RELAIVE ITEMS.—Surely, surely the way is clear to all, and why do not more embrace it?

But happy they, the happiest of their kind; those gentle, the gentle, and in one's life, their hearts, their fortunes and their being blend.

Last night two more hearts that thought they both should beat as one, entered into the holy band of matrimony.

The happy couple, Miss Minnie Wilson and Mr. George Walters, both of this city, at the residence of Mr. Masters. And then

"To love, to bless, their blended souls were And each, too happy, asked no brighter heaven."

We have for some time past been a little afraid that George would go and do something of this kind, and now our worst fears are realized.

With sweet roses, and may the thorns, with which a married life is supposed to be interwoven, prove but a myth.

He has now gone on the other side, and may the boat that bears him down life's journey prove a happy venture, and when he returns from this extensive tour through the Eastern States, happy will he be if he can say,

"Though tools spurn hymen's gentle powers, We who improve his golden hours By sweet experience know that marriage, right by reason, gives to the tender and the good a Paradise below."

A wedding will be held in the German Church this evening, Mr. Henry Leachhart being one of the principal parties.

We were unable to learn the name of the fair one who is also to take an active part in the proceedings. We will give a full account soon.

The Official Board of the Methodist Church will have a meeting next Friday night, to continue ways and means for getting up their usual Christmas entertainment.

They want to make it the most successful of the season. Dr. Swainey, of Darneville, Ohio, will preach in the Methodist Church this evening, beginning at 7 o'clock p. m.

The following persons were elected yesterday to the German Church and will be installed next Sunday as officers of that denomination: President, F. Rodewig; Secretary, F. Schneider; Treasurer, F. Hecher; Elders, Charles Henry, A. Comper and G. Crouse; Trustees, Adolph Hoeder for three years, Adam Long for two years, and Louis Gralle one year.

Several will be held in that Church Sunday morning and evening.

We were unable to learn the name of the fair one who is also to take an active part in the proceedings. We will give a full account soon.

The rain of Sunday night did some good; it washed out the gutters a little, and cleaned off the street lamps some.

We understand that the good people of Monaca, W. Va., have been invited by Weber to bring his class to that place and repeat the concert given here Tuesday night last. They are very anxious to hear the performance once again in their place.

We do not know whether the Professor will oblige the Monaca people in this matter or not. He is thinking of taking his class up to the Allegheny Mountains in Pennsylvania.

To-night the raging City Council meets again. The thunders may roar and the lightnings may quiver across the sky, but it is all right as long as the City Council is able to convene.

Times may be hard in every department of business, but the police office is determined to keep up its old reputation. Several arrests were made Saturday night and Sunday for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Mike Linky, arrested for both, and fined $5 for one and $5 for the other, with costs. Michael Daugherty, drunk, $3 and costs, and Geo. Menace, same, $3 and costs.

In the case of Morgan vs. Morgan in the town council last Tuesday night Morgan Jr. (V. T.) came out second best. Young Morgan should never attempt to check it.

Dr. Armstrong, representative from the Legislature, was in town Saturday. The Doctor is building a very fine residence here, and will after December make Bellaire his home.

As is usually the case after a rain, the streets in some places become terrible. Of course there is no way to remedy this—nothing but the heavens to do but grin and bear such things.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The Circuit Court met at the usual hour yesterday morning. The case of Robert Campbell vs. John Morgan, Jr., was tried to the court. The attachment heretofore issued was quashed, and the suit dismissed.

The case of Edward Butler vs. Wharton & Bruner was also tried to the court, and resulted in a judgment for plaintiff for $65.75.

A divorce was granted Minerva L. Kiger, from her husband, George W. Kiger.

In the case of Phillip Schele et al. vs. Henry Kewit, a decree was entered directing the sale of defendant's real estate to satisfy the lien of plaintiff's judgment for $2,953.

The afternoon session of the Court was mainly taken up with the argument of the appeal from the County Court in the case of Schermer vs. Logan Tribe I O. R. M.

PERSONAL.—A letter received in this city a day or two ago announces the safe arrival of Rev. John Moffat and wife in Scotland.

The reversed gentleman's health has much improved, and he feels decidedly better for the voyage.

J. J. Ashenburt, late of the Ohio Valley News, will take his departure for Chase City, Va., to-day. Mr. Ashenburt has been connected with the News since its commencement, several years since. As an editor and a citizen, he has won many warm personal friends, who will regret to lose him.

G. E. Daganne, agent of John Thompson, is stopping at the Grant House.

A "MITE"—We were yesterday shown by Mr. W. H. Oxtoby a mite, a coin from the Holy land, which is of the same value, and in fact a similar coin to that cast into the treasury in the temple at Jerusalem by the poor widow. The coin was obtained at the Chautauque Sabbath School Assembly, from a missionary who has spent years in the Holy land. It is a small coin, a trifle smaller than our silver three-cent piece. On either side are Hebrew characters. The value of the coin is about one-sixth of one of our American cents.

On Sunday night last a watchman was passing a certain house about 11 o'clock, when he saw a man drop from a window, and heard smothered cries inside. He seized the man for a burglar, but soon found that he had the owner of the house in his clutches. "Well," said the officer, "it looks suspicious to see you drop out of a window that way." "Well," replied the man, heaving a sigh, "when the old woman gets her hander up I ain't particular about what road I take to get out of the house!"

In the evening a ball will be given at Turner Hall, in honor of the Grand Lodge of West Virginia, and on Thursday evening, November 13th, a banquet will be given at Falloure's Dining Hall.

HUNTING LOST TREASURES.—The other day two men were out on the river in a skiff, when they discovered what they supposed to be a keg upon the bottom, where the water was quite deep. Upon their return to the shore they mentioned the circumstance, when an old steamboat man, an inveterate practical joker, was standing by, eagerly asked the precise spot where they had seen it. Upon being informed he told them that it undoubtedly contained Mexican dollars. He completed this circumstance by stating that when he first went on the river, fully twenty years ago, a boat bound from New Orleans to Pittsburgh had accidentally lost the keg overboard. The river was lower now than it had been since, which accounted for the discovery of the treasure at this particular time. The men swallowed the whole story, and immediately commenced operations for the recovery of the keg. Our last information was that they had put in six hours of good, solid work, without budging the rock, which they had mistaken for a keg.

A TRIADELPHIA turkey was observed the other day on a fence intently studying an almanac and reckoning on his toes how long it was from Thanksgiving.

The Gift Concerts in aid of the Kentucky Library are not at all speculative. The institution is chartered by the State of Kentucky. The first prize in the next drawing, which takes place November 30, is $250,000. It is a reliable institution, and some one will get the money. And that there may be no doubt as to the honesty of its management we cite the fact that the best banks in Louisville in endorse it, and that Governor Thomas E. Bramlette, of Louisville, is the general manager. An institution so fathered is certainly deserving of confidence.
