

The Intelligencer.

Office: Nos. 25 and 27 Fourteenth Street.

This paper to achieve Republican success in Ohio county is to deserve it—Goff, Scott and Whitaker.

Col. J. D. Taylor, in the district over the river, has majority enough to satisfy any reasonable man.

Will our Democratic friends of protection learning kindly note that Republican not only killed the Morrison bill but Mr. Morrison as well.

Don't what protection hath wrought in old Virginia. It is doing the same thing for the youngest child of the mother of States. The issue is irretractable.

John Brannon is our meat, was the protection's able comment on the nomination of that fated statesman. We have been feeding him to our own.

The circumstances of the case fully corroborate the fact that the Federal protection-holders in Wheeling were exercising public sentiment. The returns fully exonerate them.

Frank Garrison will feel sort of Morrison like in the next House. Mr. Morrison will not be available for Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, and Frank Hurd is once more elected to stay at home.

Those Democrats who put their money against Goff and Scott now fully realize the wisdom of betting. They ought to have known better than to equander their money on favorites in these Democratic times.

Senator Kenna came into the First Congressional District and Senator Cannon supplied his friends liberally with family, because "Goff must be downed." It is too much to ask of our friends the enemy that they may serve us so some more?

Senator Scott was between two fires. The big end of the liquor interest fought him and so did the Third Party men. But he plays the June bug act and his friends are smiling. He will have his weather eye on the tax-enters at Charleston.

No Third Party man can doubt that he threw his vote away. Heroic these votes came almost entirely from the Republican side, and yet the Republican party is on the side of submission. It will take the Third Party longer than the life of any living man to accomplish anything in West Virginia—except it might be the defeat of the Republican party, which event would gradually more remote. Some of the votes for Third Party nominees were cast by Republicans who were bound to scratch the boycott end of the Republican ticket but could not nerve themselves to vote any part of the Democratic ticket.

The Ohio Valley Trade Assembly, on Sunday, October 24, declared a formal boycott on the morning newspapers, and formally endorsed the boycott end of the Democratic and Republican tickets. If anything had been needed to establish the connection between the boycott and the so-called United Labor ticket, this would have done it to the satisfaction of everybody who can read. Mr. Meek's speech at the boycotters' meeting had established his position as the special champion of the boycotters; so they regarded him and so he was proud to regard himself.

This was the dose that the Republicans of Ohio county were asked to swallow, and they refused to do it. It did not require the formal verdict at the polls to show that the boycott had cost the Republican Legislative ticket in Ohio County two members whom they ought to have gained.

The two representatives of the wire-workers in the Trades Assembly received some Democratic votes; yet they stand at the bottom of the poll, and the special champion of the boycotters stands the lowest of all the men, except those of the Third Party, who ran on any ticket in Ohio County. The Intelligencer is glad to know that it performed a public service in contributing to this result.

In all the voting on Tuesday there is no more gratifying and significant result than the defeat of Wm. R. Morrison in the Eighteenth district of Illinois.

Mr. Morrison was placed at the head of the Ways and Means Committee for the express purpose of overturning the protective tariff, and he did what he could to justify expectation. He has been a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency, staking his chance of success on a tariff-for-revenue-only platform. He belongs to the majority wing of his party and has been sitting on the front bench in the synagogue.

Mr. Morrison's defeat in a district which he was supposed to have solid for all time ought to be an encouragement to protectionists everywhere. In 1882 he carried the district, constituted just as it is now, by 2,245. In 1884 he ran up his majority to 2,392 in a total poll of 33,162. In the two years the vote of the district had increased, but Mr. Morrison's majority increased in a greater ratio. Now this immense majority is swept away and a very comfortable majority stands on the other side.

There is no congressional district in West Virginia in which the odds to be overcome are so great. There is not a district in this State that cannot be carried by a Republican who will press the issue of protection and effect a close and comprehensive organization.

Best Butchers Strike. Chicago, Nov. 3.—At Swift's packing house killing was resumed to-day, but on a very extensive scale. It was difficult to ascertain where the butchers came from. The strikers said they were from the office, at Nelson Morris' packing house about 12 men were at work but no killing was done. "They have all the beef on hand," said one of the firm, "we need. We don't want to kill any more just yet. We can get all the men we want. We have applications from all for work."

The Most Sanguine Expectations Fully Realized.

MARSHALL COUNTY'S GOOD WORK.

Harrison, the Home of Goff, Does Most Handsomely.

WETZEL'S STRENGTH WEAKENING.

Flick Claims His Election in the Second District.

THE FOURTH DISTRICT CLOSE.

The Republican majority in the First Congressional District grows. The estimate of yesterday gave Brannon too much and Goff too little. Brannon falls off greatly in Wetzel and Goff pulls up heavily in Marshall. In Republican Tyler a heavy fight reduced Goff's majority 98, but the county of Harrison gives him an increase of 102. The returns from Brannon are not official and Glimmer makes no report as yet, but it is hardly possible that these numbers can change 100 votes the footing as given below. Goff has carried the district by from four to six on a joint ballot, but there is a possibility of one or two agreeable surprises in remote counties were promptly heard from.

There are notable changes in the Legislature, which, as it now seems, will be democratic by from four to six on a joint ballot, but there is a possibility of one or two agreeable surprises in remote counties were promptly heard from.

Second District Republicans are very hopeful for Flick, who claims his election. He has made a splendid fight, and there are encouraging features in the returns, but there is not sufficient information upon which to cast the probabilities.

There is no reason to change the general opinion of the Third and Fourth Districts. So far as can be seen the Democratic hold both.

There are notable changes in the Legislature, which, as it now seems, will be democratic by from four to six on a joint ballot, but there is a possibility of one or two agreeable surprises in remote counties were promptly heard from.

gent, House of Delegates, two hundred and twenty-five. Siler twenty votes.

Hardy County. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MOOREFIELD, W. VA., Nov. 3.—Three precincts have been heard from officially. The total vote is 590. Wilson's majority for Governor in 1884 was 600. Wilson's majority for Congress over Flick, Rep., is 207; Chipley, Dem., for House of Delegates over Fisher, Rep., is 251. The seven precincts to be heard from will probably increase Wilson's majority to 700 and Chipley's to 625. Grant county will probably give Fisher 600 majority.

Grant County. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

KEYSER, W. VA., Nov. 3.—Grant county as far as heard from: Six precincts give Flick 447, Wilson 74, Siler 5, Harman 441, Fricke 74, Fisher 450 and Chipley 76. The full vote was not in when the report for one of these precincts was made, and the Republican vote will doubtless be increased in that precinct by 8 or 10.

Democrat concedes that the result of the Congressional vote is very doubtful. Republicans, of course, are jubilant.

Mineral County. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

KEYSER, W. VA., Nov. 3.—The returns for this county are all with the exception of one small precinct, Shaw. It gave Maxwell 25 majority. The vote is as follows: For Congress, Flick, 975; Wilson, 827; Siler, 44.

For Senator, Harman, 991; Price, 827; Brier, 25.

For House of Delegates, Middleton, 1,044; Sheets, 781; Umstot, 19. For County Commissioner, Ridgeley, 972; Alkire, 702; Dayton, 33.

Taylor County. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

GRAFFAN, W. VA., Nov. 3.—The official vote of Taylor county shows the following: For Congress, Flick 1,415; Wilson 1,026; Flick's majority 418.

Legislature, Thayer, Rep., 1,370; Martin, 1,038; Thayer's majority 318.

For Senator, Harman, Rep., 1,419; Hudkins, Dem., 1,625; Minear's majority 206. For County Commissioner, Hall, Rep., 1,277; Lucas, Dem., 1,155; Hall's majority 122. The Republicans are jubilant and enthusiastic, the Democrats depressed.

Tucker County. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

ST. GEORGE, W. VA., Nov. 2.—The election returns from two of the ten voting places in Tucker county give Flick 61 majority, and Minear, Republican candidate for Senate, 72 majority. The probabilities are that Minear has carried the county. Some of the districts will give majorities against Flick. At St. George Minear got two votes to Flick's one. It is probable that Wilson carries the county by a small majority, less than 100.

Snyder's Election. In the Third District is in Doubt—Meager Returns Received.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Nov. 3.—No definite conclusion can be reached in this Third Congressional district for several days on account of the lack of facilities for securing the returns from the back counties. Both Brown, Republican, and Snyder, Democrat, claim a majority. The chances are in favor of Snyder.

Carr's Election Sure. To the Republican State Executive Committee, Wheeling, W. Va.:

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Nov. 3.—Our entire county ticket is elected. My majority is thirteen hundred, and seventy-five in Kanawha county. Senator Kenna concedes my election. ROBERT S. CARR.

Upshur County. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA., Nov. 3.—Upshur county full count gives the following majorities:—

Brown, 650; Minear, 630; Young, House of Delegates, 625; Loudin, County Commissioner, 433. Upshur maintains her record.

Fayette County. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CONNELLY, W. VA., Nov. 3.—The following is the vote in 16 precincts of Fayette county for Congress, Snyder, Dem., 1,555; Brown, Rep., 1,619. For Senate, Van Pelt, Dem., 1,229; Davis, Rep., 1,500. For Legislature, Tyree, Dem., 1,123; Kincaid, Rep., 1,361; Robinson, Labor, 471. Several precincts are yet to hear from, but Kincaid will be elected.

Fourth District. A Close Pull Between Hutchinson and Hogg—Cablet County Results.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Nov. 3.—Cablet county gives Hogg 45 over Hutchinson. McCullister, Camden Democrat, is elected from the Sixth Senatorial district. Roseberry, Camden Democrat, is elected from this county to the House of Delegates.

Wayne county elects Democrat with decreased majorities. Hogg is claimed to be elected in the Fourth district by a small majority.

Huntington gains the county seat of Cablet county by the skin of her teeth.

Mason County. Comes up Handsomely—Senator Woodard Elected.

POINT PLEASANT, W. VA., Nov. 3.—Complete returns from this, Mason county, give Hutchinson 181 majority. William Woodard, of Roane county, carried this county by 84, and Roane county by over 100. Eastham carries Jackson county by 75. Woodard's majority in the district is 19. J. Spencer, Dem., runs ahead of his ticket in this county, and is elected to the Legislature by 83 majority. Dr. J. T. Henery, Rep., is elected to the Legislature. The entire Mason county Republican ticket is elected by handsome majorities, with the exception of Spencer.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Beaver's Majority Crawling up—The Congressional Delegation.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—The new delegation to Congress in Pennsylvania will consist of 19 Republicans, including Brumm (Rep. Greenbacker) and 9 Democrats. The present delegation is composed of 20 Republicans, including Brumm, and 8 Democrats.

The Democrats gain the Twelfth district, where Lynch (Dem.) defeated Senanton (Rep.) the present incumbent. The Twenty-sixth district is also a gain for the Democrats, Norman Hall defeating W. B. Roberts, Republican. Flogger, the present Republican member from that district, received a majority of 1,200 in 1884. The Republicans gain the Twenty-first district, now represented by Boyle (Dem.) who was elected in 1881 by 2,500 majority.

The present State Senate is composed of 31 Republicans and 19 Democrats. Of these 19 Republicans and 15 Democrats will retire and be succeeded by the 25 senators elected yesterday, 13 of whom are Republicans and 11 Democrats and something "dropped" said Parsons to a reporter. "You are surprised at the vote are you? Well, it's no surprise to any one else aside from the hired liars of the Chicago press."

"Do you think many voters of the Socialist labor ticket had the late trial in their minds in voting?"

"Yes, and in their hearts, too. The vote was a response to all those who have said that laborers have no grievances. It was a response to those who declared we were red handed brutes. Yes, the vote of yesterday is a result of the verdict against us and against those who represent the laboring man. I tell you we all had good appetites this morning, but I guess I have said enough," and in a tragic manner Parsons struck an attitude and walked the longer way to the door.

Fischer said: "That the vote is an answer to the verdict against us."

MISSOURI. Democratic Ticket Elected—A Heavy Labor Vote.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 3.—The returns from yesterday's election are still incomplete, but enough have been received to show that the entire Democratic State ticket has been elected. In this city its majority is about 3,000. The officers elect are: Theo. Brace, Judge of the Supreme Court; Wm. E. Coleman, Superintendent of Public Schools; John K. Brown, Railroad Commissioner; and constitutional amendments not having for its object, the laying of a special tax of 10 mills on the dollar for road and street improvements has a majority of about 25,000 against it in the city.

The Democratic ticket carried every office in the city, the only decided Republican majority being that of Wm. A. Hobbs, candidate for Recorder of Deeds. His majority over the Democratic nominee is about 2,000. The contest for Sheriff, between Wm. H. H. Harrison (Dem.) and J. C. Clardy (Rep.) was very close and the official vote will probably be necessary to decide definitely who was elected. Unwieldy returns give the Republican candidate a majority of 100.

In the Sixth Congressional district Glover (Dem.) was re-elected over Frank (Rep.) by a majority of 114 in the Eighth district O'Neill (Dem.) received 7,917 votes and Cummings (Rep.) 6,688, a majority for the former of 1,229. In the city wards of the district there was a close three-cornered fight between Clardy (Dem.), Leisegang (Rep.) and Hatcher (Labor). The returns from outside of the city are very incomplete, but indicate that Clardy is re-elected by a reduced majority. The labor vote in this district was very large.

A WHEELING STEAMBOAT. The Stella Wilds Hitches the Southern Water—Her Welcome.

The Natchez, Miss, Daily Democrat of last Saturday has an account of a reception on board the Stella Wilds from which the following is taken:

If there had been anything wanting to attest the popularity of Capt. Sam Pennycutt and the popular character of the new and elegant steamer Stella Wilds, it would have been found in the very large and brilliant throng that assembled on that steamer last evening. Each one of the officers of the boat vied with the other in making their guests comfortable, while Capt. and Mrs. Pennycutt, the Misses Prince, Miss Lane Jungling and other young ladies contributed their share toward making all feel comfortable and at home. The Mexican band was on board discoursing sweet music. Hon. John W. Hunt was present, the admiral of the fine stand of colors on behalf of Miss Wilds, the beautiful and talented young lady for whom she is named. Mr. Henderson's remarks were most appropriate indeed, and especially for the occasion, and full of good wishes for the complete success of the beautiful steamer.

Following Mr. Henderson's remarks the Mexican Band played the "Stella Wilds March" especially for the occasion by Prof. T. F. Gloria, and dedicated to Capt. Sam Pennycutt. It was a beautiful musical conception, and not a little admired by the ladies, all of whom will no doubt wish for a copy of it. Maj. Hunt presented the admiral of the patrons of the boat, presented Capt. Pennycutt with an elegant and costly piano, which is intended to adorn the cabin.

On this occasion Capt. Pennycutt professed himself a prince of entertainers, and was well rewarded by his right hand man, Charley Jungling, the handsome chief clerk.

WILMOTH-BLACK. Quiet Marriage of Two Well Known Young People.

Yesterday afternoon at half-past four o'clock, Mr. A. F. Wilmoth and Miss May Black were married at St. Matthew's P. E. church by the pastor, Rev. R. Rash Swaps. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of friends of the bride and groom, both of whom are well known. There were no attendants except the ushers, Mr. Andrew Wilson, of this city, and Maj. Hunt, of the army.

From the church Mr. and Mrs. Wilmoth repaired to the parlors, where they received the congratulations of their relatives and friends. They will be absent from the city nearly all the winter, as Mrs. Wilmoth will accompany her husband, who is a representative of the furniture manufacturing firm of A. H. Andrews & Co., of Chicago.

Baden-Hupp. Mr. C. V. Braden, a prominent business man of Washington, Pa., and Miss Virginia Hupp, the eldest daughter of Dr. J. C. Hupp, of this city, were married yesterday afternoon at half past two o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents on Fourteenth street. Rev. Dr. D. A. Cunningham officiated at the ceremony. The bride was handsomely attired in mastic colored silk, trimmed with a darker shade and panels of embossed plush, with point lace and seed pearl ornaments. The wedding was one of the most pleasing seen in the city for some time. Those present were: Mr. Harding, Misses Sophia and Annie Harding, Mr. Julius LeMoine, Mr. Frank LeMoine, Miss Mary Harding, Mr. and Mrs. A. Braden, of Washington, Pa.; Dr. J. M. Todd and daughter, Miss Mary of Bridgeport; Mr. Todd Lanford, Dr. and Mrs. Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hupp, Mrs. N. Richardson, Mrs. George Pann, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spidel, Mr. and Mrs. John Fraw, Miss Mary and Miss Fraw, Miss V. Hupp, Mr. George Wise, Mr. and Mrs. F. Caldwell, Miss Jennie Wilson, Mrs. Lanford, of Allegheny; Mrs. Williams, of Cincinnati; Mr. B. S. Allison and Mr. J. V. Westing.

Youngful Klippers. A telegram from Ironton, Ohio, says: Henry Scales and Alice Gladman, a juvenile runaway couple from the wilds of West Virginia, were married at Iron House parlors this morning. Rev. Hill officiating. They had been fleeing all night from wrathful parents.

Nebraska. OMAHA, Nov. 3.—The latest returns today show that John A. McShane, Democrat for Congress in the First district, is elected by over 3,500 majority over Churchill, Republican.

THE RESULTS IN OTHER STATES.

Str. Louis, Mo., Nov. 3.—Dispatches from Belleville, Illinois, say that Hon. W. R. Morrison, Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress from the Eighteenth Illinois District, has been defeated by his Republican opponent, Judge John Baker, by a majority of about 1,000. The returns will not be completed before to-morrow, but enough have been received to make it appear certain that Mr. Morrison has really been defeated. Mr. Morrison himself, according to a dispatch from Waterloo, his residence, concedes his defeat. Mr. Morrison has been a candidate for Congress thirteen times and has been defeated but three times, twice by Judge Baker, his present victor, and once by John R. Hay. The result of the election is said to be a great surprise throughout the district, particularly to the Democrats, and a monster jubilee was held at Belleville by the Republicans to-night. Morrison carried his district two years ago by 2,502 majority.

Large Republican Gain—Morrison Said to Have Been Defeated.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—A. M. Jones, Chairman of the Illinois State Central Committee, gives his estimate of the result of the election in Illinois as follows: "From the very latest returns beyond all question 30 Republican Senators have been elected in the State with the possible addition of 3 more from the doubtful districts, Illinois, he added, has without a doubt, been carried by the Republican State ticket by a plurality of over 30,000, giving us a majority in both Houses of the Legislature. Returns from many of the close and doubtful districts indicate large Republican gains over the last Presidential election, and in almost every section of the State the Republican party has made triumphant progress and substantial gains. He estimates that the Senate will be composed of thirty Republicans, eighteen Democrats and three Labor party men. He estimates that the House will have a working majority."

The constitutional amendment abolishing the contract convict system of prison labor in Illinois is believed to be adopted. The vote for it in all the large cities was nearly unanimous. The vote in the thus far received from the country indicates that the opposition to it among the farmers was not nearly so strong as the labor element feared.

The Republican plurality in Illinois for State Treasurer, the head of the ticket is estimated at from 23,000 to 27,000. The result on the Congressional vote up to this evening was still a matter of doubt in the Second, Tenth, Eleventh, Thirteenth and Sixteenth Districts. In the Second the contest between Lawler (Dem.) and Gleason (Labor) is very close. Ours computation of the unofficial returns elects Gleason by 18 votes, while Lawler elects the district by 62 votes. The Republicans claim the district. The vote in the Eleventh and Twelfth districts is also very close. The vote in the Eleventh district is 100, and also asserts that General Post (Rep.) has defeated Worthington in the Tenth. Both Republicans and Democrats claim the election in the Thirteenth ("Springer") district. The vote in the Fifteenth is very close. The Republicans have gained a Congressman in the Third district, William E. Mason, and one in the Eighteenth, John Baker. The Tenth, Eleventh, Thirteenth and Sixteenth are at present represented by Democrats, and if the Republicans claim to carry three of these districts in all. If Baker wins in the Eighteenth district he defeats William R. Springer's district, the celebrated free-trader.

WISCONSIN. The Republicans Gain in Postmaster General's Home.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The Daily News-Madison, Wis., special says: Woodward, Dem., for Governor, carried this city by 437 majority. Pratt, Dem., carried it by 407 two years ago. This is a gain of 30 for Pratt in the city of Madison, Casswell, the Vilas candidate for the Assembly, carried the day, after a hot contest, by 200 majority. Two years ago Vilas carried the city by 1,200 majority. The result yesterday is regarded as a virtual defeat to the Democrats in their own stronghold. The indications are that the Republicans will carry the county for the county ticket which won 380 Democratic two years ago. There is also a prospect that Rusk will carry the county by from 300 to 500 majority. A gain in this Congressional district indicates LaFollette's Rep. election by 2,000 majority. Out of five Assemblymen in Dane county, the Republicans will doubtless get three and the representation will be the same as two years ago.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 3.—Though returns from isolated rural townships will continue to arrive in for several days yet the general result is no longer in doubt. The Republicans have elected Governor Rusk by not less than 22,000 plurality over Woodward, Dem., and it is probable that it will turn out 25,000. Chairman Taylor, of the Republican State Central Committee, places it at 27,000.

These gains are based on returns from about five-sixths of the precincts in the State. This plurality would be an increase of nearly 900 over Rusk's plurality of two years ago.

The gains are principally in the strong Democratic districts. There are Republican gains in all but a few counties of the State. On Governor the Republican plurality over the Democratic vote has been increased, even in the Milwaukee district, where the labor movement has been strongest. The Legislature will have a Republican majority on joint ballot of 29 over Democratic and labor representatives. The Senate stands 25 Republicans, 7 Democrats and one People's. The People's party representatives will probably act with the Democrats. The Republicans lose three Assemblymen and gain like number in Senatorial districts. The Congressional delegation will probably stand seven Republicans, one Democrat and one People's party, though the first is in doubt. Returns are so meagre that it is not possible to tell whether Joseph Doolittle (Dem.) has defeated Casswell (Rep.). The Republicans have gained the Second, General Bragg's old district, where Dalany (Dem.) is defeated by Guehner by at least 3,000. Guehner has heretofore represented the Fifth district in Congress and is still a resident of the latter. The majority of Hudd (Dem.) in the Fifth has been slightly reduced. In the Fourth (Milwaukee) district, which has been represented by a Republican, Henry Smith, the People's party candidate, lost 3,500 plurality. If Casswell is re-elected in the First the Republicans gain one and lose one. The Democrats lose one and the People's party secures one Congressman.

VIROGINIA. The Democrats Lose Five Representatives in Congress.

RICHMOND, Nov. 3.—The Virginia congressional delegation stands as follows: First district, Brown, Republican; Second, Bowden, Republican; Third, Wise, Democrat; Fourth, Gaines, Republican; Fifth, Brown, Republican; Sixth district, Hopkins, Knight of Labor; Seventh, O'Connell, Democrat; Eighth, Lee, Democrat; Ninth, Lower, Republican; Tenth, Yost, Republican. The Democrats lose five representatives.

CONNECTICUT. HARTFORD, Nov. 3.—Following are the Congressional votes: First district, Beck, Republican, 14,465; Vance, Democrat, 14,822. Second, Lewis, Republican, 13,567; French, Democrat, 15,016. Third, Russell, Republican, 8,200; Hyde, Democrat, 2,480. Fourth, Granger, Democrat, 8,954; Miles, Republican, 8,792. With very few towns to hear from, the Senate stands 14 Republicans to 10 Democrats, a Republican gain of 1. The lower house, with four towns not heard from and reckoned as voting the same as last year, stands 34 Republicans and 13 Democrats, a Republican majority of 10 or 20. Cleveland, the Democratic candidate for Governor, leads 2,243 of a majority. The vote is: Lounsbury, Republican, 53,800; Cleveland, Democrat, 51,081. Forbes, Prohibitionist, 2,273. The Democrats elect six Sheriffs and the Democrats two, a Republican gain of one.

MARYLAND. BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 3.—Full returns from the State do not change the result as announced last night. Five Democratic and one Republican Congressmen were elected.
