To DAY'S BOAT RACE.-This evening TO DAY'S BOAT RACE.—This evening Join Barrett, of the Nail City Club, and Ed. Clator, of the Brown Club, will row a single scull race over the lower course for a purse of $400. The men are pretty evenly matched, being about the same height and weight, and a close pull is anticipated. The friends of both oarsmen are confident of victory, and during the past, week have put up considerable wealth on the result, the betting being about even.

on the result, the betting being about even.

The articles of agreement specify that the race shall take place between the hours of 2 and 5 r. M., over the "lower course," from a point opposite the B. & O. railroad water works, on the West Virginia side, one mile and a half down the river and return. Smooth water will be required, and the condition of the water will be decided by the referee, who is empowered to postpone the race, if mecessary, until the next fair day, Sunday excepted. The start will hardly be made before $\frac{1}{2}$ or 5 o'clock.

CURIOUS WEATHER.—The meteorological phenomena hereabouts during the present year have rarely been equaled for unexpected changes. A winter of more than the usual quantity of snow; a Spring opening early but to close soon again; Summer bursting into sudden intensity of heat, and then again a "cold snap," followed by strong wind which one day drives the previous day's mud in clouds of dust about the streets. The weather is anything but settled.

The following petition was read and referred to the Committe on Streets and Alleys WHEELING, May 25, 1877.

Thos. Hornbrook makes his pocket-book work in a good cause, as well as himself. Happening to meet him not long ago we told him of a Sunday school in a country district that was in great need of a library. His answer was as prompt as satisfactory—his check on a bank.—State Journal.

A day or two since it was stated in these columns that Mr. E. S. Hall had been arrested and locked up for raising a false alarm of fire in Centre Wheeling. Mr. Hall writes us a note and bega us to correct this statement. He says that the arrest was made for shooting firearms within the corporate limits of the city. that, being maste to obtain sufficient; employment otherwise owing to the dullness of the times, he has applied to the Street Commissioner for an opportunity to labor for the city, desiring at least emough work to do to pay his taxes with, but without success. He further represents to your honorable body that he is a German, and that he considers it to be apparent that the Street Commissioner has almost entirely neglected and excluded the Gormans in his distribution of the city's patronage to laboring men. This he believes to be a plain injustice, as no class of our citizens are more orderely, law abiding and peaceable than the Germans, who uniformly pay their taxes without murmuring or evasion and, when necessary, always rally to the defence of this, our common country, with a heartifelt zeal, devotion and bravery that is unsurpassed in others.

In view of the foregoing premises he earnestly prays your honorable bodies that you direct the Street Commissioner.
