of the Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier. The Duchesse de Richelieu, Mrs. Drexel Dahlgren and Rafaela Diaz are on the program.

Miss Ailsa Mellon, daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury, has returned to Pittsburgh to remain until her father secures a suitable home here.

Edwin Denby, Secretary of the Navy, will stay until Mrs. Denby returns to Washington from her home in Detroit, by which time they hope to have secured a house. They are staying with Secretary Denby's brother and sister-in-law, at their home in O street, and Mrs. Denby left this morning for Detroit to put her house there in order for her long residence in Washington.

Mrs. Brand Elliott, daughter of the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. A. B. Fall, who has been at the Raleigh Hotel, has returned to her home in Fort Conway, Va., but will return shortly for another visit.

The Secretary of Commerce, Herbert Hoover, is to be a guest at the testimonial dinner to Jan Ignace Paderewski tonight at the Hotel Astor, New York.

ENTERTAIN FOR BRITISH ENVOY.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Butler will entertain twenty-four guests at dinner tonight in honor of the British Ambassador and Lady Geddes.

The Serbian Minister and Mme. Grouitch will give a dinner tonight at thelegation, their guests numbering eighteen and being asked to meet Mr. and Mrs. George B. Mathews, of Buffalo, who are visiting them.

Today Mrs. Grouitch and Mrs. Mathews were guests at luncheon of Mrs. Richard Kimball.

MRS. LONG TO ENTERTAIN.
Mrs. Breckinridge Long, who is passing the spring season at her home in Sixteenth street, will entertain fifty-eight guests at dinner there tonight and afterward will be hostess to a dance to which a company of about 200 has been asked. Among those at the dinner will be the Argentine Ambassador and Mme. LeBreton, the Italian Ambassador, Signor Rolandi-Ricci, the Swiss Minister and Mme. Peter, Princess Lubomirka, wife of the Polish minister, and other distinguished guests.

Miss Mary Potter, of St. Louis, is visiting Mrs. Long. Mrs. Long expects to be in Washington until about the middle of April.

MRS. CRITTEN HOSTESS.
Mrs. DeFrees Critten was hostess at a luncheon today arranged for Mrs. Daniel E. Devore, who is in Washington for an early spring visit. Lady Geddes, wife of the British Ambassador, was the ranking guest and the others in the company were Mrs. Mary Stewart, sister of Mrs. Devore; Mrs. Colby Chester, Mrs. Charles Leight, Mrs. Perry Heath, Mrs. Edward B. Cobb, of New York; Mrs. Thomas B. Hutchinson, Mrs. McKnight Goode, Mrs. Guy Goff, and Miss Marjorie Critten.

Mrs. Willis VanDevanter was the guest in whose honor Mrs. Medorem Crawford entertained at luncheon today. Those present were Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, Mrs. Julian James, Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant, Jr.; Mrs. R. R. Govin, Mrs. F. B. Moran, Mrs. Joseph E. Thropp, Mrs. Robinson Downey, and Mrs. H. H. Egan.

Mrs. Crawford's daughter, Miss Delores Crawford, gave a luncheon yesterday for Miss Mary Govin. There were ten in the company.

Mrs. Charles Denby was hostess at an informal luncheon today.

Mrs. Key Pittman, wife of Senator Pittman, will leave Washington today for North Carolina. Senator Pittman has already started for Nevada and they will not return to Washington until Congress convenes.

Mrs. Norman H. Davis will leave Washington tomorrow for her home in New York, where Mr. Davis, the retiring Under-Secretary of State, will join her a little later. He is expected to be in Washington for a few days in order to be of assistance to his successor, Henry P. Fletcher, in taking over his new duties.

The former Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Gordon Woodbury, with Miss Gordon Woodbury, have returned to their home in New Hampshire.

RECEPTION AT EMBASSY.
The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand entertained at a large reception last evening at the embassy, which was beautifully decorated with palms and flowering shrubs. Mme. Jusserand, wife of the military attaché of the embassy, Mme. de La Vergne and Mme. Hellmann, wife of the commercial attaché of the embassy, assisted in receiving the guests.

The guests included heads of the diplomatic corps, members of the official circle, officers of the army and navy and representatives of resident society. The party was arranged chiefly for the benefit of the military attaché of the embassy, who would have an opportunity to meet the leaders of Washington society and the new officials.

Among the cabinet members present was the Secretary of State, Charles Evans Hughes. General Pershing was also a guest. Refreshments were served after midnight.

Mme. Jusserand wore a gown of royal blue velvet and headed in the iridescent sequins toning into the color of her costume. Her ornaments were pearls and diamonds.

The Misses Hellmann, the two daughters of the commercial attaché and Mme. Hellmann, were at the reception and will have a prominent part in society in Washington, for the family, which has been living in New York, has come to the capital to stay.

The Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand went to New York today to attend a banquet in honor of M. and Mme. Paderewski.

The Minister of Uruguay and Mme. Varela entertained a company of twenty-four at dinner last evening at Rauscher's. The guests included the Spanish ambassador and Mme. de Riano, the Argentine Ambassador and Mme. Le Breton, the Cuban Minister and Mme. de Cespedes, the Minister of Ecuador and Mme. Elizalde, the Minister of Colombia and Mme. Urueta, Senator and Mrs. William Calder, Dr. and Mrs. William Miller Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kaufmann, Mr. and Mrs. William Castle, Jr. and Mrs. Richard Fuller, Miss Urbe and Dr. L. S. Rowe.

Princess Lubomirka entertained at luncheon at the Polish legation yesterday for Mrs. Henry Prather Fletcher, wife of the Under-Secretary of State, and had as other guests Princess Bibesco, Mrs. Guy Norman, Mrs. Bryan Allan, Miss Josephine Patten, Mrs. Truxton Beale and Mrs. Breckinridge Long.

MRS. BROMWELL ENTERTAINS.
Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell and her daughter, Miss Mildred Bromwell, gave a dinner dance last evening, in their Q street home in honor of Lady Margaret Scott, daughter of the Duke of Buccleugh. The dinner guests were the Rumanian Minister and Princess Bibesco, Mrs. Larz Anderson, Count and Countess Borzse, Mrs. Peter Golet Gerry, Mrs. Cromwell Brooks, Major and Mrs. C. E. D. Bridge, Mrs. Marshall Field, Miss Margaret Harding, Miss Caroline Story, Miss Mary Cameron, Miss Adeline Oxnard, Miss Katherine Mackay, and Miss Margaret Flint, of New York, the latter a house guest of Miss Bromwell, Miss Mildred Greble, General Charlton, Arthur Yencken, Alan Graves, Hugh Tennant, Count de Salis, Captain Barker and Mr. Peterson, all of the British embassy; Major Quekmayer, Prince Eugene Lubomirka, William Slater, and his house guest, Mr. Brady, of New York, Felipe A. Espil and Mr. Sartoris.

The drawing room floor was cleared for dancing and the rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers. The orchestra was stationed in the central room at the head of the stairway which was banked with palms and festooned with asparagus ferns.

Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, who has passed the winter at her cottage at Pinehurst, N. C., will return shortly to join her daughter, Mrs. Charles Bromwell at their home here.

Lady Geddes, wife of the British Ambassador, was the guest of Mrs. Van Santvoord Merle-Smith in her box at the National Theater yesterday for the joint recital given by Hans Kindler, Harold Bauer and Jacques Thibaut. Mrs. William J. Boardman and Miss Mabel Boardman also had a box party and Mrs. Edward Beale McLean had Mrs. Hare Lippincott in her box.

Others in the audience were Mrs. James R. Mann, Mrs. Samuel Winslow, Countess Gizycka, Mrs. Poe White, Mrs. Frederick E. Chapin, Mrs. Joseph Hampson, the Rev. Dr. F. Ward Denys and Miss Denys, Mrs. L. A. Robinson, of Evanston, Ill.; the Rev. Edward Slater Dunlap and F. A. Richardson.

AT RIDING CLUB.
An interesting company assembled at the Washington Riding and Hunt Club last night to witness the Tuesday evening musical ride or to take part therein. The two divisions taking part in the drill were led by Mrs. Frank S. Hight, with Major Harold Rayner, and by Mrs. Sinclair Bowen, with Major Sadler. Others riding were Miss Julia Whiting, Miss Eleanor Boyen, Miss Marian Drain, Miss Florence Schneider, Miss Madeleine Austin and Dennis Upson.

Next Tuesday evening the last of the indoor rides will be held and afterward the club's outdoor activities will be resumed.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Marge entertained a company of twenty-four at dinner last evening in compliment to Dr. David Jayne Hill and Mrs. Hill.

Mrs. John W. Davidge, daughter of the Secretary of War and Mrs. John W. Weeks, entertained at a luncheon yesterday.

Mrs. Lamar R. Leahy gave a luncheon yesterday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Charles W. Clinton. The guests were Mrs. John E. Reuburn, Mrs. Edward W. Eberle, Mrs. Alexander F. Magruder, Mrs. Talbot, Mrs. Philip Van H. Lansdale, Mrs. John K. Robinson, Mrs. Charles F. Preston, and Mrs. Charles M. Ogan.

Mrs. Charles Wood entertained guests at luncheon at the Shoreham yesterday. Parties were also given by Col. Henry Breckinridge, and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Herd, of Louisville; and among those luncheon at the hotel were Mrs. Morris Evans, the Peruvian Ambassador, Mr. Pezet, and John Barrett.

ITALIAN ENVOY GETS CROSS.
Lieut. Col. A. Guidoni, the air attaché of the Italian embassy, received yesterday from Col. C. M. Buckley, of the Army Intelligence, the Distinguished Service Medal, which has been conferred upon him by General Pershing for assistance rendered during the war to the American Air Service in Europe. Lieutenant Colonel Guidoni also has received the Navy Cross.

Henry Getty Chilton, who is attached to the British embassy at Rio de Janeiro, will arrive in Washington early next month to join his wife who is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. O'Brien, and to assume his new duties as counselor of the British embassy here.

Alan Graves, of the British embassy staff, will sail from New York on April 16 on the Carmania for England, where he will remain at least six months.

Mrs. Lyman Beecher Swormstedt and her mother, Mrs. Godfrey, will be (Continued on Page Seventeen.)

WHOSE BIRTHDAY TOMORROW?
Send "Her" a bouquet of Gude's flowers. 1214 F—Adv.

24-Hour Service
We call for and deliver the work

Hemstitch
and

Picot Edge
Embroidering, Braiding and Beading.

8th Shop Oppenheims Unique

Spring Days—
With all the beauty of budding nature before you, you should keep your camera busy preserving the scenes to be found at no other time of the year. A ramble through the woods or fields will provide you with material well worth looking over later. Let us help you select a camera and outfit just suited to your needs—if you haven't one already. We have a very complete line to select from—and we do superior developing and printing.

The NATIONAL Remembrance Shop
(Mr. Foster's Shop)
14th St., one door from Pa. Ave.

FLOWERS

What is a Diplomat?
"One who remembers her birthday, but forgets her age"
Remember it with Flowers!

SMALL'S

WASHINGTON NEW YORK

Hausler & Co.—Quality Engravers of Wedding Invitations and Announcements

THE epochal day is inseparably linked to the future by the momentous invitation. Of almost trousseau importance is the form, style and engraving beauty of invitation or announcement. All of our engraving art and skill is lavished to utmost on wedding pieces. Excellence is the supreme consideration on this occasion, and the certainty of it here recompenses your call a thousand times.

HAUSLER & CO.
Stationers and Engravers
720 17th Street
1222 F Street

Shop on Connecticut Ave.

Connecticut Avenue Association

- ### Affiliated Establishments
- Whose Business Standards are Strongly Endorsed by The Connecticut Avenue Association.
- Randall H. Hagner Co.—Real Estate.
 - Allan E. Walker & Co.—Real Estate.
 - M. Pasternak—Women's Apparel.
 - Emile—Hair Dressing Parlor.
 - Young—Millinery Importer.
 - L. Czerada & Co.—Interior Decorators.
 - Ash—Women's Apparel.
 - L. C. Zimmerman—Milliner.
 - Playm—Ladies' Tailor and Importer.
 - The John A. O'Rourke Co.—Interior Decorators.
 - Ogilvie Sisters—Hair Specialists.
 - Underwood & Underwood—Photographers.
 - Story & Cobb—Realtors.
 - Washington Cadillac Co.—Cooks.
 - Shayne—Men's Tailor.
 - Manhattan Cleaning and Dyeing Co.
 - Dupont National Bank.
 - Hausler & Co.—Stationers and Engravers.

S. Kann Sons Co.

THE BUSY CORNER PENNA. AVE. AT 8 TH. ST.
Open 9:15 a. m. Close 6:00 p. m.

Unusually Good Looking Polo Coats for $14.95

—We imagine that will be your expression when you see these new sport models made in three-quarter length style, in belted back and loose back effects. Four different styles of backs. All these new models have full silk linings. They are in the new tan shades. Good range of sizes for women and misses.

Kann's—Second Floor

New Lots and Excellent Values in a Special Sale of $2.99 BLOUSES at

At the Bargain Table, Street Floor.

—Plenty of new Jap Silk Blouses, in tailored styles; majority in white, with a few in navy and black.

—Plain tailored models with notched collar, fastened in front with two large pearl buttons, and hand-made buttonholes, turn-back cuffs. Another plain tailored style is made with large flat collar, with one large pearl button fastening, and hand-made buttonholes. Still another has a tucked front, with tucked pockets, four pearl buttons and turn-back cuffs; another is a hemstitched tucked blouse with a two-in-one collar, pearl buttons and turn-back cuffs, also several other tailored models. The sizes range up to 46.

—There are also some satin striped tub silks, and a number of models in a good quality pongee.

A Real Surprise—The Fine Assortment of Separate Skirts $5.95

We Are Showing at

—It is, we believe, a matter of self congratulation, to think we could assemble so varied a lot of smart styles at this exceptionally low price—low when the quality and style is considered.

—There are new all-wool serge skirts in navy and black, with new style tailored pockets trimmed with stitching; new plaids, also blue and white and black and white striped models; majority are trimmed with buttons.

Plaid and Striped Skirts In the Latest Pleated Styles

—Trimmed with buttons and finished with new style belts. —The beauty of a plaid or striped skirt of this character is that it can be worn with almost any style or any colored blouse, as there are usually several colors in the plaid or striped designs. All sizes to select from, at..... $8.95

Kann's—Second Floor.

Mothers—See How Much Less It Costs to Outfit the Little Ones These Days

—Kann's Little Folks' Store has not in several years been in a position to quote such popular prices as right now. And each article offered is one that can be depended on for style and quality.

—Children's Gingham Dresses, in pink and blue checks, with white or colored collars, sash in back. Sizes 3 to 14 years.
At $1.69

—Middies—Made of Lonsdale Jean, with blue collar and cuffs.
At $1.69

—Children's Tam O'Shanter's—In all the latest shades, consisting of orange, light green, blue, Terra Cotta and red.
At $1.59

—Madge Evans Hats—In all the newest models. Colors are brown, navy, white, tan and red. Ribbon bands and streamers of wide good quality ribbon are the trimming.
At $4.95, $6.95, $7.95 and $8.95

Kann's—Second Floor