Killed by Lightning.

Lightning killed two horses on Tuesday in the western part of the county. One at Claysville, a valuable six-year-old mare, the property of Mr. McCulloch, and the other belonging to Leroy Alexander, at West Alexander.

A Barn Burned.

During the storm of Wednesday morning the large barn of James Haythorn, which stood on the hill opposite Portland Station, was struck by lightning, which ignited the hay, grain, etc., and it was totally destroyed with all its contents. Loss, $8,000.

Real Estate Sales.

Nesbitt & Devine, the real estate agents, have sold the Babcock house, on Chapline street above Twenty-sixth, to Mr. Rider for $3,500, and house and lot at the corner of Woods and Twenty-fourth streets to Mrs. Annie Murphy for $1,030. The firm reports considerable inquiry for South Side real estate.

Yesterday's Police Court.

In the Mayor's court yesterday "the proud Miss McBride," Rebecca, was fined $20 and costs, but the fine was remitted on her promising to leave the city for a year. L. Smith, a vag, was fined $10 and costs, but given time to leave town. William McKeown was fined $5 and costs for disorder and $5 and costs for resisting an officer, and in default of payment went up for thirty days on each charge. Nelson Berry, for disorder, paid $1 and costs, and Thomas Higgins $1 and costs for drunkenness.

Mr. Keene's Season.

Mr. Thomas W. Keene begins his season on the 27th of this month at Wheeling. He will play directly west to the Puget Sound and the Pacific Slope. Mr. Keene's success in this territory last season was phenomenally great, and it is expected that his receipts this season will be the largest of any attraction playing there. His company is completed and is the strongest he has ever had in his support. He himself is in magnificent health. "Richard is himself again," to the delight of his many thousand friends.

One Charge Not Sustained.

David Squires was arrested by Officer Porter yesterday afternoon and arraigned before Squire Davis, charged with stealing $23 belonging to Thornton Nightingale from the latter's room in the Port Henry club house, where both are colored servants. After a hearing the justice dismissed Squires, as there was no evidence to hold him. In the testimony it was brought out that the two and Washington Temple had been playing "craps" and Squires had lost about $17, and the justice sent all three to jail in default of $100 bail each for gambling.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record two deeds of trust and transfers of real estate, as follows:
 March 30, by John W. McKinley and wife to Moses B. Maidoon, for $400, lots 16, 17 and 18 in West Liberty.
 August 12, by Richard Horn and wife to Carl E. Schultze, for $1,400, the east half of lot 32 in division G in the last Caldwell addition.
 July 29, by John McCrum and wife to Thomas B. McLain, for $2,400, the east half of lot 3 in square 24 in the Bellaire addition, in East Wheeling.

WILL BE A GREAT GAME.

A Picked Nine which Challenges all the Base Ball Clubs.
 The barkeepers have now completed their much talked of base ball nine and challenge anybody in the field for a game next Wednesday, first come first served. The players numbered in their ranks will assure a good game against the best club in the valley. The nine will be composed of the following, which includes enough substitutes to provide for all casualties: Jack Crogan, Jack Shepherd, Kemple, Hazlett, Laddler, O'Malley, Mike Warner, Joe White, Burke, Pat Gavin, Bob Miller, Will Mason and Henry Schenck.

James A. Filan and Honnes Kline will back the boys, Mayor Seabright will be nominated as umpire, Dr. John R. Pipes will act as surgeon and Captain Gribble will preserve order. Joshua Scott has been secured with great trouble as sutler.
 The game will be called at 3:30, and the patrol wagon will be due at 5:27 p. m. It will be a great game.

AN OLD SOLDIER'S ACCIDENT.

He Falls Through a Trestle and Breaks His Leg.
 Yesterday morning James Hastings was walking on the Ohio River railroad at a point nearly opposite Gilleland's glue factory, when he slipped and fell through, falling to the ground below, a considerable distance. Employees of the glue factory hastened to his assistance and carried him up the bank, when the patrol wagon was sent for and he was hauled to his mother's home at 2309 Chapline street.

Hastings is an old man, and an old soldier. He has been an inmate of the Dayton soldier's home, and says he only reached Wheeling from Dayton Wednesday evening, and had not yet been to his mother's home. He seemed perplexed at finding himself beneath the trestle with a broken leg and a number of painful bruises, and said he had no idea how he got there, where he came from or where he was going.

MARSHALL INSTITUTE.

Profitable Discussion Apropos to Book Keeping.

USUAL RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

A Talk by State Superintendent B. S. Morgan—Two Legal Opinions Gratis.

An Interesting Day's Exercises on the Ninth Day.

The ninth day of the Marshall county teachers' institute opened yesterday morning with the usual singing and devotional exercises. Instructor Williams took up arithmetic. J. F. King continued his instruction in "General History," covering the period from the reign of Charles I. to the middle of the reign of Charles II., touching upon the principal events occurring in that time.

After recess, Superintendent Morgan again addressed the teachers. He spoke in high praise of the institute, and said that he hoped the plan of holding a two weeks' institute would be generally adopted. He was glad that the teachers of Marshall county had had the foresight to institute this feature in the education of teachers, and that he would do all in his power to induce other counties to follow the example. He gave the teachers a very encouraging and practical talk. Mr. Morgan left on the noon train.

After Mr. Morgan, Major J. M. Lee, principal of the Huntington schools, gave a talk on vocal culture and music in the public schools.

Mr. E. Bonar explained his method of teaching civil government, and dwelt upon the importance of a more general knowledge of the constitution of the State.

Prof. Shields, principal of the Wellsburg schools, has been present several days since the institute opened.

Capt. B. B. Dovenor also dropped in and looked on the institute proceedings with much interest.

Miss Sarah Porter, of Moundsville, gave a class drill in "Language Lessons," to show how she teaches that branch.

Mr. G. H. Creamer was present at the afternoon session and explained Creamer's Scientific System of Penmanship.

Bookkeeping followed, under the instruction of Messrs. R. A. Riggs and William Crow. Miss Anna Ewing was called to the board to make entries, which she did very neatly, and showed herself to be well posted in the new study.

During his instruction in this study Mr. Riggs stated to the teachers that an account could not be collected in law unless it be itemized. The correctness of the statement was questioned, and Messrs. D. B. Evans and O. L. Holliday, lawyers, who were present, were called upon for an opinion on the question. Mr. Evans said that in his opinion the statement of the instructor was not correct. If one be sued, he may require a bill of particulars of the claim, but a bill of particulars need not be so specific as an itemized account. Further, the amount of the debt could be proved by the admissions alone of the debtor, if any have been made, and the amount proven recovered. Mr. Holliday said, as an off-hand opinion, he thought there must be an itemized account.

Mr. Riggs said he would continue to teach his pupils that an account could not be collected unless it be itemized.

Rev. L. E. Keith, of the Moundsville Presbyterian Church, lectured on psychology, elaborating upon attention, perception, memory, imagination, reason and conscience.

After recess the committee on obituary reported, and resolutions of respect were passed on the death of Robert A. Burch, G. W. Dickey, E. Hupp and Miss Bettie Wilson, teachers who have died since last year's institute.

Resolutions were passed favoring five months as the minimum length of the school term; the enactment of a compulsory school law, compelling all pupils between the ages of eight and sixteen years to attend school at least 75 per cent of the school term; favoring district institutes and reading circles; recommending that the "School Officers Day" be made a permanent feature of the institute; that the teachers subscribe for a Marshall county paper, and that the paper be requested to devote one page to school and educational topics; declaring that the two weeks term of the institute a success, and favoring a similar term for next year, and a resolution of thanks to the Wheeling INTELLIGENCER and Register for their reports of the proceedings.

Rev. B. W. Hutchinson delivered an interesting lecture in the evening, subject: "What's Education?" Mr. Hutchinson is president of the West Virginia Conference Seminary.

FURNISHING GOODS FAILURE.

Hugh J. Whyte Makes an Assignment for the Benefit of His Creditors.
 A deed of assignment was yesterday left for record in Clerk Hook's office by which Hugh J. Whyte, a dealer in gentlemen's furnishing goods at 2127 Market street, assigns to John A. Howard for the benefit of his creditors all the stock of goods, all the furniture and fixtures and all the accounts due the said Whyte. The assignee is directed to sell these as he deems best and out of the proceeds pay, first, the expenses; second, all debts of the assignor pro rata.

A statement of the assets and liabilities could not be had, but both are comparatively light, as Mr. Whyte's stock was not very large. He was supposed to be doing a prosperous business, and his assignment will be a general surprise to the public.
