R. ALEXANDER, Secretary.

Chile's Reply and the Result.

The reply of Chile to the ultimatum of the United States is satisfactory.

It makes out for that country as good a case as can be made, and the case is presented with skill.

After all has been said in that behalf that can be said the fact remains that our sailors were butchered; that the local proceedings to inquire into the matter were very unsatisfactory; that the Matta note was in the highest degree offensive, and that until the ultimatum was sent matters were getting no better very fast.

There had to be an apology, the Matta note had to be withdrawn and Chile had to revoke her expressed desire for the recall of Minister Egan.

It was also necessary that Chile make reparation for the lives taken or express her willingness to have this phase of the question settled by arbitration.

All this she has done very handsomely, and the ugly episode is now in the way of being settled in a manner creditable to both countries.

There is no desire in this country to impose on Chile humiliating conditions. It is desired to have it understood by all the world that such a thing as that which happened in Valparaiso cannot be passed over, no matter how weak or how strong the offending country.

To take any other position would be to cease to have any place among the nations.

It is hardly probable that our government will accept the offer to submit the case to our supreme court. The probability is that a neutral arbitrator will be suggested, so that the award may come without any suspicion of bias of any kind.

When the matter shall have been settled it is desirable that the settlement shall commend itself to the good sense of the intelligent people of Chile and that the most amiable relations shall be restored.

We have every reason to wish to be on the best terms with every one of the South American republics.

No matter what the settlement may provide, the English influence which is hostile to us will leave nothing undone to create dissatisfaction among the Chileans; but if the tribunal shall have been absolutely impartial there will be enough common sense in Chile to bring to naught the plottings of the hostiles.

Never Say Die.

The Massachusetts Mugwumps are a hopeful set. They see that New York is gone from their favorite, but they say in effect, New York be hanged. They can nominate and elect Mr. Cleveland without the state of David Bonlangier Hill, for they will have Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Montana, the Dakotas, Wisconsin and other northwestern states.

This will be a great haul to make in a dry time, but why stop here? Why not add Pennsylvania, a state well worth having? The Mugwumps are too forbearing. Armed as they are with confidence they should take everything in sight.

World's Fair Expenditures.

Before the house will consent to the appropriation desired by the World's Fair management it will inquire, under the recent resolution, whether the expenditures have been judiciously made, and whether the number of employes is excessive and their compensation reasonable or otherwise.

Twelve hundred persons are employed. Some of the salaries are as follows: President W. T. Baker, $12,000; Solicitor-General Butterworth, $10,000; Vice President Thomas B. Bryan, $8,000; Chief of Construction Burnham, $12,000; by the national commission. Director-General Dav's, $15,000; Secretary John T. Dickinson, $5,000; President

T. W. Palmer, $5,000; Col. J. A. McKenzie, $5,000; Chief Walker Fearn, of the department of foreign affairs, $8,000; Moses P. Handy, chief of the department of publicity and promotion, $7,500. Other department heads receive from $5,000 to $7,000.

There are some pretty good salaries in this list, but it is to be borne in mind that it is necessary to pay good salaries in order to command first-class abilities and to draw away from their regular employments the kind of men required to conduct so great an undertaking.

A Great Public Servant.

The Associated Press has reason to congratulate itself on its successful effort to keep the American public in touch with the developments in the Chilean matter. In respect of news originating in Santiago, as well as with regard to that which was to be dug out in Washington, the Associated Press news was the very first to be given to the world.

This is another reminder that in spite of all efforts to compete, there is not in the whole world any real rival to the Associated Press as a news gatherer. This is why the possession of an Associated Press franchise has come to be a valuable property. A newspaper must give the news, and a newspaper without the service of the Associated Press is strictly not in it.

To accomplish what it does the Associated Press requires a world-wide organization to be maintained only at great cost—almost without regard to cost. It must be an organization of great minuteness of detail, conducted with the utmost carefulness and with more intelligence than is required to administer the affairs of any government.

What it does must be done as quickly as the electric current can carry it. There is no time to be lost, and the Associated Press is never behind time. This is what helps to make the INTELLIGENCER a pretty good newspaper.

West Virginia Democracy.

West Virginia Democrats are not following the lead of the Hill machine. They have not called midwinter conventions. Perhaps they are not in sympathy with the Hill machine.

When Hill and his man Friday, the talented Grady, invaded West Virginia, it was thought to be with the understanding that in exchange for Hill's presence and Grady's tariff breaks West Virginia was to be pledged for Hill.

It is hard to say where West Virginia will land in the Chicago convention, but if a popular vote were taken in the Democratic party Mr. Cleveland would command a large majority.

President Cleveland did very well by the West Virginia Democracy and has friends in this state who would pull off their coats for him. They may have to take off their hats to Hill.

CARDINAL LEDOCHOWSKI, the new prefect of the propaganda, has been a fighter in his day. He was ordered out of Colombia, imprisoned and fined in Austria, fined and driven out of Prussia and fined there after he had been driven out. As archbishop of Posen he became an issue between the Vatican and Germany. The propaganda will lose nothing of its vigor by passing from Simeoni to Ledochowski.

The political parties in Hungary should note the example of parties in the United States. We have our contentions, but in the main get through with the preservation of friendly relations. When you come to think of the heat of our political campaigns it is almost wonderful that they leave so few scars. After the battle we are "as good friends and neighbors as before."

GENERAL BUTLER made an able argument for the Chicago anarchists. If he could succeed in impressing the survivors with the idea that theirism will not be tolerated in this country he would perform a great service in their behalf and might save some necks.

The third district has an immense crop of Democratic candidates for office. They are after everything from pound master to governor. What is more, they have a way of loading themselves up liberally with the party's honors, to say nothing of the emoluments.

If Mr. Watterson desires the Presidency he has only to reach out and take it from the offering hand of the New York Herald. This country might have a worse man than Mr. Watterson for President. There is David Boulanger Hill, for example.

DEMOCRATIC aspirants for state offices are given notice by the state committee that the races will come off in June. The entries are numerous enough to make an interesting June meeting.

MINISTER MATTA gave Secretary Blaine a good chance to call him down, and that is where Mr. Blaine has the distinguished senior. Nobody ever gets away with your Uncle James G.

HILL doesn't care whether Cleveland withdraws or remains in the field. He is sure he has the man of destiny where it is his destiny to be—flat on the broad of his broad back.

WHEN Mr. Camden tells the boys who is to be nominated they will know what their state ticket is to be. Till then they must exercise the patience of the pensive clam.

SENATOR FAULKNER will please take notice that Parkersburg is the Democratic headquarters. Why not Martinsburg?

MR. BLAINE had no trouble to digest the tough Chilean correspondence. His diplomatic digestion is all right.

Now Chile may come to the World's Fair and take one with us.

GARZA's new Mexican republic is lost, strayed, or stolen. At all events it does not materialize. We begin to fear that Garza is no more than an ordinary highwayman.

Mr. BRECKENRIDGE, of Kentucky, now sees that the President did not have the reply of Chile when he sent his message to Congress. Is Mr. Breckenridge too small to take back his unworthy insinuation?

They know in London that President Harrison has decided to recall Minister Egan. They are very keen on the scent over there.

BREAKFAST BUDGET.

A census bulletin received by the INTELLIGENCER gives the number of paupers in the United States in 1890 at 40,741 males and 32,304 females. The number under 10 years old is 4,338, and the number 100 years and over is 150, of which 68 are males and 82 females. There are only 702 paupers in West Virginia almshouses. Ninety-four of them are under 5 years of age, 73 from 5 to 9 years, 46 from 10 to 14 years, 35 from 15 to 19 years, 40 from 20 to 24 years, 41 from 25 to 29 years, 40 from 30 to 34 years, 41 from 35 to 39 years, 45 from 40 to 44 years, 29 from 45 to 49 years, 42 from 50 to 54 years, 34 from 55 to 59 years, 45 from 60 to 64 years, 37 from 65 to 69 years, 51 from 70 to 74 years, 46 from 75 to 79 years, 32 from 80 to 84 years, 7 from 85 to 89 years, 4 from 90 to 94 years, 1 is 95 years of age, and 2 are 107 years of age. Of the aggregate number in West Virginia 593 are males and 399 are females. The oldest pauper in the United States is a Tennessee woman aged 128 years.

It is well known that horses can hear deep sounds which we cannot. For days previous to the earthquake in the Riviera the horses there showed every symptom of abject fear, which continued without any change of character till the fury of the convulsion broke forth. But not till a few seconds before the earth began to quake did human beings hear any sounds, while it is extremely probable that the horses heard the subterranean noises for two or three days previously.

Advertisement of a Japanese tea merchant: "At present we manufacture very industriously the several kinds of teas, so that our buyers must be well adapted to use them. There are the pan-fired, the basket-fired and sun-dried that are made from the different classes from choicest to common. Therefore you shall know that they will give a very pretty taste. Please, we hope you will order to us, no matter whether many or few parts."

The New York S. P. C. A. has demanded that a pig, which is in the cast of a comic opera company in that city, shall be left out of the performance, on the ground that its mirth-provoking squeals and grunts are produced by worrying it.

A young man in making a speech before the wool growers' association at Morristown, Ohio, the other day, wound up by saying, "The only natural enemies to the sheep in this country are Democrats and dogs."

There is a mule in Union township, N. J., that is said to be eighty-four years old. "White-haired men remember ineffectually trying to ride the animal when boys, and it was a venerable animal then."

"It is a pity," said an Irish laborer the other day, as he warned his hands—"it is a pity that we can't have the cold weather in the summer and the hot weather in the winter."

Two hyenas were born on Saturday in New York Central park. They are said to be the first of their kind born in any zoological museum in that part of the country.

There is a Chinese theater in Victoria, British Columbia, where a company of thirteen players has a repertoire of 500 plays, and the bill is changed nightly.

An equestrian statue of the Emperor Frederick is to be erected on the hills in Alsace on a spot overlooking the field of Worth. The statue is to cost $60,000.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Arabi Pasha, the exiled Egyptian, lives on the island of Ceylon amid coconut groves haunted by squirrels and magpie-robins. He complains of the moist heat of his present home and compares it unfavorably with the dry warmth of Egypt. The climate or some other cause has somewhat impaired his health of late.

Walt Whitman's massive tomb in Harleigh cemetery looks not unlike one of the ancient rocky tombs in Asia Minor that the archaeologists have always shown such interest in. It is built into a hill of enormous boulders of granite and appears indestructible.

A portrait of Cardinal Gibbons, to be placed in the Catholic university in Washington, has recently been completed by Miller Uri, and is highly admired in Baltimore.

Robert Burns is in a fair way to be honored with a statue in Philadelphia. Scotchmen in that city have taken the scheme in hand.

Ex-Senator Ingalls, it is announced, will settle down to the practice of law, at Atchison, with his own son, Ellsworth.

WAR WITH CHILE.

Remarks by "One of the Yanks," Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

What's to say? The papers say "War with Chile!" Guess you mean "Let my crutch act as a pair of shoes!" It's only bunkum news. Our huntin' can't be huntin' for glory down the river, and now with neighbor Chile. War is done—sixty-one sorter fixed this generation. What's the matter? All this clutter 'bout Chile?

A little coalin' stalloa "Let an' pound!" An' we agree 'big nation, A-nagin' an' a-bragin' As li we'd all gone staly; "War with Chile!" A pretty lay-ye-do, for eighteen ninety-two, "Goin' to war with Chile!" What a shame, to back and main "Pinky, little, untamed Chile! Just as if, in a fit, A big "cop" with a club Says: "Ax my pardon, bub, Or which I'll crack Your pesky bantam head with my new billy. Your folks have had a row. With some of the boys, and now I'll lick you if you don't apologize; I'm spillin' for a light (You know I'm all right), Respect to your mother, and your size, Sassy Chile!" So says the braggin' "cop" On his dignity, but stop— "War with Chile!" Not much; 'tween you an' I He'll hear "voze poppi!" Remarkin', "Better drop 'That billy!" We like a little shammin', But when it comes to lammin' A gamy little kid like Chile, We can't hit out in "jew"— You can take it out in "jew"— Not you wasn't meagle— Not! You must nangle Chile!

Don't experiment with your health. You may be sure of the quality of your medicine, even if you have to take much of your food upon trust. Ask your druggist for Aver's Sarsaparilla, and no other. It is the standard blood-purifier, the most effective and economical.

AFTER GARZA.

Troops Hemming Him In—Hastening to the scene.

CAMP FITZSIMMONS, TEXAS, Jan. 28.—Both the state rangers and troops of the United States army are making their way in the vicinity of Penna. It is understood that Garza's rendezvous is located here, and the state rangers were the first to discover it. As soon as word was telegraphed to the adjutant general of Texas, who is in the field, that Garza was located, the entire forces, both state and federal, received orders to break camp and march to the scene of action.

Not Disturbed by the Run. BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 28.—The run on the Hopkins Place savings bank was continued to-day. Police were necessary to keep in line the depositors, shouting and crowding and calling for their money. The people withdrawing their deposits are nearly all thrifty foreigners and negroes. Bank presidents called on the officers of the Hopkins Place bank and tendered offers of unlimited amounts of money if the bank needs it, but President Smith declined their offer with thanks, saying they had plenty of money to pay all who came to draw their deposits.

MORNING SMILES.

She was one of the precocious little people who are continually embarrassing their elders. "I am glad to see you go to church each Sunday," said the pastor one Sunday; "can you remember the text?"
