A CHRONICLE OF EVENTS WITH SIDE LIGHTS ON THE MEN AND WOMEN WHO MAKE UP WASHINGTON'S COMPLEX AND INTERESTING SOCIAL LIFE

MRS. HARDING motored out to Mt. Alto Hospital yesterday afternoon, accompanied by her secretary, Miss Laura Harlan, and attended the garden fete given there under the auspices of the George Baldwin McCoy unit of the American Women's Legion.

Mrs. Harding made several purchases from the booth conducted by the Occupational Therapy Department, the wares of which were being made by wounded men undergoing training in new industries. Mrs. Charles Forbes and Mrs. George B. Christian, Jr., both friends of Mrs. Harding, assisted greatly in the success of the fete.

The Marine Band played during the afternoon.

BRIEF dispatches have been coming in from Ireland, London, Paris, and other places abroad telling of the activities of Thomas R. Marshall, sometime Vice President of the United States, who is making a European tour under the auspices of the international Masonic organizations. That no mention is made of Mrs. Marshall must be due to the cost of cable tolls, for she is with him.

Indeed, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall are a singularly united couple, and have scarcely been separated for twenty-four hours since their marriage many years ago. They expect to remain abroad until October and their itinerary takes them into many countries. They are at present in Paris attending the conference of National Masonic Orders at Lausanne, and after this meeting they expect to go to Rome.

The ambassador of Belgium, Baron de Cartier, will return today from a two days stay at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York.
