Terminal Company Work.

The foundation for the Terminal Company's round house around the creek is nearly completed, and excavation has begun for the big turntable. The company is getting a large amount of earth from the south side of the creek, near Coal run, to fill the big hole east of the round house on the north bank of the creek.

An Old Veteran's Return.

Mr. William Griffin, a veteran who enlisted in the First Virginia Regiment, in 1861, is in the city. He states that this is the first time he has been in Wheeling since he left here with the regiment, and has not seen any of his old comrades since the close of the war. He would like very much to meet some of them and can be communicated with at the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

The Brass Stealing Cases.

Squire Arkle yesterday gave a hearing to the boys accused of breaking into freight cars and pilfering brass articles and copper wire. J. H. McClimick was sent to jail in default of $200 bond in each of three cases. Noah Cotts also went to jail in default of the same bond in two cases. Joseph Doregan furnished bond on one case, and August Hushrod was discharged. John A. Howard appeared for the State and Colonel Arnett for some of the defendants.

The Pension Board Busy.

The pension examiners of this district, Drs. S. L. Jepson, W. E. Stathers and J. H. Pipes were kept busy Tuesday and Wednesday examining applicants for pensions. Twenty-nine were put through the usual course, being the largest number the board has handled in recent years. The members anticipate a busy time on examination days during the next few weeks, as the pension department has already sent in over forty orders for applicants to be examined. It appears that the department works by sections and has now reached Wheeling and vicinity.

The Tramp Nuisance.

Complaint is made on the South Side of the number of tramps infesting that locality. One of them went into a house yesterday afternoon and asked for a piece of bread. The lady gave him a lunch, and after he had eaten it he started to pull out a revolver, whether with the intention of making away with himself or for the purpose of injuring her, she does not know. A neighboring woman passed through the alley at this moment, and the tramp seemed to think discretion advisable, and walked off, murmuring about the quality of the food.

Thieves Still Busy.

Several overcoats and satchels were stolen from a leading hotel yesterday morning. Two men who left early are suspected, owing to the peculiar manner in which they behaved. One satchel was recovered by the police.

A B. & O. car was broken open on the track and some goods belonging to Joseph Speidel & Co. stolen. Tramps are suspected and the police arrested one, but the evidence was not direct enough to hold him and he was dismissed.

In Clerk Hook's Office.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record three deeds of trust and the following transfers of real estate: September 24, by August Tarbert and wife to Peter Fademeyer, for $150, part of the north half of lot 47 in Jonathan Zane's addition.

July 15, 1881, by the Mt. Zion cemetery to Henry Schrebe, for $43, lot 304 and part of lot 305 in that cemetery.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

A Meeting of the Commission held last Evening.

THE POWER HOUSE EXCAVATION

Will have to be Deeper than Contemplated—The Matter of laying the Wires to the Island a Subject of Discussion—They may be Put under the River.

At the meeting of the electric light commission last night, Contractor Brooks notified the members that it would be necessary to carry the excavation for the electric light power house down to a further depth, averaging nine inches additional. The extra cost will approximate $150. The diggers have struck what looks like an old brick yard.

The commission discussed the probability of obtaining the consent of the directors of the new bridge to lay the electric wires on the structure. Nothing official has passed between the two bodies, but one member of the board told an electric light commissioner that the company would probably charge $100 per wire. As two or three wires will be necessary at the outset, the commission was of the opinion that the cost later on might be more than the city would care to pay. The executive committee was instructed to confer with the board of directors at the earliest possible moment and propose exchanging lights for privileges. If the demands of both bridge companies are considered too high, the commission will consider the advisability of laying the wires in the river. An effort will be made to make arrangements for laying the gas mains also across the new bridge.

Natural Gas Rates.

The county, like the city, is having a little discussion with the Natural Gas Company of West Virginia as to rates to be charged for gas. In the country, at the Infirmary, the county has a contract with the company, but in the city the only restriction on the charge for the gas and court house is the city ordinance fixing the maximum rates. The company, however, offers a discount of twenty-five cents for cash, which is decidedly better than private consumers can get. The committee desires the same rate in town as in the country, but so far the gas people are firm.

The Ten-Year Assessment.

At a meeting of the Council committee on ordinances, held last night, City Solicitor Reilly was instructed to draft an ordinance relative to the ten-year assessment of city real estate. This was in compliance with a resolution sent to Council by the committee on equalization and appeals, and referred by Council to the committee on ordinances.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT.

The Business Transacted by Judge Paul at Yesterday's Session.

In the case of the Huntington Banking Co. vs. the Standard Insurance Co., the demurrer was overruled and the defendant was given thirty days to file an answer.

In the case of John D. Breslin vs. Edgemoor Bridge Works, the Wheeling Bridge and Terminal Co. filed its answer as garnishee, and the plaintiff moved that the company be required to answer by its representative in court under oath.

Six judgments were entered against Steinfeld Bros., and three insurance companies, garnishees, answered that they owed Steinfelds $154 33 each, which was ordered to be paid into court.

Joseph Rantscher, a juror who failed to appear, answered the rule, but his answer not being satisfactory, he was fined $1. L. Bernhard, the other juror, gave a satisfactory excuse and was dismissed.

The case of Edward Thompson, indicted for felony, was continued owing to the absence of Flo Hall, a material witness, and Thompson was admitted to bail in $500.

In the case of the Greenville Woolen Mills vs. the Standard Insurance company, the demurrer was argued and submitted to the court.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the official board of the German M. E. church held on Wednesday evening, September 23 last, the following minute was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, Our beloved pastor, Rev. C. Treuschel, has completed his term of five years of labor in our congregation (being the full period by the rules of our church in which a pastor can serve a particular church successively) and whereas he has been assigned by the conference to a new field of labor in the city of Columbus, in the State of Ohio; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Official Board of this church and congregation deeply regret the necessity which requires our severance of the ties which our Pastor and people have been united so happily in the past; and we do hereby assure him of our continued affection and esteem and will ever bear in fond remembrance his zeal and devotion as manifested in his various duties as pastor; and we invoke God's blessing to rest upon him in his new field of labor, and should the Conference in the future, in its wisdom see fit to again appoint him to this church, we hereby assure him of a hearty welcome.

A. G. WINCHER, A. P. METZNER, E. R. METZNER, Com. on Resolutions.

Rev. J. C. Egly, his successor, will arrive and conduct the services next Sunday. All are invited. Seats free.

Confirmed.

The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed, by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers the California Fig Syrup Company. Daw.
