

STAGE STRUCK GIRLS

Run Away from Home in Search of Historic Fame.

New York, Dec. 29.—Allie Parker and Dora Van Schyche are two pretty Chicago girls who long for historic fame. They had a handsome and happy home in Chicago, but ran away from it, and now they are living in a dingy furnished room in Waverley place.

Allie Parker is a tall well rounded young woman, with curly chestnut locks. Her companion in flight is petite and has short, curly yellow hair. Allie is the daughter of Mrs. Alice Howland, of Decatur, Ill. Dora is the adopted daughter of Mrs. Van Schyche of No. 105 Dearborn avenue, who is Allie's grandmother.

Mrs. Van Schyche says both girls are only fourteen. The girls claim that they are seventeen. They arrived in this city Thursday with a letter of introduction from William Hawley, a young English artist who lives in Chicago, to Mrs. Blanchard, who keeps a boarding house at No. 61 South Washington square. They applied to Mrs. Blanchard for lodgings, but she could not accommodate them.

After a dispatch from Chicago says that Mrs. Van Schyche and Mrs. Howland have caused the arrest of William Hawley and George S. Curtis in that city on the charge that they had abducted the girls. Mrs. Howland charges that Curtis and Hawley had arranged to join Allie and Dora in this city. The young men admit that they bought the tickets for the girls to come to this city and helped them smuggle their trunks out of their homes, but deny that they intended to join them here.

The girls seemed to be rather pleased with their adventure and the notoriety it had brought them yesterday. They declared that Mrs. Van Schyche knew they were coming to New York and had given her consent to their going on the stage. They said they were well satisfied and did not intend to go home.

Both denied that the young men had advised them to leave home. They have not made up their minds whether they will succeed to the places made vacant on the stage by the death of Adorable Neilson and the retirement of Mary Anderson or become chorus girls. If their parents do not force them to come home it is probable they will choose the latter. They have not yet been waited upon by the police.

LATER.—The two stage struck girls who ran away from their homes in Chicago and came here and who were arrested, were released to-day and started on their homeward journey accompanied by Allie's father.

A TERRIBLE MISTAKE. An Error in Train Orders Causes an Awful Accident.

CHILlicothe, Mo., Dec. 29.—By a mistake in train orders a disastrous collision occurred between two freight trains on the Hannibal & St. Joseph, seven miles east of here at 5 o'clock this morning, resulting in the death of the trainmen and wounding of others. The dead are:

Engineer Busbee, of engine 50. Fireman Barry, of engine 50. Fireman Price, of engine 45. Brakeman Gilmore.

Brakeman Bell was taken from beneath a pile of debris and is so badly injured that he cannot live, while Engineer Hannan, of engine 46, has received internal injuries.

THE DUTY ON HIDES. Mr. Blaine's Position Vindicated by Major McKinley.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 29.—The following letter will explain itself: CANTON, Ohio, Dec. 13, 1891. Hon. James G. Blaine, Washington, D. C.

My DEAR MR. BLAINE:—Your letter of the 4th inst., enclosing Hon. George Halsey's letter is at hand. Mr. Halsey must have misunderstood me. I could not have led him to believe that you favored a duty on hides, for at some time in the course of the consideration of the tariff bill, you wrote me an earnest letter protesting against taking hides from the free list, and placing them upon the dutiable list.

I return you Mr. Halsey's letter, and will be glad if you will send him mine. Very truly yours, WILLIAM MCKINLEY, JR.

A NEWSPAPER BUILDING Which will be the Pride of the Chicago Times, if Nobody Else.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—One of the finest newspaper buildings in America, it was formally announced to-day, is to be erected as a home for the Chicago Times. The site is to be the grounds at present and for many years back occupied by the paper and famous in newspaper and war annals as the place where General Burnside attempted to suppress the Times when the fiery Wilbur F. Storey was in editorial control. Ex-Mayor Carter H. Harrison, the present editor, speaking to-night of the new building, said the structure would be twelve stories and would be commensurate with the progress and development of "the best newspaper in this country." The cost will approximate $1,000,000.

Opposed to Lotteries. NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 29.—Judge S. D. McEnery, nominee of the Democratic convention for governor, to-day sent his letter of acceptance to the committee. It is a long document, much of it devoted to discussion of the proposed revenue (lottery) amendment. He favors submitting the question to white primaries. He is opposed to lotteries as a means of raising revenue for the support of the government.

Some Ugly Rumors. NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Ugly rumors were afloat around Wall street this afternoon in regard to the disappearance of Broker Henry E. Titus. It is reported that his affairs are in a badly tangled condition and that he is a defaulter for an amount ranging from $100,000 to $250,000. Mrs. Titus states that her husband is in the south.

Was in Self Defense. NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—The coroner's jury this afternoon decided that when Joseph Selling killed John Wozan in Tom Gould's dive, Christmas morning, he acted in self defense.

Man and Wife Asphyxiated. FANCO, N. D., Dec. 29.—Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. John Brunette, of Wild Rice, were found dead in bed this morning, having been asphyxiated by escaping coal gas from the stove. They leave nine young children, some of whom are also sick from the effects of the gas, but are expected to recover.

A PERTINENT INQUIRY. To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

Sir:—Every once in a while I notice in the newspaper reports of the police court an item to the effect that the mayor dismisses a case against some colored man who has been found in a house of ill fame, on the prisoner stating that he was there to "play the piano." The mayor holds in such cases that he cannot find piano players in such houses because they are there to make an "honest living." The mayor draws a broad line between the musician who furnishes the music which helps to make these pest-houses attractive to the young men of the city, and the other inmates of the house. The house itself is run in defiance of law, and the musician is one of its features. His calling may not be immoral in itself; in fact it is not immoral, but when he pursues it in a place of questionable character for money does he not prostitute his profession, and is he not there for an immoral purpose? Are the indecent songs he sings, or the music he plays for the abandoned dancers, for the amusement of the debauchees who frequent the place, done in the pursuit of an "honest living?" Would the mayor let any other male visitor go on the simple statement that he was not present for an immoral purpose, but merely to make a social call or "to earn an honest living?" What is the mayor's standard of honesty, anyhow? Ought it not to be sufficient for the mayor, to know that the pianist is an inmate of a house of ill fame, the very existence of which is a violation of law, and that he participates in the unlawful entertainment afforded the patrons of the place? CITIZEN.

DELAWARE. All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

The Sunday school institute which opens in the First Presbyterian church this afternoon is not confined to the city within the bounds of the St. Clairsville Presbytery. The Sunday school workers and pastors of other churches and from Wheeling and Benwood have been asked to send delegates, and it is expected to be a general institute of Sunday school workers. Following is the programme for to-day:

Opening service, The Spirit of God now present, Rev. H. C. Morledge. Topic.—The Bible.

1. Bible Geography, Prof. James Duncan. 2. Systematic Study of the Bible, William Scott.

3. Should Lesson Helps Supplant the Bible in the class room? If not, why? Fred C. Williams.

Each paper will be limited to twenty minutes. Brief talks will follow. Mutual confession.

What are your personal habits concerning the Bible? For what objects, in what way, and how much do you read it? Every member of the institute is asked to respond briefly.

Premise meeting. Recitation of helpful verses of Scripture, with brief remarks by many present.

Miscellany, if time before the hour of adjournment.

EVENING. Opening service—Our Homes and the Sunday school, Rev. J. A. Donahay. Address—"The Teacher and His Work," Rev. O. V. Stewart, Steubenville, O.

Hon. A. T. McKelvey is engaged this winter by the State Board of Agriculture to deliver lectures to the various farmers' institutes that are held during the winter season in fully half the counties of the state. At these the most feasible plans of farming are discussed, often by the neighbors who differ so widely that little progress has been made owing largely to the fact that the discussions would drift into the immaterial things and the real objects of the institute were lost sight of. Mr. McKelvey was selected as an intelligent and cultivated practical farmer to lead these county gatherings into the discussion of matters of direct interest to every farmer, and it is pleasant to know that good reports are coming in from nearly every place he has visited.

Fully 300 of the young people, members of the various church societies, assembled at the First M. E. church Monday evening at a banquet and entertainment of the Epworth League. After lunch had been served toasts were proposed and responded to by members of the different societies.

Alex. Gallagher, yard clerk for the Baltimore & Ohio, got his right foot caught in a frog yesterday just when a train was approaching and twisted his ankle out of place in getting it out in time to not lose it.

The Hon. Den Simpson, now talked of as the probable senator from Kansas, was a former resident of this county. He lived at St. Clairsville, and is known to all of the older residents of the county.

Hon. A. J. Pearson, the new Democratic congressman from this district, has begun to shower his constituents with daily reports of the congressional record.

Misses Flora and Lydia Heatherington, Minnie Lowman and Minnie Hoffman left yesterday for Pittsburgh on a pleasure jaunt.

There was a splendid audience out last night to hear John DeWitt Miller, of Boston, lecture on "The Uses of Ugliness."

Benjamin Humphrey, of St. Clairsville, one of the managers of the St. Clairsville fair association, was in town yesterday.

Quite a number of business changes will take place here to-morrow, but none of special importance.

The annual concert and entertainment will be given at the Christian church New Year's night.

Miss Mary Parkinson, of Mt. Pleasant, is visiting Miss Nettie Kurtz.

D. T. Cowen will go to Columbus to-morrow.

To Young Mothers. who are for the first time to undergo woman's severest trial, we offer you, not the stupor caused by chloroform, but the stupor of death for yourself or your dearly-loved and longed-for offspring, but "Mother's Friend," a remedy which will, if used as directed, invariably alleviate the pains, horrors and risks of labor, and often entirely do away with them. A cold of unusual severity developed into a difficulty decidedly catarrhal in all its characteristics, threatening a return of my old chronic malady, catarrh. One bottle of Ely's Cream Balm completely eradicated every symptom of that painful and prevailing disorder.—E. W. Warner, Rochester, N. Y. MWF&W

A NOTABLE WEDDING.

Marriage at Parkersburg of Miss Thompson and Mr. P. D. Toblin.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Dec. 29.—The marriage of Miss Joanne Jackson Thompson to Mr. Preston Brooks Toblin occurred to-night at 8:30 o'clock at Trinity church. The bridesmaids were Miss Thompson, of New York, Miss Bessie Thompson, the bride's sister; Miss Sallie Miller, of Augusta, Ga.; Miss Julia Miller, of Augusta, Ga., and Miss Juliet Blackford. The groom's best man was Capt. Jephtha M. Tucker, of Athens, Ga. The ushers were Mr. Thomas B. Gibson, Mr. William A. Walton, Mr. William A. Harrison, all of Augusta; Mr. Cecil Cochran, of Liverpool, England; Mr. Lewis S. Thompson, of New York, and Mr. Richard Camden, of Parkersburg. It was a brilliant affair.

Deaths from the Grip. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

PARKERSBURG, Dec. 29.—James Veely, a prominent young attorney of this section, died this morning at Parkersburg, of grip. He was a former law student of Hon. J. A. Hutchinson, and was married only a short time ago. Hon. Albert Gallatin Leonard, one of the pioneers of this county, died this morning, aged eighty-four years, of grip. He was a prominent citizen and left two children, Mrs. John W. Dudley, of this city, and Rev. Sidney Leonard, of Missouri.

Skin Diseases. What spectacle is more disgusting than that of a man or woman with a skin disease which shows itself in pimples or blotches on hands, arms, face and neck? It is simply impure blood. See what BRANDRETT'S PILLS did for a chronic case:

George Chapman, Pinecreek, Mich., says: "For four years I was in the Mounted Infantry in the U. S. Army, residing during that time principally in Texas. Almost all of that time I had a chronic skin disease, characterized by an eruption over the entire surface of my legs and thighs, arms and chest. The doctors termed it eczema. I had given up all hopes of ever being cured, when BRANDRETT'S PILLS were recommended to me. I concluded to try them and I have thanked God daily since then that I did so. I used them for about three months, and by that time was completely cured and have never had any trouble since." MWF&W

A Maryland farmer picked a specimen of fruit which looked like an apple, but contained not apple seeds, but a peach kernel. The Sure Road to Health. The sick or diseased should take no chances, but should use a remedy that has been thoroughly tried, is endorsed by thousands and which surely cures all diseases by removing the cause. Such a medicine is Radam's Microbe Killer. Send stamp for pamphlet giving full particulars and you will act wisely. It cures more diseases quickly and permanently than all other remedies put together, and is literally the king of all remedies ever placed before the public. See advertisement elsewhere. MWF&W

WELLS' HALL'S BALSAM CURES ALL DISEASES

Hon. John C. Townes, Judge 23d Judicial District of Texas, said in his findings of facts after the trial of an imitation suit: "I find that plaintiff, Wm. Radam, manufactures and sells a medicine of good curative properties which gave it large commercial value, and that this medicine rapidly made a reputation which gave it large commercial value."

No other medicine has ever received such a verdict from any court that it "imply made its reputation" on account of its "curative properties."

Mr. Radam has just issued a forty-eight page circular and pamphlet entitled "Microbe War," which explains all about the causes and cures of diseases. These circulars contain more common sense and natural facts than all medical books put together.

VALUABLE INFORMATION FREE. Mr. Radam's publication that appeared last spring in many New York City papers denouncing Dr. Koch's Lymph as a fiction are reprinted in his pamphlet "Microbe War." Also a general diagnosis of medical humbug. When you read these circulars you will open your eyes to the fact that Mr. Radam discovered the cause and cure of all diseases. Send a 2 cent stamp for both circulars to Radam's Microbe Killer, Nashville, Tenn., or to our agents, Logan Drug Company, Agents, Wheeling, W. Va.
