

MUSIC IS NEEDED TO AID RECOVERY OF WOUNDED MEN

Player-Piano Would Cheer Walter Reed Boys Who Suffered Shell Shock.

Has anyone in Washington a player-piano which he or she is willing to donate to Walter Reed Hospital for a humanitarian purpose?

By far the most pathetic wounded soldiers at the hospital are the men in wards 81 and 83, and the doctors at the institution say music would be most helpful in accomplishing recoveries.

plete mental collapse due to the shock and excitement of battle and injuries. Those in eighty-three are soldiers who are convalescing from nervous breakdowns.

THREE SECTION WORKERS DROWN IN SWIMMING

CUMBERLAND, Md., June 22.—Three Albanians, members of a labor gang building the road bed for the Johnstown and Somerset Street Railway Company, lost their lives in the Holopie dam, on the edge of Holopie, near Rockwood, where they had gone to take a bath after their day's work.

WILKINS TEA The TEA for ICED TEA Many fine-appearing, well-made teas are very poor drinking, and ICING brings out a disagreeable bitter flavor. JOHN H. WILKINS CO. TEA MERCHANTS COFFEE ROASTERS WHOLESALE

Maison Libby MILLINERY-IMPORTERS 13th and G SALE One Day Only Thursday ANY HAT IN THE French Salon $7.50 Formerly Sold $12.50 to $30 INCLUDING Felt, White Crepe, White Satin, White Milan Leghorn Hats, Sport Hats, Duvetyne, Basket Straws and a few important French Models.

Society by JEAN ELIOT A CHRONICLE OF EVENTS WITH SIDE LIGHTS ON THE MEN AND WOMEN WHO MAKE UP WASHINGTON'S COMPLEX AND INTERESTING SOCIAL LIFE

THE President and Mrs. Harding, who entertain two or three times informally at luncheon at the White House almost every day, had Frank A. Munsey as their guest today.

President and Mrs. Harding will hold a reception this afternoon for the delegates to the convention of the American Institute of Homeopathy, and the Women's National Homeopathic League convention.

Among the persons received by Mrs. Harding yesterday were Shung Francis Loo, a young Chinese student, who is a member of the junior class of Central High School and who presented her with a portrait of President Harding.

The Chilean Ambassador and Mme. Mathieu were the honor guests at a dinner given last evening by the secretary of the Italian Embassy and Mme. Gessler Celesta at their home in Florida avenue.

The British ambassador, Sir Auckland Geddes, will go to Michigan June 29 to deliver an address at the commencement exercises of Ann Arbor University.

The Italian Ambassador, Senor Rolandi Ricci, who has been traveling in New York State for several weeks, is at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York, for a short visit prior to returning to Washington.

Mrs. Edwin Denby, wife of the secretary of the Navy, Mrs. Albert Fall, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, and Mrs. Henry C. Wallace, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, will be guests of honor at a tea to be given next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the National Women's Press Club at the Dean place.

Mrs. Alisa Mellon, daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury, will return next Tuesday from Pittsburgh.

The Minister of Cuba and Mme. de Cespedes will entertain at tea this afternoon from 5:30 to 7 o'clock in honor of the members of the Cuban polo team and the American polo teams which have been taking part in the international matches in Potomac Park.

Mrs. F. B. Moran, who has recently taken possession of her residence, 2315 Massachusetts avenue, after passing the winter at the Shoreham, will be at home informally this afternoon and the following Wednesdays until she leaves town for the rest of the summer.

Mrs. W. L. Dunlop entertained at luncheon today at her apartment in Hammond Court in compliment to her granddaughter, Miss Frances Powell Dunlop, of Leesburg, Va., who is her guest. Covers were laid for six.

Major Lacey Hall will be host at dinner this evening at Chevy Chase Club.

Mrs. Joseph I. France, wife of the Senator from Maryland, is leaving town this afternoon for her summer home near Port Deposit, Md. Her brother-in-law and sister, Col. and Mrs. E. B. Lathbury, are accompanying her and will remain with her until Senator France returns from Europe late in July.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bruce Howe have taken a cottage at Healing Springs, Va., for the summer months, and Mrs. Howe and their children are now established there.

Mr. and Mrs. Beale R. Howard will close their residence in Sixteenth street on Saturday. Mr. Howard and his son, George Adams Howard, will take a trip to Panama and California via the Panama canal. After a week or two in New York, Mrs. Howard will go to Kennepotport, Me., for the summer, Mr. Howard joining her there on his return.

The dinner, which was to have been given by the Fagins tonight, with Dr. Edward H. Reede as the speaker and guest of honor, has been unavoidably postponed.

Mrs. Samuel P. Brewer is on her way to the West Coast from Philadelphia to join Lieutenant Brewer, U. S. N., who is to be stationed there. Mrs. Brewer spent one day last week in Washington with her parents, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Newton E. Mason, en route West.

Col. Charles H. Heyl, his sisters, the Misses Heyl, and the other members of his family have gone to Deer Park, Md., for the summer. Miss Delphine Heyl, who will join them later in the summer, is remaining in Washington as the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. H. Colquitt, at the St. Regis.

MISS LOUISE DELANO, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Delano, whose marriage to Col. Sherwood A. Cheney, U. S. A., will take place this summer.

Mrs. George Howard, of Atlanta, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William L. Marshall. Miss Harriet Colquitt, also of Atlanta, has been with Mrs. Marshall for some weeks and will extend her visit for several months.

Richard Washburn Child, newly appointed American Ambassador to Italy, and Mrs. Child will sail for Italy on July 9. They are at present in New York and are staying at the St. Regis.

Mrs. Frederick A. Delano and Miss Louise Delano of Washington, D. C., who were at the Red Lion Inn at Stockbridge, have opened 'The Nursery,' Miss Virginia Butler's villa.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond expect to remain at their Washington residence until their departure for the Orient in July.

MISS FITTS TO WED. Miss Harriet Pitts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Fitts, formerly of Alabama, and Daniel Bernard Ryan of Albion, N. Y., will be married this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride, in New York. Miss Pitts' father was Assistant Attorney General of the United States during the last administration, and is a former Attorney General of Alabama. Mr. Ryan served as a first lieutenant, 30th Infantry, Seventy-eighth Division.

Count John de Salla, third secretary of the British embassy, has taken a house at 3147 Sixteenth street for three months. With A. Yencken he will take possession next week.

The members of the embassy staff will alternate in their vacations. M. D. Peterson and Capt. J. F. Harker will leave for Bar Harbor by motor car on July 5. Colonel de Salla and Mr. Yencken going a month later. Capt. C. J. Henry has just returned from Bar Harbor.

Mrs. Franklin D. Karns and her daughter, Miss Helen Karns, will leave Washington Thursday for Jamestown, R. I., where they have taken a cottage for the summer and where Capt. Karns' ship, the U. S. S. Rochester, will be stationed all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Cramer entertained at dinner last evening, having as their guests Congressman and Mrs. John I. Nolan, and Col. C. R. Forbes. Mr. and Mrs. Cramer were followed by a wedding breakfast, after which Mr. and Mrs. Knoefer left for Atlantic City. They propose to remain at the Marlborough-Blenheim until fall.

MRS. FRANK HENRY JR. WEDS. With Rev. Dr. James Macbride Sterrett, associate rector of All Souls Episcopal Church officiating, the wedding of Mrs. Frank Henry, Jr., of Evansville, Ind., and Mr. Charles D. Knoefer of New Albany, Ind., was solemnized at 10 o'clock today, at the home of the bride's daughter, Mrs. William M. Conard, 17 Oxford street, Chevy Chase, Md.

The ceremony which was attended only by members of the immediate families, was followed by a wedding breakfast, after which Mr. and Mrs. Knoefer left for Atlantic City. They propose to remain at the Marlborough-Blenheim until fall.

The counselor of the Italian embassy, Guido Sabatini, went to New York Monday for the luncheon given there yesterday by the Italo-American Society in compliment to Richard Washburn Child, newly appointed Ambassador to Italy. Mr. Sabatini will return today.

Dr. and Mrs. George Bolling Lee are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, who has been named Mary Walker Lee. Her mother is Miss Helen M. Keeney, daughter of Mrs. James Ward Keeney, of San Francisco. Dr. Lee is a son of the late Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, of the party is not to be limited to women guests, for many men have been invited. Mrs. C. C. Calhoun, president of the Foundation, has announced that, while formal invitations were mailed, many persons' omissions were necessarily unavoidable, and for that reason she is asking all who are interested in the Foundation to attend the garden party.

Mrs. Calhoun will be assisted in receiving the guests by members of the board of governors. This board includes Miss Mary B. Adams, Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. Delos Blodgett, Miss Alice Clapp, Mrs. Thomas M. Chastard, Mrs. Dean Caldwell, Mrs. Frederick E. Chapin, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. James Carroll Fraser, Mrs. Henry D. Flood, Mrs. Marie Moore Forrest, Mrs. Rafael R. Govin, Mrs. E. Bishop Grandin, Mrs. Beale Howard, Mrs. John Hays Hammond, Mrs. E. Bayard Halstead, Mrs. Charles B. Howry, Miss Frances Benjamin Johnston, Mrs. Francis T. A. Junkin, Miss Kathleen Judge, Mrs. Victor Kaufmann, Mrs. James McDonald, Mrs. Charles G. Matthews, Mrs. Henry Cleveland Perkins, Mrs. William McClellan Ritter, Mrs. Thomas H. C. Reed, Miss Janet Richards, Mrs. Joseph E. Thropp, Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood, Mrs. Walter Dwight Wilcox and Mrs. Harold Walker.

MRS. DRYDEN TO RETURN. Mrs. John F. Dryden who has been visiting on Long Island, for the last week, where she went to attend a wedding, will return in a few days to her apartment in the Altamont.

Mrs. Berkeley Simmons and her small children will leave Washington tomorrow for Eaglemere, Pa., where they have a cottage for the summer. Mr. Simmons will join them for a short visit later in the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean E. Brown, of the Hotel Driscoll, are occupying the Wright cottage at Spring Lake, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lawrence and family will pass the summer in Spring Lake, N. J. They have taken the Fanning cottage there.

Congressman C. D. Paige has returned from Southbridge, Mass., and is at the Lafayette Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Lay have returned from New York for a brief time and are staying at the Shoreham.

A party that includes Mrs. Elliott Everett, Miss Martha Everett and Miss Jane Everett, of Chatham, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Smead, of Port Union, N. Y., is stopping at the Shoreham.

MRS. WELLS ENTERTAINS. Mrs. Walter Wells entertained a party of five at luncheon yesterday at the Shoreham.

Mrs. Jonathan Bourne left Washington Saturday night for Mobile, Ala., on account of the illness of her brother.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brown Scott have gone to their country home, Wardour, at Annapolis, Md., for the summer.

Miss Dorinda Rogers entertained at cards yesterday afternoon at the Chevy Chase Club in compliment to Mrs. Edward Porcher, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Delos Blodgett and Mrs. Charles G. Matthews.

Mrs. Rawlins Hume, Mrs. Robert Beale and Mrs. Percy Thompson, who have taken a cottage together at Rehoboth Beach, Del., will leave Washington Monday to pass the summer there.

Mrs. Francis G. Newlands is at the Hotel Chatham, New York, for a few days.

Miss Dorothy Little Hawkes, a daughter of Mrs. Norman J. Lebar, and Sterling Galt, Jr., a relative of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, were married last evening in Holy Trinity Church, New York city. Rev. Arthur Washburn, of Providence, R. I., performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Dr. Lebar. Her sister, Miss Clara Wet Hawkes, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Galt, a sister of the bridegroom; Misses Gertrude Howell, Lillian Nicolaus, Edith Hahn and Carlotta De Laney. Katherine G. Lebar was the flower girl.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Galt, of Emmitsburg, Md., and Washington. He was graduated from Princeton in 1915 and served overseas with the Seventy-eighth division with the rank of captain. Several of his relatives in the Galt and Bolling families attended the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, who were obligated to send regrets, gave the bride a large silver vase as a wedding present.

famed for its flavor WILKINS COFFEE MEDIUM JOHN H. WILKINS CO. COFFEE ROASTERS WHOLESALE

S. Kann Sons Co. THE BUSY CORNER PENNA. AVE. AT 8 TH. ST. Open, 9:15 A. M. Close, 6:00 P. M.

Quite a Difference Between the Price the Government Paid and the Price You Pay for These Mosquito and Fly Tents The cost to the U. S. Government was $6, but because the Government has no further use for them we secured them to offer you at— 95c Each

Two Lots of Silk Dresses Radically Reduced to Close Out Odd Numbers Quickly

Many New Ways to Make Up the Popular Colored Linens

New-Sport Skirts of Crepe Mohair This good-looking crepe mohair is a splendid material for sport skirts, particularly as it is washable.