

U. S. GRAND JURY AGAIN INDICTS CEMENT FIRMS
 NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—A supplementary indictment charging the Atlas Portland Cement Company, eighteen other corporations and forty-four of their officers with violation of the Sherman antitrust law, returned by the special Federal grand jury August 8, was made public last night by Federal Attorney Hayward.
 Most of the defendants are now out on bail on the original indictment. They will be notified to appear for pleading on September 8.
 The supplementary indictment alleged that the defendants, through the Cement Manufacturers' Protective Association, were kept mutually informed of the transactions of competitors in their group, according to the "Eddy plan" of so-called open competition. The Government claims that this method of doing business is a cloak for unlawful practices.
