

The Intelligencer.

office Nos. 35 and 37 Fourteenth Street, Wheeling, W. Va.

CAMDEN LOSES ONE.

MR. COOK, OF WYOMING COUNTY, casts his ballot for Judge Okey Johnson, and will vote today for the Republican Caucus Nominee—Hon. Waitman T. Wiley.

On the second ballot to-day the Greenbackers dropped Burdett and voted with the Republicans for Wiley. This ballot resulted in Camden receiving 30, Bran non 1, J. J. Davis 2, L. S. Newman 1, E. E. B. Knight 1, Wilson 1, Johnson 3, Heywood 2, Quarrier 1 and Wiley 40.

THE WAR CLOUD.

THAT LOOMS ON OUR HORIZON. Canada stirred up Over the Passage of the Edmunds Retaliatory Resolution. How the Admir is Viewed in the Dominion by the Officials.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

The Administration in a Staggering Vein. Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.—The present Administration seems determined to gain a reputation as a marrying one. First, there was the President himself. A short time since Mr. Lamar, of the President's cabinet, joined the army of Benedict.

THE HINKLE-TREIBER SUIT.

Mrs. Thurbur sets forth That the $12,000 Obligation Belongs to the Opera Co.

New York, Jan. 25.—Mrs. Jeannette M. Thurbur to-day, through her counsel, Frank E. Lawrence, who is also the attorney of the National Opera Company, made her answer in the suit of A. Howard Hinkle, of Cincinnati, for $12,000.

NEW ENGLAND SENTIMENT.

BOSTON, Jan. 26.—The fish dealers of New England are delighted with the passage of the Edmunds resolution. They say that if the Canadians are shut out it will bring them to their senses and force the Canadian Government to take of the restrictions on American vessels.

OTTAWA, ONT., JAN. 26.

The special correspondent of the Herald called upon the Canadian Premier last night, and this is what Sir John Macdonald said: 'I feel that the people of the United States do not fully comprehend our position here in Canada.'

TRUNK MYSTERY.

"BUT WHERE IS HIS HEAD?" A Trunk Full of Benadon Shipped to Baltimore.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 26.—On Saturday last a large trunk was shipped from New York directed to 'J. A. Wilson,' this city, by the Adams Express, and arrived on Sunday. There was no call for it and this afternoon such an odor was emitted from it that the police of the Central District were notified. The trunk was removed to the station house and when opened the body of a man was revealed with feet and legs laid arm cut off and placed in with the body.

PUN FOR THE MILLIONS.

The New Jersey Democrats Purge their Amusement. Trenton, N. J., Jan. 26.—The Assembly met this morning at 11:30 o'clock, and at noon a motion to adjourn, with a view to going into joint meeting prevailed.

PITTSBURGH, PA., JAN. 25.

The employees of the harness tanneries in Allegheny City have made a demand for an advance in wages of from fifteen to twenty-five cents per day and threatened to strike if the increase is not granted.

NEWARK, N. J., JAN. 26.

Between three and four hundred hands employed in the Edison Electric Light works at Harrison went on a strike to-day.

OVER THE BORDER.

A Canadian Forger and Embezzler Captured to San Francisco. Chicago, Jan. 25.—A special dispatch says that the police have under arrest in San Francisco a Canadian forger and embezzler named Benjamin Hagenman.

GLEDSTONE INELIGIBLE.

Proposition to Make Him an Honorary Member of the Union League Club. Chicago, Jan. 26.—A decided sensation was created at the annual meeting of the Union League Club last night by Edward P. O'Grady, on behalf of the Committee on Political Action, proposing for honorary membership the Hon. W. E. Gladstone.

PARDON REMITS THE FINE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—The President has pardoned James D. Conmings, convicted in January, 1885, of making false vouchers in what are known as naval fraud cases and sentenced to imprisonment in the district jail for two years and to pay a fine of $2,000.

MURDER IN FAYETTE COUNTY.

A Well Known Lumberman Killed by a Late Employee.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 26.—W. D. Donelson, a prominent lumberman of Fayette county, was murdered yesterday by a discharged employe named Joseph B. Thurman.

AN UNPROVOKED ASSAULT.

THREE MEN BEATEN BY THE COOL STRIKERS. JERSEY CITY, N. J., Jan. 26.—A party of Poles from Wilkesbarre, Pa., while on their way to Hoboken, N. J., this morning to take the Bremen steamship, were assaulted by a gang of the cool strikers.

THE NATIONAL TRUSS GANG.

EGYPTIAN DISTRICT HAS TRACED THIS AFTERNOON TO RUN OFF THIS LEASE, and connections were made between the boiler and the pump. Ten minutes before four o'clock he went to the boiler house and saw that the steam gauge registered between eighty and ninety pounds and that there were three gauges of water in the boiler. He ran two tanks of oil and went to another lease where he had another pump.

TELEGRAPHIC EXPLOSION.

TWO HUNDRED CASES OF GIANT POWDER BLOW A TRAIN TO PIECES. FORT SCOTT, KAN., Jan. 25.—About 200 cases of giant powder exploded while in transit over the Missouri Pacific road a half mile west of this city at 1 o'clock this morning.

STRIKE THREATENED.

PITTSBURGH, PA., JAN. 26.—The employees of the harness tanneries in Allegheny City have made a demand for an advance in wages of from fifteen to twenty-five cents per day and threatened to strike if the increase is not granted.

WHY THEY STRUCK.

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 26.—Between three and four hundred hands employed in the Edison Electric Light works at Harrison went on a strike to-day.

SWALLOWED A SNAKE.

A Case That Has Caused a Separation in a Western Town. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 25.—A special from Milwaukee Junction says: The case of a three-year-old child of Charles Gilman, of this place, which died recently, has attracted considerable attention from the fact that the little one expelled a snake from his stomach.

ICE GORGES AT LOCK HAVEN.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Jan. 26.—The immense ice jam at Ferry has interrupted travel on the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad and no trains have gone west of this city since late yesterday.

STILL STICKS.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 26.—The ice blockade in the Susquehanna continues. There is little prospect of the ice moving here for some days.

ATTENTION!

Persons starting a Brass or String Band will serve their own interests by writing to Kleber & Bro., No. 500 Wood street, Pittsburgh, Pa., for illustrated catalogue of their instruments.

ANOTHER BOILER.

ASPIRES TO HIGHER THINGS. And in Breaking Away Weeks a Boiler House and Destroys the Life of Two Boys—The Cause, of Course, is Not Known—Force of the Explosion.

Oil City, Pa., Jan. 26.—At four o'clock this afternoon one of the most terrific boiler explosions that ever occurred in this section startled the men working in the vicinity of the Wolf and Kuger wells from this city. There are eight wells in this group, pumped by one engine, all having sucker rod connections.

TELEGRAPHIC EXPLOSION.

TWO HUNDRED CASES OF GIANT POWDER BLOW A TRAIN TO PIECES. FORT SCOTT, KAN., Jan. 25.—About 200 cases of giant powder exploded while in transit over the Missouri Pacific road a half mile west of this city at 1 o'clock this morning.

STRIKE THREATENED.

PITTSBURGH, PA., JAN. 26.—The employees of the harness tanneries in Allegheny City have made a demand for an advance in wages of from fifteen to twenty-five cents per day and threatened to strike if the increase is not granted.

WHY THEY STRUCK.

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 26.—Between three and four hundred hands employed in the Edison Electric Light works at Harrison went on a strike to-day.

SWALLOWED A SNAKE.

A Case That Has Caused a Separation in a Western Town. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 25.—A special from Milwaukee Junction says: The case of a three-year-old child of Charles Gilman, of this place, which died recently, has attracted considerable attention from the fact that the little one expelled a snake from his stomach.

ICE GORGES AT LOCK HAVEN.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Jan. 26.—The immense ice jam at Ferry has interrupted travel on the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad and no trains have gone west of this city since late yesterday.

STILL STICKS.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 26.—The ice blockade in the Susquehanna continues. There is little prospect of the ice moving here for some days.

ATTENTION!

Persons starting a Brass or String Band will serve their own interests by writing to Kleber & Bro., No. 500 Wood street, Pittsburgh, Pa., for illustrated catalogue of their instruments.

ST. JOHN WAS NOT RUN BECAUSE THERE WAS NO CHANCE OF HIS BEING ELECTED.

The idea was to discipline the Republican party and force it into terms, while the Democrats took the administration of the Government. The "People's Ticket" is to be offered to voters to-day as a St. John movement on a small scale.

IT IS SIGNIFICANT THAT A GREAT DEAL OF MONEY IS BEING USED FOR THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

It is significant that a great deal of money is being used for the Democratic ticket and that the gamblers are backing that ticket with odds. Can there be any connection between the two things? and if so, why are the gamblers willing to spend money to make Seabright Mayor?

THE CENTRAL PROHIBITION CLUB, FRANK T. CATRIGHT SECRETARY, SENDS OUT HIS "PEOPLE'S TICKET" ACCOMPANIED BY A CIRCULAR.

The circular sets forth that houses of prostitution and gambling places "are doing a thriving business, with but little interference from the officers of the law." Mayor Grubb made a decided interjection and he called on Chief of Police Porter Smith to interfere with his police forces.

NOBODY REMEMBERS THAT THE MAYOR IN HIS COURAGEOUS WAR ON VICE HAD ANY SUPPORT WHATSOEVER FROM THE MEN WHO ARE PRESSING THE PROHIBITION CLUB TICKET.

Not one of the Provision Club's candidates can be elected. Everybody realizes that. It is equally plain that those candidates will get no help from the friends of Seabright and Porter Smith, who, if elected, will work in entire harmony and will not seriously interfere with gambling halls, houses of prostitution or saloons that break the law.

FRIENDS OF LAW AND ORDER MUST CONTINUE TO REGRET THE UNWILLINGNESS OF THE PROHIBITION CLUB MEMBERS TO DO OR TRY TO DO ANYTHING EXCEPT PUT FORWARD A THIRD PARTY TICKET AS A CURE-ALL.

Friends of law and order must continue to regret the unwillingness of the Provision Club members to do or try to do anything except put forward a Third Party ticket as a cure-all. The other thing they do is to sneer at all God-fearing men and temperance men who do not prefer a Third Party movement.

THE EXPOSURE OF SENATOR CAMDEN'S TYPE-WRITER CORRESPONDENCE WITH MR. LUCAS.

The "exposure" of Senator Camden's type-writer correspondence with Mr. Lucas has not only been published in the Standard Oil Company's paper, but it has also been published in the Standard Oil Company's paper, and it is also published in the Standard Oil Company's paper.

AS VIEWED AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—Great interest has been taken here all along in the Senatorial situation at Charleston, and all sorts of speculations regarding the outcome are being indulged in. I learn that a number of Camden men in this city have written to their friends in the State to secure a "pressure," which is proposed to bring to bear on the recruits at Charleston.

A REPUBLICAN LEADER'S VIEW.

Mr. Church Let's Go at the Standard Oil Political Combination. The following correspondence has an interesting bearing on the situation at Charleston: My Dear Mr. Hart: PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Jan. 25, 1887.

MR. CHURCH TO SENATOR SCOTT.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Jan. 26, 1887. Hon. N. B. Scott, Charleston, W. Va. MY DEAR SIR:—I am just in receipt of your without date. The assurances it gives are very gratifying.

THE FISHERY QUESTION.

There is much talk in official and political circles about the debate that was sprung in the Senate on the fishing rights of the United States, and it has been many a day since there has been as much war talk indulged in by an American administration as has taken place to-day.

WEST VIRGINIA MATTERS.

Hon. Buford Smith, of Morgan county; Mr. Alex. Campbell, of Wheeling, and Mr. W. W. Peterson, of Wheeling, are in the city.

COMMENTS OF CANADA PRESS.

TORONTO, ONT., Jan. 26.—Referring to the Washington fisheries legislation, the Globe of to-day says: "The United States Senate, since it has become a caucus of plutocrats, has displayed little statesmanship and its decisions in the general course have been no regular evidence of wisdom."

NEW ENGLAND SENTIMENT.

BOSTON, Jan. 26.—The fish dealers of New England are delighted with the passage of the Edmunds resolution. They say that if the Canadians are shut out it will bring them to their senses and force the Canadian Government to take of the restrictions on American vessels.

OTTAWA, ONT., JAN. 26.

The special correspondent of the Herald called upon the Canadian Premier last night, and this is what Sir John Macdonald said: 'I feel that the people of the United States do not fully comprehend our position here in Canada.'