

POETICAL.
Excuse for Indolence.
"Go to work, you lazy loaf!" said the miller's angry wife;
"You haven't made a cent, sir, in a week!"
The miller gave a pull on his side pipe and gave a wretch.
From out his pipe and said in accents meek:
"I have only one small mill, and I really do not think
That for money making I was ever meant,
And I honestly believe that it isn't my use.
For it takes ten mills, you know to make a cent!"

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Grooton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a cold which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Maker, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles, it has cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." We keep constantly a large variety of New Vehicles in stock, and have also Second-Hand Carriages, Buggies, &c., which we sell very low.
