LACE CURTAINS—GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

"SURELY those Curtains are worth more than $3 97 a pair," remarked a well posted lady while in our Lace Curtain Department Saturday. Well, they most certainly are; yet $3 97 is all we ask for them, and besides, we have over 100 other styles that are EQUALLY AS CHEAP. In brief, we have inaugurated a NEW DEPARTURE in this, as well as in other departments of our business. We have bought twice as many Curtains as usual, and reduced profits fully ONE-THIRD. Another all-important point to remember is, that we handle Curtains of acknowledged stability—the sort that does not easily wear and wash into holes! We have Lace Curtains in nearly two score grades, ranging in prices from 84c to $26 17 per pair, and the idea of purchasing should be dismissed until you have seen our stock.

B. & O. Train Delayed.

Several empty coal hoppers got off the track at Fetterman last night, and the midnight train from the east on the Baltimore & Ohio road did not arrive until about 1:30 this morning.

Made the Sum Good.

A traveling salesman for a jobbing house was arrested out in the state yesterday on a charge of embezzlement, and brought to the city, but he raised the amount he was short and was discharged without prosecution.

Insulted a Man's Daughter.

Isaac Thompson, an American, and Poli Castro, an Italian, were arrested yesterday for fighting. Poli Castro made an indecent proposal to Mr. Thompson's daughter, and the father proceeded to do him up. Unfortunately, however, the dago got the better of Thompson, and scratched his face up badly.

Accident to a Child.

About half-past seven o'clock yesterday morning Dr. J. H. Pipes was called to the residence of Alfred Wiek to attend the child of William Rennie, Mr. Wiek's son-in-law. The child, only eighteen months old, had fallen out of his crib. Dr. Pipes found that the child's left arm was broken in two places, and set the fractured member.

Under Suspicion.

Some weeks ago a charge was made that $500 had been stolen from a United States express package, which came here from Ireland. Detectives were put to work, and yesterday the route agent and an expert accountant were at work on the books yesterday, and as a result of their investigation it is alleged one of the employes of the office is under suspicion. His father has been sent for, and is expected to-day.

At Clerk Hook's Office.

David Ringer, aged 38, and Ora A. Harshman, aged 23, both of Washington, Pa., were yesterday licensed to wed. W. S. Arnett qualified as a notary public in Ohio county, giving bond in $250, with John A. Howard as surety.

Transfers of real estate were admitted to record as follows:

December 22, 1884, by Thomas Schofield and wife to James T. Goodwin, for $1,700, the north part of lot 45, on Jacob street.

March 21, by James T. Goodwin and wife to Sallie O. Meek, for $2,900, the same property above described.

March 24, by George Joseph and wife to Theresa Joseph and Catherine Nelson, for $500, the title of the parties of the first part to a lot on the east side of Market street in North Wheeling.

March 24, by James N. Taylor and wife to Hermann Feldmann, for $650, lot 10 in square 30 in Buena Vista.

WEST VIRGINIA EDUCATION.

The Word's Fair Committee Prepares a Plan for an Exhibit.

State Superintendent of Schools Morgan, City Superintendent Anderson, of Wheeling, and City Superintendent W. M. Straus, of Parkersburg, who compose the committee appointed by the West Virginia State Fair commission to recommend a plan for an educational exhibit for the state, had a long session yesterday in this city.

As a result of their deliberations a plan was drawn up for an exhibit which will give a thorough idea of the educational advancement of the state. This plan includes exhibits of the work of the public schools of the state, graded and ungraded, primary to high, of the State University in all its different departments, of the state normal schools, and of all private, denominational, parochial or other schools in West Virginia, besides the result of instruction, manual or other, in charitable and reformatory institutions.

Written work will be shown, educational periodicals, official reports, and histories on the school system and of leading private institutions of learning. There will also be photographs of school buildings, from the large modern house for a graded school in Wheeling to the log hut of Webster county. A comparison will also probably be made by exhibits of the photographs shown at Philadelphia in 1876 and those of the new buildings in the same localities. West Virginia will show up very creditably with her larger sister states in regard to educational advancement.

An Important Difference.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not affected with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a costive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

ENSHEIMER'S Cambric Underwear are the talk of the city.

THE TARIFF NOT A TAX.

A Common little Article with an Interesting Tariff History.

WHY AMERICANS MAKE GOOD FILES

When in Former Years they Imported all they Used—The Protective Tariff did this, and to-day Files are Cheaper in this Country than in England.

The little article of files, a tool used more or less by all mechanics, is a good illustration of the working of a protective tariff. To-day there is a high duty on files, yet they are sold cheaper in this country than they can be bought in England.

For instance, Wheeling jobbers all sell five-inch taper saw files at 65 cents, sometimes lower, never higher, per dozen. Yet the tariff on that very file is seventy-five cents per dozen.

In a letter from Philadelphia printed in the Iron Age of February 4, 1892, page 223, the writer uses files as an illustration of the falsity of the Democratic idea that "the tariff is a tax" in the following plain and convincing manner:

Refer to files as an illustration. In the year 1800 a 4½-inch English hand saw file was sold in this country at 85 cents per dozen, and a 12-inch English mill saw file at $3 10 per dozen. Then the consumption of files in the United States was estimated at about 10 per cent of American-made files and 90 per cent of foreign product, the comparison in 1891 being about 98 per cent of American and 2 per cent of English production, and the consumption many times greater than it was in 1800. At the present time the duty on 4½-inch hand saw files is 75 cents per dozen, and, to ascertain the present foreign cost, the writer, in anticipation of this article, cabled to England to ascertain the present discount, and, from a return cablegram quoting prices, we learn that the present cost in Sheffield for a 4½-inch hand saw file is 61 cents, whereas any good jobbing house from New York or Philadelphia to Chicago or St. Louis is quite willing to sell the best American 4½-inch hand saw files at 48 cents per dozen, being 20 per cent less than they can purchase the same quality of English file in Sheffield, to which would necessarily be added transportation, dock charges and the importers' profit. If theory was correct, the American manufacturers would be getting $1 36 for their 4½-inch hand saw files instead of 48 cents. A 12-inch mill saw file, for the best American make, is now sold by jobbing houses at $1 95. Standard foreign maker's cost would be, in Sheffield, $2 61, an advance of over 33 per cent cost in Sheffield above what American files are sold for. If the above theory was correct the Americans would be getting $3 91 for a 12-inch mill saw file instead of $1 95.

THE LIGHTS TURNED ON.

Beautiful Success of the Test of the Arc Lights at the City Electric Plant Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon witnessed the successful culmination of the work on the city's electric light plant, for which the public has been patiently waiting for months.

In the morning the new standards of the friction clutches were placed in position, which made every dynamo independent, so that any one could be cut off from the others while the entire shafting was revolving at full speed. This completed all the machinery to be placed in the building. These had been delayed a few days on the road.

As everything was working smoothly and nice it was determined to test the lamps. At thirty minutes past four the lights were turned on for the first time. Mr. Albert Franzheim, who has been actively interested in the plant ever since its inception, turned the cog wheel of the dynamo that lighted a row of twenty of the lamps, all of which burned with a beautiful, steady, clear white light, without the slightest sign of flickering.

If the lamps burn as nicely throughout all the circuits, the city will have a system of street lighting to which it can point with just pride.

Every part of the machinery is working smoothly without the slightest jar or vibration. Only the south engine was run yesterday. To-day both will be started, and all the lamps now hung will be tested.

"Tom's Vacation" Makes a Hit.

A large audience greeted Ray L. Royce and his clever company of musical and comedy specialists at the Grand Opera House last night, and was highly pleased with the performance. "Tom's Vacation" is a refined medley of bright and artistic specialties. Ray L. Royce in his various characters showed remarkable talent. He is a versatile artist. A. R. Brooks, Charles Horwitz and charming Jessie Lindsay were all excellent in their roles, while the wonderful banjo selections of Arthur C. Moore and Lizzie Royce were the best in their line. The company closes the engagement to-night, and should be greeted by a large house.

"The Private Secretary."

Of this play, to be again at the Opera House this evening, an exchange says: The whole cast was so excellently selected and played so evenly and well, that it is hard to pick out any deserving special mention above their fellow actors. Indeed, "Do you know," that "The Private Secretary" is one of the best comedies on the road?
