A Few Plain Questions.

The Democratic Convention that met at Philadelphia and nominated the present Democratic county ticket for the House of Delegates...

The halting words in the above paragraph are thus emphasized by us with a view of bringing them out in the boldest possible relief before the eyes of our readers...

First—Was not the Democratic party in power when the rebellion began in the month of April, 1861?

Second—Was not James Buchanan President, and were not Floyd, Cobb, Thompson and Toucy members of his Cabinet?

Third—Did not James Buchanan send a message to Congress, after General Fremont's order to discontinue the Southern foras, disclaiming any power to interfere with the secession and rebellion then in progress?

Fourth—Did not James Buchanan send the arms of the United States and sending them South, and Toucy scattering our ships of war to the winds?

Fifth—Was not Jefferson Davis, himself, a Democrat? Was he not voted for fifty-seven times in the Charleston Convention, and was not Breckinridge and Fremont nominated, also a Democrat?

Sixth—Was not every Governor of every seceding State a Democrat, and did they not each and all go into rebellion with their power to make the rebellion a success?

Seventh—Did not every Democratic official in Virginia, including the Governor, the State Judges, the State Senators and the State Delegates, all uphold and abet the rebellion? Were not the votes cast here in favor of secession cast by the Democratic party?

Eighth—Did not every Democrat vote a single vote for secession? Did they not vote for secession? Did they not vote for secession?

Ninth—Did not every Democrat vote a single vote for secession? Did they not vote for secession? Did they not vote for secession?

Tenth—Did not every Democrat vote a single vote for secession? Did they not vote for secession? Did they not vote for secession?

Eleventh—Did not every Democrat vote a single vote for secession? Did they not vote for secession? Did they not vote for secession?

Twelfth—Did not every Democrat vote a single vote for secession? Did they not vote for secession? Did they not vote for secession?

To the Voters of the Second Senatorial District—An Important and Timely Reminder.

The Union is now in a state of anarchy and confusion. The Democratic party is the only party that can restore order and peace to the country.

Permit me through the columns of the INTELLIGENCER to address a few words to the Union voters of the Second Senatorial District...

I hope it will not be considered an intrusion nor a matter of too great presumption on my part...

Some Goodly about Madame Le Vert. The Celebrated Southern Lady, Madame Le Vert, the literary leader of the Southern cause...

As our new State is still in its infancy it is all important that we elect none but true and tried loyal men to represent us in its councils.
