PICK OF THE CROP—GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

"PICK OF THE CROP,"

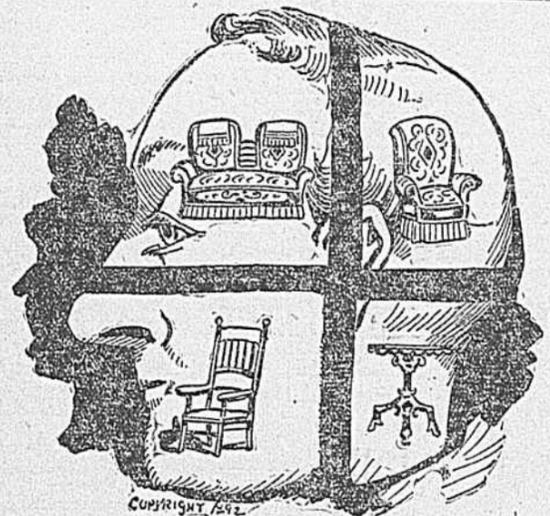

Or a better expression would be "Choice of the Season's Production," but it matters little what we call it, our idea is to get you interested in this announcement. We want to explain to you that it has been a part of our business policy to secure the Best Things Produced. This we can only do by making EARLY PURCHASES, sometimes months before the goods are wanted. Our new Spring and Summer Goods are now arriving. They are select, fresh and attractive, and placing these on sale now, will in no wise interfere with our Grand Clearance of winter stock, previous to removal.

OUR Half Price Sale,
As advertised last week, still continues.

Specially worthy of attention are the following: Figured India Silks, Fine Pattern Dresses, Bedford Whip Cord and Plain Weave Suitings, Black and Cream Silk Laces in demi flounce and narrow match widths, Cambric Nainsook, Mull and Swiss Embroideries in matched and unmatched widths, Ghiffon Laces, all colors, the cheapest Lace Curtain stock ever shown, French and American Dress Cinghams, Outing Cloths, the well-made "W" brand of Muslin Underwear, and many other goods.

Twenty-five shades and mixtures of A. W. Novelty Cheviot Suitings at $3 59 a pattern.
We advise our patrons to do as we do: Buy Early and Secure Choice!

The Property Sold.
Yesterday forenoon Auctioneer Hervey sold at public sale the real estate of the late firm of Kloves, Kraft & Co., including the planing mill. The property was offered last week and bid up to $16,200, when the sale was postponed. Yesterday it was sold to the Kloves-Kraft Company, the successor of the firm, for $20,000.

In the Police Court.
There were four cases in the police court yesterday. Charles Smith, charged with disorderly conduct and carrying a concealed and dangerous weapon, was fined $2 and costs on each of the two charges, which fines he paid. The total of fines and costs was $20.20. Sam McElroy, who was charged with being drunk in a public place, was fined $1 and costs, which he paid. W. A. Duffy went to the hill in default of $1 and costs for the same offense. John Johnson, for the same offense, paid the customary $1 and costs.

A Killing Recalled.
Efforts are now being made to secure the pardon of William Bradford, sentenced for manslaughter for the killing of young George Keyser last fall in Belmont county. Keyser and another young man passed Bradford's home in Bellinre—the old Bradford House—late at night and made some remark to Bradford, who was sitting just inside near a window. He rushed out and struck Keyser, knocking him down. The other chap ran and Bradford after him. In the meantime Keyser got up and went home. Next day he walked about town, but his eyes were blackened and he suffered terrible pain in the head. Three days later he died.

Local Option in Ohio.
The liquor dealers along the Belmont county river front are said to be more alarmed now over the possibility of the local option bill recently introduced becoming a law than they are about the $1,000 license bill. The local option bill requires a vote upon the question at each November election and provides that after the canvass of the vote has been made the governor shall issue a proclamation setting forth the counties which have by a majority vote decided to stop the sale of liquor within their limits. Belmont county is said by good judges to be certain to vote the saloon out if the question is ever submitted by counties.

Transfers Recorded.
Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record three deeds of trust and transfers of real estate as follows:
January 5 by David L. Richmond to Martha A. Chambers, for $900, ten acres and 30 poles of land in Triadelphia district.
January 1 by George W. Chambers and wife to David L. Richmond, for $900, the above named land.
January 23 by Rosa Ann Gillies to James W. Hurley, for $2,500, lot 21 of the John Handlan property.
June 18, 1891, by William P. Hubbard, special commissioner, to E. D. Sarver, for $532, lots 2 and 4 on plat No. 2 of the William Porter estate.

In the Circuit Court.
In the circuit court yesterday the case of Alois Kuhn, charged with selling deadly weapons to minors, was tried to a jury, which failed to agree. This was indictment No. 2.
Ten indictments for robbery against Rosanna Bistell were nolleed. John and Ida Miller, the two children who have been held as witnesses against the two Bistell women, were released from custody on the motion of the prosecuting attorney.
On the chancery side Archie T. Hupp and William W. Irwin were duly appointed trustees of Nelson lodge, No. 30, A. F. & A. M., having been chosen by the members of that lodge.

Prof. D. M. Bristol's Equines.
Next week Wheeling people will have an opportunity to see one of the greatest shows on the road. It is not only great in the way of novelty, but it is the largest hall show ever transported from place to place. It is Prof. D. M. Bristol's Equine-Curriculum. It consists of thirty humanely educated horses, twenty-five people, a full band and orchestra, and it takes a whole train of cars to transport it. To make it the most complete show of the kind ever organized, the management have invested the sum of $80,000. This mammoth concern will be placed on the stage of the Opera House next Monday evening, to continue three nights with matinees on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. The entire performance is given by the horses, who do everything but talk. They are possessors of almost human intelligence, understanding everything said to them and obeying commands without being made to by the use of the whip or rein. All children attending the matinees of these horses are given a free pony ride.

"Love" at the Opera House.
To-night Mrs. Dr. Potts delivers her famous funny dissertation on "Love, Courtship and Marriage," and judging from the happy manner in which she handled the more gruesome subjects during the past week, to-night's lecture will not only prove an excellent literary treat, but intensely interesting. It will be for both ladies and gentlemen, and will be the only evening discourse delivered by the doctor during her stay in Wheeling. Yesterday afternoon's lecture to ladies only was well attended.

The Most Pleasant Way of preventing the grippe, colds, headaches, and fevers is to use the liquid laxative remedy Syrup of Figs, whenever the system needs a gentle, yet effective cleansing. ON TO CONNELLSVILLE.

A Report that Work on the New Railroad is to be Commenced

BEFORE THE SPRINGTIME COMES

Bobs up Again—It is so Persistent that there may be More in it than the Public has Thought—Some of the Current Talk Along the Line of the Proposed Road.

The report that the survey now being made of the proposed line of the Wheeling & Conneville railroad is more than a mere preliminary reconnoitering of the different lines comes up once a week or so, and from so many sources that one cannot help but wonder if there is not something in it after all. It was stated before the present survey began that the road would be commenced in the coming spring, but this report was always pronounced premature. Now the Waynesburg Independent comes to the front with some interesting talk about the road, with all the circumstantiality one could wish, in which this rumor is repeated, and the authority given. The story of the Independent is as follows:

The inquiry has been frequent from persons along the line of the Wheeling & Conneville (of course we mean the Waynesburg route) where are the engineers and where are the prospects? The great interest that is manifested on the part of the people of this county prompts these and kindred questions, and shows that our people are thoroughly aroused to the interests of this enterprise.
Mr. John Call, who has been working on a new process mill at Majorsville, W. Va., a village on the line of this road, situated on Wheeling creek, and just at the Greene and Washington county lines, arrived here Friday evening, bringing tidings of the movements of the surveyors. He said they had word from the surveyors every few days. On Thursday last they were about a mile from Majorsville, and a member of the corps engaged boarding for them at Samuel T. Alley's, and that they would be at his house Friday evening.

They spent Sunday in Majorsville, and the last we heard from them they were at Thomas Steele's, Monday, on Akeley creek, in Richhill township, about one and one-half miles from the state line. They were heading for Akeley's, and were making about a mile a day. They expect to spend Sunday at that point. It will be remembered that when this corps of engineers were put on the line they were given instructions to find the most practical line to Waynesburg. Four surveys have been made which center at Akeley's, three of which go through this county. Which way they will come by the Brushy fork of Brown's fork or Gray's fork of Ten Mile remains to be seen. The former is by way of Nineveh and the latter by way of Rogersville.

We are informed that the work being done is very thorough, and the stakes placed with great care. It is the opinion of some that it is a final survey, and the road is being located. The work is so accurate that it has taken the surveyors about four weeks to do the work from Elm Grove to Majorsville, a distance of twelve miles. A part of this line had never been run before, however. After the line has been intersected in this county, the work will, doubtless, not be so tedious, as the company already has a very accurate survey and complete drafts as made by the South Penn about nine years ago, and also a survey made by Frick & Mellon about two years ago. We may expect to see the surveyors pulling into this place soon. Our informant said that it was talked freely in that section, and with seeming authority, that the work of construction would commence about April 1. This, however, is mere conjecture, as the company would not likely make public any such information until the right of way had been secured and the route adopted. It is fair to presume, however, that the road will be built this year, but over what route is the question. The Waynesburg route is the most practical, and is by far the most beneficial to the business interests of Wheeling, so much so that all other routes sink into insignificance. The business men of Wheeling realize what this route means for them, in the way of diverting a rich trade to that city. We have all confidence in this enterprise, and we feel like impressing on our people the importance of them doing their duty in giving the right of way and all possible encouragement they can. We must have the road.

JOHN THOMPSON'S WIFE.

A Splendid Helpmate—How She Banked Her Husband.
The police have been investigating the pedigree of Mrs. Thompson, whose husband John was in the city yesterday, hunting her up. Thompson says he married Emma Jane Williams three years ago. He was injured in a coal mine shortly afterward, and while he was in the West Penn hospital at Pittsburgh, his fellow-employees collected a sum of money for him. He turned it over to his wife, and she, pocketing the money, ran off with a man named Pat Conley.
The police have ascertained that Conley and Mrs. Thompson came here, where the woman was employed in a Market street restaurant. In June she was arrested in a boat house, for collaborating illegally with a man named Wagner. After serving a jail sentence of thirty days, under the name of Emma Boigan, she left the city with a negro, to whom she was said to be married.
