Mr. Davis said he understood that $700,000 or $800,000 were involved in this bill, and all the railroads receiving public lands heretofore had paid the cost of the surveys. He saw no reason why this should be made an exception to the rule.

INDIANA. Republican State Convention. INDIANAPOLIS, June 17.—The Republican Convention assembled at the Academy of Music at 10 A. M. The Convention was called to order by William Wallace, Chairman of the State Central Committee.

be necessary to meet the wants of the agricultural, industrial and commercial interests of the country, to be distributed between the sections according to the population, and such as is consistent to the credit and honor of the nation, and avoid the possibility of permitting capitalists and a combination of capital from controlling the currency of the country.

We are in favor of such a revision of our patent right laws as shall destroy the oppressive monopoly incident to the present system, and such shall regulate and control the manufacture and sale of patent right articles for the benefit alike of the inventor, consumer and manufacturer.

The Republican party continues to express its gratitude to the soldiers and sailors of the Republic for their patriotism, courage and sacrifices with which they gave themselves to the preservation of the country during the late civil war, and will especially recognize the services of the enlistment by favoring the extension from time to time, as the ability of the Government will permit, of the pension bounty laws.

In the opinion of this Convention Intemperance is an evil against which so long as it endures we demand that as our whole system of legislation throughout all the history of our State has asserted and maintained this right, it cannot now be surrendered without yielding up that fundamental principle of the American government, which places the power of passing laws in the hands of the majority, and therefore we are in favor of such legislation as will meet and give the majority of the people the right to determine for themselves in their respective towns, townships or wards whether the sale of intoxicating liquors for the use as a beverage shall be permitted therein, and such as will hold the vendor responsible for all damages resulting therefrom.

We favor the enactment of the law limiting the power of townships, trustees county commissioners and municipal authorities to assess the taxes and increase the townships, county and municipal indebtedness.

As much as the great abuses have grown up under the present system of fees and salaries, we demand that legislation as will so reduce and regulate fees and salaries, as will allow no more than fair and just compensation for services rendered.

We look with pride and satisfaction on our common school system, and regard its maintenance as a sacred trust to be faithfully and honestly administered, so that all the children of the State may be educated in the citizenship, and thereby become the better able to sustain our popular institutions; and whoever shall seek to strike it down or impair its usefulness will meet our ceaseless and unrelenting opposition.

We have entire confidence in the integrity and honor of the President of the United States, and our Senators and Representatives in Congress are entitled to our thanks for the zeal with which they have represented the principles of the Republican party during the present session of Congress, and the Republicans of Indiana view with special pride and hearty approval the conduct of Senators Morton and Pratt, and the fidelity and ability with which they have represented the sentiments of the people of this State.

On motion the report of the Committee was adopted unanimously as the platform of the Convention. On motion three cheers were given for the platform which the Convention was briefly addressed by Col. Thompson, and adjourned.

ILLINOIS. Republican State Convention. SPRINGFIELD, June 17.—The Republican State Convention met at 10 o'clock, and effected a temporary organization by the election of Thomas A. Boyd, of Fulton county, temporary President, and E. B. Hostwick and J. H. Kellogg Secretaries. After the appointment of the usual committees the Convention took a recess at 2 P. M.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 17.—The Republican State Convention reassembled at 2 P. M., and effected a permanent organization by the election of Hon. E. M. Cullom, of this city, as President, with a Vice President from each Congressional District, and Daniel Shepherd, of Cook, as Secretary, with several assistants.

The Committee on State Central Committee submitted a report which was accepted at 2 P. M. The Convention then proceeded to ballot for candidates for State Treasurer and Superintendent of Public Instruction, and after several ballots nominated Thomas M. Ridgeway, of Galena, for State Treasurer, and W. B. Powell, of Kane, for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Hon. F. W. Palmer, of Cook, Chairman of the Convention, on Resolutions presented on the following platform: The members of the Republican party of Illinois declare the following to be substantially our political beliefs: 1st. Emancipation and enfranchisement having been secured by the 13th and 14th Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and by appropriate legislation for their enforcement, the equality of civil rights having been guaranteed by the 15th Amendment, such guaranty should be enforced by appropriate statutes so the rights of freedom from power may be over black and white citizens alike, and that as one of the consequences of the late civil war was about $350,000,000 of non-interest bearing Treasury notes were issued to aid in now held by the people as a safe and convenient currency, it would be unwise and inexpedient in the present financial condition of our people to attempt the policy of an immediate cancellation of any portion of such Treasury notes.

That the laws for the establishment of national banks having secured to the States and Territories the best system of bank circulation ever before offered to the people, its issuance should be no longer confined to a privileged class, but should be free alike to all under the general laws, the aggregate volume of national bank circulation being regulated by the untrammeled laws of trade.

That we reaffirm the declaration of the National Republican Convention of 1873, in favor of return to specie payment at the earliest practicable day. That we are opposed to any increase in the amount of legal tender notes and in favor of the retirement or sale as the volume of national bank notes may be increased.

That we favor the measures which have passed the popular branch of Congress, looking to cheapening, and a perfection of inter-state railroad transportation, and the improvement of navigation at the mouth of the Mississippi river.

That we are in favor of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States providing for the election of the President and Vice President by direct vote of the people, without the intervention of an Electoral College.

That the Republican party proposes to respect the rights reserved by the people themselves as carefully as the power delegated by them to the State and Federal Governments, and it will claim and secure the rights and privileges of citizens without regard to nativity or creed, and it is opposed to interference by law with the habits, tastes or customs of individuals, except to suppress licentiousness or preserve the safety of the places of the citizens of our State.
