Mrs. Elizabeth Noland, widow of the late Charles L. Noland, died at the residence of her son, Mr. Colin Noland, in Bolivar, on Saturday morning last, at the advanced age of 99 years, 3 months and 6 days—an age almost co-equal with the nineteenth century. The deceased was the last of a large and long-lived family, three brothers and seven sisters, one of the latter attaining the age of 103 years. One brother was with Commodore Perry in his celebrated naval victory on Lake Erie, and another served honorably in the Mexican war. She had five sons, four of whom, Henry, George, Colin and Charles, served honorably in the Confederate army—the first three in the "Stone Wall Brigade," and the latter in the "Laurel Brigade," in the ranks of which he fell mortally wounded in the fight at Jack's Shop. Henry and George have died within the last few years, and Colin and Gregory yet survive. The deceased had been for years a member of the Methodist church, and funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in the M. E. Church South at this place, conducted by Rev. H. H. Kennedy. Interment in Edge Hill Cemetery. The pallbearers were Col. J. Garland Hurst, Daniel Dinkler, L. F. Updell, Alfred Burton, Anthony Busey and Abraham Mariatt.
