

The Intelligence. WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 10. NOTICE. I WILL SELL GOODS AT AUCTION ON Wednesday and Friday of this week...

Grand Carnival on the Ice at the Skating Park. CELEBRATED ORCHESTRA, MUSIC in attendance. The last chance this time.

THE WEATHER. Yesterday was tolerably cool, with a light breeze, very pleasant winter day.

POLICE COURT. In the Police Court yesterday Cora Wilson, for lewdness, was fined $20 and costs, but failing to pay, she was sent up for thirty days.

THE ZANFRETTE TROUPE, which are now holding forth nightly at Washington Hall, will give a grand matinee this afternoon, for the benefit of ladies and children.

THE river was still falling yesterday, with about five and a half feet in the channel. The marks are lost in the ice, and the demand for information which is of not much account now.

"HUSK-IT-DO-IT."—As the evening for the lecture of "Husk-it-do-it" approaches, the interest in the affair continues to increase, and manifests itself in the most practical manner, by the demand for seats, and the fact that many who have chosen seats had better avail themselves of the chance now offered.

A FINANCE.—We have been requested to call the attention of the proper authorities—probably the street commissioner—to a nuisance in the shape of an infirm old man, who is lying on the sidewalk in front of the residence of...

PARK SKATING.—There was skating yesterday on the park, of a fine quality, the ice having been overflooded the night before. As usual a few were gayly.

THE "DOG-O'-COMPANY" AGAIN.—We are in receipt of a letter from the enterprising founder of the "Dog-o'-Company," of which organization we made mention yesterday. We are sorry to learn that the company has about failed.
