A CHRONICLE OF EVENTS WITH SIDE LIGHTS ON THE MEN AND WOMEN WHO MAKE UP WASHINGTON'S COMPLEX AND INTERESTING SOCIAL LIFE

PRESIDENT AND MRS. HARDING will be the honor guests at a reception to be given by the Metropolitan Club on the evening of June 15 at 10 o'clock.

Harry M. Daugherty, Attorney General, and the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Denby will be the guests of honor at a reception to be given tonight by the National Club of the American Association of University Women at the National clubhouse, 1607 H street.

Henry C. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, will return to town this evening after making a brief stay at the Vanderbilt Hotel, New York.

Miss Ruth Wallace started last evening for the home of Secretary and Mrs. Wallace in Des Moines, Iowa, where her sister, Miss Mary Wallace, will join her next week. Mrs. Wallace expects to go to Des Moines about July 1 to remain for two months.

Miss Alisa Mellon, who motored from Washington, arrived at the Homestead, Hot Springs, Va., yesterday. She is accompanied by Miss Alice Sylvester, her chaperon and long-time friend, and by Miss Alyre Graef.

Mme. Wallenberg, wife of the Swedish minister, will leave Washington this evening for New York where she will sail on Thursday for Sweden. On her return in October she will be accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ingegerd Wallenberg, who will be an important acquisition to the younger diplomatic set next winter. Miss Wallenberg is nineteen. The minister will remain in this country and will probably travel rather extensively during the summer months.

The Cuban minister, Dr. Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, returned Sunday from Cuba, where he went for the inauguration of the new president, Senor Cayecano de Quesada, vice consul at Washington, returned with him.

The Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. Wainwright, who have been at the Lafayette since coming to Washington, have taken an apartment at 2409 Sixteenth street and are now established there.

ANDREWS-KEEDER WEDDING Miss Hliah Reeder, of New York, and Donald Shields Andrews, of Cleveland, were married today at noon, the wedding taking place in the apartment of the bride's mother, Mrs. Grosvenor B. Clarkson, at Wardman Park Hotel. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Charles Wood, pastor of the Church of the Covenant, and was followed by an informal breakfast.

The wedding was simple, with only a few close friends present. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and was attended by Mrs. J. Mansell McIntosh, of Cleveland, an matron of honor. She wore a dainty gown of white organdy and orchid net built over taffeta and a medium sized hat in which taffeta and organdy were effectively combined. Mr. Andrews is in business in New York and it is there that he and his bride will make their home. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Andrews, of Cleveland, and Miss Reeder is a step daughter of Mrs. Grosvenor B. Clarkson, who was formerly director of the Council of National Defense.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson entertained at dinner last evening for fourteen persons, the company including Miss Reeder, her fiance and the rest of town guests here for the wedding.

Mrs. Robert R. Dickey, Jr., who came on from her home in Dayton, Ohio, to be matron of honor at the wedding of Miss Fay Doyen and Ensign Felix Leslie Johnson, U. S. N., has been with her mother, Mrs. George Barnett since last Thursday, but left yesterday to return to Dayton.

Mrs. Barnett will leave town in a few days for Wakefield Manor, her country place in Virginia, her daughter, Miss Anne Gordon, accompanying her. General Barnett has started back to California, where he is on duty.

MISS LA FOLLETTE ENGAGED. Senator and Mrs. Robert M. La Follette announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary La Follette, to Ralph Sucher, of New York. Sunday afternoon Senator and Mrs. La Follette introduced Miss La Follette's fiance to many friends of the family. Mr. Sucher, who was a classmate of Miss La Follette's brother, the University of Wisconsin, is Senator La Follette's secretary.

Miss La Follette is one of the most charming girls in the Congressional set. She has a brilliant mind and is exceedingly popular. The wedding will take place a week from today, Tuesday, June 14.

Senator Lee Slater Overman has returned to his apartment at the Powhatan after spending three weeks in Salisbury, N. C., with his family. His daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Gregory, will join him today.

Mrs. Miles Poindexter, wife of Senator Poindexter of Washington, has returned to Washington from an extended tour of the West, where she visited in Portland, Takoma and her home in Spokane. Mrs. Poindexter was accompanied by Mrs. Thomas J. Senn, wife of Captain Senn, of the Naval Torpedo Station, R. I. Mrs. Senn has returned to her home in Rhode Island.

The newly appointed minister to Rumania, Peter Augustus Jay, of New York, who sailed Saturday for his new post, was accompanied by Mrs. Jay and their children.

Miss Helen Cannon, daughter of Congressman Joseph G. Cannon, who recently joined her father in this city, has gone to New York for a short visit, but proposes returning to Washington to remain through June.

Ensign Felix Leslie Johnson, U. S. N., and his bride, who was Miss Fay Doyen, are passing part of their honeymoon at Wakefield Manor, Mrs. George Barnett's country place in Virginia, but will proceed shortly to Jamestown, R. I., where they expect to pass the summer.

Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Charles A. Doyen, has leased her home in Wardour, near Annapolis, and will make a series of visits, passing part of the summer with relatives at Lake Sunnapee, N. H. Later she expects to go to California.

Mrs. Louis Titus has returned from California, where she has been furnishing the new home Mr. Titus has recently purchased at Burlingame. After a week at her N street residence Mrs. Titus and her family will leave for California. Her sister, Miss Theresa Rooney, will accompany her.

Edward H. Loftus, secretary of the legation of Siam, accompanied by Mrs. Loftus and their children, went to New York yesterday. Mr. Loftus will sail today for England, where he will visit his mother, who is in failing health. Mrs. Loftus and her sons will go to their summer cottage at Gloucester, Mass., to spend the summer. Mr. Loftus will join them there in the autumn upon his return from abroad.

Mrs. Edmund Pendleton has left Washington for Bar Harbor, Me., where she will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bonaparte have taken a house at Southampton, L. I., which they will open July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin B. Laughlin are at the St. Regis Hotel, New York, for a few days on their way from Washington to Newport. They have leased Land's End, Gov. R. Livingston Beekman's villa, for the season.

Before starting by motor for Asheville, N. C., yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stewart entertained at luncheon at the Shoreham. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will stay for two weeks at Grove Park Inn, Asheville, returning to Philadelphia for the wedding, June 1, of Miss Charlotte Meier and Dr. Biddle, at which Mrs. Stewart will be matron of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will sail for Europe on the Mauretania, July 14.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, will sail for England June 14 to attend the British imperial conference, composed of premiers of British dominions and colonies. Dr. Butler will address the imperial body on the relations of the dominions and colonies to the empire, but he will not, it is understood, go as a representative of the United States government.

Mme. de Penaherrera, wife of L. A. Penaherrera, attaché of the legation of Ecuador, has returned from New York, where she spent a short time with her mother, Mrs. E. E. Perkins and her sister, Marquise d'Amboise, of Italy, during their stay in this country.

Senator and Senora de Penaherrera will go to Spring Lake, N. J., the end of the month, and after passing the summer there, will go to Ecuador for an autumn visit with Senor Penaherrera's family.

Mrs. Cromwell Brooks, who spent most of last week in New York, returned to Washington on Saturday, but has again left town, this time for Philadelphia, where, with her children, she will pass a month with her mother, Mrs. E. T. Stotesbury.

Mrs. Henry D. Todd will close her apartment in Washington tomorrow when she goes to Spring Lake, N. J., for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Breckinridge Long gave a dinner last evening at Washington Cottage, Hot Springs, Va.

William Jennings Bryan, who has been passing most of his time recently at his home in Miami, Fla., is at the Hotel Chatham, N. Y., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner B. Welles, who will pass the summer at their home in Southampton, have been at the Ritz-Carlton, New York, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Hallett Johnson are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter last Friday. Mr. Johnson is attached to the American embassy at Brussels.

Dr. Tom A. Williams has gone to Boston where he will make an address. He will return on Monday.

MISS DEEBLE GOING TO N.Y. Miss Dorothy Deeble will leave shortly for Boston, where she will join Mrs. James C. Kress, formerly Miss Gertrude Greeley. They will motor from Boston to the Greeley summer home, "Hidden House," at Conway, N. H., where they will spend the summer. Miss Ruth Hitchcock will join them there later in the season for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ten Eyck Wendell and their son, Ten Eyck Wendell, Jr., have motored up to their country place, Lakelawn, Casnovia, N. Y., where they will pass the summer.

Mrs. James Hamilton Lewis entertained informally at dinner last night, at the Shoreham.

Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock has opened her cottage at Newport for the season.

Ernest Van Loon and Mme. Van Loon were luncheon hosts at the Shoreham yesterday, having as their guests the Counselor of the Russian Embassy and Mme. de Bach, and the charge d'affaires of the Swedish legation, J. de Lagerberg.

MISS DUDLEY TO MARRY. Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Dudley have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Katherine Peebles Dudley, and Ernest J. Weddman, of Newcastle, Pa. The wedding took place last Saturday at the home of (Continued on Page Seventeen.)
