The Caucuses in Favor of Clarkburg.

The people of West Virginia will be addressed at the following times and places, and by the following speakers, in favor of Clarkburg:

The Report Concerning Illicit Distilling and Counterfeiting in the Third District.

The Monroe county, W. Va., Register comes to the rescue of Mr. G. W. Atkinson, of Charleston, Deputy Collector of Revenue, for his alleged report to the Commissioner of Revenue at Washington concerning certain counties and persons in that district in connection with illicit distilling and counterfeiting.

From all the facts that have come out we doubt not that Mr. Atkinson's report did great injustice to many persons, and particularly to the editor of the Hinton Herald, and we are sure that he must regret his hasty judgment and injudicious communication.

THE IDAHO INDIAN WAR.

The Settlers Without Arms.

Complaints of the Indians About their Agents.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—A press dispatch from Boise City, says Judge Kelley, of the Idaho Statesman, who left here Monday, the 18th instant, to take arms to the people of the Weiser Valleys, returned here this morning.

Captain Robbins, with eight men, left this morning to go to the relief of the people shut up in the stockade fort at Snake Creek. It will require forty miles from here, he will join Lieutenant Gray with twenty-two men, the other twenty-one men of the party volunteering here being obliged to remain behind, on account of the scarcity of arms, ammunition and means.

AN INTERVIEW WITH FRIENDLY INDIANS.

Hon. Thos. E. Logan, Mayor of Boise City, and Hon. J. N. Coston, member of the United States Congress, who left here Wednesday for the purpose of visiting the Indians encamped on the Great Camas Prairie, seventy-five miles southeast of this place, returned at noon to-day, accompanied by fourteen of the principal chiefs of Indians there assembled.

The President to-day commissioned Daniel L. Boynton, Deputy Agent at Knoxville, Tennessee; Samuel H. Benson, Agent at Detroit, Michigan; and Rufus Campion, Pension Agent at St. Louis.

MILITARY INSPECTIONS.

A special order issued from the War Department makes the official announcement that the General of the Army will proceed to inspect the new military posts and routes on the Yellowstone and in Montana, extending his examination to such points as the interests of the frontier may suggest.

CIVIL SERVICE REPORT.

The President, to-day, addressed the following circular letter to all the prominent Federal officers throughout the country:

EXECUTIVE MANSION.

WASHINGTON, June 23, 1877. SIR—I desire to call your attention to the following paragraph in a letter addressed by me to the Secretary of the Treasury on the conduct to be observed by officers of the General Government in relation to elections:

No officer should be required or permitted to take part in the management of a political organization, caucus, convention or election campaign. Their right to vote and to express their views on public questions, either orally or through the press, is not denied, provided they do not interfere with the discharge of their official duties.

WHISKEY CASES.

Under authority of the Secretary of the Treasury the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has directed the Attorney of the Northern District of Illinois to open the whiskey cases in which Judge Cameron has been convicted and re-arrested, Junker & Co. and B. M. Ford & Co., of Chicago, amounting to about $60,000 in the aggregate, and under which their premises and stock were seized.

DISTRIBUTION OF ARMS.

The chief of the Ordnance Bureau has given orders for the issue of 1,000 stand of arms to the States of Oregon, Idaho and Washington.

ABOUT ARMY MATTERS.

The opinion is expressed in military circles that the regular army appropriation bill will not be passed soon after the extra session of Congress convenes. It seems to be the impression that a joint resolution will be passed appropriating necessary money to the regular army.
