THE old soldiers are enjoying themselves in Parkersburg, just as the INTEL-LIGENCER predicted they would. May of many another reunion.

THE Farmer's Alliance of West Virginia is composed of intelligent men-too intelligent to be teken in by the Demoeratic confidence sharks who are attempting to capture them body and soul.

Ar May's Landing, N. J., Amos Lewis and Miss Annie Risley were introduced, anthusiastic Powderly man.

REV. ORED ELDRIDGE, of Northboro. Mass., was obliged to resign his charge because he was not fashionable enough to suit his flock. And yet it was alleged that he attended the races, played billiards and smoked cigars. In the name of creation what more did that fashionable congregation expect of him?

"What would become of the country if Reed should be elected President?'

A saloon keeper has been fined for first case of the kind on record in Cin-cinnati. The cause of this remarkable

Henn is a suggestion from the New Free Trade friends:

Free I rade friends;
By the way, brethren, this disturbance about tight money, proving as it does the vital importance of the triendating medium and plenty of it, ought to be suggestive and instructive to free traders, who insast that we can't sell goods if we don't buy goods, thereby virtually and logically claiming that all trade is barter and that money is of autordinate value.

of complaint sometimes that the Government is hoarding money, robbing the people, &c., and says: It is noticed, however, that when a crisis is precipitated in the business world and money is for a time hard to get, Uncle Sam generously stops in and relieves the stringency.

Col. Black, of Jefferson county, Chairman of the Second district Republican Congressional Committee, repudiates the alleged interview with him published in the Register last week under a Grafton date. The INTELLIGENCER is glad to note this fact, for it believed that Col. Black was misrepresented, It only State in the Union that is out of seemed scarcely necessary to publish a denial, however. The Republicans of the Second district are too intelligent to be deceived by the attempts of the Democratic organ to create dissensions in their ranks. It is an old trick of the organ and one which the Republicans of West Virginia have been accustomed to look for regularly in every campaign.

The Farmers' Alliance Betrayed.

Capt. E. L. Parker, of Marion county, is a farmer and an influential one, as is bility of the State, to suppress insurber of the State Executive Committee of the West Virginia Farmers' Alliance. He went into the Alliance in good faith and will doubtless continue to athliate with it so long as it does not allow itself to become the catspaw of a selfish political party and the tool of Free Trade politicians. In this many other leading members of the organization agree with him. His open letter to the editor of the Alliance organ, which seems to be yoke of either of the other parties. It has no sympathy in common with the political schemers who are trying to betray it into furthering the cause of Free Trade, and to the support of politicians who want only their own selfish inter ests served. We hope that every farme in West Virginia will read Captain Parker's letter, which is published in our news columns this morning.

The Election of Senators by Popular Vote The sentiment in favor of the election of United States Senators by popular vote is increasing in the country, and it is only a question of time until the agi tation of a change of the present system will be one of the leading issues of the day. The Illustrated American has taken up the matter and is advocating such a change with all its might. In its current issue, the American publishes a list of

Mr. would have been elected to the Senate Cleveland will now no doubt become an of the United States? His wealth is placed at $6,500,000. The same question might be asked concerning Heny B. Payne, who is worth $5,000,000; Hearst, who can count his wealth at $10,000,000, and of soveral others. It has never been claimed that these Senators are the choice of the people of their States. They represent only the politicians and members of the Legislatures. who succumbed to the persuasive power of money.

Of course there are exceptions. Sherasks the Birmingham Age-Herald. The same may be said of Joe Brown, of Georgia, of Senator York Press which we commend to our Hale, of Maine, and other wealthy Senators of both parties who are in the Senate through merit; but these exceptions are few.

It is not surprising that there is a strong sentiment in favor of the adoption of a mode of electing Senators by the popular vote, in the face of these facts. It is not surprising that the Senate has come to be called the American House constituting an aristocracy of wealth. doubtless be a success. The INTELL! The reader is informed that the statement is true, but, under the circumstances, the Democratic administrations for the past twenty years are not entitled to any especial credit for the fact, as the Constitution of West Virginia expressly forbids the State from con-tracting any debt. Section 4 of Article X of the Constitution is as follows: "No debt shall be contracted by this

Now, that the organ of the Alliance flies the Democratic ticket at its masthead and comes out squarely for Free Trade, a principle which has never been endorsed by the organization, it is a fair presumption that the wiley Chairman's work has not been in vain.
