WHEELING, MARCH 9, 1889.

YESTERDAY was a March day worth having, because it was much like a day in early May.

A New York judge declares that divorces are increasing in his jurisdiction. The increased number of marriages may have something to do with it.

OUR Republican friends hereabout on whom the United States Grand Jury has laid its hand may rejoice that they do not live in Cuba, where seven men, charged with election offenses, have just been acquitted after waiting as many years in jail for trial.

A BURIAL New Yorker, well to do but not handsome, went to Castle Garden to get a wife. He wanted a woman who could cook him a decent meal, be tidy about the house and who had not red hair.

IVES and Stayer, who languish in jail because of their two Napoleonic methods in railroad finance, are said to have been backed in their operations by such dignitaries as Gould, Sage and Dillon.

A HIGH muckamuck from New York, who wanted to squeeze President Harrison's hand at the big ball, made his way to the newly inaugurated man resting after the fatigues of the day and the night.

A Novelist on Matrimony. If ever one is to pray, if ever one is to feel grave and anxious, if ever one is to shrink from vain show and vain babble, surely it is just on the occasion of two human beings binding themselves to one another for better or for ill.

A Remembrance of the War. In the war time no name was more familiar than that of Captain Ericsson, inventor of the Monitor which, in its own proper person and through its reproductions, became the terror of the Confederacy.

Had for the Colored Men. The movement among North Carolina colored men to migrate to Louisiana and Mississippi has already been noted.

Colored men in large bodies will not thrive in Kansas, still less so in New England. The colored man does better in the South than elsewhere.

When the white people of the South could bring themselves to the point of giving him a fair chance as a voter, no more would be heard of great migratory movements on his part.

The Slaughter of Brakemen. Evidence has been laid before the Inter-State Commerce Commission to show that on the railroads of this country last year 6,000 brakemen were killed or permanently disabled by the old-fashioned link and pin coupler and the hand brake.

Homes in the South. The Queen and present route will sell excursion tickets to Fort Payne, Atlanta, Tuscaloosa, Decatur, Ala., Hattiesburg, Jackson, Miss., and Arcadia, La., at one fare for round trip, on November 20, December 4 and 18, tickets good for sixty days.

GOSSIPY GLEANINGS. Lincoln was the first President to wear a beard.

It is estimated that Aime's cateto will amount to $300,000. Andrew Carnegie says that Scotchmen make the best Americans.

THE QUEEN and present route will sell excursion tickets to Fort Payne, Atlanta, Tuscaloosa, Decatur, Ala., Hattiesburg, Jackson, Miss., and Arcadia, La., at one fare for round trip, on November 20, December 4 and 18, tickets good for sixty days.

Eight Flashes from Bright Men—With Worth Reading.

Nowadays acuteness is deemed essential to success in any direction, and a certain amount of it does materially aid in the accomplishment of a purpose.

While for the greater part human acuteness is limited with these elements, it may be exercised without injury to the agent or object, merely exemplifying a good natured though keen wit.

A young man under examination for admission to the University at Edinburgh was asked if he had studied logic, and replied affirmatively.

"You understand the difference between cause and effect?" inquired the professor.

"Did you ever know an instance where the effect was in advance of the cause?" "Yes, sir."

"Mention it," said the professor, in great amusement.

"Well, when a man pushes a wheelbarrow ahead of him."

On a certain occasion Rabelais desired to visit Paris, but was destitute of the means for so doing.

He made up three packages and marked them "Poison for the King," "Poison for the Dauphin," "Poison for M. —"

His landlord saw them, reported the case to the authorities, and he was arrested and taken to Paris.

The contents of the packages were analyzed, found to be brick dust and harmless.

Then Rabelais explained matters, and the King was highly amused by the ruse.

In days gone by few Southern lawyers were more distinguished than Luther Martin. He was one day riding to Annapolis in a stage coach.

When his only companion—a young man who had just been admitted to the bar—addressing him, said:

"Mr. Martin, you have been wonderfully successful in your profession. Are you willing to acquaint me with the secret of your success?"

"If you will pay my expenses during the few days that I shall remain in Annapolis."

"It is in this advice: Deny everything and insist upon proof."

At Annapolis Mr. Martin enjoyed all the luxuries that a fine hotel could furnish, regardless of expense, and, when the time for his departure arrived, he presented the "bill" of enormous proportions to the young lawyer, who was standing near.

The latter merely glanced at it, and then returned it to Mr. Martin.

"Aren't you going to pay it?" Mr. Martin asked.

"Pay what?"

"This bill. Didn't you promise to defray my expenses while I was in Annapolis?"

"My dear sir, I deny everything and insist upon proof!"

The eminent lawyer paid his bill, and laughingly said to the young man:

"You need no further counsel from me."
