Martin Heil Dismissed.
Squire W. W. Rogers yesterday rendered his delayed decision in the case of ex-Policeman Martin Heil, who was accused by William McGunphrey of having sworn falsely in the circuit court in the case brought against the officer for assault. In consideration of all the evidence and the nature of the case, the justice dismissed Heil.

G. A. R. Hall Association.
The annual meeting of the G. A. R. Hall Association was held in the hall last evening. The following directors were elected for the ensuing year: Henry Seamon, P. B. Dobbins, Oscar Sealey, W. H. Travis, C. E. Irwin, Richard Robertson, Frank P. Hall, Mrs. Ida Cox, of the W. R. C. The directors will meet next Tuesday evening at Mr. Seamon's cigar store to organize.

The St. John's Dedication.
About all the Catholic societies in town will attend the dedication of St. John's church in Benwood to-morrow. Among these are the Knights of St. George, St. John and St. Joseph, the Young Men's Society of the Cathedral, the Polish society of the church of the Immaculate Conception and the St. Alphonsus society. Societies from the towns across the river will also take part.

No Council Meeting.
There was no special meeting of the City Council last evening, the mayor declining to call that body, as he was requested to do by the Main street bridge commission, that the Council might relieve the commission of the responsibility of changing the kind of cement to be used on the bridge. The mayor said that the commission had assumed the responsibility of ordering a coating of asphalt put on the bridge at a cost of about $2,500, when the specifications did not call for it, and he did not see any good reason that they should not accept this responsibility also.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.
The International Sunday school lesson will be taught by Rev. Dr. Cooke at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Sunday school teachers will find the study profitable. Young men's meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock to-night. The Saturday night meetings are pleasant and helpful to the young men who attend.
The men's meeting at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon will be particularly interesting. All men will receive a cordial welcome.

Seats will be reserved at 8 o'clock this morning for Dr. W. L. Davidson's illustrated lecture on "Switzerland" next Tuesday night.
The famous Lotus Glee Club will give the next concert in the concert course in the Opera House Thursday evening, February 4. The Lotus is the representative American quartet. Miss Minnie Marshall, the talented and popular reader, is with the club.

"Old Jed Protty."
Richard Golden will bring to the Opera House this evening for the first time his successful portraiture of rural New England life, and in "Old Jed Protty" will enact all the quaint mannerisms and utterances of the people "way down east." Richard Golden himself, who plays the part, hails from Bucksport and saw much of old Protty in the latter's lifetime, and early resolved to give his elderly fellow-villager a dramatic form at the proper opportunity, taking as a plot, an episode that kept all Bucksport in hot water for a succession of years, but which finally came to a harmonious termination by force of Old Jed's horse-sense and loyalty.

"Lieber Franz."
The Grand had another good audience last night to see John K. Campson in his new play, "Lieber Franz." Mr. Campson ranks with the best of the German comedians, while his support is much better than the average. Miss Kittie Beck is a charming soubrette. At the matinee this afternoon the ladies and children are expected to turn out in large numbers. The prices will be as follows: Reserved seats, 35 cents; gallery and dress circle, 25 cents, and children, 15 cents.

"True Irish Hearts."
On Monday evening, January 25, Dan McCarthy's "True Irish Hearts" company will commence a two night's engagement at the Grand. "True Irish Hearts" is one of the best Irish dramas of the day, and always does a good business here. New features are always introduced, and the fine singing, dancing and beautiful scenery in this drama alone draw a large audience. The play is a great favorite here, and a repetition of its former triumphs is predicted this time.

HUNTING FOR THE BODY.

A Belief that Mr. Carey's Remains are Where he Sank

STILL CAUSES RENEWED EFFORTS

To Recover them—A Diver Spends Several Hours in the Water, but with no Other Result than to Confirm the Suspicion—The Search to be Pursued Further To-day.

Ever since the drowning of Mr. D. M. Carey, the contractor, in the creek at the Main street bridge, there have been people who refused to abandon the belief that his body was beneath the stone which fell with him into the water. When the Cleveland divers gave up the search they were not entirely positive that the body was not near where it went into the water, but simply said that they could not find it there.

Since they left men in the employ of Paige, Carey & Co. have been engaged daily in dragging the bottom of the creek at that point, and they all said there was some yielding substance in the water, partly held beneath the big stone, which they suspected to be the body of the drowned man. This theory was further fortified by the fact that all search in the river and elsewhere for the body was fruitless.

Finally it was decided yesterday to send a diver down to make a more careful search of the spot. A diving suit was borrowed from the Manufacturers' Natural Gas company, of this city, and Paddy Mahoney, although not accustomed to the work, agreed to go down into the water and make the search. Owing to the large crowds which gathered in the day time while a search is going on, and embarrass the workers, it was decided to make the search last night.

The apparatus was gotten ready at the spot at about half past eight o'clock, and Mahoney went down and made a thorough search. When he came up he reported that there was some soft, yielding substance under the big stone, and he could not say that it was or was not the body. Owing to the extremely cold water and the inconvenience of working after night it was concluded to continue the search this morning. Even at the late hour at which the search was made, a large number of people congregated and watched the diver with interest.

FOUND IN A SNOW DRIFT.

A South Side Woman Wanders from Home and is Found Miles Away.

Mrs. Albert Wuethrich, the wife of the well known South Side tailor, who disappeared from home Thursday evening, was heard from yesterday morning.

At 12 o'clock Thursday night a man on horseback riding along the road near the mouth of Short creek saw the body of a woman lying in a snow drift. He immediately rode to the house of Mr. Seibert, who lives close by, waked the family up, and told them that a girl was lying dead at the side of the road. Mr. Seibert and one of his sons accompanied the horseman to the place and examined the apparently lifeless body; they found that the woman, though unconscious, was not yet dead. They carried her up to the house, and by administering stimulants soon brought her back to consciousness. She told them her name was Wuethrich and that she lived in Ritchietown. The women of the family made Mrs. Wuethrich as comfortable as possible, and she enjoyed a good night's rest.

Mr. Seibert had intended to bring her down to Wheeling yesterday morning, but finding that she was still too much exhausted he came without her, and notified her husband, who is sick in bed himself. The family was overjoyed to hear that she was safe, and were profuse in their expressions of gratitude to Mr. Seibert.

Mrs. Wuethrich's mind has given signs for some time of being slightly affected, but when she left the house Thursday afternoon at five o'clock, no one remarked anything peculiar about her looks or actions. She was discovered in the nick of time, as the exposure to the cold, after having walked the distance from the South Side to the place where she was found, would certainly have caused her death.

The Most Pleasant Way of preventing the grippe, colds, headaches, and fevers is to use the liquid laxative remedy Syrup of Figs, whenever the system needs a gentle, yet effective cleansing. To be benefited one must get the true remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only. For sale by all druggists in 50c. and $1 bottles.

The Wheeling Building Association is successfully organized with about 2,500 shares taken, enough to make it profitable. But there is still room for new shareholders. It is now twelve weeks old and all the money received has been loaned to its members at a good premium. New members received every Saturday night at office of Franklin Insurance Company, No. 35 Twelfth street. It is only necessary to pay up back dues, and that can be done in installments.

Edw. L. Rose & Co. on taking their yearly inventory find that they have a number of fancy wood Sewing Machines, which they will close out at special prices rather than carry them into another year.

ALMOST as palatable as cream. It can be taken with pleasure by delicate persons and children, who after using it, are very fond of it. It assimilates with the food, increases the flesh and appetite, builds up the nervous system, restores energy to mind and body, creates new, rich, and pure blood; in fact, rejuvenates the whole system. This preparation is far superior to all other preparations of Cod Liver Oil; it has many imitators, but no equals. The results following its use are its best recommendations.
