Mr. Ernest Kitz, of New York, repre senting Hochstadter & Co. of No. 116 Pearl street, Hanover square, of that city, importers of wines, brandles and gins, arrived in this city Monday morning on business connected with his firm. Last evening Mr. Kitz was arrested by Constable Dick Bird on a charge of embezzling and appropriating to his own use one hundred and twenty-five dollars, the property new office over H. L. Phillips by Ferdinand Jenny, a cigarmaker living on the nand Jenny, a cigarmaker living on the Island at the corner of South Wabash and Delaware streets, who claims to have lost through Kitz the amount of money stated, He has retained the firm of Dovener & Elson to prosecute the New Yorker.

This embezzlement is said to have taken place eighteen years ago. At that time Jenny lived in Parkersburg and carried on the business of cigarmaking there. His story is that Kitz came to the city a young German, and that he took him into his place and kept him until he was well acquainted with the details of the business, and that then he sent him out on the road with a lot of samples, and bills against various customers to the amount of one hundred and twenty-five dollars, that were to be collected. Jenny's claim is that Kitz collected this money and never accounted for it; that after he started out on this drumming trip he never returned nor ever sent any account back. This embezzlement is said to have taken back.

Mr. Kitz's story of the affair is quite dif-ferent from Mr. Jenny's. Mr. Kitz, by the way, is quite well known here, although he has not been here for nearly eighteen years. He came here from Parkersburg, he has not been here from Parkersburg, at that time, and engaged as barkeeper for old Billy Warnafelt, who kept a saloon under old Washingtou Hall, where the Phonix saloon is now located. While there he became acquainted with Prof. Joe Kramer, Mr. Hess, and several other well-known parties who still reside here. Mr. Kitz says that when he struck Parkersburg he became acquainted with Jenny and arranged to go into the cigar business with him. He says he worked there for about three meaths doing everything from sweeping out to stripping to-bacco, boarding in the mean time with Mr. Jenny's family. He finally started out with some samples to see what he could do in the way of securing trade and came do in the way of securing trade and came to this city first. took bills to the amount of $40 or $50 to collect for Jenny.

He arrived here, but did not succeed in doing much business and having had a position offered him by Warnsfelt accepted it, and wrote to Jenny telling him what he had done. In response to this Jenny came here and called on Kitz at the saloon. Kitz asked him to take a drink and he accepted the invitation, Kitz charging, so he says, the price of the drinks to himself. He says that he offered to settle with Jenny, but the latter would agree to nothing, and Kitz says that during the talk the samples which he still had, and which belonged to Jenny, were taken by Oscar Sandrock, who claimed to have an unsettled account with Jenny. Kitz says that he had never had a settlement with Jenny for the three months he had worked to him and he were had the the interest with enny for the three months he had worked for him, and he wanted that taken into ac count in the settlement that he wanted count in the settlement that he wanted Jenny to make at that time.

Jenny, so Kitzsays, not only refused to enter into any settlement, but he went to Warnafelt and warned him that Kitz would break him up, as he was giving away drinks. Warnafelt went to Kitz with this story, and Kitz says he showed him the books where he had charged himself with the drinks he and Jenny had had, but this did not satisfy Warnafelt, and he was discharged. He then went to Pittsburgh and from there to Philadelphia, and finally landed in New York, where he has since remained, except when traveling for his firm. This is the first visit he has paid Wheeling since he left here.

Justice Phillips postponed the hearing of the case till to-day. Mr. Kitz not desiring to epend the night in jail, obtained the consent of the counsel of the other side to his remaining out under charge of Constable Bird. He was at the Opera House last evening in charge of that officer. In appearance no is quite distinguished looking; he dresses well and wears a heavy monetache and imperial. While naturally feeling considerably embarrassed under the circumstances, he conversed very pleasantly. He says that he shall file a counter claim against Jenny for services rendered, and anticipates no difficulty in clearing himself of the charge now lodged sgainst him.

Frank Mayo, one of the most accomplished actors now before the public, will appear in Wheeling at the Opera House, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week, when he will present his very on caccesful play, "Nordeck." This is said to be a dramatic treat superior to most of the plays offered the public.

Speaking of a recent performance of "Nordeck" in the East, an exchange says: "Never in dramatic history has a play sprung so quickly and so firmly into popular lavor as has "Nordeck." Its sixth Le performance nearly filled Music Hall last devening with an enthusiastic audience, many of whose faces had been seen at previous representations. HOW MY BACK ACHES!

Back Ache, Kidney Pains and Weak ness, Soreness, Lameness, Strains and First Cura Anti-Pain Plaster—infallible.

EXAMINE BEFORE YOU BUY.

WHEN in the grocer's store you stand And cakes of Ivory Soar demand, Be careful not to be misled And imitations take instead. For dealers oft will praises sing Of that which may more profit bring. Let not your senses clouded be Because a snowy cake you see, For villainy is not confined To darkest colors, bear in mind,

And oft the sham is not remote From fairest face or whitest coat. Examine well with careful eye The cake until the name you spy, And always thus be well assured That Ivory Soat you have procured; And should a lingering doubt remain, 'Twill vanish, like the darkest stain, When in the tub on washing day That cake of soap is brought in play

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.
