

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. It is a disease of the stomach, and is characterized by a feeling of fullness, loss of appetite, faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, and is attended by nervousness, depression, and a general feeling of weakness.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists, 50c per bottle. Prepared only by Dr. J. C. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar.

Geo. M. Snook & Co.

New Arrivals in Our Dress Goods DEPARTMENT

12 Pieces 6-1 Cashmere Finish Broadcloth, $1.00 a yard.

20 Pieces 4-11 Habit Cloth, 50c a yard.

45 Pieces 40-11c Flax Stripe Cloth, 44c a yard.

100 Pieces 4-1 Tricot, 25c a yard.

50 Pieces 4-1 Cloth Suiting, 50c a yard.

40 Pieces 40-11c Henrietta, 50c a yard.

27 Pieces 40-11c Henrietta, 50c a yard.

25 Pieces 40-11c French Serge, 42c a yard.

All of the above are strictly first class all-wool goods, representing full value of the New Spring and Summer shades, and prices are the lowest ever made.

In addition to the above, we have prepared large lines of silk, cotton, and other goods. White Goods, Embroideries, Hosiery, Lace curtains, etc., etc.

Geo. M. Snook & Co. Wheeling, W. Va.

Novelties.

NOVELTIES

New Persian Glimps, in magnificent and exquisite patterns. Choice White Waists for Children and Misses.

New Hosiery, Kid Gloves, Handkerchiefs and Pocket-Books.

THIS WEEK.

A. L. RICE & CO.

The Intelligencer.

Office: Nos. 25 and 27 Fourteenth Street.

New Advertisements.

Schopper's Fast Black-Horse, B. Rhodes & Co.

For Rent—N. W. Block.

Information Wanted—D. Pinkus.

To Advertisers—Geo. F. Howell & Co.

Regular Tuesday Evening Business Men.

For Rent—James A. Henry.

For Sale—James A. Henry.

The Victor Safety Wheel—Fourth page, Elw. J. Rose & Co.

SPRING AND SUMMER.

We are in receipt of all the newest Novelties in Woollens for men's wear, consisting of Suitings, Pantaloonings and Overcoatings, which we are prepared to make up in the best style and fit at reasonable prices.

Furnishings are complete and offer special inducements.

C. HESS & SONS, 1921 & 1923 Market Street.

Thermometer Record.

The thermometer at Schnepf's drug store, Opera House corner, Saturday registered as follows:

7 a. m. 47 | 2 p. m. 62 | 7 p. m. 62

LOCAL BRIEFINGS.

Matters of Minor Moment and About the City.

To Grand this evening—"True Irish Hearts."

The County Commissioners meet in regular monthly session to-day.

Opera House this evening—Julia Marlowe in "The Hunchback."

There are fifteen cases on the docket for this morning's police court.

The large department of the LaBelle mill will resume work this morning.

Operator Bazz killed an alleged mad dog in East Wheeling Saturday night.

The cock fight at the Fulton pit Saturday night is reported as a pretty tame affair.

A horse killed off by Frank Wilhelm Saturday evening was drawn by N. S. 10.

The Turner's annual Masque ball will be given this evening. The Opera House Orchestra will play.

Supervisor DILON, of the city gas works, killed a huge muskrat on Nineteenth street Friday evening.

An electrical car jumped the track near the city hall Saturday evening, delaying the cars for a good while.

"MY PARTNER" closed his engagement at the Grand Saturday night to a large and delighted audience. The matinee was also well attended.

Dr. J. C. Hood's Sarsaparilla and Frank Kirtz of the city will run a foot-race of 120 yards at Zaneville on Saturday, March 9, for $300 a side.

The appearance of a monthly journal called the "Glaspecker" is announced for the early future in this city. It will be edited by John L. Frank.

RICE and SHEPARD's minstrels had only a fair audience at the Opera House Saturday night. They gave a good show, the singing being especially creditable.

JOSEPH BOGNER, a well-known musician of this city, was killed by a street car while working in his tin shop on Main street, when he tumbled off one of his ladders.

FRANK HIGGS was on Saturday appointed administrator of the estate of Thomas Higgs, deceased, and gave bond in the sum of $800, with John Taylor as surety.

The Ironworkers of Wheeling, in accordance with the resolutions adopted by the International Union, will adopt the eight-hour standard on May 1, 1899.

TOM INWIS, of Martin's Ferry, has received a commission as an organizer for the American Federation of Labor, and will be the first lodge of that organization recently.

LOCAL UNION NO. 15, A. F. W. of Martin's Ferry, has indorsed William Martin, Secretary of the Amalgamated Association, for National Commissioner of Labor Statistics.

PRESIDENT WHITE, of the Amalgamated Association, and the committee of steel workers are endeavoring to settle working differences exist at Bellaire as to the exact process of the steel.

MR. SNOW WARR has sold his farm of 27 acres to Albert G. Krattz, of Wheeling, for $2,500 cash. This indicates that lands in this part of the country still have some value.—Bellaire Independent.

A SADDLE and bridle were stolen from the stable of the city hall Saturday morning. The owner suspected two strangers, and swore out warrants for them, but they easily proved their innocence.

THE SADDLE and bridle were not what it might be expected to be. Indeed, it began to look as if this was going to be a year that will try the bottoms of the institutions engaged in that kind of manufacture.

Mrs. JOSEPHINE DITKOR, who lives on Market street, below the city hall, while descending the steps into her cellar, last week, fell and broke her arm. At her advanced age the injury is especially serious.

OFFICER WARR on Saturday arrested a man named Marshall for smoking in the Fifth ward market during market hours. An arrest under this ordinance is so rare that few people are aware that such a provision of law exists.

CAROLINE of Sweeney & Son's foundry were losing some heavy castings on a B. & O. car at the Zoll street crossing when a heavy piece of iron slipped and struck John Wilson a heavy blow on the head, which was fatal.

MR. EDWARD CAMERON, bookkeeper for House & Herrmann, who fell head-first down an elevator shaft in their establishment last Wednesday evening, and was severely injured, is now at home in Washington, D. C., last evening on the B. & O. express.

THE house of Jennie Lee, on Market street above Tenth, was raided by the police Saturday night, and she, three girls and two men were arrested. One of the men was charged with State warrant by Constable Love last Saturday night, for keeping a house and selling beer without a license.

A FILE of rags and paper soaked with oil and paint caught fire Saturday evening in the lumber yard of Donaldson, Lewis & Co.'s carriage factory. An alarm was rung in and the department responded promptly, but Mr. Donaldson's evening was in the office, extinguished the blaze.

SATURDAY evening's issue of the Steubenville Herald says: The mill factory at Mingo shut down indefinitely at noon to-day. The millers were told that there would be no work for the next week, and it was uncertain when the factory would resume. They are feeling pretty blue over the prospect.

THE Washington, Pa., Journal says that Washington is losing its position as a center of the iron and steel industries, because of high priced fuel. The fuel is there in abundance, but the people who control it ask rates very much in excess of those paid in the neighboring towns in Ohio and Indiana, where natural gas districts.

WILLIAM WIMMERSON, of Pennsylvania, and John Bradley, of Ohio, were arraigned before Squire Davis Saturday, charged with stealing a saddle and bridle belonging to A. S. Kelly, of Steubenville. They established their innocence of this crime, but confessed to stealing another bridle, and were sent to jail for thirty days.

TWO vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

Two vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

Two vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

Two vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

Two vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

Two vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

Two vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

Two vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

Two vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

Two vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

Two vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

Two vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

Two vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

Two vagabonds were the only cases in the police court, which was held by Capt. T. H. Smith, and sent to the Workhouse thirty days in default, having been previously arraigned and been released on promising to leave the city, which they failed to do.

THE SUBJECT OF AN INTERESTING DISCOURSE DELIVERED BY THE REV. DR. C. W. CUSHING

At the Fourth Street M. E. Church Last Night, Being Particularly Addressed to Young Women—A Synopsis.

The Rev. Dr. Charles W. Cushing, pastor of the Fourth Street M. E. Church, last evening delivered the second of a series of discourses he has arranged to preach to young people.

The first of these discourses was, it will be remembered, delivered on the evening of the first Sunday in February, and was particularly addressed to young men.

One of the last night was addressed to young women, the subject being "True Womanly Nobility." Despite the dismal weather, the large edifice was filled.

The number of young people present was noticeable and the discourse was listened to with marked attention.

Dr. Cushing took his text from Esther 1:12 "The queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains; therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him."

In opening his discourse the pastor went a little into ancient history to show how King Ahasuerus was, and from that up to the events that led to his sending for his queen.

It was at the conclusion of a great feast that had been going on in the heart of the king was merry with wine; it was at a time when, according to the custom, as related by Herodotus and Plutarch, the king should have been drinking and singing riddles; kings had their queens sit with them at banquet, but the concubines were the ones called in when rioting and drinking was the order of the day.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

This, like many another affront offered to a woman, is the result of wine drinking.

Here was a heathen woman, amid the luxury, the vanity, and the emaciating influences of a court life, without any very exalted views of life in general or of religion, and yet acting up to the highest standard of Christian nobility.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

This, like many another affront offered to a woman, is the result of wine drinking.

Here was a heathen woman, amid the luxury, the vanity, and the emaciating influences of a court life, without any very exalted views of life in general or of religion, and yet acting up to the highest standard of Christian nobility.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

This, like many another affront offered to a woman, is the result of wine drinking.

Here was a heathen woman, amid the luxury, the vanity, and the emaciating influences of a court life, without any very exalted views of life in general or of religion, and yet acting up to the highest standard of Christian nobility.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

This, like many another affront offered to a woman, is the result of wine drinking.

Here was a heathen woman, amid the luxury, the vanity, and the emaciating influences of a court life, without any very exalted views of life in general or of religion, and yet acting up to the highest standard of Christian nobility.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

This, like many another affront offered to a woman, is the result of wine drinking.

Here was a heathen woman, amid the luxury, the vanity, and the emaciating influences of a court life, without any very exalted views of life in general or of religion, and yet acting up to the highest standard of Christian nobility.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

This, like many another affront offered to a woman, is the result of wine drinking.

Here was a heathen woman, amid the luxury, the vanity, and the emaciating influences of a court life, without any very exalted views of life in general or of religion, and yet acting up to the highest standard of Christian nobility.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

This, like many another affront offered to a woman, is the result of wine drinking.

Here was a heathen woman, amid the luxury, the vanity, and the emaciating influences of a court life, without any very exalted views of life in general or of religion, and yet acting up to the highest standard of Christian nobility.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

This, like many another affront offered to a woman, is the result of wine drinking.

Here was a heathen woman, amid the luxury, the vanity, and the emaciating influences of a court life, without any very exalted views of life in general or of religion, and yet acting up to the highest standard of Christian nobility.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

This, like many another affront offered to a woman, is the result of wine drinking.

Here was a heathen woman, amid the luxury, the vanity, and the emaciating influences of a court life, without any very exalted views of life in general or of religion, and yet acting up to the highest standard of Christian nobility.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

This, like many another affront offered to a woman, is the result of wine drinking.

Here was a heathen woman, amid the luxury, the vanity, and the emaciating influences of a court life, without any very exalted views of life in general or of religion, and yet acting up to the highest standard of Christian nobility.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

This, like many another affront offered to a woman, is the result of wine drinking.

Here was a heathen woman, amid the luxury, the vanity, and the emaciating influences of a court life, without any very exalted views of life in general or of religion, and yet acting up to the highest standard of Christian nobility.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

This, like many another affront offered to a woman, is the result of wine drinking.

Here was a heathen woman, amid the luxury, the vanity, and the emaciating influences of a court life, without any very exalted views of life in general or of religion, and yet acting up to the highest standard of Christian nobility.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

This, like many another affront offered to a woman, is the result of wine drinking.

Here was a heathen woman, amid the luxury, the vanity, and the emaciating influences of a court life, without any very exalted views of life in general or of religion, and yet acting up to the highest standard of Christian nobility.

King Ahasuerus, to appear before him and his company, was an open insult to the beautiful queen, and she had courage enough to treat it as such.

FUNERAL OF ALBERT BOND

The Fire Department and the K. of P. Out in a Body TO PAY THEIR LAST TRIBUTE

Of Respect to Their Departed Brother—The Horse Cared for by the Late Fireman is Led in the Funeral Procession.

The funeral of Albert S. Bond, the late driver of the Hope horse wagon, whose death on Friday after a brief illness was chronicled Saturday, took place at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The Hope horse wagon was profusely and tastefully draped in black as a mark of mourning.

The funeral was under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, the deceased having been an active member of Black Prince Lodge No. 19, which lodge, together with Belmont lodge, of Bridgeport, and a few Knights from sister lodges, turned out in a body, wearing white gloves and black mourning badges.

The turnout was unusually large. It is not being deemed well for the entire fire department to turn out for the funeral, six men, including the force at the Hope house, were detailed, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He also had the City Hall bell tolled while the funeral procession passed the department.

The horse of the Hope wagon was led by the horse of the Hope wagon, while the different engines and reels were driven to a point on Sixteenth street east of Eoff, where as the long funeral cortege passed, the men all uncovered, and saluted the casket by the blowing of their whistles.

He