THE WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER, PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING.

THE INTELLIGENCER, WHEELING, W. VA., NOVEMBER 21, 1885.

THE WHISPERING GALLERY. A young lady said in my presence that she thought it was a shame to make trouble for that old woman in Pennsylvania who opened letters as they passed through the postoffice.

We are not to suppose that old woman in the postoffice to have been a sinner above all others in Israel. She thought it no wrong, good, easy soul, to tap the contents of information as they ran through her office.

The latest charity entertainment, I am told, is a "Mikado" supper. They have been given in a number of cities this season and in each case have, according to all reports, proven very successful.

The air is full of details about approaching weddings and rumors of marriages. I am told that two elaborate affairs of this nature are booked for the coming week, and on the 9th prox. a well known Belleaire glass man is to be joined to a charming Alabama girl who is a great favorite here.

That to owe is human, to pay divine? That uneasy rests the foot that has a corn? That the wheat fields are looking green? That the heavens are hung with beautiful stars?

That he now allows the "honest workman" to pass by on the other side unrecognized? That that well known Italian, Patricio Roon, has many admirers in Wheeling?

That that knocking a friend's face in a sure way of dropping an acquaintance? That that literary of a rascal is not to be compared to clothes covered with the dirt of industry?

That too few men wear the latter apparel? That Jack Frost, the advance agent of Snow, is getting to be pretty active these mornings?

Mrs. Mary P. Farmer died at Clarence, Ia., October 15, 1885, aged ninety-two years. Mrs. Farmer was the daughter of Deane Parker. She was born in North Carolina in 1793. In 1808 her father moved to Ohio and settled at Mt. Pleasant.

In 1827 Mary Parker was married to Dr. Wm. Farmer of Salineville, O. Dr. Farmer died in 1853, and shortly after his wife moved to France, Ia., where she has since resided. She was the mother of seven children, five of whom survive her—Mrs. Sarah F. Hoey, of Clarence, Ia., Mrs. Dr. P. Hardman, of Muscatine, Ia., Mrs. Thomas Daily, of New Lisbon, O., I. P. Farmer, of Cleveland, O., Mrs. Farmer was descended from the Updegraffs, Judkins, Flanners and Stantons, and during the war related how frequently she had heard Secretary Stanton on her lap when a babe, and how joyfully she knew her name at the close of the war as she read that American slavery no longer existed.

Geo. E. Stifel & Co. THE GREATEST BARGAIN Known for a Century!

—250— Silk Umbrellas! 28 INCH, Parazon Frame, Natural Wood Handles, $2 35 EACH.

We have just closed out a Manufacturer's stock of the above named goods, all fresh and new, at about 60 cents on the dollar of cost. We are not permitted to mention the name of the manufacturer for obvious reasons, as these same Umbrellas are now being retailed in Wheeling under a trade name at $2 00 more than we offer them, suffice it to say that they are an Elegant Umbrella, and the Greatest Bargain ever offered in this city.

We shall be much disappointed if this lot of Umbrellas does not create an excitement in the trade hitherto unknown.
