DISASTER OCCASIONED BY THE FALLING OF CROOKED CREEK BRIDGE.—B. Baer of Pomeroy, well known in this section as a cattle buyer, bought quite a drove of fine fat cattle in Mercer's Bottom, on Friday last, and started with them for the depot at this place, to ship them over the K. & O. to Jersey City, thence to New York City.—Everything worked well until he reached the bridge spanning Crooked Creek, just above the furniture factory, on the old James River and Kanawha turnpike. Part of the drove passed over the bridge in safety, and just as ten of the heaviest ones reached the middle of the western approach, it fell in, precipitating them to the creek below, a distance of thirty feet or more, with the debris of the approach upon them, instantly killing eight of them, and hopelessly maiming the other two so as they had to be killed. This is quite a loss, but we apprehend that Mr. Baer will not be the loser, as the county will have to foot the bill. This bridge has been in a dangerous condition since the flood of '84. The attention of the Court has been called to it, by the entire press of the county, but the proper repairs have never been placed upon it. It is a true old adage, "that a stitch in time saves nine."

PERSONALS.—Miss Lillian Brosius, of Gallipolis, Ohio, is the guest of Miss Katie Stridling, this city. Judge F. A. Guthrie, is in the city, on a visit to his family. Rankin Wiley, Jr., Esq., has gone to Jackson on professional business. Dr. T. P. Carpenter, one of the solid Democrats of Putnam county, gave this office a call Monday morning. Chas. Hutchinson, Esq., made a business trip to Charleston, the first of the week. Miss Florence Gilmore, left for Boston, Tuesday morning, on a visit to relatives. We had a pleasant call from Mr. W. E. Bryan, General Railroad Ticket Agent, Gallipolis, Ohio, Monday. When you want to go East or West, he can supply you tickets to any parts at the lowest rate. B. Franklin, High Priest Point Pleasant Chapter R. A. M., H. R. Howard, Deputy Grand Master W. Va., Dr. W. P. Neale, W. M. Minerva Lodge No. 19, A. F. A. M., and G. P. Simpson, Grand Sentinel Grand Consistory A. A. S. R., are all in Wheeling this week in attendance upon their several Masonic Grand Lodges. Messrs. J. M. Kerr & Co., Gallipolis, Ohio, appear in this issue with a new advertisement. This house is so well known in the Kanawha Valley and to our town people that it is needless for us to speak in praise of them. But we will say, don't forget this firm when you are in Gallipolis.

FLOATERS.

Coal is scarce in Cincinnati. How are you Congressman Hogg? The chestnut crop is a failure this year. How do you like the result of your work, Democrats? The Prohibition vote cast in this county was 110. We are thankful that the election is over. Thursday, November 25th is Thanksgiving Day. The rich should now look around, and help the poor. The new Presbyterian Church is finished up nicely on the inside. Quite a number of Mason county men are in the mountains hunting. Correspondents will please send in their items of news. Friedman & Co., have added about 20 feet to their store room. We would be pleased to see our streets cleaned up. The Canvassing Board was in session this week. Corn is worth 80 cents a bushel in this market. The hog cholera is very bad in many counties of the State. There is need of a religious awakening in this town. The Rink has opened for the winter. A fine lot of stationery at Hoy's Drug Store, at low prices. Our merchants do not do enough advertising. Geo. Hooff has the finest livery stable in town. The Kline House is not yet occupied. A little child of Ed. Huskins', was badly scalded, Sunday. It would pay the county to put up iron bridges. This is the time to make your sour kraut. Forest fires are doing great damage in Greenbrier county. Ain't this beautiful Autumn weather? Now pay your bets. Don't try to squirm out of them. One dollar silver certificates are in circulation. We propose to drop politics, and give you a newsy paper. Pensions are still being dealt out to the soldiers with a liberal hand. Men who get excited, often do things they are sorry for afterward. We suppose campaign lying will never go out of fashion. Quit talking politics, and husk your corn. It will be a Democratic President in 1888. The miners of Wheeling Valley have demanded 50 cents a ton for digging coal. This county ought to have a bridge inspector in every township. Who will have to pay the damages of the late bridge accident? The county or the town? Several weddings in this county last week, but we could not get the names. There are people in this place who beat their children in a most shameful and brutal manner. Prof. Virgil A. Lewis, is married. His wife is a Miss Stone, of Mason City. The town will collect no taxes from the extension until next year. Thanksgiving Day is a legal holiday, and all schools will be closed on that day. Judge Moore recently sold three steers that weighed in the aggregate 6,660 pounds. The people ought to be good in this town, as we have plenty of churches. Walnuts are plenty, and the small boy is laying in his winter supply. Little Fred. Holloway fell from a chair, the other day, and bruised up his face pretty badly. Geo. Allen, while skinning cattle, at the bridge, Saturday, cut the little finger of his left hand very badly. The Gallipolis papers are getting envious of Point Pleasant, because she is getting all the rail roads. Who was it that got married a week or so ago, and requested the minister not to have it published in the papers? There will be a special term of the Circuit Court of Mason county, commencing the 22nd of this month. A new post office, called Southside, has been established in Ar buckle District this county, with Geo. Maupin as Post Master. The rink will be open on Tuesday afternoon and night and Saturday afternoon and night. Admission 10 cents, use of floor 5 cts., use of skates 5 cts. Too many lamps at Van Gilder's Drug Store, and the price has been put away down. Buy one while they are low.

RAILROAD NOTES.

The Ohio River Railroad is now built to within about 18 miles of Parkersburg. The Surveying Corps is on the South side of Kanawha, surveying a route for the extension of the Ohio River Railroad to Huntington. The new Depot of the K. & O. at this place, is now being used. It is the nicest Depot on the line, and was built by Messrs. Neighbors and Wilson, of this city. The Ohio River Railroad will put on trains between this place and Parkersburg, about the 1st of December. The K. & O. is doing an immense freight business. Point Pleasant is fast becoming a railroad center. The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, is talking of building a road along the South bank of the Kanawha, to reach the coal mines. A new mail car has been put on the K. & O. Road. Col. Geo. W. Thompson, President of the Ohio River Railroad; Col. J. P. Isley, of Philadelphia; Col. J. A. Fickinger, Chief Engineer; W. J. Robinson, Esq., General Freight Agent, and C. L. Williams, Esq., Assistant Superintendent; all connected with the Ohio River Railroad, were in town Monday night, and on Tuesday morning started over the line of the road to locate the Depots which are under contract, and are to be finished by the 1st of January, 1887. The Depot at this place, will be located at the head of Main street, about five squares from the Court House. A corps of Engineers are at work taking soundings of the Kanawha at this place, and locating the Ohio River Railroad bridge site, so as to go on to Huntington in the spring with the extension of the road now built to this place.

LEON ITEMS.—Some time has elapsed since I have written you items; but as the REGISTER is clear of the political canvass once more "Mark" is on the look out for the welfare of the paper. Since the rain Saturday, the weather has again shown us the beauties of autumn. Not all farmers are done sowing wheat. Must wheat looks well. Leon is improving in the way of building. Seldom have we seen better times than now. Everybody seems to have something to do. Two piers here are about completed, and the workmen are working on the stone work at Ten Mile. The weather signals on the trains are something new to us. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Amos, who have been visiting G. W. Knapp, of this place, have started for their home in Garden Grove, Iowa. One or two of our citizens drew a prize at the last drawing of the Louisiana Lottery. MARK.

The Ohio Valley Medical Association meets in this city the 10th and 11th inst. A large number of the medical fraternity from both sides of the river are expected to be in attendance, and a good time generally is anticipated. The public are respectfully invited to attend. Dr. E. J. Mossman will deliver the address of welcome in behalf of the medical fraternity, and Hon. Jas. B. Menager the address of welcome in behalf of the citizens.

The bucket at the Court House well is off and causes the public much inconvenience.—Pt. Pleasant Register. We don't know why it should.—The part of the public that we are acquainted with at Point Pleasant, which includes Bro. Tippet, Hi Howard, Jim Menager, Judge Moore, Ed. Hogg, and that character of leading citizens, never have any use for water that we could ever discover.—State Tribune. It is true, we never insult Percell, by offering him water.

STUDEN DEATH.—Mrs. William Lawson, of Lewis District, wife of our esteemed William Lawson was taken suddenly ill on Wednesday night. Medical aid was called but was powerless to restore her to consciousness. She died early Thursday morning, having never spoken a word from the time she was first taken sick. The physicians think she had a blood vessel rupture in the brain which caused her death so suddenly.

We direct attention to John M. Adkin's new advertisement in this issue. He has a splendid line of Tin and Hardware, and is offering all his goods at greatly reduced prices. He is also prepared to do all kinds of roofing and spouting, on the shortest notice and at the lowest prices. He is an active energetic business man, and ought to secure a liberal patronage from our people.

Maj. W. H. Tomlinson, and James Capehart, Esq., sold a fine lot of cattle to a Mr. Ingram, of Pennsylvania, last Saturday, and they were shipped from here Monday by rail. Call in and pay for your paper.

ACCIDENT.—

As Mrs. Mary Chapman, mother of Mrs. C. E. McCulloch and Mrs. S. K. Vaught, were coming to town last Friday morning their horse became frightened near the residence of Wm. Bates, in Henderson, and backed over the river bank precipitating ladies, horse and buggy over a bank fifteen or twenty feet high, badly bruising each about the head and face.—Their friends will be glad to learn that they are improving at this writing.

THE SICK.—Miss Katie Chambers, daughter of Wm. Chambers, Esq., is dangerously ill at her home in this place. Gus. Hanly, Esq., is confined to his home by sickness. Irene Bowyer, daughter of C. C. Bowyer, of this place, has been quite sick for two weeks, but at this time is improving.

Hon. Eustace Gibson and Hon. James B. Menager, have been employed to defend Wilbur Bias, who is confined in jail upon a charge of having murdered Edward Starkey. This will be Mr. Gibson's first appearance at our bar. He is an able lawyer, having served his people well in Congress, he returns to his profession where new laurels await him.

AN ASSURANCE OF INCORRUPTIBLE INTEGRITY.—The presence of Gen'l G. T. Beauregard of La., and Jubal A. Early of Va., at the drawings of The Louisiana State Lottery Company, in entire charge, is regarded as a guarantee of absolute fairness and integrity. Any advertisement or offer to guarantee any partially would expose the cloven hoof of the swindler. Remember that the next (199th) Grand Monthly and the Extraordinary Quarterly Drawing takes place on Dec. 14th, when over half a million of dollars will go flying about the world, trying to fall into some one's pocket. For any information address M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. Sure you are right, go ahead!

By a vote of the county the Court House of Cabell county is moved from Barboursville to Huntington, and the editors of the Huntington papers are all correspondingly happy.

HURT.—Charly Franklin, while playing shinney at school Monday, was hit in the forehead by a club in the hands of a playmate, and thereby his head was cut very badly and was knocked senseless.

NEW GOODS.—Mr. C. W. Maupin has just arrived from the East with a mammoth stock of goods, intended for his store at Arbuckle and also for his store at South Side.—He is prepared to sell as cheap as the cheapest, and invites his friends and customers to an examination of his two stocks, at his two stores. Call and see him. 3w

NOTICE.—I must have money and those owing me will please call and settle at once, as I need the money and cannot call on you the second time. 27 4w. J. M. ADKINS.
