

THE LEE MEMORIAL.

The Statue to be Unveiled at Richmond To-day.

DESCRIPTION OF MONUMENT.

The Capital of the Old Confederacy Gay With Hunting and Flagg. Friends of the "Lost Cause" Flocking into the City.

The old capital of the Confederacy will have a grand holiday to-day, when Merce's magnificent statue of General Robert Edward Lee will be unveiled, with impressive ceremonies.

The old capital of the Confederacy will have a grand holiday to-day, when Merce's magnificent statue of General Robert Edward Lee will be unveiled, with impressive ceremonies.

CONFEDERATE OLD CAPITAL

Gay With Flags and Decorations in Anticipation of To-day's Event.

Richmond, Va., May 28.—The houses along the principal thoroughfares of the city are enveloped in flags and bunting, while the sidewalks are lined with a mass of living, moving freight.

The weather is charming to-day, and everything points to an unprecedented crowd at the unveiling ceremonies of the Lee monument to-morrow.

The Union flag predominates in the decorations. The patriotic airs played by the bands and the steady stream of soldiers through the streets create great enthusiasm.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., May 28.—During a performance of Franklin's circus last evening 300 students from the State University attended the show.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 28.—Earnest Koch, aged nineteen, the son of a bricklayer, was shot and instantly killed last night by policeman Larner.

Not Enough Assets. ALBANY, N. Y., May 28.—Superintendent of Insurance Maxwell, acting under the report submitted to him by the department examiners on the condition and affairs of the Manhattan Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of New York, at Goshen, has written a letter to the Attorney General saying from the examination it appears that the assets of the company are insufficient to justify the continuance of the business of the company and requesting him to institute proper legal proceedings in the Supreme Court for the dissolution of the charter of the company, and the distribution of its effects.

The Fisheries Question. OTTAWA, Ont., May 28.—The Canadian government has decided to again rigorously enforce the terms of the convention in reference to the Atlantic fisheries, which was signed by the United States and Great Britain in 1854.

WABASH, Ind., May 28.—While Mrs. George Gray and Mrs. Lucy Berger were riding near Urbana, their horses began kicking and struck the little girl, Mrs. Graham, who was sitting down in front, fracturing her skull. Mrs. Berger then leaped forward with her infant and the horse struck the child on the forehead, inflicting fatal injuries.

Trunk Robbed. CHICAGO, May 28.—In the case of Charlton vs. the Chicago Gas Trust which has been pending here for some time, Judge Collins this morning pronounced a judgment restraining the trust, or the companies composing it, from transferring any of the stock or assets to the trust company of Philadelphia.

Tunnel Started. ASHLAND, Pa., May 28.—Three hundred men and boys were given employment here to-day by the starting of the Reading company's colliery. All Reading collieries will now work nine hours a day.

NOT SETTLED YET.

The Friends of Cook Still Confident That He Will Get the Nomination.

STEVENSVILLE, O., May 28.—Great uncertainty still prevails as to the outcome of the Congressional scramble in this, the new Eighteenth District. The fact of Taylor's capturing twenty-eight of the delegation from this county, leaving seventeen delegates to John M. Cook, does not seem to matter. This county has always proven true to her own candidate. Taylor divided the delegation from this county with Updegraff, his opponent. Two years ago he again divided the Congressional delegation with Thomas H. Coulter, the delegate from this county at the Bellair convention standing, Taylor eighteen and Cook twenty-three and one-half.

Taylor's friends claim Guernsey solid, but Cook proposes to fight him on his own ground, with reasonable hope of success. Should Taylor win, he will still walk away with the prize. There are 108 votes which have not been counted for Taylor, being divided between Eckley, of Carroll, Hollingsworth, of Harrison, Cook, of Jefferson, and Hale, of Columbiana. If either Cook or Hollingsworth could get the strength of the other, he would win the nomination, but this does not seem probable.

In all events, the convention will be held on the 30th inst., and Taylor is being engaged in advance, and convention day will be a big one in the history of Steubenville.

THE KIMPER MYSTERY

Cleared Up by Finding the Body in a Mountain Reservoir.

MONTEAL, May 28.—The Kimper mystery was cleared up this morning by the finding of the unfortunate young Englishman's body in a large reservoir which supplies Montreal with water.

His throat was cut, and around his neck was tied a towel. The body was identified by a name on the clothing, and was taken to the morgue, where an inquest is now in progress.

Delegates and Visitors Flocking to Pittsburgh—Opening Day.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 28.—A large number of delegates and visitors to the Scotch-Irish Congress, which meets here to-morrow morning, have already arrived, including delegates from Canada, the Pacific Slope, the South and the New England States.

Delegates and Visitors Flocking to Pittsburgh—Opening Day.

CONGRESSIONAL FIGHT

In the New Eighteenth District Across the River.

COL. TAYLOR IS CONFIDENT

That He Will Get the Nomination if no Combination is Made by Other Candidates—Martinsburg's New Public Building.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—Col. J. D. Taylor appears to be confident now that he will be nominated for Congress in the new Eighteenth Ohio district.

Up to the time when Jefferson county held its primaries the Colonel was somewhat apprehensive, but as he carried everything outside of the city of Steubenville, he seems to believe that he will have been mentioned in connection with the nomination, but unless they agree to combine on one or the other Taylor will walk away with the prize.

Taylor, being divided between Eckley, of Carroll, Hollingsworth, of Harrison, Cook, of Jefferson, and Hale, of Columbiana. If either Cook or Hollingsworth could get the strength of the other, he would win the nomination, but this does not seem probable.

In all events, the convention will be held on the 30th inst., and Taylor is being engaged in advance, and convention day will be a big one in the history of Steubenville.

MARTINSBURG'S PUBLIC BUILDING.

The House Amendment Agreed to by the Senate—Will Become a Law.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—Senator Faulkner's bill providing for a public building at Martinsburg, at a cost of $125,000, which was passed by the House yesterday through the efforts of Representative Wilson, after cutting down the amount to $75,000, was returned to the Senate and the amendment reported in to-day.

It was approved and is ready to go to the White House for the President's approval. It will not reach there, however, until Monday or Tuesday, as the President has gone to Cleveland to attend the ceremonies in connection with the unveiling of the Garfield monument.

There is no doubt but that the bill will become a law. It carries with it no appropriation, and this will have to be provided for in the Sundry Civil bill, which has not yet been reported to the House by the Appropriation Committee.

Fleeing to the Mountains.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—The wife of ex-Senator Henry G. Davis, of West Virginia, who has been living in Washington during the winter and spring, has gone to Deer Park for the summer, and she has become a fugitive.

She is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

Will Keep His Hands Off.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—Sixth Auditor Collier left for his home, at Steubenville, to-night to spend Tuesday day, and remain until after Saturday.

He is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

He is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

He is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

He is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

He is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

He is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

He is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

He is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

He is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

He is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

He is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

He is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

He is believed to have fled to the mountains, and she is being sought by the authorities.

RANDALL'S SUCCESSOR.

He is Sworn In Amid Frigid Flowers and Coriell Congratulatory.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—The Hon. Richard Vaux appeared on the floor of the House an hour before the time of meeting. He was escorted by the Hon. Charles O'Neill, the Father of the House. From the time Mr. Vaux's tall form appeared on the floor until Speaker Reed rapped for order introductions were in order.

Members of both sides crowded about the picture gallery to shake hands with him. Mr. Vaux was in fine spirits and his eye glowed and glistened in his mien.

Colonel Isaac Hill, the Democratic "whip," had selected for Mr. Vaux one of the choicest seats on the Democratic side, the one formerly occupied by Mr. Ellis, who takes Mr. Carlisle's seat in the first circle and faces the side of the Speaker's desk.

Mr. Vaux's desk was adorned with a towering floral emblem, sent by his associates on the Board of Inspectors of the Eastern Penitentiary of Pennsylvania, and a gem of the florist's art. It bore the words: "Philadelphia—Maneto." There were also other floral emblems, the desk being crowded with them.

After the reading of the journal Mr. O'Neill was recognized and moved that Mr. Vaux be sworn in. The two then advanced to the desk and Mr. Vaux said: "I affirm," whereupon the customary affirmation was administered. Applause ran all over the House greeted the new member, who was then ordered with the courtesy grace which characterizes him.

AMEN CONTRACT LABOR.

The Secretary of the Treasury Issues Some Pertinent Suggestions.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—Secretary Windom has sent a letter to Mr. George F. Satch, Immigrant Inspector at Chicago, Ill., in regard to the enforcement of the alien contract laws, with respect to aliens coming in from Canada, in which he says: "You call my attention to the following advertisement clipped from a Canadian paper: 'Five hundred Carpenters wanted. Good, competent men, $10 per week, plus board, apply to 30 to 40 avenue per hour; apply to Builders Exchange, 69 La Salle street, Chicago.'"

If all alien does accept that proposition, does come to the United States to engage in labor for the Builders' Exchange, he complies with his part all that is involved in the proposition. The minds of the contractor and employer, and thus forms one of the prohibited contracts of the statute.

In my judgment, if the above conditions are complied with, the contractor, it would be held that the Builders' Exchange was liable to the penalties of the law.

I have no doubt of the right of the collector to require that the contractor make the proper investigations necessary to determine whether the incoming alien is here in violation of the law without contract, and if so, to cause investigation may, from the nature of the case, be required to be made.

It is important that immigrant inspectors particularly those on the borders of Canada, be diligent in making proper measures to discover violations of the law, and report them with the evidence that may be obtained, to the Collector of Customs."

7,000 WHE CANE RIDE.

The Mail and Express Man Passes Through on His Great Trip.

PARKERSBURG, May 28.—Edward Rappleye, the special correspondent of the New York Mail and Express, who is making the hazardous journey of over 7,000 miles in an open paper canoe across the continent, arrived in this city last evening, and tied up at Mr. Withey's boat at the Point. He related some of the thrilling experiences met with on his travels.

He encountered a storm on the banks of the Kanawha river, and was the worst that had seen for years, and he was obliged to put into harbor for a day, which delayed him somewhat.

He came on from the lake through the same rough weather, and was obliged to put into harbor for a day, which delayed him somewhat.

He came on from the lake through the same rough weather, and was obliged to put into harbor for a day, which delayed him somewhat.

He came on from the lake through the same rough weather, and was obliged to put into harbor for a day, which delayed him somewhat.

He came on from the lake through the same rough weather, and was obliged to put into harbor for a day, which delayed him somewhat.

He came on from the lake through the same rough weather, and was obliged to put into harbor for a day, which delayed him somewhat.

He came on from the lake through the same rough weather, and was obliged to put into harbor for a day, which delayed him somewhat.

He came on from the lake through the same rough weather, and was obliged to put into harbor for a day, which delayed him somewhat.

He came on from the lake through the same rough weather, and was obliged to put into harbor for a day, which delayed him somewhat.

He came on from the lake through the same rough weather, and was obliged to put into harbor for a day, which delayed him somewhat.

He came on from the lake through the same rough weather, and was obliged to put into harbor for a day, which delayed him somewhat.

He came on from the lake through the same rough weather, and was obliged to put into harbor for a day, which delayed him somewhat.

He came on from the lake through the same rough weather, and was obliged to put into harbor for a day, which delayed him somewhat.

CUPIDITY CAUGHT.

Offenders Against the Pension Laws are Sentenced IN THE UNITED STATES COURT

At Charleston—The Severe Penalties Imposed on them by Judge Jackson for Fraud and Forgery. A Very Interesting Case.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., May 28.—This morning Judge Jackson, in the United States Court, passed sentence upon Amos P. Williams and D. L. Maynor, who were tried at this term of the court and found guilty of forging pension vouchers and uttering forged pension checks.

Williams was fined $300 and imprisoned one day, and until this fine be paid. Maynor was fined $100 and sentenced to imprisonment for six months, and until his fine be paid.

This is a case of no widespread interest to the people, and no criminal case that has been in this court for years, and the officers are to be congratulated upon their successful prosecution of the case.

The facts of the case as developed in this trial are as follows: Joe Maynor, an agent for the pension office at Circleville, Raleigh county, in his life time he gave his son, D. L. Maynor, authority to fill up his pension vouchers and sign his name to them, and to use his name to endorse his name on the back and draw the money on it.

In January, 1888, Joe Maynor died, and his wife, Mrs. P. Williams, who was a widow, and also a business man in Raleigh county, the United States pension agent was not notified of the death of Maynor, and regularly every quarter for several weeks Joe and D. L. Maynor would deliver to D. L. Maynor Joe Maynor's pension voucher in blank, which he, D. L. Maynor, would fill up, and forward to the pension agent.

When the pension agent, S. P. Frazier, No. 1, at Gilem, D. No. 2, Frazier, No. 1, at Wright, No. 1. Operations are to commence by Monday on the following: Bart, Nos. 2 and 3; Robinson, Evans, Nos. 2 and 3; Black, Nos. 1 and 2; and Hawkins, Nos. 1 and 2.

The Frog Pond company have organized and work with confidence at once. The company is now operating at the ground and will push work rapidly. Gas is spouting at 1,700 feet in the S. P. company's well, at Metz; S. P. company No. 1, at Fetter, 650 feet; S. P. company No. 2, at Fetter, 900 feet; S. P. company No. 3, at Fetter, in the south end. It is impossible to give a full report of the progress of the wells, but it is safe to say that the wells are drilling and spouting, and others are on the way.

West Dry.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 28.—By a vote under the Ohio township local option law, Jackson township, Mercer county, went dry by 32 majority. A vote was had two days ago when the township was over 200 in favor of the local option law, and 113 against it.

IRON WORKERS' WAGES.

Amalgamated Association Wage Committee.

The Wage Committee has been appointed for the coming convention. The names of the members are: William Welbe, President of the Association; William Martin, Secretary; James Penney, Treasurer; William Whitman, Muncie, Ind.; W. J. Torney, Milwaukee; John Cunningham, Edward Coates, Austin and Patrick, George Lousier, of Pittsburgh; James Seymour, Allegheny; James H. Nutt, Youngstown; Larry Hocking, Wheeling; G. D. Ewing, of Wheeling; Thomas Kinney, New Castle. The Wage Committee is the most important committee of the convention, except the Conference Committee. It will meet to-morrow at 10 o'clock, and has an arduous task before it.

The demands of the roughers and cut-throats who are now members of the First National Bank of Ohio. A large number of mill laborers have joined the various lodges, the officers of which have shown the friendliest spirit toward the roughers, and will also take up much of the committee's time.

The association, its members claim, is at present stronger than it ever was. It has regained its lost ground in the West, and is now making a steady advance in new lodges, has taken an important step by admitting mill laborers, and has organized many new lodges in the South and West.

Stogie Makers' Action.

WHEELING, W. VA., May 28, 1890.

Trades and Labor Assembly calling upon every trade union in the Ohio Valley to give expression of sympathy and support to the stogie makers in their gallant struggle for rules and fair wages.

"The injury of one is the concern of all," and as the progress of the great labor movement, means the success of the workers, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as men, cowardly and inconsistent the actions of the Builders' Exchange has taken in denying workmen the right to organize, and as labor is entitled to something near the wealth it creates, therefore Garfield Assembly No. 1721, K. of L., as a body extends its undivided sympathy to the stogie makers in their present struggle. We condemn as