A Notable Case.

A most remarkable trial is in progress in Lafayette, Indiana, revealing the littleness of man and the heroism of a woman who is defending her fame and womanhood against the slurs and insinuations of a lot of conspirators who have vowed a determination to ruin her character. Why? The lady, Mrs. Helen M. Gougar, edits a weekly temperance paper, and in her warfare on the anti-temperance element, which was conducted with vim and earnestness, she aroused the bitter enmity of the chief of police of the city, who undertook to blacken her reputation and smirch her fair name by systematic slanders. The villainy of such work cannot be too heartily and universally condemned, not because Mrs. Helen M. Gougar is the editor of a temperance paper, and that she is opposed by interests inimical to the cause she advocates, but for the reason that she has established beyond the peradventure of a doubt that she is a virtuous and worthy woman; and being such she ought to receive the homage and respect due her sex.

Further, a very worthy and honest gentleman is made to suffer with her. It was alleged that she visited his office frequently. He was a lawyer. May she not have had occasion to seek his advice in matters of business or the affairs of the paper which she conducted? The gentleman connected with her in the suit was also a warm temperance advocate; was interested in the success of Mrs. Gougar's paper, and was anxious that it should succeed. Because of these visits to this gentleman the harpies and slanderers made a low conceived suspicion the foundation of a base and malicious libel. Mrs. Gougar's vigorous attacks on the manner in which the chief of police conducted his office and abused the power vested in him by the people made this officer very uncomfortable. He whispered his false accusations into the ear of the editor of another paper. The story was published with all the revolting details of the imaginary scandal. Mrs. Gougar was shocked at first, but soon awoke from her surprise and promptly instituted suit against the villifier and the publisher. As a proof of Mrs. Gougar's standing she is constantly in receipt of letters of sympathy and confidence from some of the most noble women in the land. It is a sad state of affairs, indeed, when men of prominence, because their official acts are criticized, form a league to ruin a woman, to destroy her influence for good, and clothe her in scarlet when she ought to be arrayed in the whitest raiment.

PERSONAL.

Washington Irving's centennial birthday anniversary will be observed at Tarrytown.

Senator Edmunds is at Aiken, S. C., and will go this week to Florida, where he will remain until summer.

Sara Bernhardt, since her recent illness, has been compelled to wear a wig to preserve her "childish profusion of hair" off the stage.

The Hon. Lionel Sackville West, the British Minister in this country, and Senator Bayard, have engaged rooms at Saratoga for the coming season.

Ex-Governor Hendricks, of Indiana, who has been spending some time in Florida recuperating his health after his recent dangerous illness, returned home last week. He is now as well and strong as ever.

Mr. Josiah Quincy writes that in 1826, during one of his visits to Philadelphia, he was struck by a singular ecclesiastical privilege which then existed in that city—the right to obstruct the streets by chains during the hours of divine service.

Lady Florence Dixie, it will be remembered, is the sister of the eccentric Marquis of Queensbury, who rose in his seat to denounce certain portions of Mr. Tennyson's last play on the first night of its presentation because it offended his free-thinking views. Lady Florence also has a sister, a lady nearly forty, who married a baker's boy of twenty-one, and now presides at the bakeshop. The Queensburys are notoriously a queer lot.

King Louis of Bavaria, the maddest of monarchs, paid, a few days ago, a characteristic visit to the grave of his beloved Richard Wagner. Attended but by one servant, he dashed up to the gates of Wahnfried in a coach and four at 12 o'clock at night, had a hurried conversation with Frau Wagner on the staircase, and after a minute or two spent at the graveside, was off again post haste for Munich. Were he a private person, the eccentric potentate would be called insane.

BREAKFAST BUDGET.

A young woman in Iowa is named "Neuralgia." She must be a painstaking creature.

"A little 'tin Butler on wheels" is what the Springfield Union calls ex-Governor Sprague.

Dr. Talmage lectured in Brooklyn the other day on the eye. He said: "My friends, my eye winks 30,000 times a day." And this from a clergyman.

An organist in a church at Providence, R. I., relieved the monotony of waiting for a belated bridal party by playing: "Oh, Dear, What Can the Matter Be?"

Baltimore is very much excited over the disappearance of a young man named Patterson. The fact that he was not a cashier or Sunday school superintendent makes the case doubly alarming.

A Chicago shoe dealer tells these secrets: Mrs. Langtry wears a 3½ shoe, Miss Maud Granger a 4, Miss Nilsson a 3½, Miss Pixley a 1½, Mrs. McKee Rankin a 2, Miss Minnie Palmer a 2½, Lotta a No. 1 or 13½, Miss Maggie Mitchell a 13, Mrs. Knight a 1, Little Pearl, the variety actress, a 11.

The hurricane of 1806 blew over numberless cocoanut trees in the Bahama Islands. Instead of dying, each tree sent up an upright shoot from the tip. Now these branches are from twenty to forty feet in height, and yield abundantly, and the monkeys are happy once more.

Arkansas has a law prohibiting the sale of liquor within two miles of churches and school houses. This may encourage the carrying of bottles of refreshments, and of the master we may read:

He took a flask to school one day,
It was against the rule;
It made the children laugh and play,
To see him act the fool.

Mrs. Mansard is a practical woman, with no nonsense about her. When Mr. Mansard in an affectionate way the other day exclaimed: "My dear, how can I ever leave you?" she coolly replied: "Leave me in as comfortable circumstances as you can, Mansy; there, now, don't make a fool of yourself."—Boston Transcript.

Tiniest of Wee Babies.

Chattanooga Times.

The smallest baby in the world is at the house of Mr. Poe, on Carter street. It was born last Wednesday. It is the most diminutive creature imaginable, weighing only one and a half pounds at the time of its birth and scarcely twenty-six ounces yesterday. It can scarcely be described. The entire body is not as large as the fore-arm of an ordinary person. It is just eleven and a half inches long and in no portion of the body is it more than six inches in circumference. Its head is no larger than a large English walnut. Its arms look like a man's little finger and the legs like the centre finger. Its hands are not as large as a five cent piece. The child is perfectly formed and its physical organization is complete in every detail. Its head is covered with all the hair usually found on one so young, and in all particulars it differs in nothing from an ordinary child except in size.

In answer to our question whether it cried, Mr. Poe smiled and said: "If you had seen me walking the room last night to quiet it you would not ask the question. It cries as loudly and lustily as any child I ever saw." The mother was asked regarding its nourishment. She replied: "It takes its nourishment perfectly natural, and has a most voracious appetite. The child is doing very well. To show you the size of its arm I will take this plain gold ring from my little finger and slip it over the child's hand to its elbow," and, suiting the action to the word, the ring, which was very small, slipped over the fore-arm with the utmost facility.

A Vexed Clergyman.

Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing, making it impossible for him to be heard. Yet, how very easy can all this be avoided by simply using Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds. Trial Bottles ten cents at Logan & Co.'s Bridge corner drug store. MWFaw

MARRIED.

TISHER—MORRIS—On Tuesday, March 27, 1883, at the North Street M. E. Parsonage, by Rev. I. H Jordan, Mr. SLATER S. TISHER, of Hannibal, Ohio, and Miss ELLA L. MORRIS, of Wheeling.

DIED.

DAVIS—On Tuesday morning, March 27, 1883, MARY ANN, wife of Thomas Davis, in the 28th year of her age.

Funeral from the residence of her husband, in Martin's Ferry, Ohio, this afternoon at 1 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited. Interment at Mt. Zion Cemetery, Caldwell's Run, W. Va.

FITS A Leading London Physician establishes an office in New York for the cure of EPILEPTIC FITS. From Am. Journal of Medicine. Dr. Ab. Meserole (late of London), who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, has without doubt treated and cured more cases than any other living physician. His success has simply been astonishing; we have heard of cases of over 20 years' standing successfully cured by him. He has published a work on this disease, which he sends with a large bottle of his wonderful cure free to any sufferer who may send their express and P. O. address. We advise any one wishing a cure to address Dr. AB. MESEROLE, No. 96 John St., New York.

THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST!
Oregon, Washington and Idaho.
Offers the best field for Emigrants—viz: a mild, equable, and healthy climate; cheap lands of great fertility, producing all varieties of Grain, Fruit and Grasses in wonderful abundance; an inexhaustible supply of Timber; vast Coal Fields, and other mineral deposits; cheap and quick transportation by railroads and river navigation; direct commerce with all parts of the world, owing to its proximity to the Pacific Ocean.
No Droughts, no Insect Pests, no Hurricanes, Whirlwinds, or other Destructive Phenomena.
The Lands of the Pacific Northwest show an average yield of wheat per acre largely in excess of that of any other section of the United States.
No failure of crops has ever occurred.
Oregon Wheat commands a higher price than that of any other country in the Liverpool market.
An immense area of very fertile Railroad and Government Lands, within easy reach of the trunk lines of the Northern Pacific R. R., the Oregon Railway & Navigation, and the Oregon & California R. R. Co.'s and their numerous branches in the great Valleys of the Columbia and its tributaries, are now offered for sale at low prices, and on Easy Terms, or open to pre-emption and Homestead Entry.
The great movement of population to the Columbia region now in progress will be enormously increased by the completion of the Northern Pacific R. R. and the Oregon Railway & Navigation Co's systems. This renders certain a rapid increase in the value of Lands now open to purchase or to entry under the United States Land Laws.
