To Row a Skiff Race.
A skiff race for $25 a side between Joseph Lowman and Henry Floto, two cigarmakers employed at Henry Seamon & Son's cigar factory, has been arranged for. It will be rowed next Saturday, and one mile, straight away, is the distance. Both men are in active training and hope to be in good condition on the day of the race. The interest being taken is great, and betting is 10 to 7 in favor of Bowman.

A Clerical Change.
Mr. Thomas E. Marker, who for the past eight years has been assessor and collector of water rents for the city water board, has resigned his position, to take effect today. At a meeting of the board the resignation was accepted and Prof. Joe Kramer was selected to fill the vacancy. Oregon on Wheels.
The California idea has been adopted by Oregon. A very handsome car containing a display of the mineral and vegetable products of that state arrived in the B. & O. yard Saturday, and was on exhibition opposite the City Hall that evening and yesterday afternoon. It will remain this afternoon and evening. The display is very good, but not up to that made in the three cars of California. The car is lighted by electricity from a very neat dynamo made in that state.

Eight Ward Democrats.
The Democrats of Ritchie district met Saturday night to organize. Carl Butler presided, and Ed Hughes acted as secretary. The following permanent officers were chosen: President, Hermann Benz; vice president, John Menkemeyer; secretary, Ed Hughes; treasurer, Frank Heller; executive committee, John Manion, Will Hagedorn and August Schrumm. The executive committee was instructed to secure a hall for permanent quarters.
After the meeting sandwiches were served.

Two Deserved Promotions.

Mr. Walter Bloomfield, of the Riverside's main office force, has been promoted to the position made vacant by Mr. King's resignation, and will take charge this morning.

Made a New Man.
John Christy, the crippled cigarmaker, upon whom an operation has been performed at the City Hospital, is getting along very well and expects to be able to be out next month. Christy has been afflicted with club-foot from his birth, but when the operation was performed it was found that it was necessary to amputate only a part of one foot. The other foot the physicians twisted around in such a way that it will serve very well as it is. The tickets for the ball to be given by the cigarmakers for Christy's benefit at Turner hall on April 29, are selling well, over 400 having already been disposed of.

Saturday's Pollen Court.
In police court Saturday the witnesses of the disorder at the colored ball, who had failed to appear at Friday's session, and for whom rules had been issued, were dismissed, as they offered good excuses. Buck Tyler, Dave Grant and Dan Thomas, accused of participating in the row, were dismissed. Hattie Taylor was fined $1 and costs for being out on the streets for immoral purposes. As she claimed she was on her way to her mother's house in North Wheeling at the time, the fine was suspended. William Griffin and Arthur Cohen were fined $5 and costs for disorder, and Frank and John Fallstick $5 and costs for resisting an officer.

IN JAIL FOR STEALING.

Padge O'Neal Again in Trouble, and Under $1,000 Bail for Trial.

THE ALLEGED OFFENSE A FELONY.

He is Accused of Entering a House Yesterday Morning and Stealing $35—He is Surprised at His Arrest, but Hands Part of the Money to a Friend, and It is Recovered.

Yesterday Mrs. Etta Ditty, who keeps a somewhat notorious house in the Second ward, complained to the police that yesterday morning some time before 6 o'clock and after 4, Padge O'Neal entered her house through a window and stole a roll of money containing $35. She did not want to have Padge arrested for burglary or grand larceny, which are felonies and punishable with imprisonment in the penitentiary, but she wanted the money back and she wanted him prosecuted for trespass.

Yesterday afternoon Officer Wilkie was down street and he saw Padge standing on a corner. He called to him, and Padge went to where Martin Maloney was standing and handed him something. Wilkie arrested him and took him to headquarters, where he asked what the charge was, and seemed very much astonished when informed. He was locked up, and Squire Phillips telephoned for.

In the meantime Wilkie went back down town and found a man named Mullin, who said he saw O'Neal hand Maloney some money. Maloney when found turned over the money, and there was found to be $35 of it.

Squire Phillips came down to headquarters, and after hearing the statement of the facts committed O'Neal to the county jail in default of $1,000 bail for his preliminary hearing. O'Neal's father came up later and wanted to go on his bond, but the squire was not present and the prisoner spent the night in jail.

O'Neal was seen leaving the house by the window at which he entered, and one of the girls fired a revolver at him three times, but did not hit him.

IN FAIR BERMUDA.

The U. S. Marshal Writes a Letter giving their Experiences on the Way.

A private letter has been received from United States Marshal White, dated at the Hotel Hamilton, Hamilton, Bermuda, giving some account of the trip he and Clerk Dellicker, of the United States circuit court, had to that sunny land. These were the only two of a large party made up to go who showed up on pier 47 the day the Trinidad sailed for Bermuda. The trip out was delightful, and the West Virginia tourists were never absent from the dining saloon at a single meal, certainly a good record for such land lubbers. One hundred and twenty of the 150 passengers were seasick. The sea was rough, and one old traveler said he felt very sorry for Messrs. White and Dellicker when the ship sailed, but being an old sailor himself he would do what he could to make them comfortable while they were sick. After dinner the first day he retired to his room, and they did not see him again till the land of the lily and rose was reached. Then he summoned the two, when he heard from the porter that they had been well and jolly all the way across.

Mr. White adds: "I neglected to say, it's such a common thing here now, that peas, potatoes, lettuce, beets and all the list of vegetables are on the table every day now, and the climate is most delightful. Flowers are on all sides, and the sun has got in its work of tanning on my face."

Several Shots Fired.

Saturday night late four men attacked Bob Shorts, a cab driver, and knocked him off the seat. Officer Moran saw the trouble and chased the fellows, and as they would not halt for calling he fired his pistol in the air several times, equally without effect to stop their flight, but the shots attracted Officer Wilkie's attention and he ran in that direction and met two men running off. He arrested them and they will have a hearing this morning. They are Tony Maloy and a young fellow named Jeffers.

Locked up as Vagrants.

Yesterday morning Officer Ritz locked up two men, who were recognized as Frank Johnson and his brother. Frank was locked up here several months ago for disorderly conduct by Officer Gaus. Ritz thought they answered the description of two of the men engaged in the masked robbery at Findlayville, Pa., a short time ago, but the other officers do not think likely they are the men. They were locked up on a charge of vagrancy.
