At this hour returns have been received from 24 out of 147 precincts, in this Hamilton county. These give Bishop 2,350, West 2,034, Bond (workman) 1,007. The Democrats have probably elected their entire county legislative ticket.

TOLEDO, October 9.—The returns from both city and county come in slowly and the result cannot be stated with certainty to-night. The Nationals have carried the city and will elect part of their county ticket. Cummings, Treasurer; Kountz, Recorder, and these are four tickets in the Republican ticket, will probably be elected. The Nationals will probably elect Kellogg. The Republican Sheriff is in doubt, the chances favoring Linton, National. The Democrats claim both the Senate and the House, but it is probable that the Standard Democrat, and the Republican, will be elected. Returns from 23 precincts of the city and Lucas county, received from Democratic sources give Bishop 2,349, and West 1,995, a Democratic gain of 947 over the vote of 1876.

IOWA ELECTION.

CHICAGO, October 9.—Reports from isolated points in Iowa indicate that a light vote is being polled, and that rainy weather prevails in nearly every section of the State. There are four tickets in the field, headed by Gear, Republican, for Governor; Irish, Democratic; Stubbs, Greenback, and Jessu, Prohibitionist, consequently there is an unusual amount of scratching, and a summary of the day's work will be unobtainable.

MARSHALLS, October 9.—Marshall county gives Gear, Rep., 1,000 to 1,200 majority. The only doubtful vote is that on Auditor.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, October 9.—This city is probably Democratic by 100 to 150 majority. Irish runs considerably behind his ticket.

SIoux CITY, October 9.—Returns from four towns, including Sioux City, indicate a Republican majority of from 150 to 200 in this county.

CHICAGO, October 9.—Returns from thirteen Iowa townships and precincts give the following aggregate of the vote: Gear, Republican, 2,220; Irish, Democratic, 1,363; Jessup, Prohibitionist, 440; Stubbs, Greenback, 857. Twenty-one other precincts and townships and one ward, give a majority of the Gear over the Irish of 385. The votes of Senators and Representatives are badly scratched, but do not vary greatly from the result on Governor. The State office seems to be running pretty evenly.

JACKSONVILLE, Ia., October 9.—The State Central Committee dispatch that in Jefferson county the State ticket have a net majority of 350. The Republican representative is elected by 350 majority. The Senator holds over.

Returns come in slow. Gear's majority is about 800 to 1,000. Parker, Republican, Representative, is elected by the same majority.

MAHASKA COUNTY.—Returns from three townships, including Okaloosa, give Gear a majority of 350. The county is probably Republican, but the indication is that the Republicans elect their ticket by 450 majority.

HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, DUBUQUE, IA., Oct. 9, 1877.

Very meagre returns have been received of the election in this State. There has been a light one, owing to a heavy rain prevailing generally over the State. Reports indicate that the Republican State ticket by about 30,000 majority over the Democratic ticket, Gear, Republican candidate for Governor, has been considerably scratched by the temperance men, who voted for the State ticket headed by the Greenback ticket. The Greenback State ticket will receive from 15,000 to 20,000 votes, and the temperance ticket about 6,000. The Republicans will have thirty-five to forty in the House, insuring the election of a Republican U. S. Senator.

DES MOINES, October 10.—Midnight.—The returns of the election come in slowly. Not a single precinct of this county has yet been heard from completely. Returns from other parts of the State. Cherokee county, 1 is reported 300; Adair 350; Mahaska 450; Monroe 100; Cass 800; and it looks as if Dallas county would give 1200. There are all pluralities for Gear for Governor over Lewis, and for the State ticket over the Democratic ticket. The Greenback ticket will receive from 15,000 to 20,000 votes, and the temperance ticket about 6,000. The Republicans will have thirty-five to forty in the House, insuring the election of a Republican U. S. Senator.

Obsequies of Bishop Bayley.

BALTIMORE, October 9.—The obsequies of Arch Bishop Bayley took place this morning at the Cathedral, and were attended by thousands of people; indeed, the press was as great as on the arrival of the remains. The throne and altar were heavily draped, and the galleries and organ loft. About 8 o'clock the Young Catholic Priesthood Society and the Catholic Literary Association assembled at the Arch Episcopal residence, and the procession was formed in the following order:

Cantor. Cross Bearer. Reverend Clergy, Resident and Visiting. Insular Society of the Most Reverend Archbishop and Chapter. Vicar General of the Arch Diocese. Most Reverend Bishops.

The procession moved through Charles, Mulberry and Cathedral streets to the Cathedral, the bell tolling in the meantime. The clergy chanting the Litany. The coffin was placed on the Catafalque, immediately in front of the altar, flanked by four candlesticks, each containing eighteen lights, being at the head and foot.

Cardinal McCloskey, thirteen Arch Bishops and Bishops and a very large number of clergymen, assisted at the services. Governor Carroll, Attorney-General, and Mayor Lattrobe were present. The services lasted from 8 o'clock to nearly noon. Bishop Wood, of Philadelphia, was the celebrant of the mass, and Bishop Foley, of Chicago, preached the sermon.

At the close of the solemn benedictions and five absolutions were pronounced by Bishop Laughlin, of Brooklyn; Bishop Becker, of Wilmington; Bishop Corrigan, of Newark; Archbishop Wood, of Philadelphia, and by Cardinal McCloskey. The final benediction was pronounced by the Cardinal, who presided at the concluding services. The casket was removed from the Cathedral and borne in the procession to the Union depot.

For an hour before the procession moved, the streets were thronged with people. There must have been ten thousand along the line, a large majority of whom were ladies.

The procession and cortege moved very slowly and were over an hour in reaching the depot. By the time it arrived there the streets were almost impassable on account of the crowds that had gathered, and it was with difficulty that the procession in file into the grounds at the station. Five handsome coaches were in waiting in the station. The remains were placed on board and the train moved off. The Cardinal, Arch Bishops, and many of the clergy accompanied the train to aid in laying the remains of the beloved Arch Bishop to rest.

National Humane Convention.

CLEVELAND, O., October 9.—In pursuance of the call issued by the Illinois Humane Society the National Convention of humane societies was held in this city for the purpose of forming a national organization to protect animals from transit from west to east. Delegates from several States were here, and organized by electing Edwin Lee Brown, of Chicago, Chairman, and Abraham Finch, of Boston, Secretary.

After the adjournment all parts of the country, in sympathy with the movement, were read and enthusiastically received. Resolutions were adopted calling on Congress and State Legislatures to make laws to effectually prevent ill-treatment of animals in transit, and requesting the cooperation of railroad officials.

At the afternoon session a permanent organization was formed, the name being "International Humane Society," with Edwin Lee Brown, of Illinois, as President, and Henry Berg, of New York, and George W. Loring, of New Jersey, as Vice Presidents.

The Convention adjourned to meet at Baltimore the second Wednesday of October next, unless previously called to order.

FOREIGN NEWS.

ENGLAND.

English Crop Report.

LONDON, October 9.—The Mark Lane Express says: Three weeks' fine weather has greatly changed the position if not the prospects of the corn trade generally, rendering threshing possible and improving its condition. There is a much larger supply of English wheat than seemed likely, returns the last week or two showing the usual quantity sold. The demand for the present to lessen the demand for foreign wheat, as arrivals have been good and shipments from Atlantic ports very large. Trade has been over done for the moment as prices have given way with the arrival of 40,000 to 50,000 quarters of American wheat per week at Liverpool and disappointing the demand. Holders have made concessions each market day and prices are from 3 to 4 shillings per quarter lower than three weeks ago. Whether the present state of things will continue remains to be seen. The immense shipments at so early a period would seem to countenance the highest estimates as to the exporting power of the Atlantic States this year; but with such immense supplies as are now ready here, but value far above not only the market, but value in any of our markets, it seems quite incredible that shipments should continue on anything like the same scale as during the past month. It seems inevitable that they must fall off very much, especially as forward contracts were not made to the extent of the same extent for October and November shipment as for September. Indeed for the last six weeks very few offers have come from the other side. All this certainly suggests the idea that shipments may now for some time be on a much more moderate scale. This would tend immediately on trade, for the quality of both winter and spring wheat is unusually fine, and the flush of English supplies is nearly over, while the conditions are now such as to make it very difficult for American wheat, to be expected for American wheat, for the Russian supplies will soon be cut off for winter, there is nothing else for the consumption of the country to go on. Any other influence to affect trade favorably may come from France. The trade there is not so good as was expected, the present demand on the part of French buyers would have seemed to be fully justified, but it may be changed. Like ourselves they have had fine weather, improved condition, and the consequence is home supplies. It is hard for us to imagine to what extent trade is paralyzed throughout France, especially in Paris, by the dangers and anxiety of the political situation. Should this crisis be happily passed there would immediately be a revival of trade, and not least in the corn trade. We should then place in the corn trade dullness give place to activity, the French buyers proceeding at once to supply the necessities which all admit exist this year, but which hitherto seem to have been regarded with indifference. The stock of wheat in the country is very heavy—about 440,000 quarters, against 212,000 last year, the stock of which is about 340,000 quarters, against 450,000 last year.
