

PREPARED FOR TROUBLE.

Armed Pinkerton Men and Forty Deputy Sheriffs

TO PROTECT NON-UNION MEN

At Carnegie's Works To-Day—Trouble Anticipated at Bradcocks—The Knights of Labor Still Out. The Sheriff's Proclamation.

PITTSBURGH, April 22.—Everything was quiet at the Edgar Thompson steel works yesterday. The machinists all went to work and everything was running smoothly. The firm posted no notices about work requesting all men who wanted to work to report for duty at 7 o'clock on Monday morning. A majority of the non-union men have signified their intention of going to work, but the Knights still remain out. The claim is that they have enough men to start one turn on Monday and that will settle the whole trouble.

As a matter of precaution, Superintendent Jones notified Sheriff McCandless that trouble was apprehended and requested the firm's property to be protected from violence, damage and destruction. The sheriff issued a proclamation ordering all persons not to molest or interfere with the running of the works, under penalty of arrest and imprisonment. The sheriff has conveyed a writ of habeas corpus to the duty at Bradcocks and has made arrangements with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad to send up as many more as may be necessary at a moment's notice.

PINKERTON MEN ON HAND.

One hundred armed Pinkerton men, in charge of Captain Dougherty, arrived from the West last night and were placed on guard at the Edgar Thompson steel works. Forty deputy sheriffs are also on duty. The works were started at seven o'clock this morning. Superintendent Jones says he will have no trouble in getting all the men needed to run the mill. Everything was quiet about Bradcocks to-day.

Rev. Father Hickey addressed his congregation in a sermon made up largely of the non-union men, and cautioned them to keep the peace. Superintendent Jones stated to-night that the firm proposed to protect all who desired to work, and if it was necessary the Pinkerton force would be increased to one thousand. In regard to the threat of the Knights of Labor to call out the men in the other Carnegie mills, he said, "Let them do as they please. I have 2,500 men at one place and I have no fear of them. I also have a perfect understanding with the officials of the Amalgamated Association, and can get all the men I want."

A Successful Strike.

CHICAGO, April 22.—The first successful strike of the season in Chicago was inaugurated by the journeymen bakers this morning, and was won before night. This evening the strikers were able to show that 150 of the 320 employers had signed the terms of the Union. About 1,000 men quit work, and over half of them are to be employed. The strikers held a meeting immediately after the strike, at which resolutions were presented pledging those present to carry out their programme of non-recognition of the union. There was no loss of work, and the strikers were able to get their work done as usual.

The Pool Beer Boycott.

NEW YORK, April 22.—At to-day's meeting of the Central Labor Union it was resolved to organize a vigilance committee in each of the twenty-four assembly districts in the city to carry on the boycott against pool beer. The Arbitration Committee moved that the credentials of the brewery engineers, who did not go out with the journeymen, be burned, and the engineers expelled. The motion was carried. The food producers' section reported that they were about to organize the Weiss Bier brewers and the soda water bottlers.

No More Boycotting.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 22.—Judge Sledge, of the common pleas court, granted an injunction, yesterday, restraining members of the Trades assembly from boycotting Deaco Brothers, a firm of this city, whose establishment has been under the ban for a year. A suit for $10,000 damages has also been instituted by the firm against a number of the most prominent labor leaders of Allegheny county.

Will Not Accept a Reduction.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 22.—The tubeworkers of Pittsburgh do not propose to accept any reduction in wages. A resolution was passed at the meeting of District 3, Knights of Labor yesterday to this effect, thus repudiating the scale prepared by the convention of tubeworkers held in this city a few days ago.

UBAN PATRIOTS ORGANIZING.

FILIBUSTERS FROM FLORIDA TO BE SENT TO ANNEX THE GOVERNMENT. Key West, Fla., April 21.—The troubles in Cuba have started the Cuban patriots here into action again, and a new organization has just been formed, and over a hundred members. Great secrecy is observed, and only those are admitted to the membership who are known to be radical in their hatred for Spanish rule. Two men, Montano and Gonzalez, are known to be leaders, and they are very large at work on some plan now. It is said by sympathizers that it is their intention to send a series of small squads of filibusters to Cuba for the purpose of annoying the Government as much as possible. They have two large boxes marked dry goods, that came from New York the first of the month to persons here, contained arms and ammunition.

ASSAULTED AN EDITOR.

The Mayor of Weston Fined for Attacking Editor M. S. Holt.

WESTON, W. Va., April 22.—For some time past there has been existing bad blood between Dr. M. S. Holt, editor of the Weston Republican, and Mayor W. W. Brannon. They have already had several rounds without gloves and yesterday after pounding each other for a few minutes they clinched, and falling to the ground rolled all over the street in front of Anderson's shoe store. It seems that this last difficulty, as also the former ones, was caused by an article that appeared in Mr. Holt's paper. The fight drew a large crowd and caused a good deal of excitement and talk. Yells were heard from all sides, and were everywhere, but order was soon restored. Brannon, who made the assault, was fined before Councilmen Newton and O'Hara in the afternoon. The fine was fixed at $10 and costs.

NAUGHTY DISS DEBAR,

The Alleged Husband of the Spiritualistic Fraud.

HIS PARKERSBURG RECORD

And His Marriage to a West Union Lady, Who is Still Living in Philadelphia—How He Met Ann O'Delia "Diss Debar."

PHILADELPHIA, April 22.—"General" Joseph Diss Debar, the alleged husband of the notorious M. E. Diss Debar, who has been mystifying the New York public by her peculiar influence over the aged Luther B. Marsh, turns out to be the husband of a respectable matron living at 815 Morris street, this city.

Her name is Mrs. Debar, and she was the daughter of well-to-do people by the name of Caine, in West Union, Doddridge county, W. Va. She married Mr. Diss Debar at that place, and went to live with him at Parkersburg. She was his second wife, the first being the daughter of a wealthy Cincinnati merchant named Levasseur.

Mrs. Debar says she and her husband lived happily at Parkersburg until he became involved in the sale of oil lands and had occasion to go to New York during the negotiations. Soon after his return from Manhattan a stylish dressed young woman came to the hotel in Parkersburg. She passed as Mrs. Winal, a rich young widow bent on oil speculation, and made a practice of coming to the house every day. Mr. Diss Debar was having an office in the hotel where he lived.

In the course of the developments Mr. Diss Debar has a room fitted up for the rich widow in the house, explaining to his wife it would be to their advantage to have Mrs. Winal with them.

Mrs. Debar grew very suspicious, when the husband, finding it necessary to make a contract, made a statement, confession that Mrs. Winal was a daughter by his first wife, whom he claimed to have married before Miss Levasseur, making Mrs. Debar aware for the first time that she was the third wife instead of the second.

Mrs. Winal said her name was Editha, and insisted on all the family calling her "Dit." She and Mr. Diss Debar were frequently locked in a room together for a whole day talking speculation, much to the annoyance of the wife. Finally Mrs. Debar, concluding that her husband and "Dit" were altogether too affectionate even for father and daughter, raised a tempest in the course of which she warned the mysterious "Dit" to make herself scarce, which she did, going as mysteriously as she came.

Then Mr. Debar had business in New York again, and came back with a plan in his head for removing to Philadelphia in order to be here during the Centennial. He created the idea of a further mark to the Philadelphia office, where French will show his teeth. He thinks there is a disposition to whitewash a bad man.

It was not long before Mrs. Debar found to her mortification and anger, that "Dit" was around. The children saw her and "Dit" together. Mrs. Debar became aware that there was an influence exerted over her husband by the mysterious woman, and so told him in a spirit of wounded indignation to leave her and get out of the city. Mrs. Debar says they were never divorced, and that his family ever since, and still comes to see her occasionally.

Mrs. Debar still has a kindly affection for her wayward husband, says he was generous and kind and was idolized by his family. Running away from his mysterious Editha was the only mark she ever did. She hopes, even at this day, that he may repent his folly and come back.

MARSH COMES TO HIS SENSES.

Convicted that Time, Diss Debar is a Bad Woman.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Despite Luther B. Marsh's attitude on the witness stand on Friday, and despite his sturdy efforts to uphold his belief in the supernatural character of the pictures and communications juggled into his possession by Mrs. Diss Debar, some impression was made upon him by what he saw and heard. He came upon Justice Kilbuck's testimony in the case he had expressed to an intimate friend last Thursday, and that was that Mrs. Debar was a bad woman.

But he said he was still unrepentant to relinquish his belief in spiritualism, or even in the manifestations that had come to him through her, however unworthy she might be to be selected by St. Peter and St. Anthony, of Padua, as a medium of communication with the spirits.

The police court examination, when continued on Tuesday, will have other interesting features beside the production of the pictures. Mr. Hummel said that Prof. Hertz has offered to forfeit a large sum of money if he fails to hypnotize Mr. Marsh and make him sign a note to Hertz's order or to do anything else he is bid to do.

FALSE Rumors CORRECTED.

Stories About an Alleged Blaine Scheme Pronounced Outrage.

CHICAGO, April 22.—Last week, when Chairman Clarkson, of the National Republican Committee, was in town, a senseless rumor was set afoot to the effect that the committee had found the new auditorium unfit in every way for the great convention, and also that it could not be finished in time. A day later rumor had it that a wigwag was to be built hurriedly, and that the auditorium had been abandoned. Next it was declared that this was a scheme to get a big convention hall and pack it in Blaine's interests.

These rumors are now being doled out by correspondents in this city, but there is not a word of truth to any of them. The auditorium seats within 800 of as many people as the 1884 convention hall, and will seat them all within a radius of 180 feet, whereas the end of the old hall was 360 feet away from the speaker's stand. It will be ready in ample time, but even if it should not be, in less than ten days time the Exposition building could be fitted out to accommodate 10,000.

Colored Men and Cleveland.

The Administration Assailed by a Colored Religious Conference.

NEW YORK, April 22.—The fourth day's session of the Zion Methodist Conference in the Bleecker Street Church was opened yesterday with prayer by Elder E. M. Stanton. John C. Dacey submitted the report on the condition of the country. It discussed the tariff and the prevalence of lynch law in the South, and wound up with a scoring of President Cleveland. His administration, which started out with such good prospects, was, it was declared, unending. The pall bearers were Wm. H. Comstock, Wm. H. Watson, Francis Kernan, Henry D. Pixler, Theodore Pomeroy, William Blaikie, Publius V. Rogers, E. Prentiss Bailey and Chas. M. Demmon.

Chester A. Faulkner, of Indiana, Chief of the Division of Records of the Pension Office, has, at the request of Secretary Vilas, tendered his resignation. Mr. Faulkner's removal grows out of an offensive letter which he is said to have written to the Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, after the latter had declined to transfer Faulkner's son-in-law, a railway mail clerk, to a route in Indiana.

The town of Medford, Mass., is excited over the death of Mrs. Lottie A. James and her new-born child on Friday morning. Mrs. Connor, the mother of Mrs. James, practices the cure of diseases by prayer or by the method of a Christian scientist. The husband of the dead woman is away from home on business, and it appears that no medicine or other aid was given. Mrs. Connor was called to both mother and child were dead.

REV. MR. BRUSHINGHAM'S CASE

And Chicago's Big Church Scandal. A Lover Elopes With the Sister of His Betrothed—A Story With a Pointed Moral to It.

CHICAGO, April 22.—Ada Street Methodist Church was jammed, to-day, by members of the congregation and others, including hundreds of fashionable ladies, all bent upon seeing Rev. J. P. Brushingham appear in the pulpit for the first time since a civil court jury voted 10 to 2 against him on a charge of illegitimate parentage. Throughout the sermon Mr. Brushingham kept the audience on tiptoe of expectation that something sensational was coming, by every now and then making an allusion that the hearers imagined would lead up to personal matters. Nothing of the sort occurred, however. The speaker was pale but collected and cool, speaking without apparent embarrassment. He made an incidental reference to the death of Conkling, whose intellect and force was given due tribute, but whose "immorality" the preacher deplored. At the conclusion of the services Mr. Brushingham made a statement, declaring himself innocent of the charges preferred and thanking the congregation on behalf of his wife and children for their trustfulness.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

A Story Which Shows That Girls Should be Their Own Entertainer.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 22.—Mr. Jas. McMorris and Miss Katie Simpson were married in Jeffersonville by Squire Keigwin. They eloped from the home of the bride's parents at Beard's Station, Ky. Mr. McMorris is a prosperous young merchant in a little town in Wyoming, and while on a previous visit to Kentucky he became acquainted with Miss Georgia Simpson. They corresponded regularly until within a few weeks ago, when McMorris came East. When he arrived here, he went to the young lady's home, and there made the acquaintance of her sister, Miss Katie. Miss Georgia is employed as a clerk at a dry goods store in this city, and as she did not like to leave without giving her employer notice she left her visitor to be entertained by her attractive little sister. Miss Katie made it so agreeable for the young man that he fell deeply in love with her, and yesterday when he proposed an elopement she consented. A suit was filed for Mrs. Simpson and boarded the afternoon train. Then the ceremony was quickly performed and the happy couple proceeded directly to Wyoming on the next train.

American Theosophists.

CHICAGO, April 22.—Three score of the mystic followers of Mme. Blavatsky were at the Sherman House to-day holding the third annual convention of the American section of the Theosophical Society. This was the opening and only day of the convention. The morning session was private, and the delegates were required to give significant pass words before they were admitted. There are twenty-two branches in the United States, and they were all represented. In his report the Secretary said the membership had increased fifty per cent in the last year—half as much in one year as in the twelve preceding years. In the United States there are about 600 enrolled members and several thousand sympathizers. An auditing committee and a committee to nominate members of the council were appointed. It was 1 o'clock by this time and the convention adjourned.

Fatherly Advice.

PARIS, April 22.—Premier Floquet was waited upon, to-day, by a deputation of students, who came to complain of the action of the police during the political disturbance here on Friday last. The Premier informed them that he would respond in all disorders with a firm hand, and at the same time would see that the police did not exceed their duties. He subsequently visited the principal police stations and returned to the Chamber of Deputies in the department of Isere in the evening. He reminded them that they owed fidelity to the Republic and ought to be vigilant and firm in order to ensure the security of the public and respect for the law.

He Died in Margins.

DAYTON, O., April 22.—James Cummins, manager for R. G. Dun's Commercial Agency, committed suicide this evening by shooting himself in the head, but it took an hour for him to die. He taught his class in the Grace Methodist Church this morning, attended Sunday service and remained with the family the rest of the day. This evening he told his wife he would lie down and requested her to call him. At 7:45 Mrs. Cummins heard a shot, and rushing up stairs had to push the body of her husband away before she could get in his room. Cummins was lying unconscious in a pool of blood and died after the doctor arrived. He had been dealing in margins at a bucket shop.

THE TRI-STATE LEAGUES

Season Opens To-day—Where Clubs Will Play—The Detroit Game Notes.

The second championship season of the Tri-State League, which has been looked forward to with almost as much, if not more interest than the opening of the National and Association series, opens to-day. Sandusky, booked to play the first three days, will remain at home and play exhibition games with the Bisons, leaving Toledo the first club of the League to appear here. The Toledo men will be here Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Lima will open with Canton at the latter place and Sandusky will follow Lima at Canton the last three days of the week. Toledo will open with Zanesville the first three days and be followed by Kalamazoo the last three. Kalamazoo will be at Columbus to open with that city's team and be followed by the Lima team. The last team will open at Mansfield and be followed by Lima.

There is likely to be a large number of surprises this first week and at the end of the first six games pennant winners will not be so numerous as in former years.

THE DETROIT GAME.

The attention of patrons of the National game is directed to the special advertisement of the exhibition game to be played by the Wheeling team, with the big Detroit club at Island Park Wednesday. The Wolverines are the proud possessors of the World's Championship and a great game is anticipated. The Baltimore & Ohio road has arranged for excursion rates and if the day is pleasant a large crowd will probably be present. A large guarantee, but notwithstanding this the management has decided not to charge more than the usual quarter admission. It is pretty definitely settled that the Wheeling left-handers will pitch, and if the boys will keep cool and not get the rattles, they will put up a strong game.

GENERAL BASE BALL NOTES.

Mansfield has a Nightingale. He ought to be able to sing sweetly on the coach lines. Canton has set aside all Thursdays as Ladies' Day. That day they will be admitted free.

Capt. Pease of the Cleveleans, has contained an article in the "Discord" about the Plumed Knights, which is wholly incorrect. It states: "The story goes that at a meeting held early in the week, the proceedings were characterized by a painful amount of discord, and a session in which was conducted until after 11 o'clock, actually broke up in a row; that the officers of the Knights resigned, and that the organization is now without any distinct head, and is drifting about upon the political ocean with excellent chance of resulting in the bottom, unless some means is speedily found of stopping the leak, and once more putting the craft in sailing trim."

The only meeting held by the Plumed Knights within the last two weeks was the one held on last Monday evening. At this meeting only a few of the members were present, and the meeting was a very short one. It adjourned before 9:30 o'clock.

There was not the least discord, and not one officer resigned or tendered his resignation. Altogether, not one part of the foregoing quotation is true.

Your reporter owes it to himself to give the name of the Republican (if any such there be) that is responsible for the said misstatements, and he hopes that he will do so. Respectfully,

"B. S. ALLISON,
"President of Plumed Knights,

MISTOOK HER FOR A PHENIAN.

Buffalo Hills Female Crack Shot Falls into Detective's Hands.

LONDON, April 22.—Mrs. Birdie Grover, a rifle woman in Col. Cody's company, had a disagreement with the Colonel last week and sailed from Liverpool for New York on Saturday on the steamer Arizona. This morning, having relented, she landed at Queenstown with the intention of returning. There the police and custom officers suspecting her to be a Fenian disguised as a woman, searched her baggage and seized three rifles. Mrs. Grover is indignant at the manner in which she has been treated and is trying to regain her rifles.

Anti-Boulangers Still Rioting.

PARIS, April 22.—A crowd of anti-Boulangers students to-day set fire to several bales of the newspapers La Lanterne and L'Intransigeant in a wagon on the Boulevard St. Michael and then maltreated the horse and the driver, about 1,000 market porters have volunteered to attend the printing press of the journals which the students threatened to attack. It is estimated that 40,000 persons were parading in the Latin quarter last evening in favor of Boulangier.

Blindness an Affliction of the Past.

CLEVELAND, O., April 22.—The physicians of this city are greatly interested in a case of almost total deafness which has been instantly relieved by the invention of H. A. Wales of Bridgeport, Conn. The case had long been considered hopeless, as all known remedies had failed, and it is considered a triumph for this wonderful and invisible device.

How Men Die.

If we know all the methods of approach adopted by an enemy we are the better enabled to ward off the danger and postpone the moment when we are surrounded becomes inevitable. In many instances the inherent strength of the body suffices to enable it to oppose the tendency toward death. Many, however, have lost these forces to such an extent that there is little or no help. In other cases a little aid to the weak and it is considered a triumph for this wonderful and invisible device.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too, by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her, and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she sought incessantly for relief, but in vain. She had a bottle of King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night, and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hancock, Co., of Shelby, N. C.—Get a free trial bottle at Logan & Co.'s drug store."

THE GERMAN EMPEROR.

He is Still Desperately Struggling With Death.

EUROPE'S NOBLEST RULER

Bearing His Fatal Malady Patiently Personal Concern of the English Royalty—Other Foreign News of Interest.

BERLIN, April 22.—A special edition of the North German Gazette, published at 1:35 this afternoon, says: Although the Emperor's rest last night was frequently broken by fits of coughing and expectation, he enjoyed intervals of quiet sleep, which, taken in conjunction with a slight abatement of his fever, had a strengthening effect and put him in better spirits. Despite his small appetite, he took this morning a fair quantity of nourishment, chiefly milk. The bulletin issued at 9 p. m. said that the Emperor had passed a pretty good day, with less fever than on former days, but his temperature began to rise toward evening.

Dr. Hovell has written to the Cologne Gazette denying that the Emperor had an attack of suffocation on Wednesday night, or that his (Hovell's) efforts to readjust the canula caused injury. He says that not a drop of blood came until Prof. Bergmann tried to insert the tube, when blood flowed copiously for several hours.

The doctors attending the Emperor declare that the published descriptions of the Emperor's suffering, with the exception of the difficulty of breathing, are exaggerated. He suffers from no local pain at Newton Arms, County Down, the best days he has had since the present illness began. Absolute rest is still imperative. It is impossible to predict whether or not the improvement will continue.

FOR PERSONAL GAIN.

Intrigue of the English Royalties—Indignant Feeling Throughout Germany.

BERLIN, April 22.—All classes, from the highest to the lowest, share the common feeling that the English royalties have steered their way through the circumstances attendant upon the Emperor's illness with more regard for personal gain than German interests.
