The German Unemployed Men are Promised Relief.

WHAT THE AUTHORITIES WILL DO

To Relieve the Suffering—Wedding Anniversary of the Prince of Wales. The Floods in Spain—The Miners' Holidays in England—Other European News.

BERLIN, March 10.—Meetings were held in Leipzig to-day at which 2,000 out of employment were present. The distressing state of affairs in that city was fully discussed and a number of plans for bettering the condition of the workmen were debated. It was finally decided that delegates should be sent to the municipal authorities asking that public works for the relief of the distressed people be immediately started.

In Cologne 400 destitute men are to-day given employment on relief works started by the city officials. This was only a small number of all the great crowd of impoverished men who besieged the authorities for work, so they might purchase food for themselves and their starving families out of their earnings. Those who failed to obtain employment became riotous.

The burgomaster appeared, and made a mollifying and encouraging address. He said that the authorities were doing all in their power to alleviate the great distress prevailing and hoped that some means would soon be reached to accomplish this end.

He promised that they would try to find work for every one, and that in the meantime employment would be given to those of the men who were married and had families depending on them for their support.

Just Like Our Congress.

Rome, March 10.—An exciting scene occurred in the chamber of deputies to-day. Premier Rudini reproached ex-Premier Crispi, for discourtesy, and Crispi replied in a similar vein. An exciting exchange of charges and counter charges then occurred between the two statesmen. Finally the president of the chamber requested the premier to respect the rules of the house. The incident is the subject of much comment.

Their Wedding Anniversary.

LONDON, March 10.—Twenty-nine years ago to-day the Prince of Wales married Princess Alexandra, eldest daughter of the King of Denmark. At Windsor Castle, where the queen is at present sojourning, the bells are ringing, and a salute is being fired in honor of the anniversary. No festivities will be held at the castle.

The Spanish Floods.

MADRID, March 10.—It will be several days before railway and telegraphic communication is restored. Railway tunnels and bridges have been damaged by the heavy floods, and great damage has also been caused in the rural districts. No fatalities, however, have yet been reported.

The Miners' Holidays.

LONDON, March 10.—The Lancashire coal miners have adopted a resolution that their holiday beginning on March 12 shall not exceed a week in duration, instead of two weeks, as at first proposed. When they resume work, however, their work will be restricted to five days a week.

Against the Salvation Army.

LONDON, March 10.—The bill depriving the Eastbourne municipal authorities of the power to prevent the salvation army from parading the streets of that town with bands passed its second reading in the house of commons to-day.

The Grand Duke Better.

DARMSTADT, March 10.—The Grand Duke of Hesse, who on Saturday last was stricken with paralysis affecting his whole right side, and who it was thought was dying, has rallied and his condition shows marked improvement.

A Steamer Foundered.

Archbishop Ireland Defended.

ROME, March 10.—The pope has communicated to the newspaper Osservatore Romano, a note defending the most Rev. John Ireland D. D., archbishop of St. Paul, Minn., against the attacks made upon him by his enemies in the United States.

Reconciliation with Spain.

MADRID, March 10.—The senate to-day approved the commercial convention between Spain and the United States. The vote stood 90 in favor of the convention to 60 against it.

Mrs. Ballie Released.

LONDON, March 10.—The sentence of five years penal servitude imposed on Mrs. Gordon Ballie, the notorious swindler, expired to-day and she was released from custody.

All Approve It.

LONDON, March 10.—All the newspapers approve of the verdict in the Osborne case.

A Horrible Death.

CRAWFORDVILLE, IND., March 10.—John Stewart, a farmer residing near here, has just died a horrible death. Some time ago his pet dog showed signs of rabies. The dog was confined and soon died. In burying him Stewart allowed some froth from the beast's mouth to penetrate a wound on his hand. The hand began to swell at once and soon the whole arm from the shoulder was frightfully swollen and Stewart was raving mad. He suffered excruciating agony till last night, when he died.

Mr. Carnegie in Frisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., March 10.—Andrew Carnegie, the Pennsylvania iron manufacturer, and party, made a trip about San Francisco Bay yesterday, visiting the Union Iron Works and other points of interest. Mr. Carnegie was tendered a banquet by a number of prominent business men in the evening.

Married on Her Death Bed.

CLEVELAND, O., March 10.—Grace McKimney, an opera singer, and the Rev.

W. R. Stearly were married here last night. The bride was on a sick bed at the time of her marriage. Physicians say her illness is fatal and her death is momentarily expected.

"The Cadi."

To-morrow night Bill Nye's "Cadi" will be at the Opera House. Most everybody knows who Bill Nye is, and have perhaps many times laughed at his sayings and readings; but there are many yet who may not know that he has written a very funny comedy and what that comedy is about. Mr. Nye's experiences while acting as editor of the Laramie City, Wyoming, Boomerang some years ago suggested material for "The Cadi," which experiences he works out in the comedy with any amount of fun. "The Cadi"—what is a Cadi? Why, the oriental title for a justice of the peace, editor, postmaster and many other dignities which the Cadi in Nye's comedy is, and such a character does one find in him when the play begins at Owl Creek, Wyoming, in the magistrate's office in that town.

This Evening's Concert.

It is almost needless to say anything of the Redpath Star Concert company, which is to appear at the Opera House this evening, further than that it is composed of Miss Ella M. Chamberlin, the original whistling vocalist; Miss Edith Christie, violinist; Mr. Edward P. Elliott, humorist and dramatic recitals; Mr. John Francis Gilder, solo pianist; Master Cecil, (eight years old), songs and character sketches. Reserved seats are now on sale at House's music store, and they are in good demand.

"Little Lord MacLeroy" at the Grand.

The Grand contained a good audience last night to see Harry C. Gibson in the funny comedy "Little Lord MacLeroy." The creation of Michael MacLeroy is clever in the extreme. The support accorded Mr. Gibson is of the best, and the entire performance moves harmoniously and without a hitch. The specialties scattered throughout the play are new and catchy. They appear again this evening and will give a grand matinee to-morrow afternoon.

WHAT DO I NEED?

A Question Which Comes Home to Us.

"What do I need? I am feeling nervous, tired, and without my old-time snap and vim."

These are the feelings of thousands at this time of year, during the change from Winter to Spring. They are run down with Spring debility, malaria, or have overworked and overstrained brain, nerves and system, and feel dull, without energy; do not eat and sleep well; liver and bowels become torpid. Above all there is that restless nervousness, sense of anxiety, strange sensations, which plainly show that the nerves are not right. There is danger in these symptoms—the danger of nervous prostration, heart failure, paralysis or insanity.

The danger lies in neglect, however. Use Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great specific for these nervous diseases, when the first symptoms appear, and cure is sure. This wonderful discovery will calm, quiet and strengthen the nerves immediately, invigorates the brain, enriches the blood, and vitalizes the whole system. Purely vegetable and harmless. Druggists, &c.

"From the constant worry over business matters, I suffered from the loss of sleep, and became so nervous that I was entirely unfit for business. In fact, I feared insanity. I used Dr. Greene's Nervura. The effect was almost magical. I could again sleep; mental composure, appetite and strength returned. Six bottles of this remedy cured me, and I have remained well to this date. I have recommended Dr. Greene's Nervura to many of my friends and neighbors and have yet to learn of a failure to obtain good results."

S. W. Nourse, Hudson, Mass.

Dr. Greene, the successful specialist, in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 W. 11th street, New York, can be consulted free, personally, or by letter. Call or write to him about your case, or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining your disease, giving advice, etc., will be returned free.
