

The Intelligencer.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

CONCEPT OF COURT.

THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

OAKLAND CORRESPONDENCE.

A BRITISH DISASTER.

AMALGAMATED CONVENTION.

RATIONAL RELIGION.

Ma. D. S. ECKELHOFER, Jr., of the Maryland State, who is in town, figures out the nomination of Mr. Lucas, at the Key-er Democratic Convention, on the 11th of next month, over Judge Hoge.

Col. Ira Wilson's Red Hatter Campaign—See, also the file of the Intelligencer—Contains about the River and Harbor Bill—General Washington News Notes and Gossip.

A Motion for a Rule upon an Editor to be Published for the Cause. WASHINGTON, July 27.—In the Criminal Court this morning, Mr. Merrick stated that before beginning the regular proceedings, he felt bound to call the attention of the Court to certain circumstances which placed the Government under great disadvantage in the presentation of their evidence.

MATTERS LOCAL AND GENERAL. Second Day's Proceedings at Mountain Lake Park. Special Report for the Intelligencer.

Delightful Weather and Charming Scenery at the Cottages and Their Occupants. Correspondence of the Intelligencer.

And Driven off the Field With a Loss of Forty Men Killed and a Great Number Wounded. A Serious Conflagration Started in Alexandria—Arabi Pasha's Programme.

What Action it Should Take Regarding the Strike. PITTSBURGH, July 27.—On Sunday afternoon the delegates from this city and vicinity will leave on the Lake Erie road to attend the annual convention of the Amalgamated Association to be held in Chicago, commencing on Tuesday next week.

INTERVIEW ON TOPICS RELIGIOUS. Dr. Lyman Abbott Talks to an Intelligencer About Various Religious Subjects—Park and Ocean Grove Compared with Mountain Lake Park—Ingersoll's Christianity.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. WASHINGTON, July 27.—Representative Ben Wilson will conduct a Congressional delegation to the Red Sulphur Springs after adjournment.

Hon. D. Kelly, of Pennsylvania, will deliver the opening address at the Denver, Colorado, Mining Exposition, which opens on the 1st of August.

At 2 P. M. the exercises of the normal class were conducted by Rev. J. Vance. At 3:30 P. M. Rev. Lyman Abbott delivered his lecture, entitled, "THE LAWS OF MOSES."

In the beginning of the lecture Dr. Abbott pointed out what Moses taught concerning the character and person of God, his conception of God being that of a divine person, in contrast to the Pagan conception which is almost always of God as either embodied in or represented by physical nature.

The speaker next pointed out the elements of the Mosaic law, regulating the relations or experiences of man toward God. These were represented practically by a system of sacrifices which were a species of object lessons and which incited the duty of respect for sin, of thanksgiving for goodness and of consecration.

The Official Gazette publishes a letter from Arabi Pasha which declares that any person found in possession of a proclamation dismissing Arabi Pasha from the Ministry, circulated by the Khedive's emissaries, will be court-martialed.

It is needless to remind delegates from this city that the action of the Association in regard to the scale and declining all accommodations looking to a continuation of the scales of last year, was half-hearted, not popular with many members and condemned by others.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

We have received the second issue of the Creel Independent, edited by Mr. Geo. Creel, formerly of the Mountaineer Gazette. It is a live local paper and is an enterprise deserving of success.

The Secretary of the Navy to-day expressed himself satisfied, from all the information he had received, that the American Commodore, McIlhenny, had done proper in the protection of American interests at Alexandria, Egypt.

At 3:30 P. M. the exercises of the normal class were conducted by Rev. J. Vance. At 3:30 P. M. Rev. Lyman Abbott delivered his lecture, entitled, "THE LAWS OF MOSES."

The speaker next pointed out the elements of the Mosaic law, regulating the relations or experiences of man toward God. These were represented practically by a system of sacrifices which were a species of object lessons and which incited the duty of respect for sin, of thanksgiving for goodness and of consecration.

The Official Gazette publishes a letter from Arabi Pasha which declares that any person found in possession of a proclamation dismissing Arabi Pasha from the Ministry, circulated by the Khedive's emissaries, will be court-martialed.

It is needless to remind delegates from this city that the action of the Association in regard to the scale and declining all accommodations looking to a continuation of the scales of last year, was half-hearted, not popular with many members and condemned by others.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

The Intelligencer has had more or less to say on this subject at one time and another during recent years, based mostly on conversations with practical tillers of the soil, or with those who had such an experience in farm life as warranted them in giving an opinion on the subject.

The Secretary of the Navy to-day expressed himself satisfied, from all the information he had received, that the American Commodore, McIlhenny, had done proper in the protection of American interests at Alexandria, Egypt.

At 3:30 P. M. the exercises of the normal class were conducted by Rev. J. Vance. At 3:30 P. M. Rev. Lyman Abbott delivered his lecture, entitled, "THE LAWS OF MOSES."

The speaker next pointed out the elements of the Mosaic law, regulating the relations or experiences of man toward God. These were represented practically by a system of sacrifices which were a species of object lessons and which incited the duty of respect for sin, of thanksgiving for goodness and of consecration.

The Official Gazette publishes a letter from Arabi Pasha which declares that any person found in possession of a proclamation dismissing Arabi Pasha from the Ministry, circulated by the Khedive's emissaries, will be court-martialed.

It is needless to remind delegates from this city that the action of the Association in regard to the scale and declining all accommodations looking to a continuation of the scales of last year, was half-hearted, not popular with many members and condemned by others.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

We rejoice that the farmers of Kentucky have been blessed this season with large crops than ever grown before, and will realize for them prices so high that they will give a clear income largely in excess of all former years.

The Secretary of the Navy to-day expressed himself satisfied, from all the information he had received, that the American Commodore, McIlhenny, had done proper in the protection of American interests at Alexandria, Egypt.

At 3:30 P. M. the exercises of the normal class were conducted by Rev. J. Vance. At 3:30 P. M. Rev. Lyman Abbott delivered his lecture, entitled, "THE LAWS OF MOSES."

The speaker next pointed out the elements of the Mosaic law, regulating the relations or experiences of man toward God. These were represented practically by a system of sacrifices which were a species of object lessons and which incited the duty of respect for sin, of thanksgiving for goodness and of consecration.

The Official Gazette publishes a letter from Arabi Pasha which declares that any person found in possession of a proclamation dismissing Arabi Pasha from the Ministry, circulated by the Khedive's emissaries, will be court-martialed.

It is needless to remind delegates from this city that the action of the Association in regard to the scale and declining all accommodations looking to a continuation of the scales of last year, was half-hearted, not popular with many members and condemned by others.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

German grainers beyond the Alps brought some land last year at $150 per acre. This year he put it all in potatoes, which cleared him $300 per acre.

The Secretary of the Navy to-day expressed himself satisfied, from all the information he had received, that the American Commodore, McIlhenny, had done proper in the protection of American interests at Alexandria, Egypt.

At 3:30 P. M. the exercises of the normal class were conducted by Rev. J. Vance. At 3:30 P. M. Rev. Lyman Abbott delivered his lecture, entitled, "THE LAWS OF MOSES."

The speaker next pointed out the elements of the Mosaic law, regulating the relations or experiences of man toward God. These were represented practically by a system of sacrifices which were a species of object lessons and which incited the duty of respect for sin, of thanksgiving for goodness and of consecration.

The Official Gazette publishes a letter from Arabi Pasha which declares that any person found in possession of a proclamation dismissing Arabi Pasha from the Ministry, circulated by the Khedive's emissaries, will be court-martialed.

It is needless to remind delegates from this city that the action of the Association in regard to the scale and declining all accommodations looking to a continuation of the scales of last year, was half-hearted, not popular with many members and condemned by others.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

In a conversation with Dr. Standford last winter he said that in the purchase of the Eden farm, the Rudd place, and other agricultural lands near Louisville, he considered in a series of years that he would pay his larger profits than he could obtain from any other investment he could make with his money.

The Secretary of the Navy to-day expressed himself satisfied, from all the information he had received, that the American Commodore, McIlhenny, had done proper in the protection of American interests at Alexandria, Egypt.

At 3:30 P. M. the exercises of the normal class were conducted by Rev. J. Vance. At 3:30 P. M. Rev. Lyman Abbott delivered his lecture, entitled, "THE LAWS OF MOSES."

The speaker next pointed out the elements of the Mosaic law, regulating the relations or experiences of man toward God. These were represented practically by a system of sacrifices which were a species of object lessons and which incited the duty of respect for sin, of thanksgiving for goodness and of consecration.

The Official Gazette publishes a letter from Arabi Pasha which declares that any person found in possession of a proclamation dismissing Arabi Pasha from the Ministry, circulated by the Khedive's emissaries, will be court-martialed.

It is needless to remind delegates from this city that the action of the Association in regard to the scale and declining all accommodations looking to a continuation of the scales of last year, was half-hearted, not popular with many members and condemned by others.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

The point, in part, which we wish to make of this is to show that a home market is a great factor in a farmer's prosperity. In the raising of perishable products, such as vegetables for table use, it is the only market worth considering.

The Secretary of the Navy to-day expressed himself satisfied, from all the information he had received, that the American Commodore, McIlhenny, had done proper in the protection of American interests at Alexandria, Egypt.

At 3:30 P. M. the exercises of the normal class were conducted by Rev. J. Vance. At 3:30 P. M. Rev. Lyman Abbott delivered his lecture, entitled, "THE LAWS OF MOSES."

The speaker next pointed out the elements of the Mosaic law, regulating the relations or experiences of man toward God. These were represented practically by a system of sacrifices which were a species of object lessons and which incited the duty of respect for sin, of thanksgiving for goodness and of consecration.

The Official Gazette publishes a letter from Arabi Pasha which declares that any person found in possession of a proclamation dismissing Arabi Pasha from the Ministry, circulated by the Khedive's emissaries, will be court-martialed.

It is needless to remind delegates from this city that the action of the Association in regard to the scale and declining all accommodations looking to a continuation of the scales of last year, was half-hearted, not popular with many members and condemned by others.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Secretary Cleveland stated to-day that he was satisfied that Red Admiral Nicholson was in a discreet and proper manner in all he had done for the protection of American interests at Alexandria.

The Secretary of the Navy to-day expressed himself satisfied, from all the information he had received, that the American Commodore, McIlhenny, had done proper in the protection of American interests at Alexandria, Egypt.

At 3:30 P. M. the exercises of the normal class were conducted by Rev. J. Vance. At 3:30 P. M. Rev. Lyman Abbott delivered his lecture, entitled, "THE LAWS OF MOSES."

The speaker next pointed out the elements of the Mosaic law, regulating the relations or experiences of man toward God. These were represented practically by a system of sacrifices which were a species of object lessons and which incited the duty of respect for sin, of thanksgiving for goodness and of consecration.

The Official Gazette publishes a letter from Arabi Pasha which declares that any person found in possession of a proclamation dismissing Arabi Pasha from the Ministry, circulated by the Khedive's emissaries, will be court-martialed.

It is needless to remind delegates from this city that the action of the Association in regard to the scale and declining all accommodations looking to a continuation of the scales of last year, was half-hearted, not popular with many members and condemned by others.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Secretary Cleveland stated to-day that he was satisfied that Red Admiral Nicholson was in a discreet and proper manner in all he had done for the protection of American interests at Alexandria.

The Secretary of the Navy to-day expressed himself satisfied, from all the information he had received, that the American Commodore, McIlhenny, had done proper in the protection of American interests at Alexandria, Egypt.

At 3:30 P. M. the exercises of the normal class were conducted by Rev. J. Vance. At 3:30 P. M. Rev. Lyman Abbott delivered his lecture, entitled, "THE LAWS OF MOSES."

The speaker next pointed out the elements of the Mosaic law, regulating the relations or experiences of man toward God. These were represented practically by a system of sacrifices which were a species of object lessons and which incited the duty of respect for sin, of thanksgiving for goodness and of consecration.

The Official Gazette publishes a letter from Arabi Pasha which declares that any person found in possession of a proclamation dismissing Arabi Pasha from the Ministry, circulated by the Khedive's emissaries, will be court-martialed.

It is needless to remind delegates from this city that the action of the Association in regard to the scale and declining all accommodations looking to a continuation of the scales of last year, was half-hearted, not popular with many members and condemned by others.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 27.—I had a long and pleasant chat with Dr. Lyman Abbott this afternoon. Dr. Abbott is well known as the editor of the Christian Union, and as the author of a popular commentary on the gospels as well as other Biblical works.