

DOWN W. L. WILSON

Speaks for Free Trade in the House of Representatives.

SCHOLARLY BUT ILLOGICAL.

As usual—off in his history—he gets

Corrected and Refuses to Respond to a Direct Question.

General Washington News.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3.—Representative Wilson occupied the floor of the House for one hour and fifty minutes today delivering his anti-tariff speech.

As a rhetorical effort every body says it was far above the average. Except for the unfortunate chronological error placing the publication of Dickens' "American Notes" after the enactment of the Walker revenue tariff, it was happily constructed throughout.

The candor with which the scholarly West Virginian avowed his free trade sentiments affords great satisfaction to protectionists.

Gen. Goff said to-night that Wilson's speech was decidedly the best that has been made thus far in the debate on that side of the question, though its arguments could be easily met.

At the close of Wilson's speech, the House adjourned until to-morrow.

MR. WILSON'S SPEECH.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3.—The House went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Springer, of Illinois, in the chair, on the tariff bill.

Mr. Wilson, of West Virginia, a member of the Ways and Means Committee, said that the opponents of the bill represented the issue to be between free trade and protection.

It was rather an effort of the people to recover the right to tax themselves.

The tariff was not the best of loyalty to the country was devotion to the Union in the struggle for its preservation.

Lately, however, the country had been told that even a McClellan and a Hancock must be ranked as allies of the tariff party.

It is not necessary to say that the world is a better place than it was when the tariff was first imposed.

It is not necessary to say that the world is a better place than it was when the tariff was first imposed.

It is not necessary to say that the world is a better place than it was when the tariff was first imposed.

It is not necessary to say that the world is a better place than it was when the tariff was first imposed.

UNION LABOR PARTY

Nominates a State Ticket and National Delegates.

CHARLESTON'S CONVENTION

Adopts a Platform Arraigning the Present State Administration—Mr. Keena Ought to be Pleaced.

Other State Conventions.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., May 3.—The State Union Labor Convention met at 11 o'clock to-day and was called to order by S. H. Pierson, of Wood county.

Mr. Neal, of West county, was made chairman, and J. F. Thomas, of Wood county, and J. C. Thomas, of Kanawha, were elected secretaries.

The following committees were appointed: On Resolutions, J. K. Thomas, J. H. Burt, J. H. Jackson, J. C. Thomas, on Credentials and Basis of Representation—J. G. Goshorn, Dr. A. R. Barbee, Henry Stevenson, on Permanent Organization—First district, J. A. Staley; Second, William Smith; Third, D. R. Keeney; Fourth, M. W. Hayes.

The Committee on Basis of Representation reported favoring two delegates at large from each county, and one delegate for every 100 votes cast for Weaver in 1880.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following:

First, We the Union Labor Party of West Virginia, reaffirm the Cincinnati platform adopted February 2, 1887, and pledge ourselves to its hearty support and endorsement.

Second, On questions of State policy we declare: That we favor the enactment of such laws as will cause the operator to pay the miner for all merchantable coal.

Third, In releasing the revenues necessary to carry on the State Government the property of corporations shall have no advantage over property owned by individuals.

Fourth—We favor the extension and perfecting of our educational laws to the extent that the benefits may be most widely diffused among the masses of the public.

Fifth—We favor such changes in our road laws as shall secure a marked improvement in the roads of our State.

Sixth—We favor the establishment of a State Bureau of Immigration under a law with liberal provisions, that shall secure the advertisement to the world of West Virginia's inexhaustible resources, and secure its wealthy and thrifty, energetic, moral people to settle in our midst.

Seventh—We favor the enactment of such laws in general as shall change our laws as to place them abreast of those of the most populous and prosperous States of the Union; that shall remove the last vestige of antiquated and obsolete laws that hamper commerce, retard development, depreciate capital, stand as a menace to immigration, and chain West Virginia and her destiny to the past, not the future.

Eighth—We favor the passage of legislation under the name of the "Republican Party" that shall guarantee the protection of the American laborer and the American manufacturer against the pauper labor of the "foreigner."

Ninth—That the passage of the minor laws, the last session of the Legislature, containing the conspiracy feature, is a blow to organized labor, and passed designedly for the purpose of over-awing the people, but it failed of passage.

A TICKET NOMINATED.

The Committee on Organization recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent.

Nominations being in order, the balance of the business was rushed through, all the candidates being nominated by acclamation.

PARKERSBURG'S PRIDE.

The Grand Welcome Extended to Thousands of Visitors.

THE TOWN A BLAZE OF GLORY

Travelers' Protective Association's Annual Convention—Magnificent Trades Display by Electric Light—Splendid Banquet.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., May 3.—This booming city never looked handsomer than it does to-night.

Every prominent business house and nearly every private residence is decorated with flags, bunting, emblems and devices; the city is brilliant with nearly fifty-two thousand candle power electric lights; the streets are clean and there is a general gala-day appearance.

There are crowds of people here; nobody knows how many. And all of this is in honor of the "Knights of the Grip," the West Virginia division of the Travelers' Protective Association, who met here in annual session to-day at two o'clock at the Academy of Music.

A meeting of the Executive Committee was held last night at which all of the members were present, except Mr. A. Brog, of Wheeling. Two matters of importance only were transacted.

The annual dues for next year were fixed at $2, same as before, and it was decided to defray the expenses of the delegates to the National Convention at St. Louis, Mo., by a special assessment.

The Wheeling boys, the noon Ohio River train to-day brought in the Wheeling delegation, one hundred strong, headed by the Wheeling Opera House Band.

They were met by Post A, of this city, headed by the City Band, and by Post B, of Charleston, headed by Yate's Band, and escorted in magnificent style to the T. P. A. headquarters, on Market street.

The Wheeling delegation made a splendid appearance, and were favorably commended.

The Charleston delegation arrived last night accompanied by Gate's band. They number about twenty men and are also very fine looking.

The local Post (No. 1) is doing the honors in local style.

THE DAY PARADE.

The Travelers' Protective Association parade proper occurred this afternoon. The procession organized at two o'clock on Julia and Fifth streets under the leadership of Chief Marshal, and marched down to Park street, and then to Third to Market, Market to Thirteenth, Thirteenth to Juliana to the Academy of Music.

The Wheeling Opera House band led the procession, followed by Company No. 1, then the Charleston band, and the City Band, and the Parkersburg City Band, the latter brought up by Company No. 3.

The men all wore shining silk hats and carried canes. The appearance presented was a very fine one indeed, and was witnessed along the route by people from all directions.

The day being perfect a great many strangers and citizens were in the carriage.

In addition to Post A, of this city, Post B, of Wheeling, and Post C, of Charleston, there are a great many other traveling men here from parts of the State where there are no regular posts.

There were altogether more than two hundred men in line.

Among the visitors there are several new recruits, viz: B. C. Clark, of the Buckhannon Banner; McCreery, of the Buckhannon News; Judge Hayden, of the Weston World; Alderman, of the Marietta Register, and Cooke, of the Marietta Journal.

BLAINE-ENDORSED.

Finally we offer our salutation and best wishes to the sound Republican statesman, the brilliant leader in our last National campaign, the Hon. James G. Blaine, and we regret that he is not a candidate before the next National convention.

We pledge the earnest and undivided efforts to those whom we represent to secure the election of any Republican who may be nominated by the convention.

Illinois Republicans Adjourn.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., May 3.—It was after 1 o'clock this morning when the Republican State Convention adjourned.

The following addition was made to the platform as given last night:

"The Republican party is in favor of such tariff as will guarantee the protection of the American laborer and the American manufacturer against the pauper labor of the 'foreigner.'"

An attempt was made to get the Convention to adopt a resolution favoring the submission of a prohibition amendment to the people, but it failed of passage.

Idaho Republicans.

BOISE CITY, IDAHO, May 3.—The territory Republican convention which met here yesterday was one of the largest and most successful ever held in Idaho.

Hon. W. Heyburn, of Coeur d'Alene, and George A. Black, of Hailey county, were elected delegates to the Chicago convention with Willis Sweet and Joseph Pinkham as alternates.

Mr. Sweet and Mr. Pinkham were named as delegates at large to the National Convention, nominated by V. A. Gates, of Kanawha.

For Supreme Judge there was no material, and consequently no candidate was named.

For Auditor, J. H. Burt, of Ohio county, nominated by D. Robinson, of Kanawha.

Superintendent of Schools, O. D. Hill, nominated by J. C. Thomas, of Kanawha.

For Treasurer, S. P. Hawley, of Greenbrier, nominated by S. H. Pierson.

For Attorney General, D. D. T. Farnsworth, of Upshur, nominated by J. McFarland.

Elected at large, J. W. Goshorn, of Kanawha, John T. Janney, of Berkeley Springs, and J. H. Pierson, of Kanawha.

Delegates at large to the National Convention, nominated by J. W. Goshorn, of Kanawha; Wirt C. Neal, of Wood.

The convention adjourned at noon. About 250 delegates were in attendance.

Mr. Weaver spoke at two o'clock for about an hour and a half, and gave both the old parties a scolding. There were about 500 present.

The Third District Congressional convention met at the close of his speech to openly unite with traitors and fight for their cause.

Mr. Weaver's speech was adopted unanimously, and a public reception to the Senator from Kansas. A committee representing the league will call upon him with an engrossed copy of the resolutions, and ask him to fix a date for the reception.

THE TOWN A BLAZE OF GLORY

Travelers' Protective Association's Annual Convention—Magnificent Trades Display by Electric Light—Splendid Banquet.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., May 3.—This booming city never looked handsomer than it does to-night.

Every prominent business house and nearly every private residence is decorated with flags, bunting, emblems and devices; the city is brilliant with nearly fifty-two thousand candle power electric lights; the streets are clean and there is a general gala-day appearance.

There are crowds of people here; nobody knows how many. And all of this is in honor of the "Knights of the Grip," the West Virginia division of the Travelers' Protective Association, who met here in annual session to-day at two o'clock at the Academy of Music.

A meeting of the Executive Committee was held last night at which all of the members were present, except Mr. A. Brog, of Wheeling.

Two matters of importance only were transacted. The annual dues for next year were fixed at $2, same as before, and it was decided to defray the expenses of the delegates to the National Convention at St. Louis, Mo., by a special assessment.

The Wheeling boys, the noon Ohio River train to-day brought in the Wheeling delegation, one hundred strong, headed by the Wheeling Opera House Band.

They were met by Post A, of this city, headed by the City Band, and by Post B, of Charleston, headed by Yate's Band, and escorted in magnificent style to the T. P. A. headquarters, on Market street.

The Wheeling delegation made a splendid appearance, and were favorably commended.

The Charleston delegation arrived last night accompanied by Gate's band. They number about twenty men and are also very fine looking.

The local Post (No. 1) is doing the honors in local style.

THE DAY PARADE.

The Travelers' Protective Association parade proper occurred this afternoon. The procession organized at two o'clock on Julia and Fifth streets under the leadership of Chief Marshal, and marched down to Park street, and then to Third to Market, Market to Thirteenth, Thirteenth to Juliana to the Academy of Music.

The Wheeling Opera House band led the procession, followed by Company No. 1, then the Charleston band, and the City Band, and the Parkersburg City Band, the latter brought up by Company No. 3.

The men all wore shining silk hats and carried canes. The appearance presented was a very fine one indeed, and was witnessed along the route by people from all directions.

The day being perfect a great many strangers and citizens were in the carriage.

In addition to Post A, of this city, Post B, of Wheeling, and Post C, of Charleston, there are a great many other traveling men here from parts of the State where there are no regular posts.

There were altogether more than two hundred men in line.

Among the visitors there are several new recruits, viz: B. C. Clark, of the Buckhannon Banner; McCreery, of the Buckhannon News; Judge Hayden, of the Weston World; Alderman, of the Marietta Register, and Cooke, of the Marietta Journal.

Idaho Republicans.

BOISE CITY, IDAHO, May 3.—The territory Republican convention which met here yesterday was one of the largest and most successful ever held in Idaho.

DEFYING THE POPE.

The Papal Edict Treated with Contempt by Nationalists.

THE EMPEROR'S CONDITION

Much Improved—Editor O'Brien gets Ninety Days—Bishop Walsh Resigns—Other Interesting News From over the Ocean.

DUBLIN, May 3.—United Ireland has a violent article to-day on the Pope's decree. It says:

"The rescript stamps Balfour's absurd failure. It is the Corcoran's last card. The Tories have imitated the weakest and most despicable of English monarchs, King John. They have paid tribute to Rome for help in the hour of ignominious defeat, thereby buying their own death warrant."

"They also hoped that the rescript would demoralize the Catholic faith in Ireland, which they hate as bitterly as they do the League. They hoped indignation and wounded affection would be more powerful than terror, but they will utterly fail in both nefarious projects. Irishmen will take the rescript for what it is worth, and nothing more." The article concludes with a denunciation of Mgr. Persico's "one-sided inquiry."

A new journal, the Irish Catholic, was appointed in Dublin to-day, has a mild letter to the same effect. The Ennis Board of Guardians has decided that the Papal circular is based upon slanderous misrepresentations. They demand an impartial inquiry, and in the meantime have resolved to support Parnell and Dillon.

ARCHBISHOP WALSH TO RESIGN.

WILLING to Obey the Pope, but Not to Act Against His Conscience.

ROME, May 3.—Archbishop Walsh has been having frequent conversations recently with Cardinal Simoni. The latter urged the necessity of submitting to the Pope's rescript. The Archbishop declared his readiness to submit to the Pope's orders, but said that he could not act in opposition to his own conscience. He would rather, without making any difficulty, resign his position in Dublin. It is reported that he will resign he would be created a cardinal.

The Emperor Still Improving.

BERLIN, May 3.—A bulletin issued this morning says: "The Emperor's fever is low. His general condition is relatively satisfactory." Dr. Mackenzie will go to London in ten days if the Emperor continues to improve.

At a meeting of the Medical Society yesterday Professor Bergmann reported the assertion of an English paper, that his silence was virtually an admission of his culpability. "I am silent," he said, "because, like every other honorable physician, I will not talk of what passes at the bedside of a patient."

Victoria's Visit Worked Wonders.

VIENNA, May 3.—The Political Correspondence publishes a letter from Berlin which comments on the reappointment to office by the Russian Government of General Bagudovich, and says: "Germany's sympathies for Russia are decreasing in proportion as they are increasing for England. Queen Victoria's visit to Berlin has worked wonders. Her interviews with leading persons in Germany have left a most favorable impression."

A Scene at the Duellist's Funeral.

PARIS, May 3.—The funeral of M. Dupuis, the artist who was killed in a duel with M. Hubert, took place yesterday. Many artists were present and a large number of wreaths were laid on the coffin. The widow of M. Dupuis made a speech by asserting that her husband was the victim of envious people of whom M. Hubert was the mouthpiece. Friends were compelled to lead her away before the funeral orations could be delivered.

Proceeding With Caution.

DUBLIN, May 2.—The members of the North Cork Branch of the National League met yesterday and discussed the Pope's rescript condemning the plan of campaign and boycotting. It was decided to wait until the leaders of the League had agreed upon a course of action and to follow their advice.

Endorse Parnell.

LONDON, May 3.—The London and Liverpool branches of the National League have passed resolutions expressing confidence in Mr. Parnell and deploring that they will pay no attention to the rescript of the Pope.

Boulangers Sentenced.

PARIS, May 3.—Two Boulangers, who were charged with the authorship of the placards which incited the recent demonstrations at Nancy, have been sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

THE EMPEROR'S CONDITION

Much Improved—Editor O'Brien gets Ninety Days—Bishop Walsh Resigns—Other Interesting News From over the Ocean.

DUBLIN, May 3.—United Ireland has a violent article to-day on the Pope's decree. It says:

"The rescript stamps Balfour's absurd failure. It is the Corcoran's last card. The Tories have imitated the weakest and most despicable of English monarchs, King John. They have paid tribute to Rome for help in the hour of ignominious defeat, thereby buying their own death warrant."

"They also hoped that the rescript would demoralize the Catholic faith in Ireland, which they hate as bitterly as they do the League. They hoped indignation and wounded affection would be more powerful than terror, but they will utterly fail in both nefarious projects. Irishmen will take the rescript for what it is worth, and nothing more." The article concludes with a denunciation of Mgr. Persico's "one-sided inquiry."

A new journal, the Irish Catholic, was appointed in Dublin to-day, has a mild letter to the same effect. The Ennis Board of Guardians has decided that the Papal circular is based upon slanderous misrepresentations. They demand an impartial inquiry, and in the meantime have resolved to support Parnell and Dillon.

ARCHBISHOP WALSH TO RESIGN.

WILLING to Obey the Pope, but Not to Act Against His Conscience.

ROME, May 3.—Archbishop Walsh has been having frequent conversations recently with Cardinal Simoni. The latter urged the necessity of submitting to the Pope's rescript. The Archbishop declared his readiness to submit to the Pope's orders, but said that he could not act in opposition to his own conscience. He would rather, without making any difficulty, resign his position in Dublin. It is reported that he will resign he would be created a cardinal.

The Emperor Still Improving.

BERLIN, May 3.—A bulletin issued this morning says: "The Emperor's fever is low. His general condition is relatively satisfactory." Dr. Mackenzie will go to London in ten days if the Emperor continues to improve.

At a meeting of the Medical Society yesterday Professor Bergmann reported the assertion of an English paper, that his silence was virtually an admission of his culpability. "I am silent," he said, "because, like every other honorable physician, I will not talk of what passes at the bedside of a patient."

Victoria's Visit Worked Wonders.

VIENNA, May 3.—The Political Correspondence publishes a letter from Berlin which comments on the reappointment to office by the Russian Government of General Bagudovich, and says: "Germany's sympathies for Russia are decreasing in proportion as they are increasing for England. Queen Victoria's visit to Berlin has worked wonders. Her interviews with leading persons in Germany have left a most favorable impression."

A Scene at the Duellist's Funeral.

PARIS, May 3.—The funeral of M. Dupuis, the artist who was killed in a duel with M. Hubert, took place yesterday. Many artists were present and a large number of wreaths were laid on the coffin. The widow of M. Dupuis made a speech by asserting that her husband was the victim of envious people of whom M. Hubert was the mouthpiece. Friends were compelled to lead her away before the funeral orations could be delivered.

Proceeding With Caution.

DUBLIN, May 2.—The members of the North Cork Branch of the National League met yesterday and discussed the Pope's rescript condemning the plan of campaign and boycotting. It was decided to wait until the leaders of the League had agreed upon a course of action and to follow their advice.

Endorse Parnell.

LONDON, May 3.—The London and Liverpool branches of the National League have passed resolutions expressing confidence in Mr. Parnell and deploring that they will pay no attention to the rescript of the Pope.

Boulangers Sentenced.

PARIS, May 3.—Two Boulangers, who were charged with the authorship of the placards which incited the recent demonstrations at Nancy, have been sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

THREE MONTHS IN JAIL.

Allen O. Myers Will Spend a Portion of the Campaign in Prison.

A BASHFUL BATCHELOR

Sued by His Lively Love for a Large Slice of His Property.

CINCINNATI, O., May 3.—Quite a sensational suit was filed at Lawrenceburg in the Circuit Court yesterday from Aurora. The suit is entitled Mary C. Webster vs. William Maybin. The plaintiff is a pretty miss about thirty years of age and runs a millinery establishment in Aurora. The defendant is a very wealthy bachelor of fifty summers engaged in the mercantile business a few doors below the fair milliner's place of business.

The demand of the disappointed plaintiff is for $50,000, about one-third of the old lover's pile, and in her complaint she alleges that her susceptible heart was won in June, 1880, and a promise of marriage was then entered into by and between the parties, to take place the following August; that she in anticipation of the fulfillment of the marriage contract, purchased her wedding outfit and made all the necessary preparations to perform her part of their mutual agreement, but that she was always ready and willing thereafter to enter into the marital relations with the defendant, but he continually postponed the event, and almost a year ago quit his visits and ceased speaking to the plaintiff, continually avoiding her and refusing to allow her a conference or opportunity to talk with him in regard to his strange conduct, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado and remained away until quite recently, when he returned to Aurora, but refused to speak or recognize a rejected plaintiff, wherefore she demands judgment for the sum of $50,000, and for all other proper relief in the matter. Both parties are highly connected and the case is likely to be a quite sensational one, although there is no H. and Q. to figure and adorn the results in the large rivers of the marriage contract, and without notice to her he left for Colorado