

TIMES PICTURE PAGE OF LIVE VIEWS AND NEWS

WHAT TALES little Marion Denby, daughter of the Secretary of the Navy, will have to tell her playmates in Washington when she returns from Japan. Marion is photographed with her mother in Shanghai. —International.

THE LITTLE QUEEN of beauty at the Washington-Chicago ball game tomorrow will be dainty Alice Turley of the Trinity Community House, selected by her playmates for the honor yesterday.

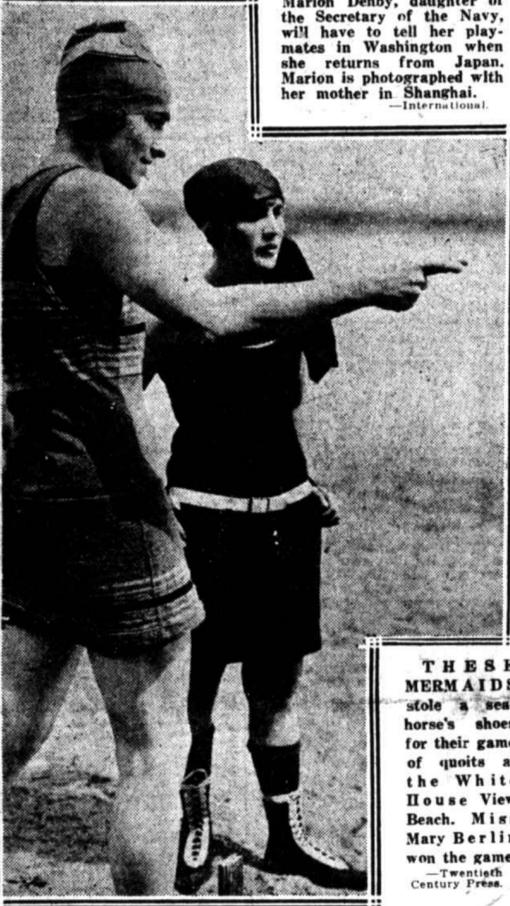

ONE OF THE FIRST of last season's "buds" to hop off into the matrimonial sea will be Miss Sidney Webb, daughter of Mrs. John Sidney Webb, of Washington, D. C., whose engagement to Walter F. Chappell, of New York, has recently been announced. The young couple are photographed at Bar Harbor, Me. —Underwood & Underwood.

THE BEAUTY of the grounds of the National Zoological Park is largely due to the efforts of W. T. King, gardener at the zoo park for twenty-six years. —Underwood & Underwood.

THE YANKEE RAIN-MAKER, Charles M. Hatfield, is in Naples, Italy, having been invited to try his skill in relieving the Italian city's five-months' drought. —International.

THESE MERMAIDS stole a sea-horse's shoes for their game of quoits at the White House View Bench. Miss Mary Berlin won the game. —Twentieth Century Press.

THIS SINISTER SIGN, they say, is tattooed by Irish republicans on the palm of their left hand. The sign secures the wearer food and clothing from sympathizers with the cause. —Wide World Photos.

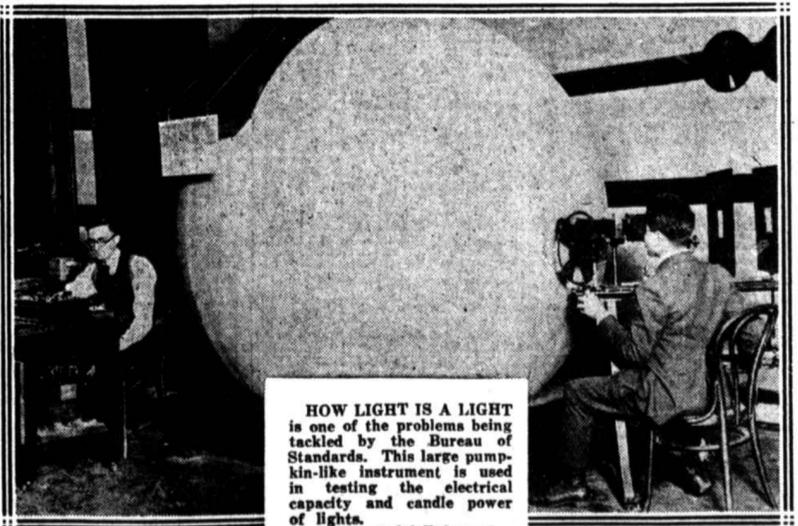

THERE MAY BE AS GOOD FISH in the sea as ever have been caught, but Miss Bertha Lubber, 440 New York avenue, and Miss Frances Sokolsky, 225 Morgan street, defy any fishman to produce as magnificent a specimen of minnow as this one, caught off the Tidal Basin wall yesterday. —Times Staff Photographer.

WILL ARCHIE LINDERMAN, of Washington accept his pretty sister, Mrs. Gertrude Linderman Gilmour's apology and insure her a share in their mother's $750,000 estate? Mrs. Gilmour was ordered in her mother's will to apologize to her brother for her alleged attempt to stir up a family row. —P. and A. Photos.

PELICANS are notoriously greedy things and this young bird at the zoo is receiving just punishment for having gobbled up more than his share of the fish Keeper Whelen brought the family. —Times Staff Photographer.

HOW LIGHT IS A LIGHT is one of the problems being tackled by the Bureau of Standards. This large pumpkin-like instrument is used in testing the electrical capacity and candle power of lights. —Underwood & Underwood.

HELL TELL 'EM. Young "Teddy" Roosevelt, acting Secretary of the Navy, was caught by the demon camera-man apparently laying the law to Secretary of War Weeks on the White House steps. —Underwood & Underwood.

See the News of the World AT ALL LEADING THEATERS SHOWING INTERNATIONAL NEWS Released by Universal Film Exchanges