

TIMES PICTURE PAGE OF LIVE VIEWS AND NEWS

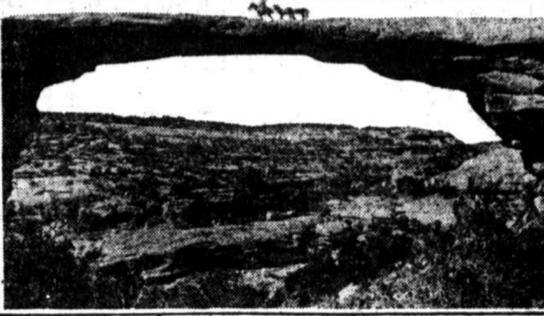

BRASSWOOD-ORDEWOOD

DARING DIVERS who are outfitting in Philadelphia for an expedition to the spot where the Lusitania was sunk off the coast of Ireland. The Lusitania is 285 feet below the surface.

WIDE WORLD

CALVE HAS ADOPTED HER because of the beauty of her voice. Mrs. Juliet Griffith Masher has a great future in grand opera, according to the noted diva, who is taking the Brooklyn widow to Europe.

WIDE WORLD

A BRIDGE OF SIZE, it measures 194 feet from end to end, this natural span in San Juan county, Utah, is one of a series of three and is considered a wonder of the world. It is thirty-five feet wide and seventeen horsemen can ride in line across it. If you want to call this bridge by its first name, say "Edwin."

KANGA PHOTO

UNDERWOOD-UNDERWOOD

BEGGING FOR BREAD for the starving coal miners in West Virginia, this group of men, women, and children, from Lafayette county, W. Va., is making a tour of Eastern cities to "Tell the whole truth about conditions in our section."

KEYSTONE

POET OF THE PIANO, William Van Den Aniel, former professor in the Royal Conservatory of Rotterdam, entertained the wounded soldiers at Walter Reed the other night.

KEYSTONE

SEVEN LEAGUE BOOTS are not needed by Earl Thomson, of Dartmouth, intercollegiate indoor high jump champion, who broke two records at the annual track and field meet at South Field, New York city.

WIDE WORLD

THE THREE GRACES were strongly suggested when this group of bathing nymphs, under the direction of Mme. Lee Scovell, pranced and danced at the recent opening of Sunset Beach, Fla. Some say old Neptune came up out of the sea to take a peek, and if he did no one would blame him.

UNDERWOOD-UNDERWOOD

"CALLED BY SPIRITS," as she explained in a note, Mrs. Edith Miller Busby, of Ventnor, N. J., asphyxiated herself and three little children. The ouija board is blamed for the quadruple tragedy.

KEYSTONE

HERE IS HER MAJESTY Virginia Llamas, queen of the frolicsome and joyous spring carnival in Manila. For one day the Filipinos enjoyed complete independence and made the well-known welkin ring.

KANGA PHOTO

LADDIE'S A CADDIE when President Harding goes a-golfing. The precocious airedale is the Executive's only companion on some of his golfing expeditions.

KANGA PHOTO

TOTALLY BLIND, William Beggs is stroke oar on the crew at Tarbor Academy, at Marion, Mass. He has a splendid sense of rhythm and is possessed of great endurance.

UNDERWOOD-UNDERWOOD

GARGANTUAN CARVING is the specialty of Gutzon Borglum, distinguished sculptor, who has just gone to work on the Confederate memorial on Stone Mountain, Ga., the largest solid granite outcropping in the world. The sculptor is shown sketching the head of a Confederate officer which will appear in the design, which he estimates will take five years to complete.

PHOTOGRAPHS

A LUNCH-CARRYING HAT is the latest for working girls who do not wish to carry boxes. Edythe Chambers is showing how the trick chapeau works. It is a summer bonnet with a fairly high crown and will give satisfaction unless one tries to carry soup or goulash in it.

IT'S A BEAR! IT'S A BEAR! But everybody isn't doing this, because Miss Palenburgh, star animal trainer with the Ringling-Barnum and Bailey Circus, is the only person who can make Billy B. Bruin perform.

A LIKELY POSSIBILITY to be "Mrs. Prince of Wales." London society folk say the Prince will choose a bride when he returns from the Orient. Lady Margaret Scott may be his choice.

KEYSTONE

"UNTIL DEATH DO US PART" is the slogan of Violet and Daisy Hilton, two sixteen-year-old San Antonio girls who are joined together and are known as the successors to the late "Rosa and Josefa."