Pittsburgh Southern Extension.

Pursuant to adjournment in this city about a week ago the principal movers in the extension of the Pittsburgh Southern Railroad from the Pennsylvania State line to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., held a meeting in Pittsburgh day before yesterday and elected James H. Hopkins, of Pittsburgh, President, Charles W. Mackey, of Franklin, Pa., Vice-President, and J. W. Rowland, of Pittsburgh, Secretary of the new organization. The company will issue their mortgage bonds in a short time and propose to begin work on the extension, which will be three hundred miles long, as soon as possible.

Miller Acquitted.

The trial of Henry Miller for the murder of John Hilton in the town of Fulton, December last, which has been going on in the Circuit Court for the past two days, terminated yesterday in the acquittal of the prisoner. It was questioned at the time of the preliminary hearing whether the evidence was strong enough to hold Miller, and the doubts that then existed are shown by the verdict of the jury to have been well founded.

The preponderance of the testimony showed plainly enough that Miller only acted in self defense. Hilton was armed; Miller was not. In the scuffle Hilton fired two shots at Miller, one of which took effect, wounding him slightly. Miller realized that his life was in imminent danger, and obtaining possession of the revolver, fired the fatal shots. The jury was out about one hour, returning the verdict of "not guilty" at half-past twelve o'clock.

Press Club Lecture.

The prospects for a large audience at the Opera House on Saturday evening are very encouraging. It is almost useless to dilate on Mr. Kemple's abilities as a humorist, as he has on former occasions shown to the satisfaction of all that he is unequalled in his peculiar vein. While Mr. Kemple was sojourning in Washington City he met all of the prominent men of the country, and was afforded extraordinary facilities for gathering amusing reminiscences and mirth-provoking anecdotes. His inimitable manner in relating these will, of course, add greatly to the effect. The lecturer has a rich fund of humor, and will be quite at home on the Opera House stage. It might be said in this connection that the subject matter of the lecture will be chaste and void of all offensive terms, so that ladies hesitating about being present on that point need have no fears that anything improper will be said. Reserved seats are now on sale at Banmer's music store.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Regular Monthly Meeting Last Night—The Matter of the Graduating Class of Centre District.

The Board of Education met in regular monthly session in their rooms in the Crangle block last night, President Wilson in the Chair. The following members answered to their names: Arkle, Acker, Bingell, Caldwell, Collier, Criswell, Ebeling, Hildreth, Jepson, Maxwell, McCully, Miller, J. C., Miller, J. A., Pipes, Schockey, Todd, Wait, Whally, Wilson Andrew.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and signed.

The report of the Committee on Accounts was read and approved.

Dr. Jepson, of Clay district, reported the continuation of Mr. Nilzel as janitor of the Third ward school, on account of the declination of the person recently elected, to take charge of the school building.

The petition of Mr. Stein, President of the Fulton Board of Education, for the payment of a certain portion of taxes on account of the fact that quite a number of pupils were in attendance at that school, was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The petition of the graduating class of the Fifth ward school was read, asking that as they were acquainted with Prof. Shepherd's methods of teaching, that he be retained until after the graduation.

Mr. James Maxwell offered a resolution authorizing the removal of this class to the Sixth ward school, and the closing of the school after the last of April.

Alfred Caldwell opposed the resolution. If it contemplated the forfeiture of the pay of the teachers, it was manifestly unjust. The teachers had been hired for one year, and their salaries fixed for that time; they had prepared for teaching that length of time and it was not fair to curtail their salaries.

Mr. Maxwell supported his resolution in a brief speech.

Dr. Hildreth urged the continuance of the school by hiring another building.

Dr. Jepson also opposed the resolution, and urged the continuance of the school.

Mr. Maxwell said that he knew of no building in the ward that could accommodate the pupils.

At this juncture Mr. J. B. Taney, City Collector, appeared with Messrs. M. & J. Pollock as sureties and gave bond as collector of city school taxes in the sum of $20,000.

Mr. Caldwell opposed the resolution, arguing that changing the teachers of the graduating class was unwise, because the pupils were familiar with Prof. Shepherd. Besides the Board had hired Mr. Shepherd for one year and were in human justice and morality bound to pay him for that length of time. He then offered as a substitute for Mr. Maxwell's resolution the petition of the graduating class asking the retention of Mr. Shepherd.

The yeas and nays were demanded on Mr. Caldwell's substitute with the following result. Yeas, Acker, Arkle, Bingell, Caldwell, Collier, Criswell, Ebeling, Hildreth, McCully, Schockey, Whally—12; Nays, Maxwell, Miller, J. C., Pipes, Todd, Wait and Wilson, A.,—6. So the substitute was adopted.

Mr. Bingell and Dr. Jepson thereupon offered the following: To authorize the Commissioners of Centre district to look after suitable rooms if possible to continue said school, or, as many of the upper classes as possible till the new school house is finished and ready for occupancy.

Capt. Wilson said the whole matter had its origin among the teachers, of whom one was the sister of Mr. Bingell. The principal had incited the movement, and neither scholars nor the pupils were favorable to it.

Mr. Bingell resented the insinuation of Capt. Wilson, and said that he did not act on behalf of his sister.

Mr. Arkle said he was in favor of continuing the schools, as a matter of justice to the people of the Fifth ward.

Mr. Collier said he would vote for the resolution provided the words "at the end of this scholastic year" were interjected. This was done and the resolution passed.

A communication was read from John R. Miller asking to be elected Secretary of the Board. The communication was laid on the table.

Mr. Todd offered a resolution that the pipe for the sewer of the Fifth ward school be changed from ten to twelve inches.

Mr. Collier made a motion that after the contractors took possession of the Fifth ward school house the Secretary of the Board be instructed to cancel the policies of insurance upon said building.

Adjourned.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Miller Murder Trial—The Jury Returns A Verdict of "Not Guilty."

This Court met at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

The argument in the case of the State vs. Henry Miller for the murder of John Hilton was resumed. Mr. Robert Marshall opened for the defendant and was followed by Capt. Dovener who closed for the defense. Prosecuting Attorney Jordan then made the closing address for the State and the case was given to the jury. They retired at 11:30 and an hour later returned into Court and submitted a verdict of "not guilty." The defendant was ordered to be discharged.

The case of the State vs. Henry Smith, charged with burglarizing the store of Jacob Fisher, near the Pennsylvania State line, was put on trial before the following jury: Charles Hirsch, William Fritsch, W. H. Davis, J. W. Kennon, Thos. G. Glasscock, Robert Crawford, Ed. Clator, John Heiner, jr., C. H. Quimby, John Sisson, James Clark and John Turpin.

The jury was out until a late hour last night, and being unable to agree upon a verdict, was discharged.

The case of the State vs. Neidemier was postponed until May 31, and the State vs. West until June 1.

MUNICIPAL COURT.—Judge Cranmer.

This court met yesterday morning at the usual hour, and the only business transacted was the hearing of the arguments of the bill of exceptions in the case of D. B. Welsh vs. the Franklin Insurance Company.

Funeral of T. J. Blair.

The funeral of the late Thomas J. Blair took place from his residence 66 Zane street, Island, yesterday morning, and was very numerously attended. Rev. J. T. McClure, D. D., of the United Presbyterian Church, conducted the services at the house in a very impressive manner. Among the large number of prominent persons who were present at the funeral were General I. H. Duval, Thomas R. Laird and Capt. Carlin, of the Revenue office; Mayor Egerter and a very large proportion of the members of both branches of the City Council, who accompanied the remains as far as the Back river bridge, on the way to St. Clairsville, where the interment took place. The remains were brought out on the pavement in front of the house in order to allow the friends to view them. The pall-bearers were John Brown, General Duval, J. P. McCammon, W. J. W. Cowden, James McAdams and Wm. Hare.

THE FAIRS

Going on at St. Alphonsus and the Church of the Immaculate Conception this Week.

The ladies and gentlemen in charge of the fair at St. Alphonsus Church have certainly reason to congratulate themselves upon the measure of their success. The hall is neatly and attractively arranged, the tables beautifuly set out and well trimmed, and the whole affair is being carried out in a manner to please the large crowds which nightly throng the rooms. Father Emanuel Moppey, who has the fair in charge, is an admirable conductor and to his guidance and direction its success can be attributed.

One of the chief features of the fair is a beautiful set of one hundred and fifty pieces of white ware, presented by the Pottery Company, for which Mrs. Martin Thornton and Mrs. Louis Bonenberger are contestants. A set of glass ware from the Ætna glass works at Bellaire, will be given to the defeated candidate for the first prize.

Other prizes are being contested for as follows:

Barrel of flour—Charles Mayer.

Spread—Miss Mamie Miller.

Cooking stove—Teresa Askey and Louisia Kraus, contestants.

Gold necklace—Louisa Duffy and Kate Darlue.

Silver Waiter—Mrs. John Thoner and Mrs. Gus Mathews.

Set of Jewelry—Miss Rosa Mauran and Mary Winstoffler.

Gold Necklace—Amelia Walter and Mary Alwinger.

Marble Table—Amelia Buch and Mattie Schrinz.

Brittania Set—Mrs. Mary Miller and Mrs. M. Mage.

A common Rocker—Miss Lizzie Klieves.

Gold Watch—Mrs. McCormick and Mrs. Crusers.

Necklace—Teresa Klug and Teresa Hiemiller.

At the Immaculate Conception a fair crowd was in attendance last night and the wares sold very rapidly. The church is beautifully decorated and the exhibits are all handsomely displayed.

The "vote nuisance" was in full blast at the St. Alphonsus Fair last night, and there were more children around with books begging for votes than we ever remember to have seen at any similar entertainment. This nuisance should be abated at once.

CONCERT

A large and very critical audience was present at Fourth Street M. E. Church last evening, and was pleasantly entertained for two hours by the choir, assisted by Mrs. Oscar Rammelsberg, Mrs. W. S. Day and Prof. Schockey. The other numbers were finely executed and were warmly applauded by the audience. The accompaniments of Miss Annie Logan and Mrs Hutchins are to be commended for their perfect time and sympathetic execution.

HYMENEAL.

The Brady-Paxton Nuptials at Wellsburg Yesterday.

The marriage of Mr. Charles N. Brady, of this city, to Miss Mary E. Paxton, daughter of E. W. Paxton, Esq., took place yesterday at "The Maples," near Wellsburg, the residence of the bride's father. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mackey, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Wellsburg. The wedding was a very quiet one, none but the members of the two families being present. The presents were numerous and very handsome, some of them coming all the way from California from friends of Mr. Brady. After the ceremony the couple left for an extended trip to the Eastern cities.

The bride and groom are well and favorably known in this city. Mr. Brady is highly esteemed in both social and business circles, and has the best wishes of his friends and acquaintances for a happy and prosperous married life. The bride, during her residence in this city, made many warm friends, and is a very estimable and worthy lady. The INTELLIGENCER in common with the friends of the couple offers its hearty congratulations.

BELLAIRE.

General Gleanings and Gossip from the Glass City.

A dancing platform is being erected at Cummins' Grove for the Druids at their Centennial celebration, May 6.

Miss Emma Myers, daughter of A. J. Myers, is very low with fever.

Evans and Ayers have begun building a double house on Noble street, Gravel Hill slope, above the Episcopal Church. David Rice's house, just below, has the foundation well under way.

Limestone is being hauled and preparations made to build a lime kiln in the hollow beside Noble street, just north of Indian run.

Miss Glen, of Columbus, has accompanied Miss Mary Smith back from Columbus to her home, on Gravel Hill, for a visit.

The Gravel Hill school bell rang before 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. The people found out that it was not meant for a fire alarm but could not find out what it was meant for.

Efforts are being made to procure the building of a macadamized road from here by way of Indian Run to the National road. A great deal of produce, in the present state of our roads, comes to Bellaire by leaving the National road either at the top of the "Big Hill," or at Bridgeport. but if the proposed pike be built, there is no doubt that the people and the city will be benefitted by the easiness with which we can be reached from the National road. Many wagons will then come here instead of to Wheeling. Only let the pike be made and kept up afterwards.

The Trustees of the Rose Hill Cemetery will probably soon put a new fence around the grounds. The affairs of the Cemetery have been lying idle for some time, owing to the death of some of the Trustees.

Rev. Wm. Gaston on Thursday married Miss Sophia Ingler and Mr. William Gratton at the bride's home in the Third ward.

As the Jubilee Singers will be at the Methodist church Friday evening, the Chatauqua Literary Society will only meet and adjourn to the next meeting night.

Union street was once macadamized for part of its length, and now where the surface mud has been cleaned off the stones show; but no road, even if used only a tenth as much as Union street, would stand without new stone.

Probably in spite of all the notice that has been given in the papers and otherwise, a great many persons will think there is a fire when the alarm rings Friday evening. A new fire attachment has been put to the bell at the Fourth ward school house, and it will be rung at five o'clock on Friday afternoon for trial and to allow people and the firemen to recognize the sound.

G. W. Jeffers was hurt by a slip at the Belmont coal mine, Thursday. His injuries are serious.

The City Council's Committee on Bridges advertise for bids to build a bridge on Belmont street, across the B. & O. R. R. track.

Mr. Walling, one of the C. & P. engineers, is confined to his home on Gravel Hill by rheumatism. R. C. F.
