

TIMES PICTURE PAGE OF LIVE VIEWS AND NEWS

THE SOCIAL WHIRL has no charms for Miss Hope Summers, daughter of Congressman and Mrs. John W. Summers, of Washington, who has given up society to study public speaking.

SUMMER TIME IS SWING TIME when one is still a small boy and vacation time is almost here. The youngster is Richard M. McClellan, son of Maj. and Mrs. E. N. McClellan, of 4 West Melrose street, Chevy Chase, Md.

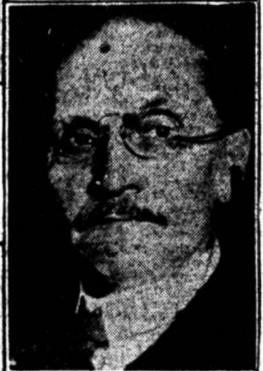

NOW IT'S UNANIMOUS. Brig. Gen. Douglas McArthur, superintendent of the U. S. Military Academy and bridegroom of Washington's most fascinating divorcee, Mrs. Louise Cromwell Brooks, is admitted to be the handsomest man in the United States army. He is photographed showing Secretary Weeks over the grounds at West Point commencement day.

FROM THE DIZZY HEIGHT OF 12,206 feet Capt. A. W. Stevens leaped at McCook Field, Dayton, Ohio, to break all previous parachute records. He dropped at a rate of more than a mile a minute, severely wrenching an ankle.

IN ATTENDANCE AT THE BEDSIDE of Nikolai Lenin, Russian premier reported to be seriously ill in Moscow, is Dr. Felix Klemperer, noted German specialist in infernal diseases.

BACHELORS IN CONGRESS have a defender in Congressman Merrill Moore, of Indiana, who claims many a promising statesman's career has been ruined by a foolish wife.

SIC 'EM CAT! Lady Snowball, a Persian kitten owned by Miss Laura Rowland, of Westmont, Ill., is a natural born bug hunter and is doing her best to stay the tide of seventeen-year locusts sweeping over her native State.

TWENTY YEARS AGO when Dr. Wu Ting Fang, the newly appointed Chinese premier was his country's representative in Washington, little Mme. Wu was a popular member of diplomatic society.

MAKING A THOUSAND-MILE CROSS-COUNTRY FLIGHT Gen. William Mitchell, assistant chief of the Air Service, drops in for a few minutes at the airfield at Milwaukee to chat a bit with his fellow birdmen. The trip was made in one continuous flight in nine hours and twenty-five minutes.

ONE-MAN POWER MACHINE used by Secretary of the Navy Denby to ferry him to shore from the seaplane in which he made a flying trip of inspection over the naval base at San Diego, Cal. Secretary Denby is on his way to Japan on board the U. S. S. Henderson with the '88 class from Annapolis.

AMERICAN CONTROL of the Hawaiian Islands threatened by the ever-increasing Japanese population, according to Harry Baldwin, new Hawaiian delegate in Congress.

LET THE WILD WAVES say what they like Miss Amy May, of Los Angeles, Cal., cares not so long as her faithful radio continues to waft her soothing lullabies as she canoes down stream.

EVEN THE SKY succumbs to the dainty Oriental charm of little Miss Maupia Ju, Chinese aviatrix, who is shortly leaving the Celestial Kingdom to study aviation in the United States.

RADIOING A MESSAGE to the spirit world. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle becomes a convert to the popular pastime and orders a complete radio outfit installed in his home in England.

WASHINGTON AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS! The Times is desirous of publishing some of your pictures on this page. Send in news or action shots and you will be paid for them, if used. For each photograph used The Times will pay $3. For each photograph retained for future use $2 will be paid. The photographs must be exclusive to The Times. They must be clear prints and illustrate a news happening or recent event in the National Capital. Make your camera self supporting. An idle camera around the house has no excuse for existence. Put it to work; watch the shekles roll in. Be sure to write your name and address, as well as a description of the news event, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, if you want the pictures returned.