

PEGGY JOYCE IS WINED AND DINED BY RICH SUITOR IN GAY PARIS

EX-CHORUS GIRL PUTS PEP IN CITY

Dressmakers Particularly Are Glad to See Former 'Follies' Beauty Back.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—Peggy Hopkins Joyce, former "Follies" beauty and Washington beauty, is back again in the gay night life of the glittering Montmartre section.

All dolled up in the costly jewels given her by friend husband, J. Stanley Joyce, the Chicago lumber king, when sight of her made his heart go pitter-patter, Peggy may be seen nightly in the brilliant cafes, restaurants and dance halls, drinking cocktails, sipping champagne, laughing and jodding in wildest American fashion.

Has a Gentleman Friend. And Peggy has a gentleman friend—a frail, pale, stoop-shouldered young man on whom a crepe has been hung. That is to say, he wears a big black mourning band. But the crepe doesn't keep the young man away from the bright lights nor cast even the faintest shadow upon the merry mood of vivacious Peggy.

Peggy and the pale-faced gentleman had a rip-roaring time yesterday. It was truly a big Sunday. They imbibed cocktails at Claridge's and later dined at Ciro's. Peggy was dolled up like the Queen of Sheba. She wore five ropes of pearls, twenty-five bracelets and her famous giant diamond and emerald rings. These jewels were withdrawn recently from her safe deposit boxes at the Morgan-Harjes Bank.

Puts New Life in City. When Peggy first arrived in Paris, about two weeks ago, she stopped at the Majestic Hotel. She remained in close confinement, and it was not known that she was in France until week ago yesterday, when she attended the races at Deauville, and incidentally met her good friend Letellier, the famous publisher, named as one of the string of international correspondents in her husband's pending suit for annulment of their marriage.

A few days ago Peggy slipped away quietly from the Majestic, not leaving her new address but sending her stoop-shouldered friend regularly for her mail. Peggy now is living at the Hotel Durkin. The mysterious young man also has rooms at the Durkin.

Everybody in Paris seems to be glad that Peggy is back in the gay old city. She's putting new pep into the gay resorts. The dressmakers are particularly glad to see her back. No sooner had they struck town than she ordered a couple of the swellest decollete gowns available.

Peggy slipped out of New York despite the fact that three detectives had been assigned to watch her residence by her husband. Joyce had testified Peggy cost him $1,398,316.32 within the compass of a single year, prior to the break that resulted in the filing of the now famous Chicago annulment suit.

Peggy has jewels worth $700,000, which, being converted into French francs at the prevailing rate, would make the sum of 5,250,000 francs.

Alimony Helps Soothe. Madame Peggy has another financial basis for a happy career in

PEGGY CUTTING LOOSE IN GAY LIFE OF PARIS

PEGGY HOPKINS JOYCE. In a symbolic pose that might be entitled "Meek as a Lamb," but that would get the merry ha-ha from the frequenters of the gay cafes of Paris, where the former Washington beauty is having a wild old time.

Paris. Judge Joseph Sabath, in Chicago, allowed her $1,350 a month alimony, in addition to $27,500 counsel fees and $12,500 for investigation expenses.

So with the estate in jewels ready to be worn or sold and the income, she is in a position to be one of the best-dressed women financially in the French capital.

And, besides, there are no restrictions in Paris upon the goings and comings, to say nothing of the doings, of those who have the francs.

There are other things, in addition, to make the trip alluring, if any other things were needed. Peggy's wardrobe has always been the first cousin to the net proceeds of a gold mine, and she left most of it in Paris. She offered to her friend, Edna Nichols, a business woman of much ability and an old pal, if Edna would sell her automobile.

Miss Nichols returned to the United States without selling the auto, and the wardrobe, plus the automobile, is likewise to be considered in an estimate of the Paris resources of the former actress.

Everybody in Paris seems to be glad that Peggy is back in the gay old city. She's putting new pep into the gay resorts. The dressmakers are particularly glad to see her back. No sooner had they struck town than she ordered a couple of the swellest decollete gowns available.

Peggy slipped out of New York despite the fact that three detectives had been assigned to watch her residence by her husband. Joyce had testified Peggy cost him $1,398,316.32 within the compass of a single year, prior to the break that resulted in the filing of the now famous Chicago annulment suit.

Peggy has jewels worth $700,000, which, being converted into French francs at the prevailing rate, would make the sum of 5,250,000 francs.

Alimony Helps Soothe. Madame Peggy has another financial basis for a happy career in Paris. Judge Joseph Sabath, in Chicago, allowed her $1,350 a month alimony, in addition to $27,500 counsel fees and $12,500 for investigation expenses.

So with the estate in jewels ready to be worn or sold and the income, she is in a position to be one of the best-dressed women financially in the French capital.

And, besides, there are no restrictions in Paris upon the goings and comings, to say nothing of the doings, of those who have the francs.

There are other things, in addition, to make the trip alluring, if any other things were needed. Peggy's wardrobe has always been the first cousin to the net proceeds of a gold mine, and she left most of it in Paris. She offered to her friend, Edna Nichols, a business woman of much ability and an old pal, if Edna would sell her automobile.

Miss Nichols returned to the United States without selling the auto, and the wardrobe, plus the automobile, is likewise to be considered in an estimate of the Paris resources of the former actress.

Everybody in Paris seems to be glad that Peggy is back in the gay old city. She's putting new pep into the gay resorts. The dressmakers are particularly glad to see her back. No sooner had they struck town than she ordered a couple of the swellest decollete gowns available.

PINCHOT URGES MUSCLE SHOALS GRANT CHANGES

Believes Offer of Henry Ford Should Be Modified, Says Hapgood.

By NORMAN HAPGOOD. Gifford Pinchot gave today a comment on the offer of Henry Ford to take over Government property at Muscle Shoals, on the Tennessee river.

Every time the Government turns over important natural resources to a private enterprise, the transaction ought to be subjected to the closest scrutiny possible. Even though Mr. Pinchot looks at this Ford matter in a different way from myself, I am glad to have his searching scrutiny put before the public.

The important thing, however, is that the other side shall also get fully before the public. As all the big water-power interests oppose the grant to Ford, and also the nitrate interests, there will be no lack of publicity on that side.

Pinchot Makes a Point. "It is said that certain Wall street magnates who hate Mr. Ford are anxious that his offer should be rejected. What these men think about Mr. Ford and his offer is surely no reason for giving him public property of enormous value for a consideration wholly inadequate and on terms utterly unfair to the public."

Assuredly not. But the hostility of those men makes a square deal in publicity very difficult. Also it makes it probable that if the Ford offer is rejected another offer will be quickly and secretly accepted without the public's knowing anything about the terms in advance.

Mr. Pinchot is one of the most upright and devoted men in the United States, but every human being is affected to some extent by his environment. However, I am sure that if the Ford offer is thrown out by the War Department (a step which would be highly satisfactory to the War Department) Mr. Pinchot will use his nation-wide influence to look sharply into any substitute offer.

What I fear is that if the department gets the Ford offer accepted, it will accept one of the offers of the regular water-power people with very little advance publicity.

Mr. Pinchot is not in favor of rejecting the Ford offer. He says: "I do not believe that Mr. Ford's offer should be summarily rejected. I believe that it should be changed."

Should Be No Difficulty. "First, to make it fit the Roosevelt water power conservation policy, now the law of the land."

"Second, to make it pay for the property of the people something approaching what that property is really worth; and,

"Third, to make what it offers to the farmers clear beyond doubt."

On the first and third points there ought to be no difficulty. On the second point, Mr. Pinchot proceeds on what seems to me an erroneous premise. He bases his conception of the value of the property largely on what the Government has spent on it.

In my humble opinion that is a minor consideration. Suppose Mr. Lasker tried to get rid of the property no longer desired by the Shiping Board on the basis of what the Government had paid for it, what reality would there be in that?

The Government has no intention whatever of operating the plant at Muscle Shoals. Also it is going to be operated. That Mr. Ford should be held to what Mr. Pinchot (perhaps rather needlessly) calls the Roosevelt water power policy (although it did not become law under Mr. Roosevelt), I cordially agree.

California Wife Offers To Give Her Unborn Infant Away

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMAS, Of Los Angeles, who has offered to give away her unborn baby. She has a two-year-old infant also and says she could not support both. She was deserted by her husband and has not heard from him in several months.

CHARLES WHITE. Charles White, one of the most prominent business men of this city, and for many years engaged in the structural iron business, died yesterday at his home, 1001 K street, northwest. Heart disease was said to have been the cause of death.

Mrs. Elsie Wall Haske, daughter of Mr. Wall and mother of "Baby Jack," will appear in court at Rockville, Md. tomorrow morning to testify in the proceedings to determine the custody of the child.

Both in Lancashire, England, in 1850, Mr. Wall was chosen by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company to represent the company in Washington as superintendent of industrial insurance. About fifteen years ago, he retired and went North for his health.

During the world war Mr. Wall returned to Washington where he gave his services to the War Camp Community Service. He was a thirty-second degree Mason.

Surviving Mr. Wall are his wife, Mrs. Florence Wall, and the following children: Capt. Benjamin Wall, Mrs. Alonzo Tweedell, Mrs. F. B. Couch, Mrs. Insall A. Reed, Mrs. Maude E. Weston, Mrs. George L. Seaton, Mrs. Elsie Wall Haske and Ernest H. Wall. Six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also survive him.

MRS. LIDA M. E. VANDEGRIFT. Following an illness of three months, Mrs. Lida M. E. Vandegrift, of 1005 I street northeast, died Saturday, at the age of fifty-six.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Douglas Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, where Mrs. Vandegrift was an active worker. Interment will be in Rock Creek Cemetery.

Mrs. Vandegrift was born in New Jersey, and came to Washington about thirty-five years ago. She is survived by her husband, J. Henry Vandegrift, and three daughters, Lida, Marie and Ruby Wallace Vandegrift.

TERENCE FEGAN. Solemn requiem high mass will be celebrated tomorrow morning at the Church of the Sacred Heart for Terence Fegan, of 3210 Thirteenth street northwest, who died Saturday night. Heart disease was the cause of death. The body will be interred in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Mr. Fegan was born in County Down, Ireland, sixty-two years ago. He settled in Chicago, Ill., and after six years' residence in that city moved to Washington. He was in the wholesale and retail liquor business here until 1917. He was a member of the Holy Name Society.

Surviving Mr. Fegan are his wife, Mrs. Mary Fegan, five sons and two daughters.

BIRTHS. STEPHENS—Powell and Laura, boy. FLACK—Oliver and Mae, girl. BROWN—Everett R. and Eileen, girl. CALLAN—James and Catherine, girl. TOTTEN—Jay M. and Louise E. boy. TOLBERT—Samuel and Lucy, girl. PARKER—Clarence B. and Helen J. girl. TAYLOR—Raymond and Grace, boy. DAVIS—John H. and Nora B., boy. HENSON—Samuel and Gertrude, girl. McCARD—James M. and Frances, girl.

DEATHS. STELLO—Minnie M., 61 yrs., Geo. Washington Univ. Hosp., Garfield Hosp. FLAMIN—Mary V., 18 yrs., Sibley Hosp. SAMBRILL—Hannah A., 87 yrs., 1821 IVING. VANDEGRIFT—Mary E., 56 yrs., National Homeopathic Hosp. LYNCH—Irene, 23 yrs., Georgetown Univ. Hosp. CANTER—Isaac W., 78 yrs., Walter Reed Hosp. GRUBER—Fredrick, C., 53 yrs., U. S. Naval Hosp.

DEATHS. WHITE. Sunday, August 28, 1921, at 2 o'clock a. m. at his residence, 237 Sixth street northeast, CHARLES WHITE, beloved husband of Mrs. A. White. Relatives and friends invited to attend. Interment private.

MAN WHO GAVE MEALS TO IDLE IS NOW MISSING

Jobless Army Hopes for Return of "Zero," Said to Be Away on Business.

By International News Service. BOSTON, Aug. 29.—Urban J. Ledoux, better known to Boston jobless as "Mr. Zero," who arrived here a few days ago and attracted attention by passing out meal tickets, had disappeared today. "Anna Jones," his attractive aide, was also absent this morning.

When Ledoux failed to appear at his "poor man's club," one of his assistants announced that his chief had been called to Buffalo, N. Y., on business, but that he would return Tuesday.

The assistant then gave meal tickets to about fifty who had gathered at the "club." Ledoux, who formerly served in the United States diplomatic service, slept on the Common the first few nights after his arrival here.

In the mornings he gathered about him others who had used park benches and issued meal tickets to them. The "club" was a later development in Ledoux's plan to solve the unemployment situation.

KIDNAPED HASKE BABY'S GRANDFATHER IS DEAD. Andrew Wall, grandfather of "Baby Jack" Haske, who was thrice abducted during the matrimonial tangle of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. P. Haske, was buried Saturday afternoon in Glenwood Cemetery.

Mr. Wall, who had been in ill health for some time, died Thursday morning at his home, 1001 K street, northwest. Heart disease was said to have been the cause of death.

Mrs. Elsie Wall Haske, daughter of Mr. Wall and mother of "Baby Jack," will appear in court at Rockville, Md. tomorrow morning to testify in the proceedings to determine the custody of the child.

Both in Lancashire, England, in 1850, Mr. Wall was chosen by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company to represent the company in Washington as superintendent of industrial insurance. About fifteen years ago, he retired and went North for his health.

During the world war Mr. Wall returned to Washington where he gave his services to the War Camp Community Service. He was a thirty-second degree Mason.

Surviving Mr. Wall are his wife, Mrs. Florence Wall, and the following children: Capt. Benjamin Wall, Mrs. Alonzo Tweedell, Mrs. F. B. Couch, Mrs. Insall A. Reed, Mrs. Maude E. Weston, Mrs. George L. Seaton, Mrs. Elsie Wall Haske and Ernest H. Wall. Six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also survive him.

MRS. LIDA M. E. VANDEGRIFT. Following an illness of three months, Mrs. Lida M. E. Vandegrift, of 1005 I street northeast, died Saturday, at the age of fifty-six.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Douglas Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, where Mrs. Vandegrift was an active worker. Interment will be in Rock Creek Cemetery.

Mrs. Vandegrift was born in New Jersey, and came to Washington about thirty-five years ago. She is survived by her husband, J. Henry Vandegrift, and three daughters, Lida, Marie and Ruby Wallace Vandegrift.

TERENCE FEGAN. Solemn requiem high mass will be celebrated tomorrow morning at the Church of the Sacred Heart for Terence Fegan, of 3210 Thirteenth street northwest, who died Saturday night. Heart disease was the cause of death. The body will be interred in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

New York Woman Who Has Knocked Out 50 Flirts With Hose

MRS. ELEANOR DE HART. An attractive New York widow, who in the last five years has put fifty madders to rout by tapping them on the mental dome with a piece of rubber hose nine inches long which she carries in her handbag.

WATERGATE, N. Y., Aug. 28.—The body of William Haley today faces burial in a pauper's grave. Haley is 6 feet 8 inches tall and claimed to be the tallest man in the State.

Relatives refused to pay for a special coffin.

DEFENDER OF PRZEMYSL WORKING AS CARPENTER. BERLIN, Aug. 29.—From field marshal to carpenter has been the destiny of Field Marshal Przemysl Tamassy, who won fame during the war as the defender of the impregnable fortress of Przemysl.

Tamassy spent several years as a prisoner in Siberia, where he learned the trade. Since his return he has opened a carpenter shop to keep the wolf from the door, according to the Deutsche Zeitung.

DRUG ADDICTS TRIPLE NUMBER IN 3 YEARS. NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—There are three times as many drug addicts in New York city since prohibition went into effect, according to Eird S. Coler, commissioner of the department of public welfare.

In 1918 department of public welfare hospitals treated only 116 cases. This number leaped to 329 in 1919 and 497 in 1920. These figures, it was pointed out, represented but a small proportion of the total number treated for the drug habit in this city.

N. Y. STATE GIANT MAY GO TO PAUPER'S GRAVE. WATERGATE, N. Y., Aug. 28.—The body of William Haley today faces burial in a pauper's grave. Haley is 6 feet 8 inches tall and claimed to be the tallest man in the State.

Relatives refused to pay for a special coffin.

DEFENDER OF PRZEMYSL WORKING AS CARPENTER. BERLIN, Aug. 29.—From field marshal to carpenter has been the destiny of Field Marshal Przemysl Tamassy, who won fame during the war as the defender of the impregnable fortress of Przemysl.

Tamassy spent several years as a prisoner in Siberia, where he learned the trade. Since his return he has opened a carpenter shop to keep the wolf from the door, according to the Deutsche Zeitung.

DRUG ADDICTS TRIPLE NUMBER IN 3 YEARS. NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—There are three times as many drug addicts in New York city since prohibition went into effect, according to Eird S. Coler, commissioner of the department of public welfare.

In 1918 department of public welfare hospitals treated only 116 cases. This number leaped to 329 in 1919 and 497 in 1920. These figures, it was pointed out, represented but a small proportion of the total number treated for the drug habit in this city.

N. Y. STATE GIANT MAY GO TO PAUPER'S GRAVE. WATERGATE, N. Y., Aug. 28.—The body of William Haley today faces burial in a pauper's grave. Haley is 6 feet 8 inches tall and claimed to be the tallest man in the State.

Relatives refused to pay for a special coffin.

GIRL PARALYTIC AND CHUM FLEE IN WHEEL CHAIR

Baltimore Cripple Runs Away at Prospect of Parting From Playmate.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 29.—Agitated at the thought of parting from a playmate who has been her inseparable companion for several years, Edna May Townsend, a paralytic during her fifteen years of life, yesterday carried out a carefully planned runaway by setting out from home in her wheelchair, accompanied by her girl friend.

Both girls were still being sought by the police this morning. Edna, her father, John G. Townsend, told the police, has long been going about with Evelyn Elliott. A few days ago Evelyn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott, decided to move to the country. They planned to go early this week.

Both girls grieved at the thought of separation and both, apparently, planned to remain in the city in order that they might be together. Edna, seated under the back steps of her home a bundle of clothing. Her brother met her a short distance down the street, as had been agreed, and gave her the clothing. Evelyn carried a suitcase.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend were slightly worried when Edna failed to appear at dinner, and when she did not come in to supper they became alarmed. The little brother told the story of the runaway, but he could not give any clue to the girls.

POLICE CHARGE BOY IS LEADER OF AUTO GANG. CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Thirteen men, including William Otto, president of the Otto Sales Company, were arrested yesterday in connection with the operations of a ring of auto thieves.

Five of those under arrest were employees of the Ford assembling plant here. Patrick Frain, an eighteen-year-old boy, according to the police, was head of the ring. He was quoted as saying after his arrest that he would soon have been head of a $500,000 concern of auto thieves. The Ford employee, police said, aided in the thefts by supplying the numbers of new cars and juggling the numbers of the cars as they left the plant.

Corsets were first worn in France at the time of the Revolution, but had previously been worn in Germany, where they were invented.

YOUNG CORNELL MAN HELD FOR KILLING DANGER

Smart Tragedy Resort Stunned by Tragedy, With Society Man as Victim.

By International News Service. ASBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 29.—"Who struck the first blow?" was the dominating question in the "masquerade murder" investigation by the Jersey authorities today. Salvador La Borde, wealthy young Chilean Cornell student, held without bail as the alleged slayer of Cecil Arthur, reentered in his cell at the Freehold, N. J., jail that he acted in self-defense when he struck the young society man in the grill room of one of the smartest New Jersey resort hotels early Saturday morning, causing Arthur to tumble backwards, his head crashing to the cement floor and sustaining a fatal fracture of the skull.

After Arthur's Escort. Mystery still veiled the background of the encounter between the two men in the ballroom during a merry masquerade dance, which preceded the knockout fight in the grill room. The accounts told to police by eye-witnesses agreed that the young Chilean professing to recognize Mrs. Suthpen, with whom Arthur was dancing, tried to "cut in." The question which puzzled the investigators was why La Borde persisted after Arthur had told him he had made a mistake about the "lady in the domino" and tried to whisk her away in the whirl of the dance.

Two friends of La Borde, with whom he occupied a summer cottage at Deal, N. J., and who were with him at the ball, backed up his story of self-defense. They are Jose Mautane, of New York, and Manuel Fernandez, of Havana, Cuba. Both are guests in the head waiter of the grill room, Samuel Pannell, who told the police that La Borde struck the first blow.

Pleads Self-Defense. "Star witness" at the trial will be Mrs. Suthpen. Arthur was a week-end guest in the Suthpens. To his assertion of self-defense La Borde would only add this: "I do not know anything about any woman involved in this case. I have nothing to hide. I could tell the whole story, but my lawyer told me not to talk."

To interrogating police officials the young Chilean denied that he had tried to "cut in" on Arthur's dance.

W. IRVING MACE DIES AT HOME IN CAMBRIDGE. CAMBRIDGE, Md., Aug. 29.—W. Irving Mace, prominent attorney of this place, died here of blood poisoning. He was fifty-three years old. He had been ill only a week. Blood poisoning developed from an infected tooth.

Mr. Mace was the son of the late William Mace. He was graduated from Western Maryland College and then studied law in the office of Alonzo Miles. Upon being admitted to the bar he formed a partnership with former Gov. Emerson C. Harrington. In 1909 Mr. Mace withdrew from the partnership and has since practiced alone.

Mr. Mace was a Democrat, but never held nor sought public office. Surviving are a widow, formerly Miss Fannie Mundy; two daughters, Misses Hannah and Elizabeth Mace; and three sisters, Mrs. George W. Woodford, Miss Nettie Mace, formerly State librarian, and Mrs. Winnie Martin. The time of the funeral has not been announced.

It is necessary for telephone operators in Egypt to speak English, French, Italian, Greek and Arabic.

Births, Deaths, Marriages

Phone Main 5200 Until 2 P. M. Obituary Desk

CHARLES WHITE. Charles White, one of the most prominent business men of this city, and for many years engaged in the structural iron business, died yesterday at his home, 1001 K street, northwest. Heart disease was said to have been the cause of death.

Mrs. Elsie Wall Haske, daughter of Mr. Wall and mother of "Baby Jack," will appear in court at Rockville, Md. tomorrow morning to testify in the proceedings to determine the custody of the child.

Both in Lancashire, England, in 1850, Mr. Wall was chosen by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company to represent the company in Washington as superintendent of industrial insurance. About fifteen years ago, he retired and went North for his health.

During the world war Mr. Wall returned to Washington where he gave his services to the War Camp Community Service. He was a thirty-second degree Mason.

Surviving Mr. Wall are his wife, Mrs. Florence Wall, and the following children: Capt. Benjamin Wall, Mrs. Alonzo Tweedell, Mrs. F. B. Couch, Mrs. Insall A. Reed, Mrs. Maude E. Weston, Mrs. George L. Seaton, Mrs. Elsie Wall Haske and Ernest H. Wall. Six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also survive him.

MRS. LIDA M. E. VANDEGRIFT. Following an illness of three months, Mrs. Lida M. E. Vandegrift, of 1005 I street northeast, died Saturday, at the age of fifty-six.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Douglas Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, where Mrs. Vandegrift was an active worker. Interment will be in Rock Creek Cemetery.

Mrs. Vandegrift was born in New Jersey, and came to Washington about thirty-five years ago. She is survived by her husband, J. Henry Vandegrift, and three daughters, Lida, Marie and Ruby Wallace Vandegrift.

TERENCE FEGAN. Solemn requiem high mass will be celebrated tomorrow morning at the Church of the Sacred Heart for Terence Fegan, of 3210 Thirteenth street northwest, who died Saturday night. Heart disease was the cause of death. The body will be interred in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

The safe way to wash fine fabrics

Tests made by leading makers of delicate fabrics

WITH the greatly increased use of sheer fabrics and very delicate colors in the last few years, the manufacturers of silk materials and garments have met a serious problem in the way women laundered them.

Incorrect washing methods and the use of wrong soap products have ruined numberless garments, and brought the manufacturers many complaints.

Leading manufacturers of fine silks, woolsens, and sheer fabrics, have recently made careful investigation of the laundering of their special products.

As a result of these investigations they unqualifiedly recommend Lux.

Some of the famous manufacturers who urge you to wash all fine things in Lux

SILKS: Belding Brothers, Onyx Hosiery, Van Raalte Company, Max Held, Inc., David Crystal. WOOLENS: Carter's Knit Underwear, Ascher's Knit Goods, North Star Woolen Mill Co., The Fleisher Yarns. COTTONS AND LINENS: Betty Wales Dressmakers, James McCutcheon & Co., Puritan Mills, Pacific Mills, Mildred Louise Dresses. Made in U. S. A.

STERRET & FLEMING, Inc. Champlain St. at Katorama Rd. (Below 18th Street) Phone North 5656

Cuticura Soap IS IDEAL For the Hands

Get Rid of RHEUMATISM. Don't be a slave to Rheumatic pains and aches. Munyon's Rheumatism Remedy is especially recommended to sufferers from these tortures.

MUNYON'S RHEUMATISM REMEDY

Gulden's Mustard. The homely ham sandwich, most popular lunch snack in the world, would not be half so famous without Gulden's Mustard to give it snap.