

TAMMANY APPALLED.

Fear Hidden Behind Smiles at Oelrich's Resignation.

SERIOUS EFFECT OF HIS ACTION

On the Canvass-Proof that the National Committeeman was not Appointed at the Wigwam's Order. Power's Opinion of the Letter.

New York, Oct. 8.—The resignation of Herman Oelrichs from the national Democratic committee caused more political commotion in this city than any event of the canvass. Tammany Hall followed its timeworn tactics of professing to pool-punch the letter and its significance. But this thin veneer was so transparent that even the Tammany men could not disguise their apprehensions.

A BLOW AT TAMMANY. There is no doubt that all the anti-Tammany elements of the city rejoiced more or less openly at this blow at Tammany Hall from a Democrat of national reputation, whose motives could not be impeached. The Republicans openly expressed their pleasure. The County Democrats clasped hands over it in ill concealed delight. The New York Democrats felt in the same way. The universal feeling was abroad that Mr. Oelrichs' letter had been a "developer" of the issue of the State against Tammany.

The only recourse Tammany had was to seek to belittle the influence of the letter and of its author, and to incidentally put forward the claim that Richard Croker and Tammany had placed Mr. Oelrichs on the committee, and were the authors of his political being.

Mr. Oelrichs himself appeared to take the situation coolly. He was spoken to by a Press reporter, and when asked about his letter, replied: "I am only astonished at the great importance attached to my letter, and the prominence given to it by the newspapers." Continuing, Mr. Oelrichs said, in his peculiar vein of humor: "Mr. Croker and Mr. Gilroy are quite right in attributing very little importance to my resignation from the National Committee. It was not intended for effect. They are quite right also in saying that anything I may do or say in politics may have little effect. But they are wrong when they say that I owe my position in the National Committee either to Mr. Croker or to Tammany Hall, since I owe that honorable position to Mr. Grover Cleveland, the then President of the United States."

POWER TALKS OUT.

Ex-Judge Maurice J. Power when asked what Tammany Hall's hand had been in the choice of Mr. Oelrichs replied: "Tammany Hall claims so much that it is difficult to say what she does not claim. I do not know whether Mr. Oelrichs was selected at the request of Mr. Cleveland, but that I know that out of a total of seventy-two votes in the State Committee Tammany Hall had to do at the best in selecting Mr. Oelrichs. I suppose they are now trying to make out that they chose him as a German-American. The only German-American that Tammany had placed in position is Fire Commissioner Michael, and that was through fear of a German newspaper and the apprehension that the man they wanted would never go. Tammany has never appointed a German-American police justice or paid any attention whatever to the German-American element in appointments. Mr. Feitner was a Hewitt appointee, ex-Judge Wedde was chosen by Mr. Grace. This endeavor of Tammany to claim the merit of Mr. Oelrichs' selection for the National Committee is ridiculous, and yet they claim everything."

To a reporter for a Democratic newspaper who asked Mr. Oelrichs yesterday if the report that he would spend a large amount of money to beat Mr. Flower was true, Mr. Oelrichs said: "I don't think I need to spend a nickel to accomplish that."

He smiled blandly at his own prophecy.

CINCINNATI WANTS IT.

The National Republican Convention May Meet in the Park City.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 8.—A short time ago Mr. George B. Cox and Mayor Mosby went to Washington to look over the field as to Cincinnati's chances for holding the next National Republican Convention. They visited Washington at the request of the citizen's committee and accomplished much good in the way of bringing this city to the favorable attention of leading Republicans in Washington. When seen by an Enquirer reporter last night Mr. Cox confirmed the statements contained in the above dispatch.

"When I was in Washington," he said, "I saw General Clarkson, who is a warm friend of mine, and we talked about the National convention. He told me that heretofore there had been complaints about the hot weather in June, and that there was a disposition to hold the convention next year in May. He said that if the convention should be held in June he thought that Cincinnati

WOULD NOT STAND MUCH CHANCE to get it. Colonel Clarkson said at the time that he thought that he would call the National Committee together some time in November, a month earlier than heretofore. It is the custom of the National Committee to have six months intervene between the time of calling the convention and holding it. The meeting of the committee in November would enable the party to hold the convention in May, and General Clarkson intimated that if such were the case Cincinnati would stand as good a show as any other city. He said that the committee would be called to meet in New York about the 20th of November. The time will have everything to do with the success of Cincinnati, but I think that the outlook is very favorable."

It may be stated that in all the attempts heretofore to secure National conventions for this city there was

NO ORGANIZED POLITICAL EFFORT.

This year the Citizens' Committee will have the backing of the Republican leaders in this State, and that will count for a great deal. Mr. Cox stated that the first object of the men who have charge of the interests of Cincinnati should be to have the date of the convention fixed for May, and then they would not have so much trouble with the rest of it. Mr. Clarkson told him that the main object in holding the National Committee meeting in November was that all the places seeking the convention might have the opportunity to put forward their claims without being handicapped by the weather. So far as the National Committee is concerned, declared Mr. Cox, I was assured by General Clarkson that the members of the committee were not prejudiced in advance in favor of any city, and it was a fair field this time and no favors.

ARMY OF THE TENNESSEE.

The Annual Reunion—Arrangements for a Statute of General Sherman.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The society of the Army of the Tennessee gathered in annual reunion in the auditorium last night and listened to an address by General Hickenlooper, the secretary of the society. This morning the society continued its business session. It was ordered that a committee of three, to be hereafter immediately drafted, memorial should be made a part of the records of the society. The reports of the committee were then received. The committee on the Logan monument reported the amount of money on hand to be $67,000. Designs for the pedestal have been made and the contract for its erection will be let at an early date. The committee on next place of meeting named St. Louis and the president was empowered to name the day; the orator of that occasion was announced to be General William Rusk, and General R. M. Ogilby was named as alternate. These names elicited great cheers. Both reports were adopted. The committee on officers made the following presentation of nominees:

President, Gen. J. M. Dodge, of Iowa; recording secretary, Col. G. C. Gallo, of Cincinnati; corresponding secretary, Gen. Andrew H. Hickenlooper; treasurer, K. Jno. M. Force, Sandusky, Ohio.

Among the vice presidents were: Gen. Walter G. Gresham, Chicago; Gen. G. R. Baum, Washington; Col. D. W. C. London, Ohio; Col. Jas. McArthur, Buffalo, N. Y.; Gen. Dodge accepted his election to the presidency of the association in a graceful speech, and then presented a resolution of the committee on the erection of a monument to Gen. Sherman, that in the opinion of the committee there should be erected by the society at the national capital a statue of Gen. Sherman, which would be a permanent expression of the respect, admiration and gratitude felt by the American for the noble character, lofty patriotism and invaluable services of the dead general, and recommending that the society appoint a committee of five persons to be known as the "General Sherman statue committee," and that this committee be directed to proceed in the name of the society to obtain subscriptions from its own members to secure the co-operation of the society in general and other societies and organizations for the purpose of raising funds, and that the committee memorialize Congress requesting the selection of a suitable site for the statue and an appropriation of money to aid in the work.

The players who were summoned and who appeared before the executive committee were Daniel Richardson, William and John Ewing, Roger Connor, Arthur F. Clark, Amos Rusie and John Beckley. MR. PRATT'S CONFESSION

Read in the Divorce Court—The Judge Admits It.

OAKLAND, CAL., Oct. 8.—In the divorce suit of George C. Pratt against Bertha C. Pratt, his wife, whom he accuses of illicit relations with L. L. Brownell, president of the California Insurance Company, Judge Ellsworth yesterday read that the alleged confession of Mrs. Pratt should be admitted in evidence and the confession was then read. It is very lengthy, consisting of several thousand words and in it she professes to tell her meetings with Brownell. Her counsel asserted that the confession was written at the time of the trial of Pratt for shooting Brownell some months ago, that it was designed to secure Pratt's acquittal, and charges that it was obtained from Mrs. Pratt by force, and therefore should not be admitted in evidence. The court overruled the counsel, holding that while influence was undoubtedly used to secure the confession such influence did not amount to duress. The affair has attracted considerable attention from the prominence of the parties involved.

Invited Belmont's Mansion Burned.

New York, Oct. 8.—Fire this morning that broke out at 11 o'clock destroyed the five-story brownstone mansion at 101 Fifth avenue, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. August Belmont. Mr. Belmont was not at home but his wife, two children and a number of servants had narrow escapes from death. The house was filled with costly furniture and tapestries. The building is completely gutted and the loss is estimated at $200,000.

Billions for Bread.

QUEEN VICTORIA has a remarkably fine head of hair, for a lady of her age; but her son, the Prince of Wales, is quite bald. Had he used Ayer's Hair Vigor earlier in life, his head might, today, have been as well covered as that of his royal mother. It's not too late yet.

BISHOP DEUBS EXPELLED.

The German Evangelical Conference Takes Final Action.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Oct. 8.—The committee of the German Evangelical Conference which has been investigating the case of Bishop Deubs for the past week submitted its report. The committee declared that the trial proceedings were instituted and completed in strict accordance with the church law; that all the charges against him were fully sustained, that after his trial and suspension he published a pamphlet, which contained misrepresentations and detentions of the trial conference and its transactions; that he then traveled over the country and under the protest of delivering lectures preached from scripture texts, and in his paper and other ways slandered the conference of the bishops and officers of the church. The report closed with a resolution declaring that, "not only his suspension be ratified, but he is hereby deposed from his office as Bishop and preacher in the evangelical association and expelled from the church."

IMPORTANT DECISION.

An Arrest Made on a Letter or Telegram Not Legal.

TOPEKA, KAN., Oct. 8.—Judge Johnson in the circuit court here has decided that an arrest made on a letter or telegram is not due process of law.

The question came up on an application for the release on habeas corpus of one Harris, who has been in custody awaiting the arrival of an officer from Durant, Miss. Harris is charged with murder. In passing upon the matter Judge Johnson said that the courts had no more authority than the citizen under the statutes. No man can be restrained of his liberty except by due process of the law. A letter or telegram is not due process of law. The prisoner was ordered released. Harris was re-arrested as soon as court adjourned on complaint sworn to by Officer Dumont on information on behalf.
