THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

Meeting for Organization Yesterday—Significant Chief of Chairman.

As heretofore, announced, the Democratic County Executive Committee met yesterday afternoon at the Court House for the purpose of organizing for the campaign.

An INTELLIGENCER envoy was on hand to take in whatever might be of interest, and the first thing of interest he noticed was the small attendance. There were only seven, all told, in sight, and it was known that two of the non-appearing ones had written their resignations out and could not be prevailed upon to serve, while young Larkin was off on a "tower" of the Western States.

About half-past two o'clock Gregory Warner called the seven together, and nominated W. C. Haadland for temporary chairman. The point was then raised that a temporary organization could do nothing. After some wrangling H. H. Pendleton, the youngest member of the committee, rose and said that it was an individual committee, the proceedings should necessarily be private, and suggested that all but the members of the committee be excluded, which suggestion was acted upon. Those present who were not members of the committee, and who were excluded by this motion were H. H. Caldwell, Esq., Hon. W. A. Hearne, and two reporters. Who left.

Mr. Hearne muttered, "I have been on about this committee for the last ten years, and this is the first time such a thing was ever done."

Of course this action on the part of the committee precluded the possibility of the reporters' making a full report of the transactions of the meeting. From an insider, however, we learned that the resignations of Louis F. Stifel and A. J. Cecil were received and accepted, and in their place Joseph L. Bedillion, of Triadelphia, and Ralph Arkie, of the city, were chosen members of the committee. The committee then consisted of Gregory Warner, H. H. Pendleton, J. H. Montgomery, W. C. Haadland, W. H. Caldwell, J. L. Bedillion, and Ralph Arkie.

The committee was then determined to depose Mr. W. C. Haadland, as it was well known that he was opposed to the nomination of G. R. Tingle. Therefore he was allowed to step down and out, and in his place Col. Philo Kimberly was chosen.

WHAT TINGLE SAYS.

Confident he can Carry Ohio County, and Successful in Obtaining the Nomination.

Shortly after the adjournment of the Democratic County Committee yesterday,

an INTELLIGENCER man called Sheriff

Tingle on the street and propounded to him the query:

"Well, what is the committee going to do about the delegates to the Congressional Convention?"

"I do not know, sir, and I do not care,"

was Mr. Tingle's reply, and he went on to explain that the committee calls a new convention, I will not only secure a majority of the delegates, but I will make the delegation solid for Tingle. It makes no difference what course they take, I propose to go right through with a counter move which will make me master of the field so far as Ohio County is concerned."

"As the delegation now stands, you are the first choice of a majority, I believe."

"Indeed so," replied Mr. Tingle, "I am gladly so. I will be content to be a Campbell

Wilson man or two, but I have seven eighths of the delegates, at least. The people seem to be perfectly satisfied with the delegation chosen by the County Committee, and I am perfectly satisfied with their appointment. It is only a few friends of Wilson who object."

"And you think if the calling of a new delegate convention alters the relative strength of the candidates at all, it will be in your favor?"

"I have no doubt of it at all."

"Then I suppose you would be perfectly willing to have a new convention called,

and fight the battle over again?"

"Altogether willing," replied Mr. Tingle.

"If the committee calls a new convention, I will be content to be a Campbell

Wilson man or two, but I have seven

eighths of the delegates, at least. The people seem to be perfectly satisfied with
