Two Great Newspapers for the Price of One
One National——The Other Metropolitan

The Sunday Morning Washington Times will be intensely local. It will not only thoroughly cover the news of the National Capital and contain complete Society, Drama, Sports, Motion Picture and Financial Departments, but—

It will devote pages to news and features of the happenings in Maryland and the Virginias. A large, wide-awake corps of special writers and staff correspondents will keep The Sunday Washington Times supplied with the news of these three states. All the news events, to the smallest detail, will be found in The Sunday Washington Times.

The Sunday New York American is the world's greatest Sunday newspaper. The foremost editors, authors, correspondents, artists and illustrators are concentrating their minds on making it the super-newspaper. It not only contains news and cables from all the world but The American Weekly Magazine, a four-page comic section in color and a wealth of other fascinating features.

“The Two Combined Make the Best-Read Mind”

The Sunday Afternoon Washington Times will be continued as a “Spot Newspaper,” the price remaining at 5 cents a copy.
