The Intelligencer.

REPUBLICAN OFFICE. No. 25 and 27 Fourteenth Street.

CHIEF CLERK, August 2, 1880. H. G. STURGEON and J. W. CAMPBELL.

MEMBERS OF THE WHEELING COLLEGE are now on a visit to their friends here.

The Alabama Election. General Weaver, who is fresh from the campaign in Alabama.

General Weaver, who is fresh from the campaign in Alabama, told a reporter of the Intelligencer yesterday.

The practical questions of the campaign are strongly presented by the New York Public as follows:

"The country has reached a condition of great prosperity. Yet we are told that a change is near, that at present of office, perhaps it is, but what reason is there for believing that a change would promote the business and industrial prosperity?"

That Shameless Forgery. The author of the Swayne Decision Report shows how the world had been deceived.

New York, July 28.—The correspondent who furnished the bogus Swayne opinion has just called upon to defend himself by printing the following card:

As you have taken much interest in the correction of the Swayne opinion, I have the honor to inform you that the original copy of the opinion, as published in the Intelligencer, is a forgery.

THE FAMOUS LETTER.

OF GENERAL HANCOCK TO GENERAL SHERMAN.

Written in the Troubled Times Pending the Decision of the Last Presidential Election, and Made Famous Since the Nomination of the Winner for the Presidency.

New York, July 31.—This letter was written in reply to two letters on the situation received from General Sherman. It is furnished to the Associated Press by the New York World.

My dear General.—You find of the 14th inst. reached me in New York the day before I left for the West.

I intended to reply to it before leaving, but care incident to departure interfered. Then, again, since my arrival here I have been so occupied with personal affairs of a business nature, that I have deferred writing from day to day until this morning.

Now find myself in debt to you for another acknowledgment of your favor of the 17th, received a few days since. I have concluded to leave here the 23rd (to-morrow evening), so that I may be expected in New York on the 31st inst.

It has been cold and dreary since my arrival here, and I have not had a hot day since I have encountered in the temperate zone. I have known St. Louis in December to have genial weather throughout the month.

This December has been frigid and the river has been frozen more solid than I have ever known it to be. When I heard the rumor that I was ordered to the Pacific Coast, I thought it probably true, considering the past discussion on the subject.

The possibilities seemed to me to point that way. Had I been told of a general order, I should not have complained, nor made resistance of any kind.

I would have gone quickly, if not prepared to go promptly. I certainly would have been relieved from the responsibilities and anxieties concerning Presidential success or failure.

As I have been writing thus freely to you, I may still further inform you, or I may wish to use Federal troops east of the Mississippi within the last few months, save so far as they may be brought into action under the article of the Constitution which prohibits a State from having its own army or navy.

GREAT REPUBLICAN DEMONSTRATION.

At Charleston, Kanawha County, Last Saturday.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. The Republicans of Kanawha held the largest political convention that has ever assembled in this county to-day.

The Court House was not large enough to accommodate one half the delegates and the convention adjourned to the Cotton Opera House.

Judge J. H. Brown, Hon. H. C. McWhorter and Col. E. L. Buttrick were nominated for the House of Delegates.

The campaign was formally opened this evening by the Hon. J. H. Warwick, of New York, in a masterly speech.

The Republican camp fires are burning in this valley.

Encouraging Reports From Harrison County.—"Victory" the motto of the Republicans.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. The Republicans had a large and enthusiastic meeting here to-night.

General Goff in one of his finest political efforts held an immense audience of ladies and gentlemen for over two hours.

He fully met every Democratic objection, and completely refuted the one-sided statements that Weaver made here yesterday.

Gen. Goff is irresistible. Col. Wilson, Democratic member of Congress from this district, looked woeful and seemed completely answered while the General discussed the tariff question.

In Eagle street a rousing meeting was held to-day, addressed by Moore, Huskirk and Vandeventer.

A large Goff and Arthur club was formed. "Victory" is our motto!

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. The carelessness of servants results in the burning of forty-four horses.

GREENSBORO, WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. VA., August 1.—This morning a fire broke out in the stables belonging to the White Sulphur Springs Company.

Forty-four horses, twenty of which belonged to the Springs Company and twenty-four to the guests, were burnt.

The fire is supposed to be the result of carelessness on the part of servants. Building uninsured.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. No Doubt of His Success in Finishing His Self-Imposed Starve-His Condition.

New York, August 1.—At noon to-day, Dr. Tanner entered on the thirty-fifth day of his fast.

He slept well the night previous and appeared refreshed this morning. He kept the gallery all day and was attacked with nausea and vomiting at different periods.

At 2:45 he got up to put on his clothes but could not do so as he had an attack of vomiting.

At 9 p. m. he had another attack of vomiting and at 9 p. m. retired to his room and appeared to be sleeping.

His medical attendants said he was in a feeble condition this morning, and that the attacks of nausea were unfavorable, and as they occurred after drinking small quantities of fluid, it showed the Doctor's stomach to be in a highly irritated condition.

One of the medical men said that Dr. Tanner was falling every day, but there was no doubt he would finish his self-imposed task.

He thought that the frequent attacks of vomiting showed that the coats of the stomach were somewhat inflamed. Dr. Tanner took nothing to-day but a little carbonated ice-cream.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. Canada Crops. MONTREAL, July 31.—Crop reports from 149 places along the line of the Grand Trunk Railway show that fall wheat has been partially winter killed in some sections.

Between here and Port Hope, and from Toronto to Sarnia it is very good, promising a yield of 25 to 40 bushels per acre.

There was a heavy frost in the townships and in Ontario, and, taking the country as a whole, the farmers have abundant reason to be thankful.

FOREIGN FACTS.

WHAT IS GOING ON OVER THE BRIGHT BLUE SEA.

The Divine Serv and Her Company.—The War Against the Turcomans.—Had State Affairs at Candahar.—Dr. Parsons Murdered—African Affairs—New Disaster at Paris—Roman Complications.

PARIS, July 31.—Manager Abbey's agent has completed a Bernhardt company for America. The task was complicated by the auferous reputation of the United States and the prevailing idea that any French artist willing to expatriate himself or herself ought to retire with a fortune in a velvet pouch.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. Silver Wedding. CADIZ, O., July 31.—The silver wedding of N. J. Brown, which came off last evening, was the grandest and greatest social event that ever took place in old Cadiz.

Five hundred invitations were sent out, and about three hundred guests were on hand. Several hundred five silver presents, worth over one thousand dollars, were brought and laid at the feet of the beautiful and accomplished bride.

Miss Robinson, who was the faithful wife and happy bride, was Mrs. Brown, in 1855. The elegant mansion and beautiful grounds of Mr. Brown, on Lincoln avenue, were brilliantly lighted and decorated.

and when the three hundred beautiful ladies, elegantly dressed in Cadiz style, were seated in the ball room, and on dress anything in Eastern Ohio, and the noble men present, who fully merited, and certainly received, the admiration of the fair ladies, it was a grand night as was ever witnessed.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. Monthly Oil Report. TITUSVILLE, PA., August 1.—The July oil report, to be published in the Titusville Herald to-morrow morning, gives the new wells completed during the month at 314; dry holes, 11; new production, 8,135 barrels; average production per well, 247 barrels; wells drilling at the close of the month, 493; rigs up and building at the close of the month, 441.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. Stripping the Ivory. PHILADELPHIA, PA., August 1.—Dr. T. B. Miller, Dean of the Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery, was arrested to-night upon a charge of forgery.

The alleged forgery consists in antedating a series of lecture tickets and in writing names of professors on them. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

Utica, N. Y., August 1.—Mary Ennis, aged 15, fell into a canal at Dutchessville, and Stephen Murray, aged 21, her cousin, attempted to save her and both were drowned.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. G. Conrad F. Ahlers, of Cincinnati, has filed the Free Press, a German paper, for $10,000 for libel, in saying he had turned his aged father out of doors.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

JEFFERSON POLITICS.

The Steubenville Republicans Open the Campaign With a Rousing Meeting.—The Garfield Club Increased to 1,152 Members.—The Democrats Attempt to Organize, but by Force of Circumstances are Compelled to Adjourn.—A New Pipe Line Projected.

STREUBENVILLE, August 1. Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. The opening of the campaign by the Republicans was announced for last night, as was also a meeting of the Democrats for the purpose of forming a Hancock club.

The Democrats claim to have stolen a march on the Republicans and secured all the music except the colored band, which it is very hard to get together on Saturday night, as a great many of the members are barbers.

Your correspondent must own that he felt blue early in the evening as the people flocked to the place of the proposed Democratic meeting, where the City Band and drum corps were playing, and the colored band had not yet put in an appearance, so the noise was all one-sided.

But as soon as the Democratic music battered the people flocked up Market street by tens and hundreds, and soon the streets in the neighborhood of the Republican headquarters were crowded.

About eight o'clock the meeting was called to order by President Sherrard, and the Glee Club opened with that good old song, "John Bull." For years Mr. Mac Chair has announced John M. Cook and W. A. Walden as the speakers of the occasion, and introduced Mr. Cook as the first speaker.

The appearance of this gentleman was greeted with applause by the large assembly. Mr. Cook, in his speech, was asked what he thought of our prospects, and had replied he thought we would succeed. But he had studied the matter and now knew we would succeed, and demonstrated the fact that as in former years, Mr. Cook is a partisan of necessity succeed. No such word as fail. He gave Hancock all the glory he deserved for his military career, but he was no statesman.

On the other hand Gen. Jas. A. Garfield [applause] was the grand old man of the party. The controversy was not between two Generals, it was the grand old Republican party against that hideous deformity all bloated and scarred by political debauchery. [Immense applause.]

Mr. Walden said we did not need to work in Ohio—but we did. While Ohio was Republican, she was an October State, and what would be the effect if she should give a less majority than she did for Foster. "Why would he do that?" asked Mr. Cook, on the night of the 12th of October we telegraphed abroad that "Ohio gives 80,000 majority for the Republicans."

The band, at the close of Mr. O's speech, played one of its own pieces, and then a charge of assembling completely with intent to injure the republic of the club, which had been increased, Mr. Sherrard said to 1,040. At this point 112 more signed the roll, and the Glee Club sang "Marching Through Georgia," which was given in many of the loud calls. At the close of this song loud calls were given for Walden, who was then introduced.

Mr. Walden was greeted with immense applause, as, although he is a staunch Republican, he has not been in Ohio for years. Mr. Walden prefaced his remarks by saying he had been studying Hancock's letter all day to see if he could find anything in it, and had retired fatigued and successful in finding—as a voice in the audience give it some for the night. Mr. Walden's glory he was entitled to, but said he had been educated and clothed and fed and paid by the Government, from his youth up, and had only done his duty in fighting for that Government, inspired by his desire for promotion. Mr. Walden's speech was greeted with applause, and he was then introduced.

Our party had not only a loyal head, but was loyal clear through to the core, and didn't have to train under the shadow of a great big man. Walden said they were loyal. There were loyal men in the Democratic party, but the leaders were not loyal. They were loyal to their party in preference to their Government, and would let the latter go to the dogs sooner than give up the party. Mr. Stanton, left it. The speaker had heard a speaker, he would not say who, at the Hancock-English ratification meeting in Philadelphia, who said the Democratic party was not loyal to the Government.

If you wish for peace, great, glorious peace, for the people of the Democratic Convention, now, the President has called for 500,000 men. Shall we have them? The Democratic party will have peace; for if we don't get it we will have to submit to a military despotism. The Democratic party will have peace, and will have to submit to a military despotism.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. BURNING DEFEAT. QUINCY, July 31.—There is no news direct from Candahar. Native accounts do not describe General Burrows' defeat as crushing. They state the British cavalry and artillery were lured, by the enemy's cavalry feigning retreat, into ambuscades, where Aroob Khan's army attacked them, inflicting a severe loss. General Burrows' whole force retreated. These particulars require confirmation. The forces retreating from Rabnan and Dabul posts have been relieved from Chaman Chok.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. NORTH AFRICA. CAPETOWN, July 31.—Parliament has been prorogued. Governor Sir Bartle Frere, in his speech, attributed the failure of the confederated Zulu and the annexation of Transvaal.

LONDON, July 31.—Mr. Gladstone has promised an answer to Sir Wilfrid Lawson's question concerning the recall of Sir Bartle Frere from the Cape of Good Hope Monday next.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. ACCIDENT AT PARIS. PARIS, July 31.—During the storm yesterday, the new masonry gaw way in a portion of the main sewer under repair in the Boulevard St. Michael, the pavement laid in opposite houses Nos. 79 and 81, and the cellars were flooded. The gap in the roadway is twenty yards long and twenty yards deep. Officials state it is impossible to prevent No. 81 from falling into the Catacombs.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. GLADSTONE ILL. LONDON, August 1.—Mr. Gladstone caught a chill after leaving the House of Commons Friday, and is now suffering from congestion of the left lung. The latest bulletin issued Friday evening says his condition is not favorable, but that the danger is not in immediate prospect.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. THE QUEEN'S TABLE. LONDON, August 1.—Mr. Gladstone caught a chill after leaving the House of Commons Friday, and is now suffering from congestion of the left lung. The latest bulletin issued Friday evening says his condition is not favorable, but that the danger is not in immediate prospect.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. BELLALINE. Kempt's grocery and dwelling house on Noble street were destroyed by fire Saturday morning just at daylight. The first alarm was given by Mr. Kempt himself, who found smoke coming from the store. Before the alarm could be spread, a keg of powder, and probably some oil, as was on board in the store, exploded, blowing the store room—a one-story building—into pieces and scattering the fire. There was no wind at the time, but there were buildings over nearly the whole lot and the fire spread rapidly from one to the other. Every person within a square of the building was aroused by the explosion and the Hope house company was soon at the fire. One section of the hose burst and there was no other company there for some time; but when the water was thrown the company did good work, for they saved a two story frame that almost touched the burning house and the house on the other side. The B. & O. track was in the rear, and made a space sufficient to prevent any fears of danger there, and the stable was allowed to burn, most of the time untouched by the water. A fire hose in the yard caught fire and blazed like a torch, the pole not catching. Mr. Kempt is uncertain of the date of a policy he had in the Columbian Mutual; but thinks it has not expired, or the agent would have been after a renewal. The stock of groceries was insured in the German, of Wheeling, together with the stable.

Mrs. Mattie Williams, of Warnock's, is visiting relatives here. There were unusually large numbers of country people on our streets Saturday. All had something to sell and took home loads of goods in exchange. But not half enough green corn—roasting-ears—has been brought to Bellaire yet. They say it's a good year for corn, but where's the corn?

The first of our own river water melons were in town Saturday. James Treanor, the Register's correspondent, has returned to his work after rusticating a while. The well in Horn's Addition is about dry. The hearing of Amos Shepherd on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill, lasted all day Friday and until eleven o'clock at night, but the defendant was discharged.

Several new buildings are about to be built in the center of town, and several are approaching completion with intent to credit to Bellaire. A business block, with a hall above, will be built on Union street, running towards the river. James Patterson and David Darrah will build in Sheets' Addition. Henry Landkrohn has just begun a large store room and dwelling across from Eberle's new one, on Belmont street.

The La Belle and Bellaire nailers began their base ball game on time, Saturday afternoon, on the grounds beyond the gas works. Near by were the Barons and Pattersons; but the nailers were well equipped with all the spectators. Bellaire went to the bat, and John Dunn took his place as umpire. Lem Battelle was scorer. The result was 31 to 14, in favor of La Belle. The score by innings is as follows:

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—Total. La Belle: 1 1 1 2 0 4 5 6—11. Bellaire: 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0. La Belle's first run was a home run. Not a few mistakes were made in forgetting to touch bases after fouls, forgetting to hold the ball on base, etc., and the spectators were amused to see O'reighton run, with all steam up, clear to second base on a just batted ball, and a large crowd of spectators, as they were playing for fun, and that's what the crowd was there to see. The ladies had seats under the elm trees on the road. Mill Stewart ran a foot race between second and third base, and came off victor. When handling work to bat the scorer and the crowd fell back in a hurry—he struck left-handed. Mills fell at full length on third base, and Beroth caught his stars he was not under him. Mill Stewart rolled up his sleeves and hit like an old hand. He hit an homer with his bat in his hand. Hardesten met the "heavy weights" at third and helped them run home. Simmons got a base from Lynch's called balls. John Weir held on to the flies. Wilson was a power hitter. Dave Stewart scattered the fielders after his hits.

The ball works will not run Monday as the supply of iron has run short this hot weather. The ballists think it is a special interposition of Providence. The Democratic primaries, Saturday, were very well attended. In the Fifth ward 45 of the 48 voters turned out. The result in the wards is a victory for Hindman. He having the First ward delegate, one in the second, two in the Third, one in the Fourth, and five in the Fifth. Darrah has the remaining four. In the township Hindman made no fight; had no ticket, and Darrah got two delegates. The ticket is either a Johnson or a Milligan man. The delegates are as follows: First ward, W. J. Kelly; Second ward, Ralph Crozier, A. Stahl, Jr., and Robert Sherry; Third ward, F. Rowley, and F. S. Clinton; Fourth ward, H. Meek, and H. G. Wilson; Fifth ward, W. B. Workman. The Congressional delegates chosen at the same day evening, and delivered a harangue on some subject that no one can state precisely what it was. She said she would lecture here Sunday and probably would give a series during the coming week.

Rev. Gaston will be absent next Sunday helping Rev. Milford, of Cranston, and there may be no services at the Presbyterian church on that day. A woman took her station at the corner of Union and Thirty-second streets Saturday evening, and delivered a harangue on some subject that no one can state precisely what it was. She said she would lecture here Sunday and probably would give a series during the coming week.
