POLICE COURT.—Judge Cramer. The following cases were disposed of by His Honor yesterday morning: Wm. Hazlett, charged with assaulting Thomas Murphy on Saturday night, in South Washington street, by John P. Schopp. Geo. Schnopp thought so much of his name that he got drunk on it. He was fined in the sum of $2 and costs.

Mike Hennegan and Pat Hennegan were up for assaulting Wm. Trux. The case was fined $5 and costs and the latter $2 and costs. Wm. Blatter was fined $2 and costs for disorderly conduct at Arber's Hall on Saturday night last.

THE RICHMOND COMPANY.—The Richmond Horse Company appeared in the "Three Mus-kee-deers" last night, in the Opera House before a good audience. In this piece Miss Richmond personated "D'Artaque, an adventurer," Miss Pauline Markham represented "Constance, Maid in Waiting," Miss Rose Temple was "Lorinda," Miss Susie Parker, "Aramis," Mr. Moore played "Abner," Mr. P. Schopp, "Father de Winter," and the balance of the cast was generally satisfied.

PERSONAL POINTS.—Among the late arrivals at the St. James yesterday were: J. W. Thompson, W. W. Buller, Baltimore; T. B. Craig, Clayville, Pa. At the Stamm last night were: W. N. Irwin, Clayville, Va.; H. R. Muhleman, Clarington, Co.; Wm. Tucker and wife, Walkersburg, Pa.; George Campbell, and H. Martin, Clayville; Wm. Woodburn, Cameron.

Major Henry Fulton, of the American rifle team, is expected to arrive in the city to-day, and remain a few days on business connected with the rifle associations of the city. George Medill, the popular Bridgeport dry goods man, is doing a lively business. His store is full of customers and goods constantly.

HYMNAL.—Mr. Alfred Paul was last evening united in the bonds of matrimony with Miss Lee B. Singleton, at the residence of the bride's mother, No. 727 Main street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. A. Cunningham, at 7 P. M., in the presence of a number of invited guests. Mr. John Laughlin and Miss Lida Logan, and Mr. Joe J. Woodson, and Miss Mollie List, were the attendants. The newly married couple left at 9:45 for the West. All took all the boys by surprise, but they forgave him, and wish, as we do, that his life may be a long and happy one—that it may be as genial and sunny as his is himself.

A CURIOUS ACCIDENT.—Uncle John Boring told us of a singular accident that occurred at his place in the town of other day. A boy named Patterson was riding in a wagon, when an oak tree suddenly fell across the road, smashing the wagon into kindling wood in an instant. The boy escaped without a scratch, but the heels of his horse were so severely and so unaccountably manner. The tree was old, and the trunk much decayed near the ground.

PAKED THE LOWER HOUSE.—The following dispatch, received yesterday by the Hon. S. Brady, Secretary of State, will be of interest to Episcopalians in this vicinity: BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 9, 1877. Hon. S. Brady.—The West Virginia Episcopal has passed the lower house unanimously. G. W. THOMPSON.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—A woman named May Land, an inmate of a house of ill fame kept by Samuel Motto, in an alley near the corner of Jacob and 10th streets, attempted to take her own life yesterday morning, by consuming a large quantity of opium. She was taken to the hospital yesterday afternoon, but her recovery was considered probable. The woman has several times recently attempted to take her own life.

A DRUNKEN IRISHMAN in Bridgeport yesterday came to the voting place, upon request was supplied with a "clean democratic ticket, be jabers," but before getting to the window he pulled his ticket in several pieces. A Republican standing next to him in a kind, sympathetic tone, "Here's another one, my friend." Mr. Irishman took the Republican ticket and staggered to the window and stuck it in, a clean, pure Republican ticket.

LOCKED UP.—Officer DeBaltagh last evening locked up a man named Julius Koehler, who showed symptoms of insanity. Koehler is a Beau Brummel sort of a chap, and has a habit of accosting pretty ladies whom he meets on the street. He claims to be a member of the gopset, and says he is located at Martin's Ferry, O.

MANTON AND PHILLIPS.—Several Bazaar men were in the city yesterday, trying to arrange a box between Ed. Phillips, of Pittsburgh, and James Manton, of this city. We understand that Phillips declines to row for less than $200 a side. Manton has taken the matter under consideration.

THE funeral of Louis Hellriegel, a La Belle nailer, took place yesterday afternoon, from his late residence in South Wheeling, under the auspices of Zion's Benevolent Association, of which deceased was a member. The remains were interred in Zion's Cemetery, at Caldwell's Run.

Time made for prisoners, 368 days, as follows: Grading 20th street 115 days, filling on Coal street 64 days, paving the wharf 63 days, digging up boulders on 12th street 12 days, etc.

FINANCE.—The Finance Committee recommended that City Collector Black's report be received as a settlement of his account. Also that the levy for city purposes be fixed at 45 cents on the $100 valuation on real and personal property; and a levy of 10 cents on the $100 valuation of real and personal property be made for the purpose of paying the interest on the 10 30 loan, as required by ordinance passed March 5, 1877.

STREETS AND ALLEYS.—The Committee on Streets and Alleys reported in favor of paying bills amounting to $1,838 44; and recommended that the street on the east side of Main, and that the gutter be repaired, and the Street Commissioner collect from the Citizens' Railway Company its proportion of the cost of the sewer and paving; that a street crossing on and on Byron street, at the intersection with 14th street, be repaired, and that the gutter on Eoff street, at its intersection with 24th, 25th and 26th streets, and the gutter on the east side of Main street, from Alley 20 to 23d street, be repaired, and that a box sewer be placed on 4th street, from the sewer on the stone sewer on that street, near Bell Foundry; also rejecting numerous petitions referred to them. The report was adopted.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.—The Committee on Fire Department recommended the payment of bills aggregating $88 57. United States No. 1, $21 30; Atlantic steamer No. 2, $20 70; How company No. 3, $23 11; How company No. 4, $12 25; Department No. 5, $10 25; Department No. 6, $10 25. Total, $98 97.

THE committee also recommended that the Superintendent of the Water Works be required to cause certain fire plugs in the city to be blown out once each month, until otherwise ordered. The report was adopted.

MR. MYLES, chairman of the Committee on Scales, reported that he had failed to secure a quorum of his committee. He recommended the payment of the bill of Mr. Edwards, amounting to $19 50. The bill was ordered paid.

THE Second Branch notified the First Branch that they were ready to go into an election for a Superintendent of the city prison. The amendments of the First Branch to the ordinance in relation to the Pittsburgh, Wheeling & Kentucky railroad were concurred in.

THE Committee on Markets submitted the report of the Clerk of the Second Ward Market, which was ordered filed. The Committee on Health reported a bill of $32 95 for work done in the Third Ward, by order of the Board of Health, Deputy Health Officer. Ordered paid.

THE report of the Committee on Finance was received from the First Branch, with some amendments, which were concurred in. By Crowther: That the curbstone be set in front of Chris Stock's new brick house on 18th street. Adopted.

By Goodfellow: That gas lamps be placed at the usual distance on Eoff street, between 26th and 32d streets. Adopted. By Adams: That a 4-inch cork sewer be laid from the pit of the Eighth Ward scales to connect with the street sewer, being a distance of about 80 feet. Adopted.

By Reeves: Whereas, the First Branch of council has refused to go into joint session for the purpose of an election of Superintendent of the City Work House, therefore, Resolved, That the Second Branch of Council will not pay any further bills which may be incurred by the present occupants of the office. Adopted.

By Belts: That the chairman of the Committee on Water Works be requested to purchase 600 feet of 6-inch water pipe to be laid on Wood street, Sixth Ward. Adopted. By Waterhouse: That the Superintendent of the Water Works be ordered to remove twenty-inch water pipe out of sewer at the intersection of Main and 21st streets. Adopted.

By Wait: That the amount of tax collected on one-half lot No. 7, erroneously assessed to the estate of John Beck, deceased, in the Eighth Ward, for the years 1871, 1872, 1873, 1874, 1875 and 1876 be refunded. Adopted. By Crowther: That the Street Commissioner, Superintendent of City Prison and Overseer of the City Jail be forbidden to employ their own horses and carts, and horses and carts belonging to any city officer, in working upon the streets and alleys of the city. Referred to City Solicitor, with instructions to draw up an ordinance.

By Cowden: That the gas trustees be instructed to extend the gas pipe from the corner of South Broadway and Ohio streets to the corner of South York and Ohio streets. Referred to the Committee on Lights. Council then adjourned.

HIS Honor Mayor Sweeney presided. Messrs. Baird, Blair, Boring, Carnahan, Egarter, Hastings, McAdams, Moorehead and Ritter were present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and, being approved, were signed by the Mayor and Clerk.

A resolution by Messrs. Egarter & Hall, asking the appointment of a special committee to report on possibility of funding the 7 per cent bond at a lower rate of interest was adopted, and the Mayor appointed Messrs. Egarter and Hall as said committee.

On motion, the Branch adjourned. ELECTION PATRIOTS IN BRIDGEPORT.—The voting place in Bridgeport adjoining property owned by R. Atchison. In Atchison's property is a sort of an alley into which Black Bowles took a man to have a private talk on politics before voting. The man emerged from the alley a Republican, which seems to have enraged Atchison, who is a Democrat, and he publicly declared that "not another man should go into that alley. That is my property, and no d—n whiskey personally should go in there. Black stepped up to him and asked, "What's the matter with you?" Atchison stood not upon the order of striking, but immediately struck Bowles on the forehead. Bowles parried the blow partially and got into Atchison's neck. Atchison then sprawling on the pavement. Atchison scrambled up and wanted to renew the battle, but was taken charge of by friends who prevented further trouble by taking him home. Before going, however, he announced that he would whip any Republican in the town. Old Joe Dixon, "poor body" who heard it, braced up and putting himself into position, remarked: "No you can do it, Robert." The laugh that ensued was a good finale to the scene, leaving all in a good humor.

COMPLIMENTARY TO COLLECTOR BLACK.—The Committee on Finance, in their report to the City Council last evening, paid the following compliment to City Collector Black: "The committee take pleasure in stating that the report of Mr. Black exhibits a most diligent and efficient list ever presented to Council."

MESSRS. DWIGHT, STANTON and Black, of the Maynard Kille club, were out practicing yesterday. The distance was 600 yards. Mr. Stanton made the best record, being 65 out of a possible 75.
