Accident to a Midshipman. ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 23.—This morning while the midshipmen were being examined in practical seamanship by board of visitors in settling and furling sails on board of the ship Dale, Midshipman Pido S. Carter, of Illinois, fell from below the fore top yard-arm, striking the rigging in his fall, into the water. Midshipman R. W. Galt, of Virginia, jumped overboard after him and kept him afloat until all were rescued by a boat. Carter was badly bruised, but it is thought he sustained no serious injury.

Small Pox at Dayton, Ohio. DAYTON, May 23.—Exaggerated reports of the small pox here have been spread abroad. The fact is that there are 80 cases in the city, mostly of a mild form, and confined to the neighborhood of the pest house, among people not vaccinated. The Board of Health are actively engaged in arrangements to enforce the health ordinance rigidly, and no appointment of further spread disturbs the public mind. One subject has been dismissed because there was small pox in the adjacent house.

METHODIST GENERAL CONFERENCE. Election of the Three Additional Bishops. NEW YORK, May 23.—At the Methodist General Conference this morning the balloting for the three additional Bishops continued, and at 10 o'clock the tellers retired to count the votes. In the meantime a discussion took place in reference to the reports of class-leaders. At 11 o'clock the tellers returned and announced the vote as follows: E. G. Andrews, 350; Gilbert Haven, 270. These two were elected. The balloting was then cast for the remaining Bishop. At 12 o'clock the tellers announced the vote for the remaining Bishop, Jesse T. Peck, of New York received 205 votes. He was declared elected. This concluded the election of Bishops. Delegates were received from the General Conference of the Evangelical Alliance, which held last year at Naperville, Ill., who were heard on the union with the Methodist Church.

The Oberlin Anti-Secrecy Convention. OBERLIN, O., May 23.—The Anti-Secrecy Convention met here at 8 o'clock this morning, and spent two hours in arranging business matters, after which, according to previous appointment, the meeting adjourned, and resolved itself into a mass convention of persons opposed to secret societies, for the purpose of concerting the propriety of taking national political action. Speeches were limited to five minutes time, and Judge Rife, of Sandusky, was called to the Chair. Mr. Pomeroy of Syracuse, N. Y., presented a petition from the farmers of Ontario county, desiring that no Presidential nomination should be made. Following this was a spirited discussion on the question of national political action. The Convention took a recess until 7 p. m., when the discussion will be resumed. Prominent among the candidates are Hon. Philo Carpenter, of Illinois; Rev. A. Crooks, of Syracuse; Rev. John Livingston, of Michigan; Hon. John Dietrich, of Normal, Illinois; Rev. Mr. Chesler, of Cincinnati; President Allen, of Westfield College, Illinois; and Dr. J. A. Bingham, of Medina, Ohio.

COLUMBUS. The Garner Murder Trial. COLUMBUS, May 23.—The Garner murder trial, to-day, drew out a large crowd of spectators. Several witnesses were examined, among them the Sheriff of Madison county, who testified to leaving Barclay at a hotel at London on the evening of the day of the murder; he was dressed in the same manner as he had on the day of the murder, but was registered as John Davis, of Springfield, and then had a full light beard. He saw him some days after, when his beard was shaved off. Teller Madison, of the National Bank of Madison county, testified that on the day after the murder Barclay exchanged the bank large bills for small, and then deposited $200 in the name of John Barclay, but drew it out the same day. Dr. Platt, who assisted in the attendance on Garner during his last illness, testified that Garner told him he had been struck three times with a hammer. After a witness testified to seeing Garner just after his removal to the asylum, by Garner that he had got a devil of a blow with a hammer. Two other physicians who attended Garner before his death testified that in their opinion the wounds on Garner's head were inflicted with a hammer, smooth instrument like a hammer or hatchet. Other witnesses were elicited, but no new points were elicited.

The Case of Dr. Huston. BALTIMORE, May 23.—An examination into the charges against the Rev. Dr. Huston, of this city, commenced this morning in court was composed of the presiding elder, Mr. Samuel Rodgers, and Rev. Zimmerman, Headpleader, Carson and others, whose names were not ascertained at the opening of the Court. The proposition to admit Mr. Samuel Snowder as counsel for Dr. Huston was rejected, and Dr. Huston, a theological student, was admitted as counsel. The case was commenced with the examination of the servant-girl, Virginia Hopkins. Proceedings secret.

PHILADELPHIA. PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—Greenwood's woolen mill, in this city, was totally burned this morning. The fire originated in the picker room. Loss, $20,000. The first annual meeting of the American Institute of Mining Engineers was held last night, R. W. Raymond, President, presided. Thirty-three new members were elected. The coroner's jury in the Lowden malpractice case found a verdict, this morning, against Dr. Syles, who was committed without bail, to await the action of the grand jury.

42d CONGRESS. HOUSE. WASHINGTON, May 23.

Mr. SARGENT presented the majority report, and Mr. CLAIR, of Michigan, the minority report of the select Committee on Charges against the Secretary of the Navy. Mr. HOLMAN, from the Committee on Commerce, reported back the Senate amendments to the House bill granting to the Department and St. Paul railroad the right of way over the Rock Island bridge. Confirmed.

The SPEAKER presented the House amnesty bill of the 13th of May with an endorsement of its passage by the requisite two-thirds vote. He directed the bill to be read in full because the question was raised whether it required the approval of the President.

Mr. BINGHAM contended that it did, and a colloquy ensued between the SPEAKER and the members. The SPEAKER finally stated that he was informed by the Clerk that all the amnesty bills heretofore passed were sent to the President for his signature. Mr. RANDALL inquired how the matter would stand if the President should not sign the bill.

Mr. SPEAKER—That is a question for Congress, and not for the chair. It is the duty of the Chair to follow the precedents and practices of the House. It is purely a ministerial duty on his part, and does not involve any constitutional question. Mr. RANDALL—I have not the least objection, if it will gratify the Republican party, that the President shall sign the Amnesty bill at this eleventh hour.

Mr. BINGHAM—Especially after the President's recommending Amnesty in his message. Mr. BECK—I desire to submit a resolution on that point. Mr. SPEAKER—I have not the least objection, if it will gratify the Republican party, that the President shall sign the Amnesty bill at this eleventh hour.

Mr. BINGHAM—Especially after the President's recommending Amnesty in his message. Mr. BECK—I desire to submit a resolution on that point. Mr. SPEAKER—I have not the least objection, if it will gratify the Republican party, that the President shall sign the Amnesty bill at this eleventh hour.

Mr. BINGHAM—Especially after the President's recommending Amnesty in his message. Mr. BECK—I desire to submit a resolution on that point. Mr. SPEAKER—I have not the least objection, if it will gratify the Republican party, that the President shall sign the Amnesty bill at this eleventh hour.

WASHINGTON. PROVISIONS OF THE SUPPLEMENTARY CIVIL RIGHTS BILL AND AMNESTY BILL PASSED BY THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The civil rights bill which passed the Senate this morning, provides that if the owners or persons in charge of any public inn or any place of public entertainment or entertainment, which a license is required, admission or persons in charge of any stage coach, railroad, or other means of public carriage for passengers or freight, make any distinction on account of race or color or previous condition of servitude, they shall be liable for each offense by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and shall be liable to such damages in any United States court.

The amnesty bill provides that all political disabilities imposed by the third section of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, are hereby removed from all persons who have served in the 36th and 37th Congresses, officers in the judicial, military and naval service of the United States, and leads of departments and foreign ministers.

Members of the Homeopathic Institute, accompanied by their wives, called on the President this morning. Dr. HENRY used to-day the bill to remove the political disabilities imposed by the Fourteenth Article of amendments to the Constitution. The bill will, it is supposed, cover less than 300 cases, including that of Jefferson Davis and John C. Breckenridge.

ST. LOUIS. The Dr. Berkeley Scandal. ST. LOUIS, May 23.—In the Berkeley case to-day, the court after taking legal advice, decided to allow the examination of Dr. Berkeley in his own defense; also, permitted the examination of experts to the similarity or identity of the writing of the letter which I the defense blackmaling letter contends that this letter has not yet been declared, but the defense asserts that they expect to show a conspiracy against Dr. Berkeley, and that it was during a most distracted state of mind, caused by this and other infamous anonymous letters, that the defendant wrote his first letter to Mrs. Andrews, and which has been regarded by the many as a virtual admission of the charges against him. Three experts were examined by the defense, all of whom unhesitatingly expressed their belief of the identity of Mrs. Andrews' writing and that of the blackmaling letter.

In the Dr. Berkeley case to-day the Doctor was examined in his own behalf. He denied distinctly to ever taking improper liberties with Emma Perry, but always been fond of children, petted and caressed them, whether boys or girls, but nothing more; he gave a detailed account of the various interviews with the child, during which the alleged liberties were said to have been taken, and stated that at no time was he alone with the girl; some days prior to the reception of the letter from Mrs. Andrews, in which she referred to his alleged conduct with her daughter, he received an anonymous letter as follows:

Dr. Berkeley—Dear Sir: I give you notice of your moral and physical degradation of your family, and the uprooting of St. George's Church, within six months; yourself to be consigned to the fate of your faithful friend, Dr. Campbell. And if you dare to excuse or extenuate the charges to be made against you, your holiness will attend your own downfall.

This with the letter of Mrs. Andrews and certain allegations of the members of the church, which had previously occurred, produced great distress of mind, and it was under a terrible dread that some great calamity was going to befall him that he wrote his reply to Mrs. Andrews, in which he offered to resign and leave the city. Subsequent to this he received another anonymous letter as follows:

ST. LOUIS, June 7.—To Rev. Dr. Berkeley: I know something of your trouble with the Perrys; they think you are well off; do you understand? I don't know what I believe in what I have heard that you stand as fair with them as ever, if you do it in a secret way.

This still further distressed him, and caused him to suffer great mental disturbance. This letter is averred to be in Mrs. Andrews' handwriting, and effort was made by the prosecution to keep it out of evidence, but that Mrs. Andrews could be brought to say whether she wrote it or not, but the court admitted it.

Berkeley underwent a very searching cross-examination this evening, in which he stated he had no design of resigning previous to the reception of Mrs. Andrews' letter, but that resignation was not based on that alone, but that among the various letters and various complications of church matters induced him to take that course. He further stated that the standing committee of the church had examined this matter twice and failed to find sufficient ground for prosecution. The cross-examination was very lengthy, and after it closed the court adjourned for one week.

On the evening of Tuesday last week J. B. Somers and wife, P. B. Roberts and Susie Haffaker, while attempting to ford the Noosha river at Council Grove, Kansas, their wagon was upset and they were all drowned.

PREMIUM FOR COTTON. In the question of the Cotton Association of this city, they decided to offer ten thousand dollars premium for the best cotton this year, same as last. The cotton to be exhibited at the annual fair of the St. Louis Agricultural and Mechanical Association will be held early in October. The Missouri State Editorial Association met at Sedalia to-day, and were welcomed by Mayor Cummings which was responded by President Wilkinson. The annual report was delivered by Prof. J. B. Darwin, of St. Louis, and a poem by J. M. Edwards, of Kansas City.

The Old Ladies' Home on the church charity foundation of the Protestant Episcopal Church, was formally opened last evening with appropriate exercises.

INDIANA. LOUISVILLE, May 23.—The Democratic Convention of the second Congressional district of Indiana, met at Jeffersonville to-day, and W. F. Sherrod, of Orange county, was elected permanent Chairman. Forty ballots were cast for Congressman, the hindmost candidate being dropped in the last four ballots. The fourth ballot resulted in favor of C. K. Wolfe, of Floyd county, he receiving 57; C. L. Dunham, of Clark county, 51; Wolfe accepted the nomination in a short speech.

CHICAGO. CHICAGO, May 23.—Judge Lawrence, of the Supreme Court of this State, yesterday granted a supersedeas in the case of Gregory Perl, the Italian saloon keeper, who murdered two men in his saloon in this city, Oct. 9, and who was sentenced to be hanged on the 28th inst. The writ is based upon a bill of errors presented by the counsel of the accused, and which will be placed before the Supreme Court at its September session.

Locusts in Kentucky. LEXINGTON, Ky., May 23.—A gentleman of our city, residing in Bourbon county, Kentucky, to-day reports that the locusts have appeared there in great numbers, and that they will do great damage to the fruits.

River News. PITTSBURGH, May 23.—Raining; Monongahela 29 inches, stationary. No arrivals or departures. CINCINNATI, May 23.—River rising, sixteen feet, six inches. LOUISVILLE, May 23.—River rising, 7 feet; canal 5 feet chute. Cloudy and rainy to-day. Business very dull.

The Democratic County Convention at Bedford, Pa., on Wednesday, instructed their delegates to the Reading Convention to vote for the Hon. W. H. Schell for Governor.

The Government has concluded a perpetual treaty of amity with the Orange free state of South Africa. The President this afternoon signed the bill to remove the political disabilities imposed by the Fourteenth Article of amendments to the Constitution. The bill will, it is supposed, cover less than 300 cases, including that of Jefferson Davis and John C. Breckenridge.

NEW YORK CITY. ILLINOIS REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Edward S. Stokes was assigned to-day. His counsel asked for an adjournment till Monday to decide what course to pursue. Judge Ingraham granted a delay until to-morrow morning.

The Gallatin National Bank has received through the mail commercial paper, drafts and notes to the amount of $40,000, of which its messenger was robbed on Saturday last. The thieves profited only $200 by the transaction. The reported disappearance and defalcation of E. P. McIlvaine of the firm of Delaman & Co., Stock Brokers yesterday is confirmed. The firms victimized are Joslyn, Bach & Co., Garden & Runyon, Cammen & Co., Geston & Busing. To the bank's account, at the Bank of the Republic is also withdrawn several thousand dollars. Total amount embezzled—$40,000.

The trials in Jersey City of officials Bunsted, Kroeland and Welsh, on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the city, began yesterday. A great fire is raging on Broadway, near Fench. Loss, this far, twenty thousand dollars.

The authorities in New Jersey and Delaware have failed to settle the fishery difficulty. The excitement among the workmen in the city still continues, although the demands of the carpenters, masons, bricklayers and plumbers have been agreed to, and the pattern makers, cabinet makers, upholsterers and hat makers are holding hourly sessions with every prospect of success.

Yesterday John Duncan was sentenced to twenty years in the State prison for assaulting Mary Corlies on the street. The meetings of the Woodhill and Douglas parties, announced to be held at the Grand Opera House on Friday and Sunday evenings next, will not be held there. The owners of the property decline to allow the use of the house for such a purpose.

The spring meeting at Fleetwood Park opened yesterday. The first race, for a handicap, was won by Abakal in 2:36; 2:37 and 2:38. The second race, for 2:31 horses, was won by Honest Dutchman in 2:30; 2:29 and 2:28.

The Annual Convention of the Board of Delegates of American Israelites yesterday selected officers for the ensuing year. The World says: The statement which appeared in the Evening Post and Tribune, to the effect that Horatio Seymour approves of the indorsement of the Cincinnati candidates at Baltimore, is incorrect. We have information direct that Governor Seymour declines to express any opinion further than that the Democracy should support the restoration of peace and order through the magnanimous treatment of the rebels.

A special from Washington says: The Senate Finance Committee to-day agreed to strike out the section in the tariff bill authorizing the payment of one-third of the duties on customs in legal tender notes. A grand Greeley ratification meeting has been announced for next Tuesday evening, but will probably be postponed a day or two longer.

The laborers who have worked on the new postoffice are about to take steps to obtain pay for the two hours they have worked per day since the passage of the eight hour law. A meeting of the Texas & Pacific railroad took place to-day, and Thos. A. Scott was elected President; Henry G. Stebbins, Vice President, and Edward Pierpont, Treasurer.

The preparations are complete for unveiling to-morrow the statue of Shakspeare at Central Park. The ceremonies will be at an impressive nature. The rumor of yesterday that the carpenters intended to strike for four dollars a day, is gaining credence, as they have not gone to work and their Committee is still in secret session.

Some of the German cabinet-makers, upholsterers and furniture manufacturers, held a meeting to-day and resolved to resist any arrangements to bridge a day's labor, while others have granted the demand of their employes for the eight-hour rule.

The ash and blind makers are to return to work to-morrow on the eight-hour system, in all the shops except two, the proprietors of which hold out for the old system.

This morning three men representing themselves as Deputy Sheriffs went to the house of Mrs. Steinar and took away a little girl named Pauline Dobrinski, who was left in charge of Mrs. Steinar by the father of the child. As no Deputy Sheriff had orders to take the girl, it is believed she was stolen by the friends of her mother.
