WAR TO THE KNIFE.

THE GAUNTLET CAST DOWN. By the Packers, and Delegate Barry Says the War will be Carried into Egypt--A Quiet Day at "Packington's"--No Serious Troubles Mar it.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.--In conversation with a reporter to-night Delegate Barry said: "We have pitched our stomachs against the packers' bank account. I met Messrs. Botsford, Hatley and Fowler in the Board of Trade this morning. They said the press report of their determination to refuse employment to Union men was correct. I appealed to their reason and sense of justice, but to no effect. They have thrown down the gauntlet and we now accept it."

A QUIET DAY. At the scenes of the Late Excitement at "Packington's." CHICAGO, Nov. 9.--Every body was excluded from Packington's this morning except persons engaged there or those willing to go to work on the packers' terms. These latter were announced by the prominent packers except Nelson Morris and George W. Swift & Co., that the men shall resign from any labor organization they may belong to. The absence of the names of Swift and Morris from the resolution was commented on by the men as the weak point in the packers' position. All was quiet within and without the quarantined district this morning. Deputy sheriffs were on guard in the avenues and alleys, with the main avenue from the corner of Fortieth and Halsted street picketed by militiamen. Outside the charmed circle the Lake police were in charge of things. Two companies of the Second Regiment were stationed at points most conspicuous by their location, the corner of Fortieth and Halsted street, and at the Viaduct and Forty-third street. They had no abject, but stood at ease, with an occasional tramp of drill to keep their blood circulating. On Halsted street, from the first to thirty-ninth streets, there was quite a large force of city police. Armies of two houses were ransacking this morning, logs and some cattle being killed. Swift and Morris' houses were also ransacking with slightly increased force. The Lake guards, as they did later in the morning, large crowds assembled and several fights took place, but with the advent of rain and the boys in blue the crowds dispersed. On Halsted street, the Lake police excelled, and will remain so until further orders from Supervisor Stafford. The temporary prohibition district extends from Forty-eighth street north, and between the Pittsburgh, Port Wayne and Chicago railroads, the east, and Western avenue to the west.

PROHIBITION VOTE. In Ohio and Arkansas--A Gain in Both States. COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 9.--The official vote of fifty-five of the eighty-eight counties has been received at the office of the Secretary of the State. A glance at these returns indicates that the Prohibitionists have polled a much larger vote than was expected. From the counties heard from it appears that the party cast fifty-two votes during the campaign. Both Democrats and Republicans estimated the Prohibition vote at 15,000. Under ordinary circumstances this large vote would give the State to the Democrats, but last year the Prohibitionists, their vote has been drawn from both the old parties very evenly. The leading men of both parties are inclined to the opinion that as a political factor in Ohio the liquor traffic will hereafter disappear. Those concerned in the business now regard further agitation dangerous.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 9.--The official returns showing the Prohibition vote of the State in the election held September 6, has been received from seventy of the seventy-five counties of the State. The total vote polled was 105,000. The vote for license was about 75,000, while that against it reached 30,000. The vote shows that the Prohibitionists have gained 10,000 in 1886 as compared with 20,000 in 1884, 41,000 in 1882, showing an increase in the past two years of over 21,000. The most ardent members are in favor of nominating a State ticket and making a fight for control of all the State offices at the next election.

Actor Booth in Bad Health. NEW YORK, Nov. 9.--Owing to the illness of Mr. Edwin Booth there will be no performance at the Star theatre this or tomorrow evening. Mr. Booth's physician has sent a certificate to the managers of the Star theatre, in which he says: "I find his (Mr. Booth's) condition such this morning that I have absolutely forbidden him to leave his bed. He played last night against my advice, and as a result in all probability, will not be able to act again for two or three days. I do not consider Mr. Booth's condition serious at present, but it might easily be made so, if he were to exert himself in the execution of his professional duty." (Signed), Dr. CHAS. SMITH.

Customs Revenue. WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.--The annual report of the Commissioner of Customs and Excise to the Secretary of the Treasury, shows that during the past fiscal year there was paid into the Treasury from all sources, the accounts returned to which are set in his office, $104,334,509, of which $102,207,244 was received from custom duty. During the same period there was paid out for expenses connected with the administration of this branch of the Government services $24,105,246, 46,437, 612, of which was an amount of $1,000,000 of collecting the revenue from customs.

All on Account of a Cow. CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 9.--A New York, Ohio and St. Louis freight train ran over a cow near Pottsville, Ohio, this morning. The locomotive and eight cars were derailed, and Charles Murtagh, who leaves a family at Rochester, New York, was killed.

Belgium's Condition. BRUSSELS, Nov. 9.--The session of the Belgian chambers was opened to-day. King Leopold in his speech opening the session said that Belgium's political relations were excellent, the extension of commerce was good. The riots at Liege and Charleroi were attended to with regret.

Paris Boiler Explosion. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 9.--A Dunbar, Penn. special says: The boilers at Biles, Marshall & Co's brick yards exploded this afternoon, killing Miss Lillie Campbell and seriously injuring Jerry Gaddis. The boilers and parts of the brick yards were demolished. Loss about $500.

A TRAGIC EXECUTION.

How the Honduras Insurgents Faced Death Without Fear. NEW ORLEANS, November 9.--The Times-Messenger to-day publishes an account by an eye-witness of the execution on October 18 of General E. Delgado, Lieutenant Colonel Indalecio Garcia, Command Miguel Cortes, and Lieutenant Gabriel Loyant, who were shot at Comayagua for leading an expedition against Honduras. The four officers above named were lodged in a small prison at Comayagua, when the Honduran insurrection broke out. General Delgado's wife was there to plead with a wife's tears and a woman's devotion for her husband's life. It was the desire of President Bogran to spare General Delgado's life if possible, and any protest would have been readily heeded upon to give him an opportunity of saving himself, and at the same time vindicate the tribunal which had condemned him. The resident sent a messenger to him to say that he would promise to make and take up arms against Honduras he should receive a pardon.

The soldier was too brave to accept even his life on these terms, and he sent back reports, but one after another, until in an extraordinary tropical climate that she no longer before he would accept his pardon on such a pledge. When his answer was received there was nothing left but to prepare for the execution. In the countries north of this there are few preliminaries to such uncommon events. A priest, a firing squad, and a coffin are all that is required.

On the morning of their execution the men were taken to a point near the city of Comayagua, four companies were placed near the wall and the four condemned men were led to them. They accepted their positions as easily and gracefully as if they were in the boxes of the opera, and not a face was bloated, not a nerve quivered. Gen. Delgado stepped and received permission to order the guard to fire, which he did, first requesting them not to shoot him in the face, but in the breast. There was no rattle, no scattering reports, but one after another, standing in an upright position, as if still unharmed, and then rolled over limp and bloody. The soldiers had complied with General Delgado's request, for three balls had penetrated his breast.

BALTIMORE'S EX-POST-MORTEM. Concludes to go West and not Face a Trial for Debarment. BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.--At a meeting of the Supreme Bench to-day the case of ex-Poetmaster L. Parker Voasey to show cause why he should not be debarred for professional misconduct, was assigned for trial on Monday next, and the clerk to the bench, Winfield McClintock, ordered to notify him that his case would be heard either in person or by counsel. McClintock searched for Mr. Voasey in vain to-day, and in the order of the clerk to the bench, Winfield McClintock, ordered to notify him that his case would be heard either in person or by counsel. McClintock searched for Mr. Voasey in vain to-day, and in the order of the clerk to the bench, Winfield McClintock, ordered to notify him that his case would be heard either in person or by counsel.

MAILED BY POSTERS. MATHEW, Nov. 9.--Lynan A. Hill, of East Mathias, and Guyman Miles, of Weafer, were shot dead yesterday afternoon near the Fletcher Brook House, Hamenway township, on the Mathias river, by parties unknown. Posters had been doing a deed, and Deppers Hill and Niles were about to capture their dogs, when one of the two men, with a double-barrel shotgun, shot Niles and then Hill. The latter was a one-armed soldier. The ruffians were in a wagon well loaded with camp outfit. Others are in pursuit with a man who thinks he can identify the criminals. The excitement is intense.

A Bad Italian's Crime. NEW YORK, Nov. 9.--Frank Duhan, an Italian saloon keeper, of San Francisco, was arrested here yesterday charged with abduction by Alfred Guzman, a blacksmith of the same city. Duhan formed a clandestine acquaintance with Guzman's daughter, Marcelle, 14 years of age, and very pretty and had induced her and a girl named Winnie Murry, of Oakland, Calif., to accompany him, the latter residing on the Italian steamer as Duhan's wife and Marcelle as his sister. The trio arrived here yesterday afternoon from Aspinwall and the father reached here an hour later by rail. Duhan was locked up and the girls were placed in charge of a matron.

Window Glass Workers. PITTSBURGH, Oct. 9.--A meeting of the leading window glass manufacturers of the United States will be held in this city to-morrow to perfect the organization of a syndicate to control the production and prices. The project has been in consideration for several months, and would have been perfected some time ago, but the manufacturers interested wished to draw up a plan that would not in any way conflict with existing laws. The scheme is looked upon as the most important that has been broached in the glass business for years.

Epiphany's Opinion. LONDON, Nov. 9.--Lord Salisbury, speaking at Lord Mayor Hansard's banquet in the Guild Hall to-night, said the Conservatives occupied a position on Irish affairs which it was impossible to misinterpret. Their business was to legislate in favor of the empire and to enforce laws which had long been neglected and trodden under foot. He believed the Conservatives could claim that public confidence was being restored to the relations between landlord and tenant were better than formerly.

A Strange Suicide. MACON, Ga., Nov. 9.--A Hawkinsville, Ga., special to the Macon Telegraph, says: J. O. McCormick, aged 20, a prosperous cotton broker, who was to have been married to-morrow to Miss Garris Lewis, a lady of high social standing and noted beauty, committed suicide to-day. He had just received word of despondency and it is supposed that the excitement attending the wedding preparations so worked on his morbid nervous sensibility as to cause self destruction.

All Covered by Revolvers. INDIANA, Pa., Nov. 9.--Last night five masked men entered the house of George Smith, at Cherry Tree, and holding a revolver to his head forced him to produce $5,000 in gold which he had concealed in the house. The robbers took the money and made good their escape. Smith's wife and a hired man were also in the house at the time, but were covered by revolvers.

Killed by a Horse Fly Wheel. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 9.--A large fly wheel at the Clinton rolling mill on the South Side, burst this morning, scattering fragments in all directions and instantly killing Michael Burns, a workman, who was sitting on the bench with one of the wheels. The mill was not damaged.

THE LORD MAYOR.

HAS HIS ANNUAL BLOWOUT. The Socialists Assemble in Trafalgar Square and Give the Police Some Trouble, but No Serious Disturbances Occur--General Foreign News.

LONDON, Nov. 9.--Lord Mayor's Day opened gloomy and dark. There are few signs in the city to indicate that this is the day for the Lord Mayor's show. The display of bunting and the decoration of buildings usually made on this occasion is almost generally omitted, and the authorities and populace seem to be imbued with a sense of oppression. This condition is due to anxiety for the result of the threatened meeting of Socialists to-day. The police have made all possible arrangements for the day, and the streets have been cleared of all obstructions. At an early hour a mob of young men began to emerge from the slums and make their way towards the sections where the Socialists have arranged to assemble. Battalions of police proceeded to different points and received hearty cheers from the people.

The streets of the city and in the West End present a remarkable appearance. All the shutters of the shops are drawn and barricaded, and the iron railings are bolted to the walls. The windows of all other buildings are secured in a similar manner. These precautions are not confined to the buildings on the route of the Lord Mayor's procession, but extend to the houses in the vicinity of the square. The doors and windows of the jewelry establishments are heavily barred. Hundreds of students, armed with sticks, have gathered about the square. A crowd of loafers, some of whom are known to be members of the entrance of the square. They were met by a double line of police and turned into the Strand. Mounted police cleared the roadway. The crowd at Trafalgar square appeared to be in a state of excitement, and many of the students were shouting and waving their sticks.

At 11 o'clock a force of police occupied the square, and the students were ordered to disperse. The crowd of loafers gathered about the square, and many of them were shouting and waving their sticks.
